♦ Del Mar thanks Equibase for their statistical aid in compiling this publication. Owners’ Del Mar statistics are for that owner, or owner group, only. No partnerships are considered, except where specifically noted.

On the cover: (Top) It appears that trainer Brian Koriner and jockey Aaron Gryder are in on the joke, but owner Samantha Siegel appears she’s not quite sure she wants to be as they pow-wow in the paddock at Del Mar in 2019. (Bottom) Veteran trainer Shawn Davis and young rider Ruben Fuentes trade information about a horse they just ran/rode during Del Mar’s 2019 summer session.

- Though the low-key Alexander demurs, it has been suggested he could wear the title “Mr. California Racing.” A quick check gives reasons why: has owned horses in the Golden State for more than 40 years; Los Angeles native chose to buy a farm in Santa Ynez and now lives on site as he breeds, raises and races his own stock from there; agreed to become chairman of the Thoroughbred Owners of California in 2016. All that, plus he never misses a chance to beat the drum for a game he loves. “I’m no big deal; just a regular guy who fell in love with horses,” he says.
- Graduated from Pasadena High, did two years at USC, then dropped out to do something he turned out to be exceptionally good at – selling automobiles.
- He sold Fords and Volkswagens, then found his groove with BMWs and opened his own dealership in 1979, later adding Mini Coopers.
- His popular radio campaigns using the catch phrase “Nick Can’t Say No” was something everyone in Tinseltown knew and helped him grow his import dealership into a hugely successful enterprise.
- As his auto business expanded, he had some fun on the side delving into a unique “California thing” -- collecting Woodies -- V-8 powered Ford and Mercury wood-bodied cars built between 1932 and 1952. His assembled collection, which experts called the world’s most comprehensive, grew to more than 60. In 2009, when he decided to transition from horse power under the hood to the four-legged kind, he sold the Woodies with most of the proceeds going to a charitable remainder trust, turned his dealership over to his son and daughter and headed north to the Central California wine and horse country of the Santa Ynez Valley.

- There he purchased his 280-acre ranch – Horse Haven – in the town of Santa Ynez and went all in as a rancher specializing in racehorses. These days he notes that the ranch is home to approximately 100 horses, including 30 broodmares, 25 to 30 racehorses and dozens of juveniles, yearlings and foals/weanlings. The former city boy now can be spotted atop his tractor helping to raise and harvest all the hay, alfalfa and feed needed for his growing equine population.
- Alexander recalls first dipping his toes into the Thoroughbred world in 1978 when he bought a small share of a horse that never won a race. But he followed that by purchasing a half interest in a runner named Pashanat Reb and – bingo! “He was just a wonderful racehorse; everything you’d want a horse to be,” Alexander said. “He won races, tried hard every time, he was exciting. Right then and there I was in love with horses and horseracing.”
- Subsequently, Alexander teamed up with claiming-trainer-deluxe Mike Mitchell and, over the next 30-plus years – despite a time or two apart – they assembled a well-respected barn full of runners and put together a solid run of success. Mitchell, sadly, died of the effects of brain cancer in 2015 and his chief assistant, Phil D’Amato, took over the stable. Alexander stuck with him, as well as sending some horses to another former Mitchell assistant, Steve Miyadi.
- Alexander now has gone from a “claiming” owner to a breeder/owner who produces 100% of his stable on his ranch. “Raising your own, then racing them. That’s the best,” he says.
- The key to that transition for him was his first “big” horse, the gray speedster Grazen, whom he bred, raced and now stands. The stakes winning son of the late California sire Benchmark does stallion duties at nearby Tommy Town Thoroughbreds in Santa Ynez (he covered approximately 65 mares this year), then returns to Horse Haven after the season to be the ranch’s chief pet. Alexander keeps him in a covered paddock alongside his house and can check on him from his living room window.
- Among Alexander’s top runners – all homebred stakes winners – have been Enola Gray, Pee Wee Reese, Sunday

Rules, S Y Sky, Tough Sunday and Just Grazed Me.

- Had his best year to date in 2019 when he had 147 starters, 26 winners and more than $1.7 million in earnings.
- Having grown up in Pasadena, it was natural for him to root for one of the town’s favorite sons -- a pretty fair baseballer named Jackie Robinson. That helped make him a lifelong Dodgers fan (even in their Brooklyn days), as well as a horse owner given to tying baseball names to his runners: For example, the previously mentioned Pee Wee Reese, as well as Preacher Roe, Clem Labine, Catfish Hunter, Van Lingle Mungo, Nap Lajoie, Sudden Sam (McDowell), Satchel Paige, Moose Skowron and Arky Vaughan.
- Family: Wife Mary; one son, one daughter.

- Got into racing through partnerships in Team Valor, and opened their own stable in 1996. First stakes winner was Valor Lady.
- Earned first Breeders’ Cup championship win in 2003 as Adoration cruised to a front-running victory in the Distaff, paying $83.40 to win.
- She returned in 2004 to win Santa Anita’s Santa Margarita Invitational Handicap, Churchill Downs’ Fleur de Lis Handicap and the Arlington Matron Handicap at Arlington Park. Retired that year with career earnings of more than $2 million.
- Along with Adoration, Amermans were represented by millionaires and multiple stakes winners Happyanunoit, a New Zealand-bred mare, Chilean champion Lido Palace and Balance, a half-sister to champion mare Zenyatta. In 2010 they sold her first foal (a colt by super sire A.P. Indy) for a Keeneland September Sales record topping $4.2 million.
- Their top money winner was turf ace Oscar Performance, a multiple graded stakes star who captured the 2016

Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Turf at Santa Anita, one of his seven graded stakes wins. Retired after the 2018 season with $2,457,632 in earnings and now stands at Mill Ridge Farm in Kentucky.

- Amermans have raced 16 different graded stakes winners.
- John is retired; formerly was chief executive officer of Mattel Toys.
- Member of the California Horse Racing Board from 2006 to 2008.
- Elected as a member of The Jockey Club in 2011.
- Amermans have been generous to good causes in racing, notably the California Equine Retirement Foundation (CERF). He serves on the board of directors of Tranquility Farm and previously was on the board of the Winner’s Foundation.
- Operate Peacefield Farm in Temecula, CA, a rehabilitation facility for injured horses, with daughter, Anne, serving as manager.
- Family: One daughter, one son

- She and her late husband, James, claimed their first horse in 1977 and her interest now encompasses dozens of racehorses, broodmares, weanlings and yearlings.
- She lost her stellar stallion Unusual Heat in 2017 to the effects of laminitis. The son of Nureyev was claimed by a partnership led by Auerbach and her husband on the recommendation of trainer Barry Abrams for $80,000 in 1996 at Hollywood Park. Two years later he was retired to stud.
- His initial success as a sire of winners mushroomed into a solid flow of versatile runners that did well on all surfaces. He reigned as California champion stallion for six straight years (2008 - 2013) and sired 50 stakes winners, including Eclipse Award winner Acclamation, as well as 15 California champions.
- Auerbach’s family moved from England in 1948, starting in Philadelphia before moving on to Texas and Ohio. She attended the University of Michigan before heading to Los Angeles at age 19.

- She met her husband-to-be at a custom shirt store in Beverly Hills when she took her mother there to see about a job. Five months later the two were married.
- TheAuerbachsstartedawholesale furnituremanufacturing business that was sold in 2004.
- At first reluctant, she grew to love the racing game and plunged into it fully after selling the furniture business. Son Harris is involved, too.
- Madeline served as a commissioner of the California Horse Racing Board between 2014 and 2019.
- Elected as a member of The Jockey Club in 2011.
- As a former member of the Thoroughbred Owners of California and with TOC backing in 2008, she helped found the highly successful California Retirement Management Account (CARMA), which steers purse money to horse rescue organizations in California. Since its inception, it has steered more than $4 million to accredited rescue farms in the state.
- Auerbach is also a driving force behind the Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance, a national organization that is designed to serve as both the accrediting body for Thoroughbred aftercare facilities and a fund-raising body to support them.
- Family: Two sons; one daughter.

Burt Bacharach

Born: May 12, 1928
Kansas City, Missouri
Reside: Santa Monica, California
Silks: Light blue, royal blue musical notes in circle on back, royal blue cap

- Famed entertainer-composer -- an annual visitor to Del Mar -- has had his most success in racing with Heartlight No. One, Soul of the Matter and Afternoon Deelites.
- Heartlight No. One, named for the Bacharach song performed by Neil Diamond and inspired by the film “E.T.,” won an Eclipse Award as 1983’s top 3-year-old filly. Soul of the Matter was fifth in the 1994 Kentucky Derby and retired with $1.4 million in earnings. Afternoon Deelites was eighth in the 1995 Kentucky Derby and lives at Kentucky’s Old Friends retirement facility.
- Bought first horse, Battle Royal, for $14,500 in 1968 and the horse won in his first start for the owner.
- His first trainer was the legendary Charlie Whittingham.
- First stakes winner: Advance Guard, who won the 1971 San Diego Handicap at Del Mar. Other stakes winners: Crumbs, who won Del Mar’s 1975 El Cajon Stakes,

- Video Kid and No No.
- Breeding operation named Blue Seas Music, the name of his music publishing firm. Breeding farm, Country Roads Farm, originally was in West Virginia but now is in Maryland.
 - Won an Eclipse Award for national television achievement in 1971; named “Big Sport of Turfdom” that same year.
 - Son of famed New York-based newspaper columnist Bert Bacharach.
 - Introduced to racing by friends of his parents.
 - Came west for summer school at UCLA but spent most of his time at the beach and the track.
 - Winner of three Academy Awards, two for best song; several Grammy Awards, two Emmys, one Tony and a Drama Desk Award.
 - Composed music scores for films “What’s New, Pussycat?,” “Casino Royale,” “After the Fox,” “Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid,” “Arthur” and “Night Shift.” Among top songs: “Raindrops Keep Fallin’ on My Head,” “Alfie,” “Walk on By,” “The Look of Love” and “What the World Needs Now Is Love.”
 - Responded to the tragedy of the devastating fire at San Luis Rey Downs late in 2017 by teaming with fellow musical giant Elvis Costello to stage a benefit concert at Belly Up Tavern in nearby Solana Beach which raised more than $150,000 toward relief.
 - Family: Wife Jane; two sons, one daughter

Gary Barber	142	26	$1,686,295
• Brothers grew up racing fans in their native South Africa; came to the U.S. when business brought them here.
• Older brother Cecil arrived in 1979 and has had success

- running a property-management firm (Ross Morgan & Co.); deals primarily with home owner associations in Los Angeles.
- Gary started as an accountant in SA, then in the U.S. after immigrating in 1982. Has gone on to a Hollywood career as former chairman and CEO of the iconic MGM film studios and also as co-founder (with Roger Birnbaum) and CEO of Spyglass Entertainment, a film and television production company. He is currently chairman and CEO of Spyglass Media Group.
 - Among Spyglass’ Academy Award-level hits: “The Sixth Sense,” “Memoirs of a Geisha,” “The Insider,” and “Seabiscuit.”
 - Cecil and Gary became U.S. citizens in the mid-1980s.
 - They have owned horses, often in partnership, since the 1990s. Gary much more involved with the horses than his brother and he (Gary) currently races scores of horses on his own all over the world, as well as with 24 different partnerships in North America. Gary also has entered the breeding game, standing three different stallions with partners.
 - One of Gary’s earliest successes came in a partnership with Team Valor with The Deputy, who captured 2000 Santa Anita Derby, then ran 14th as the second choice in that year’s Kentucky Derby.
 - Brothers established a Del Mar record in 2008 when they won 14 races — the most ever by an owner in a seaside season — and also wound up leading owners by money won with $633,700.
 - Brothers have horses in California with trainers Peter Miller and Steve Miyadi. Additionally, Gary has horses in the east with Mark Casse, Bill Mott, Todd Pletcher and Jerry O’Dwyer among others.
 - The brothers had success with Cost of Freedom, a $50,000 claim in 2008 who went on to be a multiple-stakes winner of $900,000, the majority of it for them. With other partners, Gary raced the multiple-stakes winning gelding Comma to the Top, who won more than $1-million.
 - Gary was elected to The Jockey Club in 2019.
 - In 2014, Gary raced Canadian 3-year-old filly Lexie Lou, who won the Queen’s Plate over the boys and was subsequently named Canada’s Horse of the Year. Lexie Lou, who was retired in 2016, won 10 races (nine stakes) and $1.7 million for 11-time Canadian training champ Casse. Owner and trainer did it again with the crack filly Wonder Gadot (named for owner’s friend, movie star and Israeli supermodel Gal Gadot), beating the boys in the Queen’s Plate and piling up more than $1.7 million in purses.
 - In 2015, Gary won major stakes with Appealing Tale

- ($773,222) and Jack Milton ($853,828).He also raced another Canadian Horse of the Year (2015) in Catch A Glimpse, a rapid filly who won more than $1.8 million, including the Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf at 2, and was sold at auction for $3 million to Japanese interests late in 2017.
- Won a second Breeders’ Cup race with Tourist in the Mile in 2016.
 - Gary says his favorite horses have come of late: 2019’s Preakness Stakes winner War of Will; the 2019 Breeders’ Cup Grass Sprint winner (over the boys) Belvoir Bay, and the multiple-stakes winning mare Got Stormy.
 - That trio led him to his best year yet as an owner in 2019 when he won 69 races and banked $6,039,948, the third-best mark among all owners in the country.
 - Family: Cecil — Wife Avril; one son, one daughter; Gary — three daughters.

• Sid and Jenny Craig forged a 30-year marriage and partnership that lasted until his death on July 21, 2008. Jenny carried on the family racing tradition.
• Sid’s business background began with his founding of Body Contour, Inc., a women’s figure salon operation. The Craigs met while she worked at the company’s salon in New Orleans and were married in 1979.
• Business was sold in 1982 and the Craigs went to Australia and opened a chain of weight-loss centers in 1983. That was the beginnings of Jenny Craig, Inc., which now has locations in the United States, Mexico, Canada, Australia and New Zealand.
• A key element in their lives was the owning, racing and breeding of horses for more than 20 years. Sid became interested in racing while in the Navy in San Diego, becoming a frequent attendee at Del Mar.
• Top runner in 2013 was Ethnic Dance, in partnership with Michael Bello. The colt won a division of the Del Mar Derby.

- Attained their most cherished goal when their Argentinian-bred Candy Ride won Del Mar’s signature race, the $1-million Pacific Classic in 2003.
- Another outstanding runner was Paseana, two-time Eclipse Award winner as older filly or mare and 1992 Breeders’ Cup Distaff champion.
- Still another was Exchange, who was claimed for $50,000 and earned $1.2 million.
- In an attempt to accomplish another major goal — victory in the Kentucky Derby — Jenny Craig bought her husband Dr Devious as a $2.5-million 60th birthday gift. Colt finish seventh in the 1992 Kentucky Derby, but was taken back to England where he won the Epsom Derby.
- Jenny continued the Kentucky Derby quest: In 2009 her homebred colt Chocolate Candy finished fifth, while her 2010 Santa Anita Derby winner Sidney’s Candy finished 17th.
- Both those Derby colts — and many of the horses she has raced — are by Candy Ride, who has become one of the nation’s most successful stallions at Lane’s End Farm in Versailles, KY.
- In 2011 Craig sold Sidney’s Candy, a track and course record holder at Del Mar and winner of more than $1.1 million, to WinStar Farm as a racing and breeding prospect. He now stands at that Kentucky farm.
- Had another star Candy Ride offspring in Twirling Candy, a multiple-stakes winner of more than $900,000, who stands stud at Lane’s End. Candy Ride also sired champion the late Shared Belief, who emulated his daddy with a victory in the 2014 Pacific Classic
- Among other major winners: Tossofthecoin, Alpride, Different, Brave Act, Victory Stripes, Bienvenido and Golden Arches.
- The Craig Family Trust owned Rancho Paseana, a training and lay-up facility about five miles east of Del Mar that the late Eugene Klein, the former owner of the San Diego Chargers, originally built. It was sold to Microsoft billionaire Bill Gates in September 2014 to be converted into a hunter/jumper facility.
- Family: Three daughters, two sons.

