Definition of Del Mar Thoroughbred Club
Del Mar Thoroughbred Club (DMTC) was formed in 1968 by a group of notable California owners, breeders and community leaders whose main goal was the conduct of a first-class horse racing meet each summer at Del Mar on its fairgrounds. DMTC initially was granted a 20-year lease to conduct the Del Mar meet in 1970 by the state of California through the State Race Track Leasing Commission. Although it is required to be organized as a taxable “for profit” corporation under California Horse Racing Law, the lease agreement assures that all “profits” generated by its operations are paid in the form of rent to the state through its controlling body on the fairgrounds, the 22nd District Agricultural Association, which in turn uses these monies primarily for facility upgrades and maintenance of the grounds. DMTC’s directors receive no remuneration and any compensation paid to its year-round personnel is limited to ensure its reasonableness in the context of the racing industry in Southern California.

Based on its highly successful conduct of the sport during the first leasing period, DMTC subsequently was granted another 20-year operating agreement through the year 2009. That contract was extended one year through 2010 by the state when a further agreement for a new 20-year arrangement, subject to the exercise of options called for in the contract, was enacted to run through 2030. American Pharoah

Champ Started at Del Mar; Returned to Train for Glory

Wonder horse American Pharoah, the 2-year-old male Eclipse Award winner of 2014 and the Horse of the Year (and the world) of 2015, cut his teeth at Del Mar, then returned to sharpen him for his very large bite of sporting greatness. The race colt—a tiger on the track but a sedate bear at the barn—first announced himself to the racing brotherhood with a nifty new win in the Del Mar Futurity. But that was just the beginning.

The Zayat Stables homebred, trained to the minute by Bob Baffert and ridden in silky fashion by Victor Espinoza, subsequently won eight of his next nine starts, including a not-been-done-in-37-years sweep of the Triple Crown. Then he capped it off by blitzing the best horses in the land in a remarkable Breeders’ Cup Classic score.

DelMartians will remember him as a precocious juvenile, then as a conquering hero who came back to strut his stuff in the mornings (drawing crowds not seen at shore workouts before) and on one marvelous afternoon when he “paraded” to the delight of more than 33,000. They took him to heart and their champion did them proud.
1 – Jockey James Graham is all in as the “dunkee” during a fund raiser for the Permanently Disabled Jockeys Fund;
2 – Lovely ladies aren’t the only ones adorned with hats at Del Mar, as the guys emphatically state in a paddock photo;
3 – Trainer Doug O’Neill rang the bell—a record five times!—on July 29 becoming the first conditioner in track history to win that many races in an afternoon;
4 – Chicago Bulls all-star Jimmy Butler hanging with a hoops fan trackside at Del Mar;
5 – Caitlyn Jenner and her entourage providing a circus-within-a-circus on Opening Day at Del Mar;
6 – Rider Martin Garcia showing that he fits right in with the fillies both out on the track and in the winner’s circle, too;
7 – It’s Vann Belvoir getting home by a ball and a half in the Hippity Hop trainers’ race to raise CARMA funds for retired racehorses;
8 – Horses racing on an “off” track for the first time since 1991;
9 – The star of Del Mar’s “America’s Next Race Caller” contest was 6-year-old Maddox Hackworth, who did a call in a Trevor Denman style that knocked out the crowd, as well as announcer judges (from left) John Lies, Vic Stauffer, Travis Stone and Denman, along with MC Todd Schrupp;
10 – Jockey Victor Espinoza and dancer Karina Smirnoff doing a paddock reprise of their “Dancing With the Stars” TV duet;
12 – Rider Cassidy Clerisse has some dirt on her cheeks, but a winning smile after scoring her first victory on August 13;
13 – That’s jockey Tyler Baze calling dibs on point guard as he’s joined by San Diego State basketballers (from left) Zylan Cheatham, Malik Pope, Max Hoetzel and Parker U’u;
14 – Rivers Cuomo, the leader of the alt rock band Weezer, getting into it in front of a big time Labor Day weekend crowd;
15 – And then, of course, the seaside oval drawing ladies with hats and, well, other things.
OPENING DAY HATS CONTEST

PICTURING THE JOCKEYS

Del Mar's riding colony – among the best in the business for both horsebackriding and fan-friendly interaction – earned kudos once more in 2015, flashing their peary whites and making folks happy left, right and center.

The popular “Jockey Photo Day” was a hit once again, as witnessed by:

1. Hall of Famer Mike Smith and a bevy of beauties;
2. Racing champ Rafael Bejarano getting and giving a thumbs up;
3. Frenchman Flavien Prat bringing on the joie de vivre;
4. Hall of Famer Mike Smith and a bevy of beauties;
5. Joe Talamo working his Cajun charms on a couple of belles as part of ‘Photo Day’;
6. Veteran Azain Gzyter hanging with a veteran racing fan, and
7. Alonso Quinonez demonstrating it's as simple as A B C to have fun.

And then there was the jockey clan gathering for its traditional Opening Day photo in the paddock.

NOTE: Beginning in 1989, total and daily average include inter-track wagering. Wagering in 1991 and total daily average include ITW and commingling.

"Donuts at Del Mar" - a fun morning of entertainment, prizes, racing information, celebrity guests, and—of course—donuts, will be back for its 25th season at Del Mar in 2016. The name behind "Donuts" is to give the general public—especially families with children—with an introduction to the world of thoroughbred racing. Track announcer Trevor Denman hosts the morning sessions—set against the backdrop of morning workouts—fielding questions from morning exercises fans and interviewing top jockeys and trainers. Crowds for the event have increased from an initial gathering of a few hundred to current crowds of several thousand.

