

DOWN THROUGH THE

1937—Bing Crosby is there to greet the first fan through the gate as Del Mar opens on July 3. About 15,000 turn out that afternoon for the first of 22 cards in the track's inaugural season.

1938—The famous Seabiscuit-Ligaroti match race is held on August 12 and it draws 20,000 to the track and a nationwide radio audience. After a furious duel, Seabiscuit under George (The Iceman) Woolf and 130 pounds beats Ligaroti and Noel (Spec) Richardson at 115 by a nose.

1939—Roaming the Del Mar backstretch this year as neophyte trainers and grooms are Charlie Whittingham, Noble Threewitt, Dale Landers and Leonard Dorfman.

1940—Del Mar establishes itself as a playground for the stars. If you attend the meet this summer you might find yourself bumping into Dorothy Lamour, W. C. Fields, Paulette Goddard, Edgar Bergen, June Haver, Ann Miller, Don Ameche, Ava Gardner, Red Skelton and, of course, Bing Crosby and Pat O'Brien.

1941—Del Mar presents its longest meet to date—32 days—and draws average crowds of just over 7,500 daily. Ferril Zufelt (48 wins) is the top rider, F. S. Baker and Mozier Helm (13 wins each) are the top trainers and the R. C. Stable is the leading owner with $14,575 in purses.

1942-43-44—Del Mar is 'dark' as the U.S. plunges into World War II. Initially, the grounds are used for training by the Marines, then for manufacturing parts for B-17 bombers.

1945—The war ends and Del Mar begins again. When Japan surrenders, President Truman declares a national holiday for August 15 and 20,324 turn out at the track and bet a whopping $958,476, a Del Mar record.

1946—Indian Watch and War Allies deadheat for the win in the first running of the Bing Crosby Handicap. The six-furlong dash goes on to become the track's annual sprint championship and year after year draws the quickest in the west for speed battles deluxe.

1947—The Santa Fe Railroad brings both racehorses and bettors south to Del Mar to do their thing. Cheering the arrival of the "racetrack special" from Los Angeles becomes a popular tradition for the locals.

1948—A new crop of Hollywood types makes Del Mar the spot to be for summer frolic. Among the celebs who join in the turf and surf fun this year are Lucille Ball, Desi Arnaz, Betty Grable, George Jessel, Mickey Rooney and Jimmy Durante. Durante becomes such a regular that the track eventually names its turf course in his honor.

1949—A young rider out of Texas sets a Del Mar record of 52 wins at the meet and becomes the first apprentice to claim the track's riding title. His name is William Lee Shoemaker, and his history and the track's will intertwine hereafter.

1950—It's the "Kid" vs. the "Vet" at Del Mar as Bill Shoemaker and Johnny Longden go head-and-head all summer for the riding crown—finishing in a 60-win tie.

1951—Bandleader Harry James makes a blast with Big Noise, a colt he named for his famous trumpet. The juvenile captures the Del Mar Futurity with Ralph Neves in the irons.

1952—For the first time Del Mar's average daily crowd climbs into the five figure range when the 41-day meet draws 426,691, a daily average of 10,433. The average daily pari-mutuel handle for the year is $760,058.

1953—The track presents its richest stakes schedule thus far with 10 events worth $130,000 in added money. Leading rider Bill Shoemaker wins half of them, giving him five of the 94 added-money races he'll capture during his unparalleled Del Mar riding career.

1954—It's that Shoemaker fellow again, this time winning a remarkable 94 races during the meet's 41-day run, a Del Mar standard that may never be topped. Shoe teams up with trainer R. H. (Red) McDaniel that year to nearly break up the game at the seashore: McDaniel saddles a record 47 winners, giving Shoemaker a leg-up on 42 of them.

1955—An Argentinean filly named Cipria wins a maiden race by a head September 1 and pays her backers $263.40 for each $2 bet to win, a Del Mar record that still stands.

1956—John Longden becomes the world's winningest rider—passing Sir Gordon Richards—when he boots home Arrogate in the Del Mar Handicap on September 3, Labor Day, for victory No. 4,871.

1957—The tough and versatile handicap horse How Now wins the six-furlong Bing Crosby Handicap and the nine-furlong Del Mar Handicap during the season. The two stakes wins are the first of five he'll accomplish at the track, a mark that has been tied (Flawlessly), but not surpassed in the track's history.