- Lee Searing went to the races as a young lad with his father, who later owned several horses beginning in 1966.
- Had numerous horses in partnership with his father, beginning in 1968 until his father’s death in 2002.
- Top horses have included Our New Recruit, winner of the 2004 Dubai Golden Shaheen and an earner of $1.4 million who was a stallion at Central California’s Legacy Ranch near Sacramento until his death in 2009; and Switch, the Quiet American mare who was a multiple Grade I winner of nearly $1.5 million before her retirement in 2012.
- Raced two solid 3-year-old stakes horses in 2014 - Candy Boy and Kobe’s Back - both of whom won graded Kentucky Derby preps at Santa Anita. Candy Boy, a son of Candy Ride, won the Robert Lewis Stakes (G1) and Kobe’s Back won the San Vicente (G2). Candy Boy eventually finished sixth in the Breeders’ Cup Classic. The gray horse Kobe’s Back went on to be a multiple-stakes winner as a stretch-kicking sprinter with more than $1 million in the bank.
- Searings have raced these other stakes winners: Gladding, Kettle Corn, Ceeband, Dr. Park, Scooter Brown, She’s an Eleven, Jump On In and Cindago. Cindago was a promising stallion but died in 2012. Kettle Corn is at stud in Ohio.
- Into 2015, Searings had used John Sadler as their primary trainer for previous 17 years. Their horses are now trained by Peter Eurton and John Shirreffs.
- Those trainers both have 5-year-old stakes winners for CRK – Eurton with Draft Pick and Shirreffs with Midcourt.
- Searing and his brother, Jim, operate Searing Industries, specializing in welded steel tubing, in Ontario, CA.
- Searings have been married 44 years and the stable name reflects the names of their children — Christina, Richard and Katherine.
- Family: Two daughters, one son

- Grandson of Leonard Lavin, who founded Glen Hill Farm in 1966 and remained the patriarch of the stable until his death on August 2, 2017 at age 97.
- Bernick took control of Glen Hill in 2008 as president and chief operating officer. Under his direction the outfit experienced a resurgence that has resulted in finishes among the leaders for earnings in North America. Bernick expanded the farm’s reach beyond breeding and racing its own stock to investing in horses bought privately or in sales.
- Recent figures show Glen Hill with approximately 40 broodmares at its Ocala, Florida, training center and approximately 15 more in partnerships. Glen Hill also has horses at the Fair Hill training facility in Maryland.
- Among the farm’s major winners of the late 20th century were Relaunch, winner of the 1979 Del Mar Derby and Glen Hill’s major stallion for many years; Uniformity, Convenience, Concept Win, Top Rung, Star of the Crop, Split Run, Rich in Spirit and Marketing Mix.
- Among the farm’s top performers of late: Chiropractor, Diversy Harbor, Family Meeting, Pontchatrain, Left a Message, Customer Base, Wishing Gate, Global View and Enterprising.
- Farm unleashed a nice one-two punch at Del Mar when Family Meeting won the Grade III Jimmy Durante Stakes and, an hour or so later, Chiropractor took the Grade I Hollywood Derby at the 2015 Bing Crosby meeting.
- Current stable ace is Caribou Club, a homebred multiple-stakes winner – including the Grade II Seabiscuit Handicap last fall at Del Mar – of more than $500,000.
- Tom Proctor, who handles a string in the Midwest as well as those at Del Mar, is a second-generation trainer for Glen Hill and one of several Proctor family members associated with the stable. Tom’s father, Willard, was Glen Hill’s conditioner for 32 years and his brother,

- Alan, managed Glen Hill for many years. Tom’s brother, “Hap,” oversees the Ocala farm.
- Bernick is a Tulane University graduate, a member of the boards of both the Breeders’ Cup and Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance, managing partner of Elevage Bloodstock and an officer of the Lavin Family Foundation.
 - Family: Wife Lindsey, two daughters.

- One of the world’s richest men is the ruler of Dubai and the prime minister and vice president of the United Arab Emirates on the Persian Gulf.
 - Is the third of four sons and has 19 children of his own (8 sons, 11 daughters); his senior wife is Sheikha Hind bint Maktoum bin Juma Al Maktoum, whom he married in 1979, and his junior wife is HRH Princess Haya, the daughter of the late King Hussein of Jordan, whom he married in 2004.
 - Has helped shape the city of Dubai into one of the world’s great metropolises and overseen its rise as the economic hub of the Gulf. It has a population of approximately 250,000 “locals” and roughly one million foreign workers.
 - Among the major projects he has realized are the creation of Dubai International Airport, world-traveling Emirates Airlines, the striking, sail-like, “seven star” Burj Al Arab hotel and the Burj Khalifa, a $1.5-billion project that features the world’s tallest skyscraper (2,717 feet) which opened in 2010 as the heart of a $20-billion mixed-use development in downtown Dubai.
 - Was schooled as a boy in Arabic and Islamic studies in his native land, then completed his education in England at Cambridge and at a military academy at Aldershot.
 - Grew up with a close association to, and kinship for, horses and saw his first western horse races at Newmarket in 1967.
 - Purchased his first racehorse — a filly named Hatta — in 1976 and she was a stakes winner for him. Since then he has gone on to invest a fortune in some of the world’s

- best bloodstock.
- Prominence began in 1985 when he was England’s leading owner (a title he’d win 12 more times in the following 14 years) and raced two remarkable fillies — Oh So Sharp, winner of the British fillies’ Triple Crown, and the American Breeders’ Cup Turf winner Pebbles.
 - List of stars has grown to include Balanchine, Lamtarra, Swain, Sakhee, Shamardal, In the Wings, Indian Skimmer, Carnegie and Baratheia.
 - Perhaps his best — and apparently his favorite — was the mercurial Dubai Millennium, a winner of nine of 10 starts. Unfortunately, he died of a rare grass sickness a year after entering stud.
 - In 1996, he sponsored what was then the world’s richest race — the Dubai World Cup, which now is worth $10 million — and has seen his horses win it eight times — Singspiel (1997), Dubai Millennium (2000), Street Cry (2002), Moon Ballad (2003), Electrocutationist (2006), Monterosso (2012) Prince Bishop (2015) and, most recently, Thunder Snow in both 2018 and 2019.
 - That last-named horse has now amassed more than $16.5 million in earnings and is the second-leading horse of all time in that category.
 - Among the Sheikh’s more notable U.S. triumphs are the championship season of Bernardini in 2006 (Preakness, Travers, Jockey Club Gold Cup) and the win by Raven’s Pass in the 2008 Breeders’ Cup Classic.
 - Won the Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Turf with Line of Duty in 2018.
 - His horses have won Grade I or Group I races in 14 countries. He’s won more than 100 graded stakes in the United States and more than twice that number overseas.
 - As part of his showcasing of Dubai, built both the Al Quoz training center and the Nad Al Sheba Racecourse, and in 1996 created a festival of racing topped by the Dubai World Cup.
 - One-upped himself by opening in 2010 the world’s most spectacular racetrack — Meydan Racecourse — adjacent to Nad Al Sheba. The multi-billion-dollar project, which includes a hotel, restaurants, a museum and a marina, hosted its first World Cup on March 27, 2010.
 - Raced under two banners -- Godolphin and Darley Stable -- for more than two decades. However, with the start of 2016 the two entities were divided between strictly racing (Godolphin) and breeding (Darley). At the beginning of 2018 the familiar all-blue colors that have been associated with Godolphin in the past now race under the name Godolphin Racing, LLC.
 - Currently, the Godolphin operation has approximately 2,000 horses in training worldwide, while the Darley end - of the business can claim approximately 2,500 breeding stock. All told they employ about 1,500 people.

- In 2009, Godolphin was awarded its first Eclipse Award as North America’s top owner. It won another owner Eclipse in 2012. Darley won an Eclipse as North America’s outstanding breeder in 2012.
 - In the former arrangement, Godolphin horses were trained by Saeed bin Suroor, and raced in Dubai from January to March, then in England and the U.S. The Darley horses raced all around the world with many of the world’s top trainers, including Andre Fabre and Jean-Claude Rouget in France, Michael Stoute and John Gosden in England, John Oxx and Jim Bolger in Ireland; James Cummings in Australia, and Todd Pletcher, Tom Albertrani and Eoin Harty in the U.S. The new racing division has taken on additional trainers, besides, allowing -- for instance -- newly purchased horses to stay with the trainers that have guided them to their current success.
 - Darley stands more than 50 stallions in six countries (including Australia and Japan). Its U.S. farm in Lexington, the former Jonabell Farm, stands a dozen stallions, including Kentucky Derby winners Street Sense, Animal Kingdom and Nyquist.

- Longtime prominent breeding and racing figure in California has horses with Carla Gaines and Marty Jones in Southern California and several trainers in Northern California.
 - In 1966, began raising and training Thoroughbreds on his 400-acre horse division at the 1,800-acre agricultural complex known as Harris Farms, created mostly as a cattle ranch in 1937 by Harris’ father, Jack, near Coalinga, CA, in the San Joaquin Valley. Farm owns 60 broodmares with room for another 60, and currently stands 12 stallions — Acclamation, Desert Code, Jeranimo, Lakerville, Majestic Harbor, Prospect Park, Smiling Tiger, Tamarando, Vronsky, Conquest Fahrenheit, Om and Rousing Sermon.

- . Had two of its well-known stallions pass earlier in 2017: Lucky Pulpit, the state’s most successful sire in 2014 based primarily on the championship credentials of his son California Chrome, and Unusual Heat, who had been the state’s top sire for the six previous years.
- Alphabet Kisses gave the farm its first Grade I victory with a win in Santa Anita’s La Brea Stakes in 2004.
- Most outstanding horse campaigned was the speedy female Soviet Problem, in partnership with frequent collaborator Don Valpredo. She was retired in 1996 with 15 victories in 20 starts, for earnings of $905,416. She finished second to Cherokee Run in 1994 Breeders’ Cup Sprint. For the year she was voted California’s Horse of the Year, champion older female, sprinter and turf horse, the first time a horse won three divisions and Horse of the Year.
- Another major runner was Work The Crowd, a multiple graded stakes winner and 1993 champion Cal-bred 2-year-old filly, 1994 Cal-bred 3-year-old filly, 1995 Cal-bred turf horse and 1995 Northern California Horse of the Year.
- Other stable stars include homebreds Compari and Unzip Me, both multiple stakes winners. Unzip Me was third in the Breeders’ Cup Turf Sprint in 2010.
- Harris earned a degree in agricultural production from University of California-Davis. Harris Farms, Inc. is one of the nation’s leading producers of agricultural products, most notably beef cattle. Farm also produces tomatoes, almonds and cotton, and has a feed lot that handles 100,000 head of cattle. The family’s 7,000-acre Harris River Ranch, about 70 miles east of Sanger, CA, includes a 160-acre facility devoted to yearlings and lay-ups.
- Member of The Jockey Club since 1988, and is a past president and still a board member of the California Thoroughbred Breeders Association. He twice served as Chairman of the California Horse Racing Board.
- Commenced his association with racing when his father owned Thoroughbreds in the 1950s. Worked at racetracks as a teenager and had his first horse (Jogaway Miss) in 1958. First winner: The Blend in 1961.

- Family moved from Nebraska to Los Angeles when he was five and he grew up in South L.A.
- After a hitch in the Army during the Korean War, he got into building and developing commercial properties in Southern California.
- Initially bitten by the racing bug in 1972 and found himself in the Appaloosa business with his first trainer, Don Collins.
- Almost right off the bat came up with a serious Appy runner in Blowing Easy, who won the first $100,000 race for the breed at Santa Rosa.
- Followed that up by inviting his family members from all around the country (60 showed up and all donned T-shirts that said “Blowing Easy” on the front and his silks’ happy face on the back) to see the horse run next in another $100 grander at Sacramento. “It was a wonderful reunion,” House recalled. “And when the horse won again, it was perfect.”
- He segued into Thoroughbreds in California employing, among others, trainers Dale Landers, Ross Brinson and Jude Feld and, more than 40 years and over a hundred horses later, he’s still at it.
- Early on he rang the stakes bell with runners such as Broadway Point, Ouilladine, Nazirali, Final Fling, Cayoke and Brooke’s Halo.
- More recently, has had continued high-level success with conditioners like Jeff Mullins, the late Mike Mitchell and Phil D’Amato.
- Mullins called the shots for him on millionaire Battle of Hastings, an English-bred turf ace who was a multiple-stakes winner on both coasts, as well as the owner’s second Breeders’ Cup horse, Dry Summer, who went unplaced in the 2012 BC Juvenile Turf. Mullins trained multiple-stakes star Gabriel Charles, a double winner on the Del Mar turf (2013 Del Mar Derby and 2015 Eddie Read Stakes.)
- House partnered with New Mexico cattle rancher and longtime horse owner Sam Britt on Dry Summer and Gabriel Charles. Mullins was at the OBS 2-year-old sale

- in Florida in 2012 and wanted to buy Dry Summer for House, but Britt beat him to it. Then Britt wanted Gabriel Charles, but Mullins told him that House was planning on buying him. A deal was struck on the spot with House and Britt each taking half of each horse. Stakes victories ensued on both fronts and the Britt and Houses were happy partners and friends, indeed.
- Mitchell gave House his initial taste of the Breeders’ Cup when he saddled his stakes horse Delta Storm to finish fourth in the 2009 BC Turf Sprint.
 - D’Amato handled the Irish-bred stakes mare Havanna Belle and the long-winded Big John B, victorious in 14 races (including back-to-back tallies in the Del Mar Handicap in ’14 and ’15). Big John B was House’s third Breeders’ Cup starter, going unplaced in the BC Turf in 2015. He won 15 races and more than $800,000.
 - Had another stable ace in the Irish-bred gray Hunt, a handy gelding with a nifty late kick. Was a three-time stakes winner at Del Mar in 2017 and captured the Grade I Shoemaker Mile at Santa Anita in 2018. When the veteran gave indications in 2019 that he had had enough of the racing game, owner made the call to retire him and start him on a new career as a jumper for his 7-year-old grandson.
 - Owned Chestnut Farm, a 163-acre breeding operation in Versailles, KY, that was sold early in 2018 to San Diego owner-trainer Mick Ruis.
 - When he’s not at the racetrack, he now runs a company out of El Cajon (about 25 miles from Del Mar) in eastern San Diego County that manages commercial property sites.
 - Family: Wife Dawn; eight grown children, 18 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

- Had their best racing season by many lengths in 2018

- when they banked over $7.3 million in winnings (first in the nation), took home an Eclipse Award as the country’s leading owners and earned an additional Eclipse Award with their stable star Accelerate, 2018 champion older horse after an exceptional season that included victories in Santa Anita Handicap, the Gold Cup at Santa Anita, the TVG Pacific Classic and the Breeders’ Cup Classic.
- With $2.6 million in purses in 2014, the brothers started a serious run after entering the business in 2010. They came right back in 2015 to outdo themselves with $2.8 million in winnings, highlighted by the stellar season of 3-year-old champion filly Stellar Wind. 2016 was even better at $3.04 million.
 - Their 2019 earnings of $5,632,611 were fourth-best in the nation.
 - Brothers have 30 to 40 horses in training, headed by a collection of private purchases racing in their silks. Leading that crew was Stellar Wind, a winner of more than $2.9 million to go along with her Eclipse Award hardware. Retired, she sold for $6 million in November, 2017 at Keeneland.
 - In 2014 they raced Iotapa -- claimed for $50,000 by their trainer John Sadler in 2012 -- winner of the Vanity Stakes at Santa Anita and the Clement L. Hirsch Stakes at Del Mar, both Grade 1 offerings. Iotapa then went on to finish third in the Breeders’ Cup Distaff and brought $2.8 million from Chinese racing and breeding interests in Keeneland’s November Sale.
 - They also had stakes success with the French grass horse Talco, a winner of over $500,000 who took honors in the Grade I Shoemaker Mile in 2015, as well as stakes winner Daddy DT, who ran third in the 2014 B.C. Juvenile Turf and 2013 Del Mar Handicap winner Vagabond Shoes.
 - Another Hronis’ ace was the flashy chestnut Catalina Cruiser, a four-time stakes winner at Del Mar who is now at stud at Lane’s End in Kentucky.
 - Among other stable stars are millionaires Gift Box, Combatant and Higher Power. The last-named rang the bell in the 2019 TVG Pacific Classic. After winning the 2018 Santa Anita Handicap with champion Accelerate in 2018, the brothers continued their run by taking the same race with Gift Box (2019) and Combatant (2020).
 - The horse that really got them rolling was Lady of Shamrock, a multiple graded stakes winner of more than $950,000 who was fifth in the 2012 Breeders’ Cup Filly & Mare Turf and eighth in 2013. She won the Grade I Del Mar Oaks in 2012.
 - Hronis Racing led all owners in wins and earnings at both the 2013 and 2014 Del Mar summer meets, then came back to do it again in 2017, 2018 and 2019 at the - shore. Also led in victories by owners in consecutive Santa Anita winter meetings – 2011-12 and 2012-13, and at Hollywood Park’s 2013 summer meet.