Mar puts on the program in conjunction with Yum Yum Donuts and radio station Star 94.1 FM. Although the event is targeted to racing neophytes and the younger set, seasoned horseplayers enjoy the morning as much as newcomers.

NOTE: Beginning in 1989, total and daily average include inter-track wagering. Wagering in 1991 and total daily average include ITW and commingling.

Camp Del Mar

Camp Del Mar is an exciting day camp program for children 5-12 years of age that is off and running! Registration for Fall 2016/2017 is now open! Summer Camp opens when the gates to the racetrack open each day and closes 30 minutes after the last race. (Note: in July & August, summer camp is 8:30 am-5:30 pm.) Among its many activities are animal-crafted crafts, air hockey, a frisbee, the Hippity Hop Derby (Wed, Fri., Sat., Sun., miniature golf (Thursdays only), and outside activities. Admission includes admission to races, 1-hour lunch, all activities and snacks. No reservations are required. The camp is closed on Mondays (except Labor Day) and Tuesdays. For more information go to 858-755-1141, Ext 3990 or go to www.mdrl.com.
Chats On Top ground down his rivals to tally a length and a half for Santiago Gonzalo in the Sorrel Beach Handicap.

Champion Nyquist drew clear through the lane for Mario Gutierrez en route to a five and-a-quarter-length score in the Best Pal Stakes.

HIGHEST WIN PRICE: $41.00 – Sip One for Mom – 2006 • LOWEST WIN PRICE: $3.80 – Top Of Our Game – 2001 • Stakes Record indicated by bold face.

Barrett’s at Del Mar:

The 2015 Del Mar summer meeting provided an exciting platform for horses and their owners, offering over $15 million in purse money throughout the season. The meeting featured several Grade I races, including the Breeders’ Cup Sprint, the Breeders’ Cup Juvenile, and the Breeders’ Cup Distaff.

One of the highlights of the season was the Breeders’ Cup Sprint, which was won by American Pharoah. The race was held on November 7, 2015, at Santa Anita Park in Arcadia, California. American Pharoah, trained by Bob Baffert and ridden by Victor Espinoza, set a new record for the Breeders’ Cup Sprint, finishing the mile in 1:24.60.

In addition to the Breeders’ Cup Sprint, there were several other Grade I races held at Del Mar in 2015. These included the Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Turf, which was won by Tepin, and the Breeders’ Cup Distaff, which was won by Songbird.

The Del Mar meeting also featured several Grade II races, including the Pacific Classic and the Breeders’ Cup Mile. These races provided a great deal of excitement for horse lovers and racing fans alike.

In conclusion, the 2015 Del Mar summer meeting was a huge success, providing a great deal of entertainment and excitement for horse lovers and racing fans from around the world.

We Miss Eunie, Erin, and Pamela

Del Mar lost two very good friends this year. They will be sadly missed, but dearly remembered.

Eunie Myr was to many THE radio voice of San Diego for more than three decades starting in the 1950s. He had a marvelous radio voice, a friendly draw-you-in style and — among his other joys — a true love for Thoroughbred racing. Eunie called races, broadcast his shows from the racetrack and led tours to the Kentucky Derby. His all-time favorite racetrack was Del Mar and he was delighted when he did a stint as its satellite TV host. Eunie loved the people at the track, loved the stories, loved playing the game. He was a friend to all racing fans.

Pamela Schreckengost was an accomplished photographer and her work was published worldwide. Her annual photo travel calendar hung on many walls. She loved to take pictures of unique places, friendly cats and Thoroughbreds. The Ocean Beach resident joined with her husband Gerald in racehorse ownership with the Little Red Feather Racing Club. For the past half-dozen years, Pamela shared her love of horses with her friends at the Pacific Photographic Society and helped organize and lead all-day tours of the Del Mar backstretch. Pamela was one of many who were seeing a racetrack for the first time.

Eunie and Pamela were racetrackers. Del Mar pays homage to them as dear friends.

Del Mar’s second fall racing season in 2015 had its picturesque moments, such as:
1 – The paddock – so pretty, so popular, so covered in late-season shadows;
2 – Iration’s guitar and vocals man Micah Pueschel laying into a reggae riff during an after-the-races Saturday night show;
3 – Multiple-stakes winner Dortmund teaming up with Gary Stevens to handily capture the nine-furlong Native Diver Stakes;
4 – Those dashing doxies scampering down the stretch to fame, glory and maybe an extra bone or two in the San Diego finals of the Weiner Dog Nationals;
5 – Del Mar’s starter, Jay Slender, who pulled up horses de combat for the summer, putting those ills behind and getting back on track for the fall session;
6 – Trainer Doug O’Neill chalking up a noteworthy milestone on a Sunday afternoon at the seashore;
7 – It was a battle royale in the Hollywood Turf Cup and – excuse us but we just couldn’t resist – it was The Pizza Man delivering;
8 – Cataloging educational opportunities proving foremost on the list as local university types turned out for Del Mar College Day;
9 – Sharp-eyed fans noting a handsome wedding band on young Joe Talamo’s finger after he took a day off during the meet to enter into connubial bliss with the lovely Elizabeth;
10 – A trio of extra-fit runners (who also happen to be pretty good horsebackers) (l-to-r), Ty Kennedy, Rafael Bejarano and Mike Smith, readying to lead the charge out of the starting gate and once around the oval in Thanksgiving morning’s Family Mile Fun Run.