1958—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Turner, Jr.'s Tomy Lee wins the Del Mar Futurity by three lengths under Bill Shoemaker. The following year Shoe and the English-bred colt by Tudor Minstrel combine to capture the Kentucky Derby.

1959—The CTBA Selected Yearling Sales, now in its sixth summer at Del Mar, draws the get of such stallions as Royal Charger, Determine, Alibhai, Helioscope, Citation, Berseem and Imbros. One hundred and one head sell for a total of $613,000 as buyers look for the likes of such recent Del Mar yearling bargains as Lucky Mel, Old Pueblo, T.V. Lark and Silky Sullivan.

1960—Del Mar unveils its brand-new seven-eighths mile turf course with its unique diagonal chute that allows for mile and one-sixteenth and mile and one-eighth starts. The course is an instant success.

1961—Trainer Charles Whittingham saddles W.M.

Ingram's Scotland for a victory in the Del Mar Handicap. It is the first of 74 stakes victories at the seaside course for the shiny-domed conditioner, who goes on to become one of the greatest handlers of horses the game has ever known.

1962—Crazy Kid, one of the fastest horses to ever come out of California, wins a division of the six-furlong Bing Crosby Handicap in a world's record 1:07 3/5. Later that summer he runs a mile and one-eighth in 1:47 3/5 to capture the Del Mar Handicap.

1963—It's a season for track records to tumble. Pirate Cove runs a mile in a rapid 1:33 3/5, a main-track mark that is to stand for the next 25 years. On the turf course, the teletimer can't keep up with the horses: Victory Beauty sets the standard at 7 1/2 furlongs with a time of 1:29 3/5; the same horse runs 1 1/16 miles in a record 1:43 3/5, and Puyallup establishes a new yardstick for 1 3/8 miles at 2:18 3/5.

1964—Del Mar presents its silver anniversary summer season at the course "where nobody's in a hurry but the horses." Racing secretary Barry Whitehead comes up with a stakes and purse distribution of $1,500,000, which averages out to about $35,000 in prize money for the 42 days.

1965—The sea breezes dance around some of the sport's biggest names in the track's winner's circle. The leading rider is William Hartack, he of the five Kentucky Derbies. The leading trainer is Farrell Jones, capturing the sixth of his record 11 turf and surf titles. And the top owner is Louis Rowan, the man behind Coursing, Ruken and Quicken Tree.

1966—A list of the track's top five riders and top five trainers looks like this: Riders—Donald Pierce, Alvaro Pineda, Jerry Lambert, Rudy Campas and Bobby Jennings; Trainers—Farrell Jones, J.L. Mosbacher, Clyde Turk, James Jordan and Riley Cofer.

1967—Del Mar tries an experiment with a second meeting, running 42 days in the summer and 20 in the fall. The summer stand draws 10,028 a day, while the fall manages 4,173. On the pari-mutuel end, the summer portion does a daily take of $955,687, with the fall meet falling to $400,033. The experiment is not repeated.

1968—One of America's premier race callers, Harry Henson, takes up his summer post at the Del Mar mike for the first time, after making his local bow at the fall session in 1967. For the next 16 years his husky baritone massages the faithful at the horse heaven by the Pacific.

1969—Clement L. Hirsch's Figonero fires big in the lane to win the Del Mar Handicap over Triple Tux. The South American import's winning time for the mile and one-eighth—1:46 3/5—establishes a new world record.

1970—Bill Shoemaker boots home a filly named Dares J on September 7, Labor Day, at Del Mar and surpasses John Longden as the winningest rider of all time. Longden greets Shoe in the winner's circle after victory No. 6,033.

1971—For the only time in its history, the Del Mar Futurity is divided and the results turn out to be quite similar. In the first division, favored MacArthur Park wins easily under Bill Shoemaker, while in the second, favored D.B. Carm also scores easily under Fernando Toro. Both colts run seven and one-half furlongs on turf in 1:29 and take home $41,975.

1972—A young Midwestern horseman named Jack Van Berg ships Mongo's Pride to Del Mar and wins his first seaside stakes race in the Escondido Handicap. Van Berg goes on to saddle more than 6,000 winners, though he doesn't capture another stakes at Del Mar until Beyond Perfection scores in the 1990 Del Mar Debutante.