- Kosta started things by claiming two horses in 2010. Brother Pete is something of a silent partner, letting his big brother carry the ball.
 - The pair got their first taste of racing when they went to Santa Anita on many occasions when the family would journey from Delano to their grandfather’s home in Pasadena.
 - Hronis Inc., headquartered in Delano, is an extensive (6,000 acre) family farming operation in California’s San Joaquin Valley. Their holdings stretch from Visalia to the north of Delano to Bakersfield on the south. Began with raising table grapes and have widened into major citrus holdings, mostly navel oranges.
 - Hronis joined the board of directors of Del Mar Thoroughbred Club in 2018.
 - Family: Kosta: Wife, Stephanie; two sons, three daughters; Pete: Single.

- Samantha Siegel carries on a family racing tradition that stretches back nearly 50 years, beginning with her father, Mace (who died in 2011 at age 86), and her mother Jan (who died in 2002).
- Their first stakes win came in 1976 at Calder Race Course with Wininreno.
- The late Brian Mayberry trained for the Siegels from 1977 to 1995. Brian Koriner now trains the stable’s horses in California, Paul McGee in the midwest and Michelle Nevin in the east.
- Jan Siegel was a big band singer who married Mace in 1962, became the mother of their daughter Samantha and son Evan, as well as his racing partner.
- Though Evan showed little interest, Samantha took right to racing.
- Over several decades, the father-mother-daughter team campaigned more than 25 stakes winners as well as 10 under Mace’s name.

- The Siegels began buying at yearling sales in 1988, with Samantha a key person at the sessions. She also was active in naming many of the horses.
- Best horse — so far — was the gelding Declan’s Moon, 2004 Eclipse Award winner as the nation’s top 2-year-old male and the undefeated Del Mar and Hollywood Futurity winner.
- Stable also raced a quartet of millionaires – By the Moon ($1.5 million), Rail Trip ($1.5 million), Suave ($1.3 million) and Arson Squad ($1.1 million).
- A further list of the Jay Em Ess stakes stars would include Masochistic, Stormy But Valid, Hedonist, Denim Yenem, Fluttery Danseur, Urbane, I Ain’t Bluffing, Ramblin Guy, Suave, Miss Iron Smoke, Ifyoucouldseemenow, Distinctive Sis, Garden Gal, Zealous Connection, I Believe in You, How So Oiseau and Prospectors Gamble.
- Won Hollywood Park’s Landaluce Stakes for 2-year-old fillies three years in a row (1990-92) with Garden Gal, Fluttery Danseur and Zealous Connection.
- The father and daughter were honored in 2008 by the Gregson Foundation, which raises money for college scholarships for children of backstretch workers.
- Samantha was appointed to the board of directors of the Thoroughbred Owners of California in 2017. She also serves as the treasurer of the California horse retirement umbrella organization CARMA.

• The personable Kock is a high-energy people person who has been a racetracker since the age of 5 and syndicated his first horse right out of college.
• After graduating from Northwestern, he dabbled a bit in the family business, which was show business. His father, Howard W. (Hawk) Koch, Jr., and his grandfather, Howard W. Koch, were highly successful Hollywood producers and directors with strings of movie and TV credits

- and honors. (The elder Koch was the producer of such diverse star vehicles as “The Manchurian Candidate,” “The Odd Couple” and “Airplane,” while his son was equally eclectic in producing “Gorky Park,” “The Pope of Greenwich Village” and “Wayne’s World.”) Both father and son did tours as president of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences, the folks who hand out the Oscars.
- But Billy found that he liked the characters at the racetrack more than he did the ones in Hollywood and he’s been “horsing around” ever since.
 - First run at Thoroughbred ownership came when he talked 10 friends into putting up $1,000 each to buy the horse No More Worries. She was a winner trained for the crew by Ron Ellis and Koch was off and running.
 - Today, he calls as many as 300 people partners in his Little Red Feather Racing club, started in 2002 and based in Southern California.
 - The partnership name comes from a mythical Indian who was the product of his grandfather’s imagination in telling young Billy bedtime stories. Little Red Feather was always in trouble, but always found a way to get out of it, Billy recalls. He said it was a good life lesson for him.
 - Billy’s grandfather (whose own father was a man who ‘made a little book’ on the streets of New York) had an affinity for the racetrack and he and one of his Hollywood pals – the noted actor Telly Savalas, who revolutionized TV cop shows with his “Kojak” series in the 1970s – hit the racing jackpot with the horse Telly’s Pop, a multiple stakes winner (including the Del Mar Futurity in 1975). Savalas’ Kojak gimmick was to be the tough detective who sucked on lollypops and Billy Koch was his bag man at the racetrack, holding the stash of lollypops that the actor would hand out to the crowds that gathered in the winner’s circle.
 - Billy’s good luck was apparent early when the second horse the Little Red Feather crew ever bought – a $30,000 purchase named Singletary – took them to the heights under trainer Don Chatlos by winning the Breeders’ Cup Mile in 2004 at Lone Star Park in Texas.
 - Subsequently the syndicate has made more than 1,000 starts, won more than 250 races, including a dozen major stakes, earned in the neighborhood of $15 million in purses and laid claim to being the largest racing partnership in the west.
 - Outfit clicked in 2019 when their filly Secret Spice took down the Grade I Beholder Mile at Santa Anita.
 - Another recent stable ace (owned with partner Alex Venneri) was multiple stakes winner Midnight Storm,

- whose tallies included five Del Mar stakes, starting with the Del Mar Derby (2014) and going forward to the 2016 Native Diver. Quick son of Pioneerof the Nile won 10 races on grass and dirt and banked more than $1.7-million. He entered stud in 2018 at Taylormade Farm in Kentucky.
- Four trainers are employed, three in Southern California – Phil D’Amato, Mike Puype, and Peter Eurton, -- and Michelle Nevin in the east.
 - Stable currently has about 25 horses. They race with as many as 10 or 20 partners to a horse and have many of their runners in additional partnerships with other owners.
 - They also have started a pin-hooking arrangement in Florida with seven yearlings they bought in 2016 with the aid of their bloodstock agent Tom McCrocklin.
 - Their Grade I winner Egg Drop -- a winner of more than $500,000 under the tutelage of the late Mike Mitchell -- sold as a broodmare at the 2014 Keeneland November sale for $1.9 million.
 - Billy got his nuts and bolts man for LRF when he talked his horse-loving childhood pal Gary Fenton into leaving behind his role as an entertainment attorney with the William Morris Agency and coming on board as his co-managing partner in 2005. Fenton also serves on the board of directors of the Thoroughbred Owners of California.
 - Family: Wife Kathy; three sons.

• Climaxed one of the most amazing campaigns in racing history by winning the Eclipse Award for Horse of the Year with four-time champion mare Zenyatta in 2010.
• The strapping daughter of Street Cry came up half a head short of completing a perfect 20-for-20 career record when beaten by Blame in the 2010 Breeders’ Cup Classic. She

- Zenyatta was voted an Eclipse Award in 2009 as champion older female for the second year in a row (she was awarded that honor in 2010, also), but finished second in the voting for Horse of the Year to the 3-year-old filly Rachel Alexandra. Moss had planned to retire Zenyatta at the time, but changed course and brought her back for another championship season.
 - Among Zenyatta's wins were back-to-back-to-back scores in Del Mar's Clement L. Hirsch Stakes (2008-09-10). She was inducted into racing's Hall of Fame in her first year of eligibility in 2016.
 - Gormley sported Moss silks with success in 2017, winning the Santa Anita Derby, then ran ninth in the Kentucky Derby. He retired with four wins in nine starts and earnings of $1 million.
 - Moss grabbed one of Thoroughbred racing's sweetest prizes in 2005 when Giacomo won the Kentucky Derby, looping the field and pulling away for a decisive victory at odds of 50-1.
 - That homebred colt was sidelined with bone chips in his left front ankle, but returned in 2006 to win Del Mar's San Diego Handicap before finishing fifth in the Pacific Classic. The gray completed his career by finishing fourth in the Breeders' Cup Classic to run his career earnings to $2.5 million. Stood at stud at Adena Springs in Maryland initially until moved late in 2015 to Oakhurst Thoroughbreds in Newberg, Oregon.
 - Moss went back on the Triple Crown trail in 2007 with Giacomo's half-brother, Tiago, who won the Santa Anita Derby in a 29-1 upset. Finished seventh in the Kentucky Derby and third in the Belmont Stakes. Captured the Oaklawn Handicap at 4 and finished third in the Breeders' Cup Classic. Retired with earnings of more than $2.3-million and was at stud at Adena Springs Kentucky until his death late in 2015.
 - Jerome Moss has been involved in racing for more than 40 years; started by claiming horses in the 1970s with brothers Herb and David Alpert.
 - Upgraded Thoroughbred holdings in the 1980s and posted his first stakes victory with Lovely Robbery in 1981.
 - Raced more than 60 stakes winners alone or in partnership, including multiple Grade I winners Ruhlmann, winner of the 1989 Santa Anita Handicap, and Sardula, winner of the 1993 Del Mar Debutante and the 1994 Kentucky Oaks.
 - Prior to 2019, Jerome Moss raced most of his horses in partnership with Ann Holbrook Moss. Now races solely in his own name.

- Moss owns about 35 Thoroughbreds, including about 30 in training with John Shirreffs, Richard Mandella and John Sadler in Southern California. Has about 20 broodmares, mostly in Kentucky at Mill Ridge Farm and Crestwood Farm.
- Moss served as a commissioner on the California Horse Racing Board for eight years starting in February 2004.
- He was elected as a member of The Jockey Club in 2009.
- Moss was the "M" to Herb Alpert's "A" in A & M Records of the 1970s and '80s that grew into the world's largest independent record company. Alpert's Tijuana Brass was the cornerstone of the record label that included Burt Bacharach, Joe Cocker, Rita Coolidge, The Police and Janet Jackson. A & M was bought by Polygram Records in 1990. Moss and Alpert were inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame in 2006.

- Has been one of the most successful, colorful and popular characters on the national scene for nearly 30 years. It's difficult to single out his most remarkable equine star -- was it Real Quiet, Silverbulletday, Lookin at Lucky, Midnight Lute, Secret Circle, or all of the above? The last three came in partnership with Tucson, AZ, auto dealers and steady pals Karl Watson and Paul Weitman. And the trio has come up with another ace in multiple-stakes winner and millionaire McKinzie, named for Pegram's late friend, racing executive Brad McKinzie.
- Pegram has been extremely successful on his own, of course, as 1998 Kentucky Derby and Preakness winner Real Quiet and multiple Eclipse Award and graded stakes winner Silverbulletday stand out. He caused an individual splash at Santa Anita in the 2014 Strub Stakes when Shakin It Up and Govenor Charlie, both bred and co-owned by Pegram, finished one-two.
- Partnership with Watson and Weitman led to Lookin at Lucky winning Del Mar's Best Pal and Del Mar Futurity

- in 2009 and the Eclipse Award as top juvenile. Colt returned to win the 2010 Preakness, Haskell Invitational and Indiana Derby and the Eclipse as top 3-year-old male. Their Midnight Lute won consecutive Breeders' Cup Sprints (2007-08) and the 2007 Eclipse as champion sprinter, and Secret Circle won the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Sprint in 2011 and the Sprint in 2013 and finished his career in 2015 with more than $3.6 million in winnings.
- Coil was retired in January 2013 after winning San Pasqual 'Cap at Santa Anita for the threesome; earned more than $1.1 million. Stood stud at Barton Thoroughbreds in Santa Ynez, CA, prior to being pensioned. The partners also had a stellar 2012 campaign with filly Executiveprivilege, winner of the Del Mar Debutante and more than $900,000 and had further stakes success with Drill and Candrea.
 - Partners also had their own ATM machine between 2014 and 2018 with always-trying veteran Hoppertunity, who went to the post 34 times against stakes horses far and wide and missed a check only one time. In the end, the son of Any Given Saturday scored nine wins, eight seconds and five thirds for $4,712,625 in purses. He's now standing at stud at the Northview PA Farm in Peach Bottom, PA.
 - Pegram bought Real Quiet for $17,000 as a yearling and the colt missed winning the 1998 Triple Crown by a nose when caught at the wire by Victory Gallop in the Belmont Stakes. As a 4-year-old, Real Quiet won the Pimlico Special and retired to stud with earnings of $3,271,803. Among the horses he sired prior to his death in 2010 was Midnight Lute.
 - Pegram also raced the super filly Silverbulletday, winner of Eclipse Awards in 1998 (2-year-old filly) and 1999 (3-year-old filly). She was enshrined in racing's Hall of Fame.
 - Was the owner of Captain Steve, who won the $6-million Dubai World Cup in 2001, retiring to stud with earnings of $6,828,356.
 - Other major winners: Pussycat Doll, a Grade I-winning daughter of Real Quiet; Icecoldbeeratreds, winner of the 2002 Del Mar Futurity; Wanna Runner, Danthebluegrassman, Isitingood, Preachinatthebar, High Stakes Player and Letthebighossroll.
 - First runners were Quarter Horses bought in partnership with his father in the 1970s. Met trainer Bob Baffert through Arizona-based car dealer Hal Earnhardt, another longtime Baffert client. Made the switch to Thoroughbreds with Baffert in 1988.
 - First Thoroughbred bought by Baffert for him was Thirty Slews, in partnership with three others. The $30,000 purchase was a multiple stakes winner, including the - 1992 Breeders' Cup Sprint.

- With his partners Watson and Weitman, Pegram has a Del Mar career mark that tallies 116 starts, 31 wins and $1,550,439 in purses.
 - Got acquainted with racing by going to Ellis Park, in Western Kentucky, while growing up in Southern Indiana.
 - Took over as chairman of the Thoroughbred Owners of California in November 2011. Stayed in that role until 2016 and continued as a board member through 2019.
 - Had success in fast-food business with ownership of more than 20 McDonald's franchises. He's also has partnered in a trio of casinos in the Carson City, NV, area.
 - Named Turf Publicists of America's "Big Sport of Turfdom" in 1998.
 - Brother Jim and nephews Brad and J. R. are successful jockey agents in Southern California.
 - Family: Wife Mary Ellen; one son, one daughter.

- Had a magical run in 2015-16 with the classy Nyquist, a $400,000 2-year-old-in-training purchase in March of 2015 who won the Del Mar Futurity and the Breeders' Cup Juvenile en route to a perfect 5-for-5 season and championship honors that year, then came back to win his first three starts as a soph capped off by a sharp score in the Kentucky Derby. The colt finished third in the Preakness, though, but went on to win more than $5.1 million and now is at stud at Darley's Jonabell Farm in Kentucky. With Nyquist leading the way, Reddam was America's third-leading owner for purses won with more than $7.2 million in earnings.
- Nyquist was named for the Detroit Red Wings Swedish hockey player Gustav Nyquist. Reddam, a huge Red Wings fan since his Canadian youth, has named several of his other horses after players on the team, including Mrazek (also a stakes winner), Zetterberg, Hudler, Lidstrom, Datsyuk, Tatar and Kronwall.
- I'll Have Another, a colt he named for his standard request when his wife brought around her homemade cookies, stood at the edge of Thoroughbred immortality in 2012 after capturing the Kentucky Derby and Preakness.

- Alas, on the eve of the Belmont Stakes in New York, a case of tendinitis in the colt’s left foreleg forced his withdrawal and retirement. Was sold to Japanese breeders after winning five of seven starts and $2,693,600. He currently stands stud at Ballena Vista Farm in Ramona, CA.
- Ran five horses in Breeders’ Cup races in 2012, including B.C. Juvenile runner-up He’s Had Enough. Had five horses also in 2013 Breeders’ Cup, with a fourth by Bond Holder in the Juvenile being the highest finish.
- Earlier he had a pair of Breeders’ Cup champions: 2004 Juvenile winner Wilko, as a partner, and on his own with Red Rocks, victor in the 2006 Turf.
- Among his recent runners are the gray horse Pavel, a stakes winner of more than $2 million, and the multiple-stakes winning mare Mopotism, who earned more than $800,000 and won or placed in a dozen stakes. Pavel has taken up stud duties at Ocean Breeze Ranch (formerly Vessels Ranch) in Bonsall, CA.
- Reddam won Grade I races with Spring At Last (2007 Donn) and Square Eddie (2008 Lane’s End Breeders’ Futurity). Square Eddie, a son of Smart Strike and a prolific California stallion over the last decade, was pensioned after the 2019 breeding season.
- Other top runners include Dancing Edie, as part owner, winner of the 2006 John C. Mabee Handicap at Del Mar; Great Hunter, a Grade I winner who finished third to Street Sense in 2006 Breeders’ Cup Juvenile and was 13th in the 2007 Kentucky Derby; Elloluv, multiple graded stakes winner who finished second in the 2003 Breeders’ Cup Distaff; Cash Included, fifth in the 2006 Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies; the 2002 Met Mile winner Swept Overboard, and Momentum, second to Came Home in the 2002 Pacific Classic.
- May have another potential star in Fore Left, a 2-year-old Twirling Candy colt who shipped to New York in June and won the Tremont Stakes for fun. Bay youngster appears to have speed to spare.
- Reddam’s lead trainer is Doug O’Neill, but he also runs horses with Edward Freeman, Simon Callaghan and Ben Cecil.
- Was Del Mar’s leading owner at its 2015 summer meet both for money won ($1,048,180) and number of victories (13, either on his own or with partners), led by Nyquist’s stakes tallies in the Best Pal and Futurity.
- Racing under his own name at Del Mar, he has compiled the following record: 153 starts, 15 wins and $1,550,439 in purses.

- Became interested in horse racing as a teen-ager. It continued after he moved to Southern California, where he watched Spectacular Bid win the Santa Anita Handicap in 1980.
- Bought his first horse, Ocean Warrior, in 1988, but he never won.
- Received a Ph. D in philosophy from the University of Southern California and taught the subject at Cal State Los Angeles following graduation.
- Entered mortgage business to supplement his income, founding Ditech.com in 1995 to offer mortgage loans; sold the company to General Motors in 1999.
- Not long after that, created CashCall, a high-risk lending agency based in Irvine, CA. For a time, the company sponsored Hollywood Park’s Grade I CashCall Futurity.

- Stable made first big splash on the national/international racing scene by winning both the 2017 Breeders’ Cup Sprint with Hartunian as the major partner in Roy H and as sole owner of the BC Turf Sprint champion Stormy Liberal.
- The Sprint victory brought Roy H the 2017 Eclipse Award as North America’s champion sprinter.
- Then, in an unmatched feat, they both came back in 2019 at Churchill Downs to win their Breeders’ Cup races again, earning Roy H. another Eclipse as Sprint champion. The geldings retired following the 2019 season – Roy H. with 10 wins and more than $3.1 million in earnings to his credit and Stormy Liberal with a dozen firsts and more than $2.2 million in winnings.
- Hartunian has a special connection with his Sprint ace Roy H., having named the horse in honor of his grandfather, who had a shout-out from his grandson at the 2017 Eclipse Awards when he said, “My grandfather - was a big mentor to me. He was very disciplined. It was always ‘Moderation, moderation, Gary’”.

- Hartunian currently has approximately 100 horses in training from coast to coast. Peter Miller has the largest number in Southern California, while he has several trainers in the east.
 - Has expanded into breeding with 16 broodmares and the stallion Finnegan’s Wake, a Grade I stakes winner.
 - Among his major stakes winners, other than the Breeders’ Cup champions: Surrender Now, Chalon, Richard’s Boy, Conquest Fahrenheit, Arms Runner and XYJet, who finished second in the 2018 Golden Shaheen on the Dubai World Cup undercard..
 - Hartunian, whose business is commercial real estate and apartment management, got interested in horse racing while going to the races with his father, Don, who ran a car dealership in Hollywood and raced a few horses besides.
 - The son’s interest stuck and he got involved in 2012 when he bought Fast N Furious Cat at Barretts Paddock Sale at Del Mar for $50,000. He lost the horse in a claiming race, but his appetite was whetted and he’s gone on with it from there, including naming a horse he bought at a sale Hollywood Don and watching him become a stakes winner.
 - Was the leading owner at both the 2017 and 2018 Del Mar fall race meets; was the top owner for wins (11) at the shore’s 2016 summer meet. Twice has been leading owner at Santa Anita and was named the TOBA’s 2016 California Owner of the Year.
 - Has this to say about racing: “It’s kind of fun. It gives me a little action. Real estate is a very slow, long-term investment -- slow, slow and slower -- and this has given me something to look forward to on a daily, weekly basis.”
 - Family: Wife Amy; one daughter, two sons.

- The mercurial Ruis never stays still for too long. After a brief but exciting second run as a horse trainer, the San Diego-area native has dropped back to “merely” being an owner.
- In Ruis’ case, merely means owning 120 horses, three stallions, two Kentucky farms, a farm in Montana and a ranch in California
- Additionally, he’s gone back to running his scaffolding business in San Diego and also builds condos on the side. So he decided to drop the “trainer” title from his resume and turned that part of his operation back over to his 30-year-old daughter Shelbe. She now oversees their 50 horses in training based in Southern California.
- Ruis initially trained for three years -- 2005 - 2007 -- but left to devote full attention to developing his San Diego-based American Scaffold company. Following the sale of controlling interest in the company for a reported $78 million, Ruis returned to racing in a big way, spending about $2 million on horses to get his stable, Ruis Racing, underway.
- Ruis and his team of buyers purchased 16 yearlings in 2016 and 14 in 2017. One of the 2016 purchases was Bolt d’Oro, named by combining Olympic champion sprinter Usain Bolt with the colt’s sire Medaglia d’Oro. Ruis paid $635,000 for the bay at the Saratoga Select Yearling Sale. It proved to be money well spent.
- Bolt d’Oro won three of his four starts in 2017, including a pair of Grade Is – the Del Mar Futurity and FrontRunner Sakes at Santa Anita. He finished third in the Breeders’ Cup Juvenile, then was a hot item heading into the 2018 Kentucky Derby, where he showed speed, but went unplaced. Subsequently, the flashy colt was retired with $1,016,000 in earnings and bred to a full book at Spendthrift Farm in 2019, then went to Australia and bred another book during their season.
- Ruis also stands two sires in Pennsylvania – War Envoy

- and Saburo.
- His Kentucky farms are the 300-plus acre Woodford Thoroughbreds Farm near Lexington and the 160-plus acre Chestnut Farm in Versailles.
 - Ruis’ second run as a conditioner went for three years also -- 2017 to early in 2019 -- and saw his stable win more than a million dollars in his full years of ’17 and ’18.
 - Portending things to come for Ruis Racing was the 2016 victory by Union Strike in the Del Mar Debutante, then trained by Shelbe. That tally made her the first female to train a Debutante winner and gave her a Grade I score for her initial stakes win. After training throughout 2016, the younger Ruis dropped back to being her father’s assistant, but now has resumed control of the racing stable.
 - Mick Ruis’ Del Mar numbers as a trainer read like this: 85 starts, 9 wins and $920,654 in purses.
 - Born and raised in El Cajon, Ruis dropped out of high school in his senior year (but not until he had finished a banner wrestling season) to start working construction, rising to supervisory positions at a young age and eventually owning the scaffolding company in which he made his fortune.
 - Credits Lupe Flores with being a mentor in his training career dating back about 15 years to the San Luis Rey Downs Training Center in Bonsall, California. Flores serves as the barn foreman at the Ruis home base at Santa Anita.
 - Career record as a trainer: 2005 - 2019 • 453 starts, 53 wins for earnings of $3,282,536.
 - Family: Wife Wendy; three boys, four girls, among them Mick Jr, a former jockey.

- Both colts bounced back nicely, however. Fed Biz turned in a track-record performance in the 2013 Pat O’Brien on Pacific Classic Day going seven eighths, while Bayern clicked in New York on Belmont Day in 2014 in the Grade II Woody Stephens, also at seven furlongs.
 - Bayern finished a classic year for Shah by winning the Haskell Invitational before capturing the Breeders’ Cup Classic at Santa Anita in a tight three-way finish that required him to withstand a long stewards’ inquiry. He retired with more than $4.4 million in purses.
 - Multiple stakes-winning Dortmund came on strongly in 2015, including a victory in the Santa Anita Derby before finishing third in the Kentucky Derby and fourth in the Preakness. He finished up the year with an impressive triumph in the Native Diver Stakes during Del Mar’s fall meet. He was hampered by issues throughout 2016 and into 2017 and was retired and went to stud in 2018 at Bonita Farm in Maryland. His bankroll topped out at more than $1.9 million.

 - Unveiled another topnotch runner in juvenile Klimt in 2016, winner of Del Mar’s Best Pal and Futurity and more than $400,000 in purses.
 - Also raced a multiple-stakes winner in the speedy mare Fantastic Style, a winner of more than $425,000.
 - Owner captured Fleet Treat Stakes with Sweet Marini in 2013 at the shore and tied for leading owner at the meet with six wins. He banked $537,910 in purse money locally that summer.
 - Won first Grade I race in 2012 when Eden’s Moon captured Las Virgenes Stakes at Santa Anita; later in the year, Eden’s Moon won Del Mar’s Grade II San Clemente Handicap.
 - Owner’s silks bear the colors of the American flag, with red and white stripes and a field of blue with stars. Some horses carry “American” or “Patriot” in their names. Current conditioners are Simon Callaghan and Art Sherman. Previous trainers were Bob Baffert and Doug O’Neill.
 - Owns 10 broodmares kept at Hill ‘N’ Dale Farms in Kentucky. Has bred some of his mares to his stallion Concord Point, also at Hill ‘N’ Dale. His homebred American Gal, a Grade I winner of more than $900,000,

- is a daughter of Concord Point, a son of super sire Tapit.
- Started small in 1996, racing horses in Maryland with trainers Jimmy Murphy and Dale Capuano and a few in California with O’Neill.
 - Developed love for horses and racing as a child. Father, Majeed, was a major trainer in India who won many classic races including the Indian Triple Crown twice. Uncle won two Indian Derbies.
 - Father kept him away from races as a youth, preferring he concentrate on schooling.
 - Education: Bachelor’s degree in electrical engineering from India’s Bangalore University; masters in computer engineering, Clemson University; MBA in international finance, George Washington University.
 - Founded CalNet in 1989 and serves as its president. Company offers intelligence analysis, telecommunications, financial and information technology. Clients include U.S. government, armed forces and state governments. Based in Reston, VA, with branch office in San Diego.

She returned in 2016 and won another Eclipse Award, capped off by a

- nose victory over the unbeaten champion filly Songbird in what was one of the most thrilling Breeders’ Cup races of all time.
- Hughes has captured five Breeders’ Cup races, three with Beholder, plus Court Vision in the 2011 Mile and Action This Day in the 2003 Juvenile. Last named colt was nation’s top 2-year-old male that year by virtue of that victory.
 - Has numerous horses in training in Southern California, mostly with Mandella and Carla Gaines, as well as in Kentucky with Albert Stall, Jr., Paul McGee and Dale Romans.
 - In 2005, his Greeley’s Galaxy won the Illinois Derby and Don’t Get Mad scored in the Indiana Derby. Don’t Get Mad won that year’s Derby Trial at Churchill Downs and finished fourth in the Kentucky Derby. Greeley’s Galaxy was supplemented to the Derby and was 11th. In other Derby efforts, Action This Day finished sixth to Smarty Jones in 2004 and Atswhatimtalknbout ran fourth to Funny Cide in 2003.
 - Showed great patience with talented but injury-prone Crown of Thorns, who missed by a whisker in the 2009 Breeders’ Cup Sprint. Made only 13 starts over five seasons before retiring in 2011 with more than $800,000 in earnings.
 - Bought historic Spendthrift Farm in Lexington, KY, in 2004 and keeps about 60 broodmares on the 700-acre nursery. Founded by Leslie Combs II in 1937, farm was home to stallions Jet Pilot, Dark Star and Majestic Prince, winners of the Kentucky Derby, as well as Triple Crown winner Seattle Slew, Preakness and Belmont Stakes winner Nashua, and outstanding sire Raise a Native.
 - In gratitude for Hughes buying half of the breeding rights to top three-year-old Bolt d’Oro, owner-trainer Mick Ruis ran the colt in Hughes’ Spendthrift Farm silks in the 2018 Kentucky Derby.
 - Farm stands 24 stallions topped by the in-demand pair of Into Mischief and Malibu Moon.
 - Hughes became involved in racing as a partner with some neighbors; bought his first horse on his own, Patmoss, in 1972. Among his other prominent winners: Turf star Joyeux Danseur, winner of Grade I Early Times Classic in 1998; Siphonizer, winner of the 2003 Del Mar Futurity, and Trishyde, his first graded stakes winner in 1994’s Grade III Fleur de Lis Handicap.
 - Racing at Del Mar in his own name, Hughes has compiled the following record: 119 starts, 27 wins and $1,389,655 in purses.
 - Founder of Public Storage, which grew to a company with about 1,400 storage sites and about 600,000 tenants across the country. Began it in 1972 with a $50,000 investment. He and his family retain 39 percent of a company that made him a billionaire (estimated net worth $2.5 billion) and among Forbes 400 of the country’s wealthiest people.

- Created and supports the Parker Hughes Cancer Center in Minnesota. The research center employs about 200 people and has developed a drug that treats leukemia in children. The center is named for Hughes’ son, who died of leukemia at the age of 8.
- Former member of the board of directors of Thoroughbred Owners of California, Breeders’ Cup Ltd. and TOBA.
- Elected as a member of The Jockey Club in 2008.

- Stulls have been involved in racing and breeding since the early 1980s, first with a farm in Hemet, CA.
- It all started with ownership as partners with Jim Wilson of Wilson Stock Farm in a horse called Fa La Te Dough, who won seven stakes and $254,050. They owned a few more horses before deciding “to do it right,” meaning the purchase in 2000 of D. Wayne Lukas’ former Westerly Training Center in the Santa Ynez Valley. Original 160-acre plot has been expanded twice to cover approximately 350 acres and is home to some 260 horses.
- Since 2004, Stulls have been in the upper echelon among California breeding farms, finishing on top in 2009, 2013 and 2015. In 2010 and 2011 they were second-best by earnings and tops for races won in 2014. In 2016 they were first for races won and second for earnings.
- 2013 was their best year for earnings with $2,201,639 keyed by 64 trips to the winner’s circle. In 2017, outfit had second-best season with $2,186,997 in purses.
- Farm’s breaking and training operation features 100 stalls and a 7-furlong track. For breeding, farm has a 35-stall foaling barn. Farm’s focus is breeding for the sales ring, but the Stulls also race across the country and in Canada.