1973—Del Mar inaugurates the "Rocking Chair Derby," a gathering of former riders for a return to glory in one exhibition race each summer. Racing's answer to baseball's "Old-Timers Game" draws eight soon-to-be-sore veterans: Ken Church, Dean Hall, Bill Harmatz, John Longden, Pete Moreno, Ralph Neves, George Taniguchi and Angel Valezuela. After the dust and nostalgia settle, Hall gets to ride the rocking chair in the winner's circle.

1974—Ambassador Maxwell Gluck's famous Elmendorf colors fly on top of the owners' roster at Del Mar as the top money maker at the session. Those same gold, blue and white silks lead the seashore parade for the next four summers, too.

1975—Show biz sparkles in the Del Mar winner's circle as movie producer Howard Koch and actor Telly Savalas get their charge Telly's Pop to win the Del Mar Futurity. Though visions of Derbies-to-come were not to be, on this sunny afternoon lollipops aplenty were raised in cheers by trackside star-gazers.

1976—"The Pirate" from Panama, Laffit Pincay, Jr., wins six races on opening day en route to 86 tallies and the first of his five Del Mar riding titles. During his exceptional summer stand, the muscular jockey also captures 12 stakes races, a record that has since been tied but not surpassed.

1977—Bing Crosby makes one final visit to the track he founded, then dies later that year of a heart attack. His memory lives on at Del Mar each summer, though, by virtue of lore, legend and his now famous rendition of "Where the Turf Meets the Surf."

1978—A trainer making the switch from Quarter Horses to Thoroughbreds lets the racing world know he's for real when he cuts loose a flashy filly named Terlingua to capture the Del Mar Debutante. The trainer's name is D. Wayne Lukas and he goes on to racing success at unprecedented levels.

1979—As the track completes its first decade under the control of the Del Mar Thoroughbred Club, attendance (17,449 per day) and handle ($2,696,598 per day) show a rise for the 10th straight year.

1980—Mary Lou Tuck strikes a blow for liberation when she pulls off a stakes double with the gray battler Go West Young Man. The trainer sends him out to capture both the Eddie Read and Del Mar handicaps, the biggest wins ever scored by a female conditioner in Del Mar history to that point.

1981—A late-running gray horse carries rider Eddie Delahoussaye and trainer Edwin Gregson to the winner's circle following the finish of the Del Mar Futurity. The following spring Gato del Sol takes those two to the winner's circle again, this time in Kentucky's famed Run for the Roses.

1982—It's a winning year for juveniles at the track as Landaluce triumphs in the Del Mar Debutante for trainer D. Wayne Lukas and goes on to be named 2-year-old filly champion, while Roving Boy captures the Del Mar Futurity for trainer Joe Manzi and picks up an Eclipse as top 2-year-old colt.

1983—If you like to watch Eclipse winners run, Del Mar is the place to be this year. Althea (2-year-old filly champion) wins the Del Mar Debutante, then beats the boys in the Del Mar Futurity. Heartlight

No. One (3-year-old filly champion) takes the Del Mar Oaks. Bates Motel (champion older horse) captures the San Diego Cap. And Chinook Pass (champion sprinter) is best in the Bing Crosby Handicap.

1984—Del Mar adds a seven-furlong chute to its repertoire, as well as a new voice. Trevor Denman, the South African racing commentator whose colorful style changes the nature of race calling in the United States, takes command of the microphone on the Del Mar roof. Thereafter it's "And away they go."

1985—Del Mar completes an underground tunnel into its infield and fans flock to the center of the track for picnics, rays, Frisbee flings and close-up views of the Thoroughbred action. It quickly becomes hard to believe that the infield hasn't been part of the track forever.

1986—Del Mar runs its richest race ever — the $300,000 Del Mar Invitational Handicap — and Clement L. Hirsch's South American-import Raipillan comes away a surprise winner. And, despite bucking competition from the California lottery for the first time, the track establishes a new betting mark with a daily average handle of $3,752,311.

1987—Bill Shoemaker and Charlie Whittingham team up for the third time to win the Del Mar Handicap, here with a horse named Swink. The tally is the 94th and final stakes victory at Del Mar for Shoe, who goes out in style: Swink sets a track and stakes record of 2:13 4/5 for 11 grassy furlongs.