- Tommy Town offered money-back guarantee on top stallion Old Topper’s stud fees if the stallion wasn’t California’s leading freshman sire in 2004, which he was.
- Old Topper was major winner while being trained by the late Noble Threewitt for Kentucky owner-breeder Barbara Hunter, capturing Del Mar’s Best Pal Stakes in 1997 and Pat O’Brien Handicap in 1998.
- Farm issued a similar 2009 money-back guarantee for their stallion Ministers Wild Cat. That worked, too.
- Old Topper was pensioned in 2019, but Ministers Wild Cat carries on, along with Kafwain and their latest addition, the Malibu Moon stallion Stanford.
- Among stakes winners bred and owned by Tommy Town was Shout to the North, who won the 2004 Glorious Song Stakes at Woodbine Race Course in Ontario, Canada. Also bred stakes winners Beat the Chalk, Go Kitty Go, Random Memo, She’s Gottogetaway and Sierra Sweetie, 2005 Cal-bred 2-year-old filly champion.
- Tommy Town has about 50 horses in training, with trainers John Sadler, Jerry Hollendorfer, Eric Kruljac and Steve Miyadi.
- Raced Irish-import and millionaire Whatsthescript and stood him at their farm briefly.
- Filly Let Faith Arise gave farm its first Grade I victory by taking the Grade I Santa Margarita at Santa Anita in 2014. The homebred daughter of Kafwain was a triple stakes winner of nearly $500,000. The dam of Let Faith Rise, Babe Hall, was purchased for $400,000 at the Keeneland November mixed sale and bred to Kafwain in Kentucky, producing Let Faith Rise. Subsequently, the Stulls moved Kafwain to California and Tommy Town. They also raced millionaire It Tiz Well.
- Current stable star is the gray filly Keeper Ofthe Stars, a multiple-stakes winner of more than $500,000 who includes a tally in the Grade I Gamely at Santa Anita on her ledger.
- Stulls stepped into a new realm in 2014 as executive producers of the movie “50 to 1,” the story of Mine That Bird’s upset in the 2009 Kentucky Derby.
- Tom Stull was a success in business prior to getting into racing and breeding. Established a machine shop in Santa Fe Springs in Southern California in the mid-1970s and built it into Tower Industries with 200 employees in shops in Wisconsin, as well as Anaheim and Ontario in Southern California. He’s also involved in real estate sales and purchases.
- Debi Stull is an accomplished equestrienne.
- Family: One daughter, one son.

- Have become major owners as partners with Mike Pegram, longtime client of trainer Bob Baffert. Also have operated as partners on their own on a lesser level, as well as clients of Baffert. Overall, they usually have about a dozen or so horses with the trainer.
- On their own, raced stakes winners Da Stoops and Tough Tiz’s Sis. Da Stoops, a multiple-stakes winner named for former University of Arizona football coach Mike Stoops, earned $640,906 and was sold for $2.5 million as a stallion prospect. Tough Tiz’s Sis won two Grade I stakes, earned $903,792 and retired to the pair’s broodmare band.
- First connection with Pegram came with two-time Breeders’ Cup Sprint winner and 2007 Eclipse Award sprint champ Midnight Lute. As good as that was, it got better with Lookin at Lucky, Eclipse winner as top 2-year-old male in 2009 and top 3-year-old male in 2010 after capturing the Preakness Stakes, Haskell Invitational, Rebel Stakes and Indiana Derby.
- Other major runners for the pair in partnership with Pegram: Secret Circle, winner of Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Sprint in 2011 and BC Sprint in 2013, then the hero of the 2015 $2-million Dubai Golden Shaheen to push his bankroll past the $3.6-million mark; dual Grade I winner Midnight Lucky; their homebred 3-year-old Gimme Da Lute; Drill, winner of 2011 Del Mar Futurity, and Coil, who captured 2011 Haskell. More recently, they have partnered with Pegram to campaign the top colt and millionaire McKinzie, named for the late Los Alamitos executive Brad McKinzie.
- Their golden touch with Pegram continued with money machine Hoppertunity (eight-time stakes winner of more than $4.7 million) and additional stakes winners Whiskey

Ticket, Pretty N Cool and Toews On Ice.

- Watson began selling cars in the Kansas City area and bought his first dealership in 1981. Moved to Tucson in 1984 and now is turning over operations of several dealerships to family members.
- Weitman graduated from Valdosta (GA) State in 1964 and was a teacher and basketball coach before moving to Tucson and buying his first auto dealership in 1977. He, too, is beginning to turn over operation of agencies to family members.
- Weitman is a big buddy of University of Arizona’s now-retired Hall of Fame basketball coach Lute Olsen. They often attend many of the Wildcats basketball games together. Olsen and his supposed last-minute recruiting tactics were the source for the name of their champion sprinter Midnight Lute.
- Family: Watson: Wife, Kathy, two sons, one daughter; Weitman: Wife, Betty, two sons.

- Gary was introduced to racing at age 19 by his father at the old Ak-Sar-Ben racetrack in Omaha, Nebraska.
- Mary owned a horse in high school and has always loved horses and the sport of racing.
- It was in Omaha that Gary and Mary met at a dance. Their meeting went well: for the past 49 years they have been husband and wife.
- When first married, they frequently went to Ak-Sar-Ben and dreamed of owning race horses.
- Couple had a powerful hand it 2019 Kentucky Derby with their champion juvenile Game Winner and Florida Derby hero Maximum Security in the lineup. The latter took them to the highest high when he went wire-to-wire to outrun 18 rivals and earn the roses. But after a long inquiry by Churchill Downs stewards, they were crushed when – for the first time in its 145-year history

- the apparent winner of racing’s most storied prize was disqualified and placed 17th for interference with several runners and longshot Country House was made the winner.
- Subsequently, the mercurial Maximum Security returned to win four stakes, including the lion’s share ($10 million) of the world’s richest race, the $20-million Saudi Cup in Saudi Arabia this past February. Even with his Derby loot rescinded, homebred West colt by their stallion New Year’s Day – winner of the 2013 Breeders’ Cup Juvenile -- sports a bankroll that is approaching $12 million.
- They’re previous top money winner was the powerhouse colt West Coast, who banked more than $5.8 million and the 3-year-old Eclipse championship in 2017 when he won the Travers and Pennsylvania Derby. He now stands at stud at Lane’s End in Versailles, KY.
- The Wests went into business together in 1979, founding WATS Telemarketing, and later, West Corporation. Their vision for the companies turned them into telecommunications giants nationally. In 2006 they sold controlling interest in West Corporation for $2.2 billion while retaining a 20% ownership in it.
- The couple claimed their first racehorse in 1981, Joe Blow for $13,500. They picked a winner. By Gary’s estimates he started about 100 times for them (mostly in Nebraska), winning approximately 20 races and around $130,000 while never being claimed.
- The Wests’ first trainer was Nebraskan Ben Glass, who later became the Wests’ racing manager and bloodstock adviser, a role he continues today.
- Thoroughbred holdings grew over the years and the couple made a national splash for the first time when their Rockamundo (trained by Glass) won the 1993 Arkansas Derby at odds of 108-1 under Calvin Borel. “Biggest price ever (in the race),” noted Gary West. “I had a real adrenalin rush. That probably hooked me for life.”
- The Wests’ stable has had its share of good stakes horses in the seasons since, among them Calide Valley, Ubiquity, Baptize, million-dollar-earner Dollar Bill, Mongoose, Buddha, High Limit, Mass Media, Sweet Lips, Guilt Trip, Book Review, Power Broker and Family Tree.
- Primary trainers are Bob Baffert in the west and Wayne Catalano in the Midwest.
- At one point in 2013, Wests had five possible Kentucky Derby horses in Flashback, Code West, Power Broker, Treasury Bill and Title Contender. Though none of them made the race, the couple’s desire to go back on the Derby Trail has become an annual ritual.
- Wests’ equine holdings include approximately 150 horses.
- In 2006 the Gary and Mary West Foundation (www.

gmwf.org) was established and it supports four focus areas: lowering the cost of health care; independence for seniors; career opportunities for disadvantaged youth, and service canines for seniors and veterans. To date it has provided more than $192 million in funding to non-profits primarily located in San Diego and Omaha.

- Two other West efforts based in San Diego are the non-profit Gary and Mary West Health Institute, supported by their West Health Policy Center and the West Health Incubator (www.westhealth.org); as well as the Gary and Mary West Senior Wellness Center, which provides nutritious meals seven days a week to low-income and homeless seniors.

- West Point’s Commanding Curve was a rallying runner-up to California Chrome in the 2014 Kentucky Derby, beaten less than two lengths at 37-1. Was retired from racing in 2016 with more than $600,000 in winnings.
 - Outfit landed another Grade I tally when their long-winded veteran Twilight Eclipse gamely captured the Man o’ War Stakes at Belmont Park in 2015. World-record holder for 12 furlongs on grass (2:22.63 in Pan American ‘Cap at Gulfstream Park in 2013) was retired with a bankroll of $2 million.
 - Stable’s longest-running star was the old pro Awesome Gem, retired in 2012 at age 9 following a multiple-stakes-winning career that saw him race 52 times and earn nearly $2.9 million, including four Breeders’ Cup starts.
 - Other stakes winners include Belle of the Hall, King Congie, Seattle Fitz, Macho Again, El Gato Malo and Justwhistledixie. Current stars include Kanthaka and Giza Goddess.
 - First graded-stakes victory came with Ethan Man in the 2002 Swale Stakes, and Big City Bound brought West Point its initial black-type win in the 1995 Miss Liberty Stakes.
 - West Point Thoroughbreds maintains offices in New York, New Jersey, Kentucky and California. It currently employs 23 trainers, including west coast connected conditioners such as Jerry Hollendorfer, John Shirreffs, John Sadler and Keith Desormeaux.
 - They currently race approximately 100 horses for 400 owners.
 - Finley was elected to The Jockey Club in 2019.
 - Finley is a graduate of the United States Military Academy at West Point, NY and served in the U.S. Army as an airborne ranger. He holds a master’s degree in business from Boston University.
 - Established the Thoroughbred Thank You Fund that took 400 soldiers to the Kentucky Derby in 2005.
 - Also established the Congie Black and Gold Fund to channel funds toward retired racehorses.

- Snared a sweet prize when their filly Life Is Sweet won the Breeders’ Cup Ladies Classic in 2009. She was retired in 2010 with more than $1.8-million in earnings.
- Won their first Breeders’ Cup championship day race and eventual Eclipse Award when Sweet Catomine captured the B.C. Juvenile Fillies in 2004. Earlier, she had won the Grade I Del Mar Debutante. Life Is Sweet and Sweet Catomine are full sisters. Their dam, the Wygods’ Sweet Life, was honored as Broodmare of the Year for 2009 by the Kentucky Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders.
- Bred Shared Belief, Eclipse Award champion 2-year-old male of 2013 whom they sold after the son of Candy Ride broke his maiden in his career debut at Golden Gate Fields. Gelding won the 2014 TVG Pacific Classic and four other Grade I stakes before succumbing to colic in December 2015.
- In 2010, Wygods sold their River Edge Farm, the 170-acre breeding facility in Buellton, CA, where there were more than 90 broodmares and 40 horses in training. The farm also was home base for sires Bertrando, Benchmark, Tribal Rule and Dixie Chatter. Those stallions were shifted to Ballena Vista Farm in Ramona. Bertrando subsequently was pensioned and died in 2014, while that same year

Tribal Rule suffered an apparent heart attack and died while covering a mare. Wygods’ speedster Idiot Proof also shifted to Ballena Vista, then moved to Victory Rose Farm in Vacaville.

- Wygods have bred more than 50 stakes winners and have raced about 20. They currently have approximately 40 broodmares and 20 horses in training.
- California’s leading breeders in 2006, 2007 and 2008.
- Raced grass ace After Market, a son of Storm Cat out of the Wygods’ brilliant racemare Tranquility Lake. After Market upset California Horse of the Year Lava Man in the Grade I Whittingham Memorial in 2007, as well as winning Del Mar’s Grade I Eddie Read Handicap and the Grade II Del Mar Handicap. He figured to be one of the top choices in the Arlington Million and the Breeders’ Cup Turf, but he was declared out of both races because of soft turf. He stands at stud in Turkey.
- Also raced After Market’s full brother, Courageous Cat, a multiple-stakes winner of more than $1.1 million.
- Couple’s silks also flew on Harmonious, a double Grade I winner.
- Wygods’ trainer for Life Is Sweet and After Market was John Shirreffs. Couple now employs Hall of Fame conditioner Bill Mott and Jimmy Jerkens in the east, along with Cliff Sise, Jr., Simon Callaghan and Hall of Famer Richard Mandella in the west.
- Curently Mott has a promising 3-year-old for the Wygods named Modernist. Homebred stakes winner by Uncle Mo has designs on this year’s Triple Crown races.
- Among other stakes runners for Wygods: Pirate’s Bounty, Twice the Vice, Pharma, Exotic Wood, Key Phrase, Benchmark, Feverish and Silent Sighs.
- Martin went to the racetrack often as a youngster, hanging out with the late Bobby Frankel while attending high school and college (New York University). Frankel was just getting started on what became a Hall of Fame career.
- Wygods moved to California from New Jersey in 1994 to be closer to their horse operations. He had been involved in business as a health-care entrepreneur and sold his company, Medco Container Services, in 1993 to pharmaceutical giant Merck & Company for $6.5 billion.
- Resigned as a director and chief executive officer in 1994 in order to return to his specialty of deal-making and building small companies. Says five companies he created had earned about $7.5 billion for investors since the mid-1970s.
- Formerly served as board chairman and CEO of WebMD. Named in 2018 to board of new San Diego-based molecular diagnostics company Biological Dynamics.
- Became a TOBA trustee and a member of The Jockey

Club in 1996. Also has served on the board of directors of Del Mar Thoroughbred Club since 1999.

- Successful businessman-turned-horse owner first saw the sport at little Cahokia Downs near his hometown of St. Louis. Also remembers trips to Chicago in the ’60s and ’70s to see racing greats Buckpasser and Secretariat.
- Was a star as a businessman, notably in the women’s apparel industry: Former chairman, president and CEO of Talbots, the manufacturer and retailer of stylish women’s wear. Also held executive positions with Federated Stores, Bonwit Teller, Kohl’s Food and John Breuner Company.
- Graduate of Washington University in St. Louis; is on that institution’s board of directors.
- Jumped in as a horse owner in 2000 with Hall of Fame conditioner Ron McAnally as his trainer.
- Second horse he owned — Gabriellina Giof — became a stakes winner, then rewarded him further when she foaled his Grade I winner Gabby’s Golden Gal.
- Had stakes success with Nicobar, Good Student, Alozaina, Fairly Ransom, Private Banking, House of Fortune and Tizzy’s Tune.
- Besides Gabriellina Giof, several of his other runners, including House of Fortune, Tizzy’s Tune and Alozaina, form the nucleus of his small broodmare band headquartered in Kentucky.
- In 2008 he shifted his racing stock to the high-profile barn of trainer Bob Baffert, a move that paid some major dividends.
- Besides Gabby’s Golden Gal, Baffert clicked for him with a private purchase named Richard’s Kid, who won Del Mar’s 2009 Pacific Classic to give Zetcher the biggest win of his career. The horse was sold to Zabeel Racing International Corporation (the racing stable of Sheikh Rashid bin Mohammed al Maktoum, the oldest son of Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid al Maktoum, the ruler of Dubai) and came back to win the 2010 Pacific Classic in a new set of silks.

- Also training for Zetcher in the West is Simon Callaghan, while Chad Brown conditions his horses on the East Coast.
- Another daughter of Gabriellina Giof — Always a Princess — set the pace, then lost by less than two lengths in the 2009 Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies. She went on to win three stakes and more than $500,000 before being retired in 2011.
- Owner had a sparkling 2010 starting off with his mare Zardana shipping to New Orleans and beating odds-on Rachel Alexandra in the New Orleans Ladies. Also won Grade I sprints with E Z’s Gentleman and El Brujo.
- Had his best year yet for purses in 2015 when he banked more than $10-million.
- Was hoping he had his best horse yet in the bay Firing Line, a game second in the Kentucky Derby in 2015 behind Triple Crown winner and Horse of the Year American Pharoah. The Simon Callaghan-trained colt, a winner of $976,000, subsequently went unplaced in the Preakness where he apparently suffered an injury. After an extended period on the shelf, he attempted a comeback in 2016, but was retired after one start. Horse currently stands at stud at Crestwood Farm in Lexington, KY.
- Besides Firing Line, has been a Kentucky Derby player with his 2011 Santa Anita Derby winner Midnight Interlude (finished 16th) and with 2011 CashCall Futurity winner Liaison (6th) in 2012.
- Was a director, then chairman, of the Thoroughbred Owners of California between February 2009 and February 2011. Stepped down from the latter role to spend more time having fun with his horses.
- Elected as a member of The Jockey Club in 2010.

- Runs mostly selling stock with a reputation for claiming sharply and moving horses up.
- Rang up a nice stakes tally with Spirit Rules in the 2015 Cal Cup Sprint.
- Had pair of stakes winners — Coconut Girl and Texcess — that sent him to best earnings of his career in 2004 at $1.5 million.
- Texcess was sold for $300,000 at January 2006 Barretts sale.
- Top runner for him in 2013 was Tiz a Minister, who was on the Kentucky Derby trail but couldn't make the field. Wound up third in the Snow Chief Stakes before winning the Grade III Affirmed Handicap at Hollywood Park.
- Trainer's other stakes winners include: Asong for Billy (2002 Pomona Derby), The Morris Monroe, Green Eyed Lady and Rush Into Heaven.
- Tied for two training titles in 1998 — Fairplex Park with Sandy Shulman, Caesar Dominguez and Jeff Mullins and Hollywood Park autumn meet with Neil Drysdale.
- Avid basketball player in his youth, was member of junior varsity squad at UCLA. Graduated UCLA and was headed to graduate school, but took a summer job at the racetrack and never left.
- Met his wife on an Opening Day at Del Mar. Yes, she was wearing a great hat.

- Inducted into Thoroughbred racing's Hall of Fame in 2009.
- Through June, 2020, ranks third all-time among trainers for earnings behind only Todd Pletcher and Steve Asmussen at more than $300 million. Is the all-time leader for money won at the Breeders' Cup - $30,065,000.
- Appeared to have two aces for the delayed 2020 Kentucky Derby in Nadal and Charlatan, but both went to the sidelines with injuries. Still might have a pair for the Labor Day weekend race in Authentic and Cezanne.
- Master trainer pulled off his second Triple Crown classic in 2018 with the undefeated Justify, whose dash through the Kentucky Derby, Preakness and Belmont under Mike Smith was a front-running thing of beauty. Late-blooming colt was a perfect six-for-six and a winner of more than $3.7 million before being retired to Ashford Stud. Keyed by Justify, 2018 was Baffert's second-best year ever for earnings at $17 million plus, exceeded only by his earnings in 2017 - $21 million plus.
- Previously, Baffert won the Triple Crown with American Pharoah in 2015, breaking a 37-year dry spell (Affirmed in 1978) on the Triple front. "Pharoah" won Del Mar Futurity as a 2-year-old en route to becoming 2014 2-year-old male champion. Mercurial colt won seven of eight starts as a 3-year-old, climaxed by a front-running score in the Breeders' Cup Classic to push his bankroll past the $8.6-million mark and sew up both 3-year-old and Horse of the Year honors.
- Trainer joins the legendary "Sunny Jim" Fitzsimmons (Gallant Fox 1930 and Omaha 1935) as only conditioners to win two Triple Crowns. Baffert also can claim to having won most Triple Crown races – 15. Justify's tour de force marked the fifth time the trainer had tried to take the Crown, losing in the final leg three times with Silver Charm in 1997, Real Quiet in 1998 and War Emblem in 2002. The first two finished second in the Belmont, the third was eighth. He has triumphed in five Derbies, seven Preaknesses and three Belmonts.

- Witty, white-haired conditioner – surely the sport's most recognizable face -- wrote yet another amazing chapter in his incredible career with his development of the brilliant Arrogate, who, in a span of eight months, became North America's all-time richest racehorse with earnings of $17,422,600 by sweeping four Grade I events - the Travers Stakes by 13 1/2 lengths in track record time after a Del Mar prep race; an upset of California Chrome in the Breeders' Cup Classic; the inaugural $12 million Pegasus World Cup Invitational in January 2017 and arguably his greatest race in the $10 million Dubai World Cup. Breaking last and falling far back, Arrogate put together a spectacular rally to score going away in that one under Mike Smith. Unfortunately, the horse, who had begun a stud career at Juddmont Farms in Kentucky, contacted a yet-to-be-understood illness in June, 2020. A necropsy is scheduled to be performed.
- Conditioner's resume includes 18 Eclipse Award champions who have won 25 titles: Chilukki, Point Given (2), Real Quiet, Silverbulletday (2), Silver Charm, Vindication, War Emblem, Indian Blessing (2), Midnight Lute, Midshipman, Lookin At Lucky (2), American Pharoah (3), Drefong, Arrogate, West Coast, Abel Tasman, Game Winner and Justify (2).
- When Baffert entered HOF in 2009, he was joined by his trainee Silverbulletday, owned and raced by chief client Mike Pegram, as the honoree in the female horse category.
- Has won four Eclipse Awards as nation's outstanding trainer – 1997, '98, '99 and 2015.
- Won the 3,000th race of his career on February 1, 2020 at Santa Anita with a horse named Thousand Words in the Robert B. Lewis Stakes. Lewis was a client of Baffert's who most famously raced the star Silver Charm.
- Stakes-winning total at Del Mar of 133 is well ahead of runner-up Ron McAnally's 77. Baffert has dominated the Del Mar Futurity with a remarkable 14 victories, most recently in 2018 with Game Winner, later acclaimed champion two-year-old. At one stretch, won seven in a row – 1996-2002. Established a one-season record for stakes wins at Del Mar with 13 in 2000.
- Among his many stakes tallies at Del Mar are five Pacific Classics — General Challenge in 1999, Richard's Kid (2009 and 2010), Game On Dude (2013) and Collected (2017). Those victories are five of the more than 40 races

- he's won with purses of at least $1-million, topped off in 2015 by American Pharoah's Arkansas Derby, the Triple Crown sweep and Breeders' Cup Classic, as well as Santa Anita Derby, twice; Haskell Invitational, seven times; Hollywood Gold Cup, Jockey Club Gold Cup, Santa Anita Handicap, Travers Stakes, three Dubai World Cups, Pegasus World Cup and 15 Breeders' Cup wins
- Became Del Mar's all-time winningest trainer in 2017 with a total now that has reached 518.
- Dubai World Cup wins: Silver Charm in 1998, Captain Steve in 2001 and Arrogate in 2017. Silver Charm's career earnings were $6.9 million; Captain Steve's $6.8 million. Silver Charm went into Hall of Fame in 2007.
- Breeders' Cup victories – 15 -- Five wins in the Sprint, Thirty SLEWS (1992), Midnight Lute (2007, 2008), Secret Circle (2013) and Drefong (2016); two in the Juvenile Fillies, Silverbulletday (1998) and Indian Blessing (2007); four in the Juvenile, Vindication (2002), Midshipman (2008), New Year's Day (2013) and Game Winner (2018). Juvenile Sprint once, Secret Circle (2011), and Classic three times - Bayern (2014), American Pharoah (2015) and Arrogate (2016).
- His heart attack in Dubai in 2012 while training Game On Dude for the $6-million World Cup was a scary, though temporary, setback from which he recovered well. Returned to Dubai for the first time since 2012 to win the World Cup with Arrogate in 2017.
- Won seven straight trainer titles at Del Mar, 1997-2003, and has won 29 titles overall on the Southern California circuit.
- Began career as Quarter Horse trainer. Had world champion Gold Coast Express in 1986.
- Graduate of University of Arizona's Racetrack Industry Program in 1977, began training handful of Thoroughbreds in 1988; went full time in '91.
- Credits much of his success to main client, Mike Pegram, who urged him to make the switch to Thoroughbreds.
- Grew up on family cattle/chicken ranch in Nogales that parents, Bill and Ellie Baffert, bought four months before Bob was born.
- Got started at age 12 by grooming and galloping his father's Quarter Horses.
- First Thoroughbred bought at public auction was Thirty SLEWS in 1988. The $30,000 purchase, owned in part by Pegram, won the 1992 Breeders' Cup Sprint.
- Family: Wife, Jill; one son; three sons and daughter from prior marriage.

- After two decades worth of “lean years,” hard-working trainer now hitting on all cylinders with one of the top stables on the Southern California circuit. Outfit won $3.7 million in purses in 2015; $4.6 million in 2016; $4.9 million in 2017; $5.5 million in 2018, and all-time best of $7.3 million in 2019.
- He’s put five Grade I feathers in his cap with millionaire Next Shares, Big Macher, Lady Prancealot, Secret Spice and Spanish Queen.
- Clicked recently with Graded stakes winners Oscar Dominquez, Marckie’s Water, Neptune’s Storm, Desert Stone and Venetian Harbor.
- His family moved to Huntington Beach, CA when he was nine; he graduated from Marina High School in 1979.
- Attended the races with his father as a child and fell in love with it early. When he turned 21 he thought he wanted to break into the industry but didn’t know how so he started with a move to Lexington, KY in 1983.
- In 1984, Baltas attended the Kentucky Equine Institute in Lexington and began working at Spendthrift Farm where Triple Crown winners Seattle Slew and Affirmed were stationed. He rubbed yearlings and started working as a groom while he was there learning the business “from the ground up.”
- Worked for trainers Tom Skiffington, Eric Guillot, Barry Abrams, Craig Dollase and Hall of Famer Richard Mandella.
- Took out his trainer’s license in 1991 and won his first race at Hollywood Park with Latchburn.
- Registered his first stakes victory with Freedom Crest, a former claimer in the Grade II San Pasqual Handicap at Santa Anita in 2001. Baltas had haltered Freedom Crest out of a $32,000 maiden claimer in June 1999 and he went on to win the Grade II Goodwood Breeders’ Cup Handicap (where he beat 2000 Horse of the Year Tiznow) en route to banking more than $600,000 for conditioner.
- Made another nifty claim – this one for only $20,000 -- in Big Macher. The Beau Genius gelding was haltered out of his first start in July 2013 at Del Mar and was a running machine thereafter, winning eight races and nearly three-quarters of a million dollars over four seasons at the track. Trainer registered his initial Grade I victory with him at Del Mar in July 2014 when he captured the Bing Crosby Stakes.

- Big Macher’s success as a sprinter afforded Baltas the opportunity to travel to Dubai in 2014 to race in the Group I, $2 million Golden Shaheen at Meydan Racecourse during the Dubai World Cup (he finished fifth after missing the break). “He was nothing but a blessing,” said Baltas. “I’d never been out of the country. Horses can take you all over the world. It’s an amazing sport.”
- Trained Imperative, a $50,000 claim who became a major stakes horse.
- Among his other stakes winners are Flashy Ways, Wild in the Saddle and Free Rose, who was acclaimed Del Mar’s best 3-year-old in 2016 after winning the La Jolla Handicap and Del Mar Derby. Also sent out Mokat to win the 2016 San Clemente Handicap, then won that same race with Madam Dancealot in 2017.
- Has 14 stakes wins at Del Mar.
- Board member of California Thoroughbred Trainers.
- Is married to Debby Baltas whose family ran the backside track kitchen at Hollywood Park for many years until it closed in 2013.

- Registered career best purse earnings in 2007 when stable accounted for more than $2.2-million.
- Got his start as hot walker for the late Hall of Fame trainer Robert Frankel after coming to California from his native Mexico in 1970.
- Moved on as groom for legendary Farrell “Wild Horse” Jones, late father of former trainer and Hall of Famer Gary Jones and grandfather of trainer Martin Jones, who carries on the family tradition. Later, worked for Gary Jones, as groom, foreman and assistant trainer.
- When Gary Jones retired in 1996, Becerra started training on his own, beginning with seven horses from former Jones clients. Also got some horses from Prince Ahmed bin Salman’s large stable.

- First victory came with first horse saddled—Sky Launch at Hollywood Park. First stakes winner was Kingdom Found, who won Grade II San Pasqual in 1997 at Santa Anita.
- Other top horses: St Averil, a 2004 Kentucky Derby prospect until sidelined by a foot problem; Rahy Dolly, Royal Palace, Saint Buddy, Roll Hennessy Roll, Uncle Denny and Special Matter. The last-named was claimed for $12,500 and won about $400,000.
- Grew up on a farm in Jalisco in central Mexico.
- His son, Rafael, Jr., left the world of finance to help his father in racing and serves as his chief assistant and stable foreman.

- Northern California bred, born and based conditioner had made forays south since 1996, but shifted all the way in 2011 and had his best career year with more than $2.7 million in purses. His 2013 earnings of $3.2 million now is his topper.
- Leading the way in 2013 was speedy filly She’s a Tiger, who won the Grade I Del Mar Debutante and crossed the finish line first in the Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies only to be disqualified for causing interference. She became trainer’s first champion; won Eclipse Award as top 2-year-old filly.
- Before her came another “Tiger,” this one named Smiling Tiger. Extra fast son of the Storm Cat sire Hold That Tiger won seven sprint stakes, including a trio of Grade I’s – Bing Crosby, Ancient Title, Triple Bend – and finished up with more than $1.4 million in earnings. He’s now a red-hot California stallion at Harris Farms in Coalinga.
- Bonde has developed a knack with young horses, many purchased for bargain prices. Usually has around 60 or so horses in training.

- Hails from a horse background: Grandfather Duke Bonde, Sr. was a trainer, while his father, Duke, Jr., uncle Bob Dupont and brother Gary all were farriers. Gary also serves as his assistant with his Northern California string.
- Jeff came to racing at age 15 and learned under Bay Area conditioners Emmett Campbell, Don Jeffries, Tex Johnson and Jerry Dutton.
- Began training on his own in 1974 and saddled his first winner at the Stockton Fair that year.
- Smiling Tiger was Bonde’s second Breeders’ Cup starter when he ran third in the BC Sprint in 2010 at Churchill Downs. He previously saddled 2-year-old filly Spain to run fourth in the 1999 BC Juvenile Fillies. (Spain later was transferred to D. Wayne Lukas and went on to win the Breeders’ Cup Distaff.)
- Trainer also had a pair of Triple Crown colts in 2011 in Sunland Derby winner Twice the Appeal, who finished 10th in the Kentucky Derby, and Sway Away, 12th in the Preakness Stakes.
- Has saddled 16 stakes winners at Del Mar, including back-to-back CTBA Stakes wins with Sterling Cat in 2004 and Devons Smokin in 2005. Won a trio of Del Mar stakes with Miss Sunset (Generous Portion in 2016, Fleet Treat and CERF in 2017) and a pair in 2017 with Bookies Luck (I’m Smokin and Golden State Juvenile).
- Other major winners: Cambina, Sierra Sunset, Untouched Talent, Sierra Sweetie, Epic Honor, General Royal and Mr. Doubledown.
- Family: Wife Stephanie; five sons; one daughter.

- Brit is now in his 11th year of training on his own in the U.S., working from his Southern California base.
- He had his first big year in 2015 with a stable headed by Firing Line, winner of the Sunland Derby and runner-up to American Pharoah in the Kentucky Derby.
- Followed that up in 2017 by winning more than $2.8-million in purses led by Grade I stakes winners

Moonshine Memories and American Gal.

- All told, he’s saddled seven Grade I winners, the two above and millionaire Taris, Dubawi Heights, Fashion Plate, Byrama and his latest, the speedy filly Bellafina. The last-named has won seven races, all stakes, and more than $1.5 million. She was a good second in the Breeders’ Cup Filly-Mare Sprint last year at Santa Anita and figures to be a serious factor in the distaff ranks in 2020.
- Besides Bellafina’s Breeders’ Cup effort, trainer also grabbed a second in the 2019 BC Juvenile Fillies with Donna Veloce as he finished up his best year for earnings with more than $2.9 million in prize money.
- Callaghan grew up in the racing hub of Newmarket in England where his father, Neville, trained for about 25 years. He first worked with his father, then spent most of his teenage years learning under the well-known British trainer Richard Hannon.
- While in a return tour at his father’s yard, young Callaghan spent two fall and winter seasons with leading U.S. conditioner Todd Pletcher. He began training on his own in England at age 24.
- Made his move to the U.S. in 2010 with horses owned by his father, Michael Tabor, Ben Sangster, Derrick Smith and Mrs. John Magnier. Has become major trainer for major owner Kaleem Shah, whose silks fly on Bellafina.
- Called the shots for filly Abel Tasman into her early 3-year-old year in 2017 before she was moved to a different barn. Quality Road miss went on to be 3-year-old filly champ.
- Has won U.S. stakes with Qaraaba, Belle Royale, Turning Top, Treasuring and Beau Recall, all European imports.