1988—The big names abound this summer: Gary Stevens wins his second straight seaside riding crown; Chris McCarron wins 10 stakes races; D. Wayne Lukas wins his third training title; Fred W. Hooper is the leading owner; Precisionist breaks a 25-year-old track standard with a mile in 1:33 1/5. If that isn't enough, Inter Track Wagering comes to the seashore and pushes daily handle ($6,749,971) and attendance (33,100—counting satellites) through the roof.

1989—Del Mar becomes the leading track in the country with a daily average handle of $7,320,623; Olympic Native sets a track record for seven panels (1:20 1/5) in winning the Pat O'Brien B. C. Handicap; and Bill Shoemaker goes out a winner for the 889th and final time in his very last ride at the seaside oval on September 10.

1990—Del Mar retains its hold as the nation's leading track with a daily average handle of $7,510,867. The track also announces plans for its richest race ever—the $1,000,000 Pacific Classic for 1991—and finalizes a program for the start of a new $80,000,000 grandstand following racing in '91.

1991—The hometown horse—John and Betty Mabee's Best Pal—zooms to an impressive tally in the $1,000,000 Pacific Classic as the lone 3-year-old in the powerhouse lineup for the inaugural edition of the track's richest and most prestigious race ever; Del Mar retains its place atop the nation's list in daily average handle ($7,806,430) and moves into the No. 1 spot for daily average attendance (37,072); and, with the close of racing on September 11, the wrecking ball lands on the old grandstand and the rebuilding begins.

1992—The "new" Del Mar—well, half of it, anyway—is unveiled, causing a striking juxtaposition of the track's past and future. This temporary arrangement, which features a rebuilt grandstand section alongside the old Clubhouse and Turf Club, will last only for one year. Out on the track, Peter Wall's Missionary Ridge scores as the longest shot in the field in the second edition of the $1,000,000 Pacific Classic and Del Mar continues its reign as the nation's leader in both daily average handle ($7,699,259) and attendance (35,384).

1993—The truly "new" Del Mar, $80-million worth, is dedicated by Governor Pete Wilson. Trainer Bobby Frankel makes it two-for-three in the $1-million Pacific Classic with 505 Farms and Nahem's Bertrando, Laffit Pincay, Jr. wins the 8,000th race of his remarkable career and the track continues its run in the racing heavens with average handle ($8,122,609) and attendance (34,415).

1994—Del Mar leads the nation in daily average attendance (35,849) for the fourth straight year and reaches a new high in daily average handle at $9,603,271. Trainer Bobby Frankel continues his Pacific Classic dominance by registering his third score in the race, this time with Juddmonte Farms' Tinnors Way. Owner Verne Winchell, trainer Ron McAnally and jockey Alex Solis pull off a nifty double when they capture the meet's top two juvenile events with Call Now (Debutante) and On Target (Futurity).

1995—With simulcasting pushing the envelope's edge even further out, the track takes yet another jump in the world of average daily handle

DOWN THROUGH THE YEARS

($11,263,896), while remaining atop the list for daily average attendance (33,150). In one of the most bizarre incidents in Del Mar's history, a suicidal fan dashes onto the track and runs among a field of oncoming horses, somehow managing to avoid killing or injuring himself and the eight Thoroughbreds and their riders. Trainer Robert Frankel just won't let the Pacific Classic loose, as he wins it again with Tinnors Way. And a rejuvenated Chris McCarron captures his fifth seaside riding title—but first in 11 years—by winning the last race on the last day of the meet.

1996—The track experiences its most exciting day ever when a record throng of 44,181 comes aboard to watch the mighty Cigar attempt to break Citation's 16-consecutive-wins mark in the sixth Pacific Classic. But the roar turns to a hush of disbelief as unheralded Dare And Go upsets the champ. Buoyed by the big day, Del Mar once more ranks among the cream of the game's crop—daily average attendance of 31,587 (1st nationally) and daily average handle of $11,677,827 (2nd nationally). Finally, on closing day, a young colt bound for glory named Silver Charm wins the Del Mar Futurity.