• A master at the claiming box, often moving his claims up. Improved his stock in recent years, saddling allowance runners and stakes-quality horses.

- Made switch from a public stable to private trainer in 2008 for his long-time client Ron Valenta, who raced as La Canada Stable. The connection was a good one, with the trainer ringing up $1-million-plus seasons through 2011, before Valenta left the game.
- Trainer readjusted and went back public, reuniting with some former clients and bringing on new ones.
- Trainer sent out his first winner, Impulsively, in 1987.
- Won his first Del Mar stakes in 1997 when 8-year-old First Intent captured the Bing Crosby Breeders’ Cup Handicap, a race he took for a second time in 2006 with Pure as Gold for his first Grade I victory.
- Leading trainer at 2001 Hollywood Park spring/summer meet, helping him to post career best records for the year of 74 wins and purse money of $2.1 million. Has had 16 different years where his stable has won at least $1-million in purses.
- Leading trainer at Oak Tree meeting at Santa Anita in 2002.
- Other top runners: Epic Power, who won the 2006 California Cup Mile; Beltene, Soul City Slew, Mother’s Meeting, Sunday Stroll, Global, Legendary Weave.
- Son of trainer Mike Carava, who conditioned Thoroughbreds in late 1970s and early ’80s.
- Began career working for trainer Joe Griffin in 1984; later moved on to work for Jerry Fanning.
- Began training on his own in 1992.

- Consistency is trainer’s hallmark with the stable exceeding $1 million in earnings 10 of the last 12 years. His best years were 2004 - $2,580,222 and 2014 - $2,353,389.
- Victory in the $1 million Delta Jackpot in Louisiana with Ocho Ocho Ocho topped off a good 2014. That colt finished 14th in the 2015 Kentucky Derby following a third-place finish in Keeneland’s Blue Grass Stakes and won more than $800,000.

- Trainer’s other star in 2014 was Tom’s Tribute, who won both Del Mar’s Grade I Eddie Read Stakes and the Grade II Del Mar Mile.
- Has trained four million-dollar-plus earners: The Usual Q.T. ($1.5 million-plus), Moscow Burning ($1.3 million-plus), Ticker Tape ($1.3 million-plus) and Evening Jewel ($1.2 million-plus).
- Saddled winners of two of Del Mar’s Grade I stakes in 2010, sending The Usual Q.T. to victory in the Eddie Read and Evening Jewel in the Del Mar Oaks.
- His 2010 was highlighted by California-bred Horse of the Year Evening Jewel. Three-year-old filly’s campaign included victory in Ashland Stakes, nose loss to Blind Luck in Kentucky Oaks and consecutive wins in the Honeymoon Handicap at Hollywood Park, San Clemente and Del Mar Oaks.
- California breeders named him state’s top trainer for 2010.
- Had his best year for winners in 2009 with 33, including six straight — the last four in stakes — with The Usual Q.T. Among horse’s wins was the Grade I Hollywood Derby. Was named California’s top older horse and top grass runner in 2010.
- Trainer has been extremely successful with runners purchased in Europe, mostly in England. Examples of that are multiple-stakes winner Prize Exhibit and Grade I victress Sophie P.
- Saddled two other starters in Kentucky Derby—Jamaican Rum, sixth in 2001 and Ocean Sound, 17th in 2002.
- Has won 17 stakes races at Del Mar.
- Though born in the Bronx and a New York Yankees fan, grew up a horse and racing fan.
- First experience came with hunters and jumpers. First job on the racetrack was with trainer Joe Cantey and then Frank Whiteley in the east. While working with Whiteley, the star filly Ruffian was stable’s big horse.
- Moved to Southern California in 1981 and was an assistant to both Darrell Vienna and Brian Mayberry, then for a veterinarian for nine years before opening his own stable.
- Former president of California Thoroughbred Trainers.

- First graded stakes victory came when Celtic Ash won Pan American Handicap at Gulfstream Park on March 9, 1996, three days after taking out his trainer’s license and just a week after taking over the 33-horse Rodney Rash stable when Rash died unexpectedly.
- As an assistant trainer, helped condition three Santa Anita Handicap winners — Best Pal (1992) and Stuka (1994) with Gary Jones and Urgent Request (1995) with Rash.
- Has his own Grade I wins with Donna Viola, Squeak and Golden Apples, the last-named winning the 2001 Del Mar Oaks in her first race after coming from Europe. Golden Apples won the 2002 Eclipse Award as the nation’s top female grass runner after winning the Beverly D. and Yellow Ribbon.
- Trainer’s Crystal Hearted set a Del Mar turf course record in 1999 by winning the Wickerr Handicap at a mile in 1:33.
- Made a splash in 2009 with Irish import Ferneley, winning Grade II Del Mar Mile and finishing second to champion Ventura in Grade I Woodbine Mile.
- Among other stakes winners: Quiet Oasis, Spring Style, Missit, Queenie Belle, Falcon Flight, Worldly, Hal’s Pal, Sandtrap, Gold and Steel, Magellan and Dernier Empereur.
- Has 15 stakes wins at Del Mar.
- Nephew of legendary British trainer Henry Cecil, the late twin brother of Ben’s father. His initials “B.D.A.” stand for Benjamin David Amherst.
- Prior to tenure with Rash, had been assistant to Gary Jones in Southern California, Mark Tompkins and Ian Balding in England and Colin Hayes in Australia.

- C.T.B.A.’s Trainer of the Year in 2018 when his stable earned $6 million, his accomplished sprinter Ransom the Moon won the Grade I Bing Crosby Stakes for the second year in a row and his other stakes-winners in the barn that year were Grade I winners Fault and Bowies Hero, as well as S Y Sky, Just Grazed Me and Hunt.
- Took over operation of the Mike Mitchell stable in April 2014 after serving as assistant to his retiring mentor for 10 years.
- Mitchell, who died in April of 2015, was Del Mar’s all-time leading trainer with 476 wins and had praised D’Amato on numerous occasions for his loyalty, work ethic and capabilities.
- Had a breakout season at Del Mar in ’14, posting four stakes victories, including Del Mar Handicap with Big John B and Del Mar Derby with Midnight Storm. Big John B came back in 2015 to sweep the Cougar II Handicap and repeat in the Del Mar Handicap. Midnight Storm would go on to win four other Del Mar stakes making him one of only four horses to win five stakes at Del Mar. He’s now a stallion at Taylor Made Farm in Kentucky.
- In 2015 he got the Irish speedster Obviously over the hump when he saddled him to win the Breeders’ Cup Turf Sprint in his fifth try in the race.
- Trainer has now had a run of five years in a row (’15 to ’19) in which his stable has put up earnings of at least $5 million.
- Southern California native D’Amato came to the Mitchell barn after four years working with trainer Chuck Simon in the east and midwest. He says he was exposed to training methods of Hall of Famer Allen Jerkens through Simon.
- D’Amato cites all he learned through his time with Mitchell, too.

- He’s a graduate of the University of Southern California with a major in political science and a minor, he says, in race-tracking. He also earned a degree in animal science from the University of Arizona Racetrack Industry Program.
- Grew up in the San Pedro area and his immediate family still lives there or in nearby Pacific Palisades.
- Scored first graded stakes victory when Obviously captured the Grade III American Handicap at Santa Anita in 2014. Speedy gelding followed that up by giving D’Amato his first Grade I triumph in the Shoemaker Mile that June at Santa Anita. Obviously also won the Del Mar Mile in 2012 and 2013.
- Trainer put an exclamation point on his first full meet at Santa Anita when he closed out his initial spring/summer stand by saddling four winners on the final program of the 2014 session.
- Was leading trainer at the 2016 Santa Anita spring-summer season, his first title on the Southern California circuit, and won the Del Mar summer crown that same year with 23 victories.
- Was Del Mar’s top trainer again in summer of 2017 in a tie with Richard Baltas. Has scored 26 stakes wins at the seaside oval.

- Though he’ll always be linked to his brother, Hall of Fame rider Kent Desormeaux, 53-year-old J. (for John) Keith Desormeaux has made his own mark – and then some – in racing as trainer of a classy stable based in Southern California.
- He paid his racetrack dues over two decades of conditioning a small string of horses running mostly in Louisiana and Texas.
- Started out on a college summer internship from Louisiana Tech in Ruston, LA (where he earned a degree in Animal Science) galloping horses for trainer Tommy Caviness in Maryland. That led to a follow-up gig there with trainer Charlie Hadry, beginning as his exercise rider and winding up as his assistant trainer.

- Keith found an easy path to follow in Maryland thanks to the fact that his brother had used it as a base to earn an Eclipse Award as America’s top apprentice, then followed that up by winning 598 races in a year (1989), a mark that’s yet to be beaten.
- Keith subsequently learned the business on backstretches in Louisiana, Texas and California, then saw his steadily rising career take a leap forward when he says he got “monetized” by Texan businessman Matt Bryan after they met at a horse sale at Lone Star Park near Dallas in 2012. The tall Texan liked what he heard about horses from Desormeaux and the Big Chief Racing stable was formed.
- First horse Desormeaux bought for Big Chief crew at sale turned into graded stakes winner Ive Struck a Nerve.
- Their best horse was the now-retired Exaggerator, runner-up to Nyquist in the 2016 Kentucky Derby and then a brilliant winner of the Preakness Stakes, dealing Nyquist the first defeat of his career after he had lost to that colt four times. Exaggerator, now standing at WinStar Farm in Kentucky, retired with more than $3.5 million in purses and paved the way for the conditioner’s finest year for earnings, at almost $4.5 million.
- Did well with multiple-stakes winner My Boy Jack, who drew lots of action in the 2018 Kentucky Derby, but then ran into a world of trouble and had to settle for a game 5th behind Justify. Another stakes-winner in the stable was distance-loving Sonneteer, record-setting winner of the mile and one-half Champions Day Marathon at Churchill Downs in 2019.
- Other trainees have included Swipe, stakes-placed four times as a juvenile, all behind champion Nyquist, with the last being the Breeders’ Cup Juvenile, as well as the fillies Right There, Decked Out and Not Now Carolyn.
- Desormeaux’s break-through horse was the late-kicking Texas Red, who powered to a daylight victory (under his brother) in the 2014 Breeders’ Cup Juvenile in 2014 at Santa Anita. The son of Afleet Alex won the Jim Dandy Stakes as a 3-year-old and then in his final start of 2015 was fifth in the Travers. An ankle injury led to his retirement with $1.7 million in earnings in the bank.
- The trainer used to gallop his own horses, but discontinued that to tend to the needs of his split stable (Louisiana and California) and his major clients, headed by Bryan and his “Big Chief” bunch, but also including Erich Brehm, Pete Cantrell and several other major players who all - have brought along additional partners and friends.

- The Desormeaux clan grew up together on a farm in Maurice, a little village just on the edge of Lafayette deep in the heart of Louisiana Cajun country. They consisted of Dad (Harris), Mom (Brenda) and, in order, Keith, Kent, Kristie, Kelli, Kalen and Kip. Harris had that seemingly inbred Cajun love of horses and wound up running an unlicensed “bush” track in Lafayette called Acadiana Downs, where both Keith and Kent horsebacked – the older and bigger Keith as an exercise rider, the younger and lighter Kent as a jockey. Keith went on with his schooling, but Kent ditched school early to ride all the way to the Hall of Fame.
 - Asked about his now well-recognized ability to have “an eye for a horse,” Keith refuses to beat his chest. “I’ve seen one at a sale and said ‘This horse is an athlete; he can’t miss,’” he says. “Then sometimes that horse misses by a mile.”
 - But he also has been right more often than not and the results are starting to show that. Since 2013, his stable has never won less than $1 million a year.
 - Has won five stakes at Del Mar.
 - Family: One son.

• Had his best earnings record in 2007 (more than $3.3 million), headlined by stakes victories by Awesome Gem, Dancing Edie, Monterey Jazz, P.S.U. Grad, Treadmill, Bai and Bai and Ten a Penny.
• Monterey Jazz won the Strub Stakes and the Texas Mile for him in 2008, the American Handicap in 2009. Another stakes winner at the same time was El Gato Malo.
• Also won 11 races and more than $700,000 with the

- hard-trying, Cal-bred mare Bai and Bai.
- Youngest trainer, at 27, to win a Breeders’ Cup championship day title when Reraise won the 1998 Sprint and was awarded an Eclipse as the nation’s top sprinter.
 - In 1998 won Hollywood Park’s spring/summer training title with 19 victories in 38 starts. Scored first stakes win at Del Mar that year when Daring General triumphed in Graduation Stakes for 2-year-old Cal-breds.
 - One of his earliest thrills came from the victory in the 1997 Vernon Underwood Stakes by the former $12,500 claimer Tower Full, trainer’s first stakes tally.
 - Had good success with multiple stakes winner Futural in 2001 and picked up a major win in 2002 when he shipped Swept Overboard east to win the prestigious Metropolitan Handicap.
 - Developed major stakes winner Elloluv, winner of Hollywood Starlet in 2002 and Keeneland’s Ashland Stakes in 2003; finished fourth in 2003 Kentucky Oaks.
 - Spurred on by Dancing Edie, winner of Del Mar’s Grade I John C. Mabee Handicap, and Grade I Oak Leaf winner Cash Included, trainer posted purse money of $2.5 million in 2006.
 - Among other major winners: El Cielo, Major Charmer, Road to Slew, Momentum, Abbey Girl, Reality Road, Saint’s Honor, Walk In Time, PT’s Grey Eagle, Anziyan Royalty and Saint Afleet.
 - Has 11 stakes wins at Del Mar.
 - Craig was assistant to his late father, Wallace, for several years before going on his own in the fall of 1997.
 - Family: Wife Nancy; two daughters.

• Joined racing’s Hall of Fame in 2000.
• Surpassed the $100 million mark in earnings in 2018.
• Trained A.P. Indy to 1992 Horse of the Year title, despite the fact he was scratched from the Kentucky Derby with a foot injury. Trainer got his Kentucky Derby in 2000 with talented Fusaichi Pegasus.

- Saddled six winners of Breeders’ Cup Championship day races: A.P. Indy (1992 Classic), Princess Rooney (1984 Distaff), Hollywood Wildcat (1993 Distaff), Prized (1989 Turf), Tasso (1985 Juvenile), War Chant (2000 Mile).
- Joining A.P. Indy as Drysdale champions are Princess Rooney, Fiji, Hollywood Wildcat and Tasso.
- After missing Derby, A.P. Indy came back five weeks later to win the Belmont.
- Most well-known Drysdale trainee in the pre-Breeders’ Cup era was Bold’n Determined. She raced from 1979-81 and won Apple Blossom Handicap, Oak Leaf, Kentucky Oaks, Acorn, Coaching Club American Oaks and Spinster.
- Has registered 43 stakes wins at Del Mar, eighth best all-time among shore conditioners.
- Biggest year for money earned and victories came in 1998 with $6,574,484 and 73 wins, including 19 graded stakes. Top runners on the year included Hawksley Hill, winner of five stakes; Fiji, winner of four stakes; Storm Trooper, Gold Land, Labeeb, Love That Jazz, Dance Parade and Sea of Secrets.
- Other important runners: Rahy, Fourty Niners Son, Musical Chimes, Obrigado, Artiste Royal, Touch of the Blues, Sabona, Political Ambition, Gorgeous, Splendid Blended, Hail Hilarious, Aragorn, Sarafan, French Deputy, Becrux and Sunday Break.
- Won 1,000th race on July 19, 2001 with Beat All at Del Mar.
- Background includes training show horses, managing a breeding farm in Argentina and working four years as an assistant to Hall of Famer Charlie Whittingham.
- Hollywood Park had a Grade I turf race called the Charles Whittingham and Drysdale won it six times.
- Became private trainer for Saron Stable in 1974; opened public stable in 1983.
- Son of a British Royal Marine officer.