1997—The track continues to do outstanding numbers—30,578 for daily average attendance (1st in nation) and a record $12,115,024 for daily average handle (2nd nationally)—amidst the turf and surf and fun and sun. Gentlemen puts his stamp of class on the Pacific Classic; trainer Bob Baffert fires nothing but bullets out of his barn; Kent Desormeaux announces he's back as a serious riding force on the Southern California scene; and Golden Eagle Farm wins the owners' title en route to an Eclipse Award for John and Betty Mabee.

1998—Del Mar crowns a couple of new kings—trainer Ron McAnally and rider Laffit Pincay, Jr. The former sends out his 375th Del Mar winner, surpassing the long-held standard for most seaside victories set by Farrell Jones, while Pincay—overcoming an injury that had him on the sidelines for most of the meet—registers tally No. 890 to go past the shore oval's previous riding champ, Bill Shoemaker. The attendance and handle continue to ride high, while Bob Baffert, Corey Nakatani and Golden Eagle Farm are respectively the best of the best in the trainer, jockey and owner ranks and the flashy gray/roan Free House takes the $1-million Pacific Classic.

1999—Golden Eagle Farm (John and Betty Mabee) wins its sixth owners' title, eclipsing the famed Elmendorf connections as Del Mar's winningest owners ever. Leading the Golden Eagle '99 charge is the white-footed whirlwind, General Challenge, who romps in the rich Pacific Classic. Trainer Bob Baffert accomplishes an amazing feat when he wins all five of the track's Grade I races, four of them with leading rider David Flores in the boot.

2000—For the 10th year in a row, Del Mar and its satellites top the nation in daily average attendance (27,960). Robert Frankel does it again (!) when he saddles Skimming to take the Pacific Classic for the trainer's fifth win in 10 runnings of the $1-million race. Bob Baffert captures his fourth straight conditioning title and rising star Victor Espinoza is champion rider. And it all gets seen on the track's new video boards in the infield and the paddock.

2001—There is talk of changing the race name from the Pacific Classic to the Robert Frankel when the Hall of Fame trainer does his déjà vu magic with Skimming for an unprecedented sixth win in a single $1-million race. The victory helps Juddmonte Farms become the first Del Mar owner to top $1-million for a season ($1,150,954). And it's that Bob Baffert fellow as champion trainer once more, while Alex Solis goes back on top among the riders.

2002—The track loses one of its great leaders when John C. Mabee passes at age 80, but carries on the tradition he helped put in place, including his grandest idea of all: the $1-million Pacific Classic (captured this year by the 3-year-old ace Came Home). Daily average handle goes to an all-time high ($12,351,679); a rejuvenated Patrick Valenzuela wins a riding title for the first time in more than a decade; Bob Baffert takes his sixth straight training title, and The Thoroughbred Corp. captures its first owners' crown.

2003—Del Mar was saddened with the passing of two of its riding stars, John Longden and Bill Shoemaker. South American ace Candy Ride sets a track record (1:59.11) in winning the Pacific Classic. The betting goes higher still with another record season ($570,903,890). Bob Baffert and Pat Valenzuela are the training and riding champs again, and Valenzuela and Hall of Famer Julie Krone — making a big splash in her first season at the shore — put on a match race for the ages with P Val winning it by a whisker.

2004—The numbers are still nifty, with a record total handle ($580,382,206) equating to a record daily average ($13,497,260), aided by another on-track attendance increase — the fourth straight — to an average 17,052 per day. Purses reach an all-time high (a daily average of $559,349) and there is a record Pick Six payout ($2,100,017) to one lucky bettor. Pleasantly Perfect is the Pacific Classic star, making sure Gerald Ford's Diamond A Racing Corp. is Del Mar's leading owner, while jockey Corey Nakatani and trainer Doug O'Neill prove best of their respective rivals. On a lone sour note, the track hosts what may prove to be the last Del Mar yearling sale, a summer staple at the shore since 1954.

2005—Once again the marks for its betting standards tumble as fans find the Del Mar product alluring and they send a record $608,916,117 through the wickets for a daily average of $14,160,840. Reflective of this, a single-day handle mark is set ($24,004,733) and purses reach a new pinnacle at $592,406 per day. An ownership group headed by Rancho Santa Fe's Jon Kelly hits it big with Borrego in the $1-million Pacific Classic and Victor Espinoza earns his second jockey crown while Jeff Mullins wins his first trainer's title. "Sing Along With Bing" is born, "Four O'Clock Friday" continues to pack 'em in and turf and surf, fun and sun has never seemed better.

2006—Opening day is a dandy — 42,005 turn out, the second-largest crowd in track history — and the tone is set for another fun and sun run through the summer. The explosive Lava Man captures Pacific Classic No. 16, thus becoming the first to sweep California's three Big Ones (S.A.'Cap, H'wood Gold Cup) in one year. Leading rider (again) Victor Espinoza does something never done at the shore oval before when he wins seven races on one card on Labor Day. And California's new training kingpin, Doug O'Neill, earns his second Del Mar title.

2007—The Polytrack Era dawns at Del Mar, all $9-million worth of it, and the new main-track surface brings slower times, but safer trips for horses and riders. Another Opening Day onslaught — 42,842, second-largest crowd in the track's history — kicks things right off and the Pacific Classic Day handle — $24,667,351 — is the largest one-day run at the wickets in the seaside course's 68 summer seasons. Student Council surprises in the Classic, while Michael Baze captures his first Del Mar riding crown and trainer Doug O'Neill takes home his third in the past four years.

2008—The seaside oval charges out of the gate with an Opening Day record crowd — 43,459. Battling a recession-bound economy heading south, it takes a mild hit at the gate and the wickets, but manages to hold its own in the end. A tweaked Polytrack allows for faster times while continuing to reduce catastrophic injuries. The eastern invader Go Between snatches the Pacific Classic, as newcomer Rafael Bejarano and old pro John Sadler win their first jockey/trainer crowns.

2009—For the first time since 1945, Del Mar runs five days per week, dropping its Monday programs (with the exception of Labor Day) in an adjustment to a tough economy and a declining horse population. And less proves to be more. The seaside track's 70th racing season sees ups in on-track attendance and handle as fans and horsemen respond positively to the switch. Opening Day, which has become an event all unto itself, establishes a new record when 44,907 fans start things with a rush. Richard's Kid pulls off a big surprise in the Pacific Classic and John Sadler is training champ (again), while Joel Rosario wins his first shore riding crown.

2010 — Despite a continuing recession that puts the squeeze on businesses everywhere, the track manages to increase its daily on-track body count to 17,906, numbers that haven't been seen on the local scene since pre-ITW days. Leading off the action is that racing world buzz event, Opening Day at Del Mar, which draws a single-day record of 45,309. The mighty Zenyatta wins her third straight Clement L. Hirsch Stakes and Richard's Kid makes it back-to-back in the Pacific Classic. Doug O'Neill is the training champ again and Joel Rosario — with a tally in the last race of the season — wears his second straight riding crown.

Zenyatta brought racing fans just about the two best things a racehorse can bring: spine-tingling excitement and sheer joy. Her daring dashes through the lane — locomotive-like, breathless, cliff-hanging, oh-no-she's-going-to-get-beat — were the stuff of script writers' dreams turned into real-life dramas and played out again with near Swiss synchronization.

Winning is a tonic, an elixir that lifts up even the heaviest head. She gave us that — once more and once more and once more. She took realistic expectations and made them surreal; she stretched beliefs into myths; she even — in the end — allowed losing to be winning, wrapping it in a garment of strength and desire so powerful that we all became part of something bigger.

And bigger she was — in fact and in mind — as in “larger than life,” as in 17-hands of power standing as tall and wide as any racemare has ever stood. Yet despite her imposing demeanor, her seeming aura of invincibility, there lived within her the playful soul of an artist dressed in a ballerina's grace. She would express that part of her being, her very kindness, to those who knew her best and to the lucky few who got to share nearby space with racing's version of a Living Legend. Her pre-race dances became just about as anticipated as her stretch charges, a music video waiting to unfold each time she appeared.

She made fans of people who knew nothing about horse racing, but who could understand magic. She made people who had given up believing believe once more. She gave females reasons to be proud they were one with her. She gave males a chance to stand smartly and salute. She most probably was your once-in-a-lifetime, even as she gave you a new lifetime to go looking. She was what you wished for, come true.

So now that her spell has been weaved, let us give one last shout out for all she was and did. And to Jerry and Ann and John and Dottie and Mike and Mario and Carmen and Michelle and Frank and Steve — and all her others — let us say thank you, thank you, thank you. Thank you for bringing her to us; thank you even more for bringing her back. And thank you so much for letting us all be part of Zenyatta.

Scenes from the

A summer at Del Mar means many things to many people, such as

1 — The thought that you had stepped into a time machine — but, no, it was real and live — when you went to rocking in the Infield with those bearded wonders ZZ Top, as they put down their Texas boogie for about the ten-thousandth time;

2 — The wiener whizzers winging on Labor Day, barking up a storm en route to a sideshow that thousands of cheering fans agreed was surely not a dog;

3 & 4 — In the never-ending search for winners, we give you one with a bird in the hand — C.C. Perkinson, crowned Del Mar's second Miss Cougar — and one with a handful of hope — boxing champion Floyd Mayweather, Jr.;

5 — And speaking of winning, don't tell jockey Joel Rosario and owners Ellen and Arnold Zetcher that it is anything but fun, as noted by their demeanor in the winner's circle after El Brujo tallied in the Pat O'Brien Stakes;

6 — The Charger Girls doffing their cheerleading gear and going with simple summer frocks for a visit to their hometown racetrack;

Summer of 2010

7 — Let's see, what is it I like most about the Saturday morning "Donuts at Del Mar" sessions — is it the interviews with the jockeys and trainers, the horses working out right in front of me, the juice and coffee, or...

8 — Starter Gary Brinson, an up-close-and-personal guy, cutting loose a field of runners in their quest for glory and gold;

9 — A bevy of beauties — chapeaus attached, of course — making the Del Mar paddock an even prettier sight than usual;

10 — Sailors from the aircraft carrier USS Ronald Reagan docking in the winner's circle as part of the fun of a day at the races;

11 — Outrider Jesus Camacho preparing to make a safe grab of a loose horse, thus defusing the danger in a racetrack scenario that always has fans holding their breaths;

12 — Fay Meitz, who appears to need all her might to hold her whopper up, winning grand prize honors in the track's opening day "One and Only Truly Fabulous Hats Contest";

13 — A trio of Del Mar security guards, (l-to-r Jerry Guiles, Stephen Meyers and Pete Brunhaver) with more than eight decades of military service among them and a long run as the track's daily flag raisers, taking a final turn in that role before passing on the duty to a new crew of fellow security members.

Del Mar's Impact Far-Ranging in Community

Since its inception in 1970, the Del Mar Thoroughbred Club has poured more than $714 million into the coffers of local and state governments, dozens of charitable organizations and equine research.

DMTC has paid $388.8 million in fees to the State of California, $247 million to the Del Mar Fairgrounds, $49.2 million for equine research at the University of California at Davis as well as individual California breeders, and donated $7.6 million to various charities.

A sampling of the charities that most recently have received direct aid from DMTC includes Grayson-Jockey Club Research Foundation, Winners Foundation, Children's Hospital of San Diego, San Diego Hospice, Disabled Jockeys, Don MacBeth Memorial Jockey Fund, Edwin J. Gregson Foundation, California Equine Retirement Foundation, Tranquility Farm, San Dieguito Boys & Girls Club and California Thoroughbred Horsemen's Foundation.

DMTC has also had a major impact on California cities, which have received $22.2 million in fees, including $9.8 million to the City of Del Mar.

A 1999 University of San Diego economics report found that Del Mar brought nearly $90 million into the San Diego economy each year.

The summer racing season at Del Mar, which is managed and promoted by Del Mar Thoroughbred Club and has earned a reputation as one of the world's great race meetings, draws tens of thousands of fans from around the state and country while boosting local restaurant and hotel attendance. Figures show that the normal North County hotel occupancy rate is 69.8%, a number that jumps up to 86.7% during the Del Mar meet, with many exceeding 90%.

The track also provides 3,800 jobs during the summer with a payroll of more than $25 million.

Del Mar Thoroughbred Club's Economic Impact Since 1970

- $388.8 million to state
- $247 million to fairgrounds
- $22.2 million to municipalities, including $9.8 million to Del Mar
- $7.6 million to charity
- $49.2 million to breeders/equine research
- Employs 3,800 during race meet
- $25.6 million annual payroll

Racing for Charity

Each summer Del Mar designates a portion of its proceeds from racing to charitable organizations in the community and in the sport that qualify under California law to receive such contributions. This arrangement dates back to racing at the seaside resort following World War II and has been carried forward by the Del Mar Thoroughbred Club during its 40-plus-year tenure.

Since 1946, a total of $8,525,807 has been raised through charity racing at Del Mar. Of that amount, $7,597,647 has been brought in by DMTC since it began operating in 1970.

The charity program is administered by a committee of the Board of Directors of the DMTC, subject to the approval of the California Horse Racing Board. In the past, beneficiaries of Del Mar charities have been United Way, local hospitals, equine-related charities, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, boys' and girls' clubs and a variety of other charities which serve Del Mar and northern San Diego County.

DMTC is delighted to work with and for the good people behind these charities and salutes them for their noteworthy efforts.

Definition of Del Mar Thoroughbred Club

Del Mar Thoroughbred Club (DMTC) was formed in 1968 by a group of notable California owners, breeders and community leaders whose main goal was the conduct of a first-class horse racing meet each summer at Del Mar on its fairgrounds. DMTC initially was granted a 20-year lease to conduct the Del Mar meet in 1970 by the state of California through the State Race Track Leasing Commission.

Although it is required to be organized as a taxable "for profit" corporation under California Horse Racing Law, the lease agreement assures that all "profits" generated by its operations are paid in the form of rent to the state through its controlling body on the fairgrounds, the 22nd District Agricultural Association, which in turn uses these monies primarily for facility upgrades and maintenance of the grounds. DMTC's directors receive no remuneration and any compensation paid to its year-round personnel is limited to ensure its reasonableness in the context of the racing industry in Southern California.

Based on its highly successful conduct of the sport during the first leasing period, DMTC subsequently was granted another 20-year operating agreement through the year 2009. That contract was extended one year through 2010 by the state when a further agreement for a new 20-year arrangement, subject to the exercise of options called for in the contract, was enacted to run through 2030.

Monday, September 5 – Fans have the opportunity to have their pictures taken with their favorite Del Mar riders in the Plaza de Mexico from noon to 1 p.m.

HANDICAPPING SEMINARS

Daily – Picking a winner at the races is made just a bit easier at Handicapping Seminars that the track conducts regularly over the course of the meet. Every day of the season – one hour before the first race in the Plaza de Mexico – a “Newcomers Seminar” takes place, led by old pro Bob Lovka.

Saturdays and Sundays (and Labor Day) – The track holds its long-running seminars featuring horsemen, media members and public handicappers as guests. They take place up near the head of the stretch in the Seaside Terrace area from 12:45 to approximately 1:30 p.m.

For the past 16 years, Del Mar has hosted an event that has become a guaranteed winner and a big fan favorite – “Jockey Photo Day.” On Labor Day, fans bring their cameras, Del Mar’s riders gather around the big fountain inside the main gate in the Plaza de Mexico and the smiles and instant memories begin.

Last year’s session provided lots of up-close-and-personal moments, including special ones with the following riders: 1) (l-to-r) Alex Gonzalez, Kerwin John and Rafael Bejarano; 2) Mike Smith; 3) Amir Cedenro; 4) Joel Rosario; 5) Martin Pedroza, and 6) Brice Blanc.

The 2011 edition of “Jockey Photo Day” once again will take place on Labor Day (September 5) from noon to 1 p.m. If you bring your camera and a smile, Del Mar’s riders will be there to greet you.

Del Mar Aids Don MacBeth Memorial Jockey Fund

Del Mar is proud to be a contributor again to the Don MacBeth Memorial Jockey Fund. For the past 18 summers the Del Mar Thoroughbred Club has provided payments to the MacBeth Fund in a variety of fashions. Since 1992, Del Mar has paid checks totaling $169,250 to the fund, which was founded in 1987 by now-retired Hall of Fame rider Chris McCarron and his wife, Judy, along with comedian Tim Conway. To date, the MacBeth Fund has paid out more than $5.9 million and aided more than 2,100 injured or disabled riders.

On Thursday, August 11, the group will hold its 14th annual charity night at Pamplemousse Grille (858-792-9090), right across from the racetrack, with Conway, his comic buddy Bob Newhart, McCarron and many local riders serving as guest bartenders and waiters for this popular fundraiser.