- Took out his training license at the age of 20 in 1980. First winner, To B. Or Not, became a multiple-stakes winner.
- Trained outstanding racemares Twice the Vice and Exotic Wood to Grade I victories and multiple stakes wins during careers.
- Trainee Pirate’s Revenge scored major upset by defeating champion Paseana in 1995 Milady Handicap at Hollywood Park.
- Has 20 stakes victories at Del Mar, including the 2004 Del Mar Futurity with gelding Declan’s Moon, who went on to win the Hollywood Futurity and the Eclipse Award as the nation’s top juvenile. In 2016, sent out Magic Market to win a division of the Harry F. Brubaker and won the Pat O’Brien Stakes with speedy Masochistic.
- Saddled Rail Trip to victories in the Mervyn LeRoy and Californian at Hollywood Park in 2010 following an unlucky third in the 2009 Pacific Classic. Following an extended period in the east with another trainer, Rail Trip returned to Ellis’ barn in 2012, winning the San Diego Handicap and placing second in the Breeders’ Cup Dirt Mile.
- For major client at the time, B. Wayne Hughes, saddled Atswhatimtalkn bout to fourth-place finish to Funny Cide in 2003 Kentucky Derby.
- In 2005, the Hughes-Ellis team went back to Churchill Downs to win the Derby Trial with Don’t Get Mad; ran back the next week to finish fourth to Giacomo in the “Run for the Roses.” Colt went on to win Indiana Derby.
- Unearthed another top female in stakes star Include Me Out, a winner of four graded stakes and more than $800,000 during 2012.
- Among his other stakes horses: Mr Gruff, Vision in Gold, Buzzards Bay, Benchmark, Lexa, Que Belle, I Ain’t Bluffing, Glass Ceiling, Denim Yenem, Key Phrase, Pharma and Shake the Yoke.
- Has done TV gigs over the years as a racing analyst for TVG.
- Two brothers-in-law are active in racing, Paul McGee, a well-known trainer based at Churchill Downs, and Marty McGee, longtime writer for Daily Racing Form based in the midwest.

- Finally sent distance- and grass-loving Ashleyuvssugar home this year after 9-year-old Cal-bred gelding won 10 races, six stakes and more than $1.4 million in purses. Hard-trying old warrior had danced 38 dances, the majority of them against stakes company.
- Won more than $1 million with Champagne Room ($1.4), Giant Expectations ($1.3) and Storm the Court ($1.2).
- The last-named pulled off a nifty upset in the 2019 Breeders’ Cup Juvenile and is expected to be a force with the good 3-year-olds this year.
- Has a high-potential horse in the 5-year-old Core Beliefs, winner of the Ohio Derby as a three-year-old in 2018 and the New Orleans Handicap last year.
- Called many of the shots for stretch-running sprinter Kobe’s Back, a five-time winner for more than $1.1 million.
- Trainer did well in 2014 with promising Dance With Fate, winner of Keeneland’s Blue Grass Stakes, then sixth in the Kentucky Derby. Unfortunately, he was severely injured in a freak training accident and had to be euthanized in July of 2014
- Won stakes with a quartet of fillies: My Gi Gi was retired in 2014 after winning or placing in eight of 18 races and earning $334,290; She’s Cheeky won more than $430,000; took Madame Cactus to Keeneland in 2013 to capture GII Lexus Raven Run, and Sheza Smoke Show became a stakes winner at Santa Anita in the GIII Senorita in 2014.
- Had best season for purse earnings ($4,235,430) in 2016. His stable has won at least $1 million in purses for nine straight years.
- Got rolling in 2011 with 2-year-old filly Weemissfrankie, who won the Del Mar Debutante and the Oak Leaf, both Grade I events. Was undefeated going into Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies, where she finished third.
- Trainer puts together a budget prior to going to sales and tries to stay within the boundaries. Weemissfrankie was outside the budget when he went to $175,000 to buy her. She was the stalwart of the stable made up of partners Sharon Alesia, the widow of Frank Alesia, Bran Jam Stable (Mike Mellen) and Joe Ciaglia, as well as minority partners Rob Dyrdek and Nick Cosato.

- Met Frank Alesia at age 18 and began conditioning horses for him in 1989. Eurton entered the business as a jockey at age 19; rode for 2 1/2 years - at Agua Caliente in Tijuana, in Canada at Edmonton and Calgary, then at Bay Meadows and Golden Gate Fields.
- Went to races with father, Wayne, when he was about 10 and because of his size and encouragement from his father, he decided to try riding. Attended Rex Ellsworth’s jockey school in Chino, CA.
- His mother, Shirley, remarried and stepfather was trainer Steve Ippolito, for whom he exercised horses when weight issues ended his jockey career.
- Ippolito encouraged him to become a trainer. Took out his license in 1985 and saddled his first winner, Mah Jong, late that year.
- For several years, trained mostly claimers, but moved into buying horses and developing them. Among early purchases were Masterpiece and Star Nicholas, both of whom became stakes horses. Won the Golden State Juvenile Fillies with Pacific Heat at the Del Mar fall meet in 2015.
- Made what’s believed to be Santa Anita history by saddling eight straight winners at the winter-spring meeting of 2012.
- Has nine stakes wins at Del Mar - in addition to the 2016 Del Mar Handicap with Ashleyuvssugar, also won the Sorrento Stakes that year with Champagne Room, who went on to Eclipse Award honors after winning the Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies in a 33-1 surprise.
- Family: Wife Lisa; one daughter, Britney, an on-air racing commentator with TVG and NBC.

- Steady, low-key conditioner, now in her 32st year of training.

- Her big gun in the barn now continues to be Bolo, who took her to the Kentucky Derby at 3, but showed he still has spring in his step last year at age 7 when he went wire-to-wire in the Grade I Shoemaker Mile at Santa Anita in May following nearly two years on the shelf. Other than a trio of races around his Derby shot (he finished 12th), gelded son of Temple City (a horse Gaines trained) has been a grass horse whose main claim to fame previously was winning renewals of the Grade 2 Arcadia Stakes in 2016-17. Veteran, who is just shy of becoming a millionaire, is back on the work tab this spring and it appears there is another chapter to be written.
- Trainer did well with 3-year-old Cal-bred Gervinho, winner of an Oceanside Stakes division and runner-up in a division of the Del Mar Derby in 2013. Curlin’s Fox provided Gaines with her 16th Del Mar stakes success when she won the Sandy Blue Handicap in 2015. Del Mar stakes No. 17 was with Texas Ryano in the Hollywood Turf Cup in 2016.
- Saddled Temple City to victory in the 2010 Cougar II Handicap, commenting “I think I’m too old to be a cougar, but I won the Cougar and that’s all I care about.” Victory capped a three-win day, which equaled her previous best at Del Mar.
- Snared sweetest prize of career when 25-1 shot Dancing in Silks won by a whisker in the Breeders’ Cup Sprint in 2009. Triumph pushed his bankroll to more than $1.4 million and helped Gaines earn $2,568,891 on the year, a close second to her top season of $2,572,360 in 2008.
- Dancing in Silks shared honors with Breeders’ Cup Turf Sprint winner California Flag as the 2009 California Thoroughbred Breeders Association’s “Horse of the Year.”
- 2008 saw her post 42 victories, including eight stakes, led by ill-fated stable ace Nashoba’s Key’s win in the Grade I Santa Margarita.
- Nashoba’s Key had gone undefeated in her first seven races before finishing fourth in the Breeders’ Cup Filly & Mare Turf in 2007. She was severely injured in a freak accident at Hollywood Park and had to be euthanized on May 28, 2008. Had eight victories and a second in 10 starts for earnings of more than $1.2 million.
- Did well with Foxysox, who rang up seven wins (six in stakes) and more than $700,000 in purses.
- Had good luck with multiple-stakes winner Tiz Elemental, who won five of 12 starts and nearly $500,000.
- In 2002, Super High posted four stakes victories, including the Solana Beach Handicap at Del Mar in which she set a stakes record of 1:33.65 for a mile on the turf. Later, won the California Cup Matron.

- Other top runners: Malibu Pier, Excessive Blend, Top Of Our Game, Lucky J.H., Spot the Diplomat, Image of Glory, Blending Element, Freeport Flight and Los Gatos.
- First career victory came in 1989 with Glory Quest at Vallejo.
- Earned bachelor’s and master’s degrees in sociology and psychology from the University of Alabama and spent several years as a counselor of youths in rural Alabama, outside her hometown of Birmingham.
- Rode and showed hunters and jumpers in competition as a teenager.
- Got her first taste of training as she broke and trained yearlings for sales of 2-year-olds in training.
- Moved west in the mid-1980s, training horses at sales and working as an exercise rider. She then became assistant trainer in Northern California with several conditioners, including Mike Harte and Mark Cuoto.
- Took out her license in 1988 and trained in Northern California for seven years before heading to the Southern California circuit in 1996.

- Affable Irishman is always ready with a smile and quick with a joke, though not necessarily good ones.
- He’s registered 11 stakes wins at Del Mar with the most recent coming with Queen of The Sand in the 2014 Kathryn Crosby Stakes.
- Gallagher did well with stretch-running filly Magical Fantasy, who upset the Grade I Del Mar Oaks in 2008 and then won four stakes in 2009, including three Grade Is — the Gamely at Hollywood, the John C. Mabee at Del Mar and the Yellow Ribbon at Santa Anita. English-bred daughter of Diesis closed out her career with a fifth in the Breeders’ Cup Filly & Mare Turf to push her past the $1-million mark. Was sold to Japanese interests for $1.8 million.

- Trainer had some luck in 2008 with Yankee Bravo, a stakes winner considered for the Kentucky Derby, who instead ran and went unplaced in the Preakness.
- His Domestic Dispute finished 10th in the 2003 Kentucky Derby. Tried again in the Kentucky Derby in 2016 with the maiden Trojan Nation who earned his spot in the field with a narrow loss to Outwork in the Wood Memorial. Alas, Trojan Nation was 16th behind Nyquist in the Rose Run.
- Registered his best season for purses in 2007, banking more than $3.1 million, led by stakes winners Valbenny, Hucking Hot, Leesider and Singalong.
- Among his other stakes winners: French-bred millionaire Flamboyant; German-bred La Force; Walkslikeaduck, winner of Grade II Del Mar Derby in 2000; McCann’s Mojave, 2005 Cal Cup Classic; Tucked Away, Grade II Clement L. Hirsch Handicap in 2005; Adminniestrator, Sunshine Millions Turf in 2003; Grandeur, Aggie Engineer, Three Degrees and Swiss Diva.
- Involved in racing most of his life; competed as an amateur rider in Ireland and rode jumpers in his youth. His older brother, Jimmy, also rode in Ireland.
- Worked at The Curragh for trainer Paddy Norris for several years and then worked for another trainer, Andy Geraghty, for a few seasons before coming to the United States in 1980.
- On the staff at Earl Scheib’s Green Thumb Farm in Southern California for a short time before returning briefly to Ireland. Soon returned to the U.S. and served as assistant to fellow Irishman John Sullivan from 1981 to 1990; then joined legendary Bill Shoemaker as his assistant.
- Took over Shoemaker string in fall 1997 when “The Shoe” retired. While with Shoemaker, helped train stakes winners Diazo, Fire the Groom, Glen Kate and Fine ’n Majestic.

- Grew up on a farm in Auburn, Washington – about 30 miles south of Seattle. His father, Ron Glatt, was a racehorse trainer throughout the Northwest.
- Served as an assistant trainer for his father and other trainers in the Northwest growing up.
- Obtained his trainer’s license immediately after graduating from Western Washington University at the age of 21 in 1994.
- Began training in his home state, then shifted his stable south to the Bay Area. In 2000, his client Plan B Stables (then run by the late Bill Bannasch and his wife Linear) coaxed him south again, this time to the Southern California circuit, which is where he’s been ever since.
- Won his first stakes race with Northwest Storm in the Miss Yakima Handicap on March 28, 1994 at now-closed Yakima Meadows in Yakima, WA.
- Won his first graded stakes at another now-closed track, Bay Meadows in San Mateo, with Michigan Bluff in the Gr. III Hillsborough Handicap on October 14, 2000.
- Now in his 27th year of conditioning, he had his best year in 2019 when his runners earned more than $3.3 million, the ninth time in the last 10 years his horses have won at least $1 million.
- Big gun for the outfit is multi-stakes-winning Sharp Samurai, hero of the La Jolla Handicap and Del Mar Derby in 2017 who continues to succeed in stakes competition. Six-year-old has banked more than $800,000.
- Another ace is Blackjackcat, a winner of more than $590,000, who captured the Del Mar Mile in 2017, then was a fast-closing third in the Breeders’ Cup Mile that year. Now 7-year-old cranking up for another season.
- Won the race every Northwestern horseman wants to win last year when he shipped Law Abidin Citizen to Emerald Downs outside Seattle and got the money in the Longacres Mile.
- starts and earning nearly a half million dollars.
- Reba Is Tops, a hard-knocking mare who won 14 races competing between Seattle and Del Mar from 2007 to

- 2011, holds a special place in Glatt’s memory bank. The Washington-bred was a multiple-stakes winner of more than $460,000
- Other stakes winners from his shedrow include Elusive Diva, Zashrany, Sunday Goer, Shay, Harvest Girl, Daunting, Italian Rules, Czechers, Leroy’s Dynameaux, It Tiz, Pure Class and Boozer.

- Came up with his best horse to date in 2011 in Creative Cause, who put more than $1 million in the bank. Won Best Pal and Norfolk as a 2-year-old, then finished a close third in B.C. Juvenile. Came back in 2012 to win the San Felipe, then got nipped on the wire by I’ll Have Another in Santa Anita Derby before a 5th and a 3rd in the Kentucky Derby and Preakness, respectively.
- Creative Cause — who now stands at Airdrie Stud in Kentucky — was owned by longtime Harrington client Heinz Steinmann, an 87-year-old father of 11 and grandfather of more than 30, at last count. Owner also was responsible for Harrington’s other top horse, Swiss Yodeler.
- Swiss Yodeler won Del Mar’s Grade II Best Pal Stakes in 1996 before finishing third to eventual 1997 Kentucky Derby winner Silver Charm in the Grade II Del Mar Futurity. That same year, won Grade I Hollywood Futurity, Hollywood Juvenile Championship and Westchester Stakes. Futurity gave trainer first Grade I victory. Swiss Yodeler has been a force in the California stallion ranks since 1999 and, among others, sired champion sprinter Thor’s Echo.
- Buck Trout made some history for the trainer when he became the first maiden winner of the Grade I Norfolk Stakes in 1998.
- Won a pair of stakes at 2012 Del Mar meet with Tilde, raising his stakes total at the beach to eight.
- Other stakes winners: Swiss Wildcat, Hi Ho Yodeler, Sharper Too, Dave the Dude, Artica, Yolo Lady,

- Oberwald, Kleofus and Angel Gift.
- Enjoyed best year for earnings in 2012, with $1,488,798.
 - Comes from racing family, following father, Jake; grandfather, Jacob Luther, and great-grandfather into industry.
 - Began racing career by riding and training Quarter Horses at bush tracks as a teen-ager.
 - Graduate of Washington State University veterinarian school. Became licensed veterinarian and practiced at the tracks where he trained part time. Wife, Patricia, trained at the tracks where he was a veterinarian.
 - Began training full time in 1993.
 - Member of the board of directors of the Thoroughbred Owners of California.
 - Easy to spot anywhere on the racetrack — he’s the big guy in the white cowboy hat.

- Had Kentucky Derby hopes in 2015 with stakes-placed Colonel John colt My Johnny Be Good. Was even sent to run in UAE Derby in Dubai in an attempt to earn enough points for the race, but failed to make the cut. Had a good year with Footbridge in 2014, a stakes-placed son of Street Cry for Godolphin who ran second in San Diego Handicap.
- Five-year-old Endorsement was barn ace for 2012. Distorted Humor horse was a multiple-stakes winner of over $600,000 with wins in Sunland Derby in 2010 and, following a year and a half of down time, Texas Mile at Lone Star in 2012.
- Victor’s Cry captured Citation Handicap and Shoemaker Mile at Hollywood Park for him in 2010 and wound up a winner of more than three-quarters of a million dollars.
- Won Illinois Derby in 2010 with American Lion, then saw him run 11th in that year’s Kentucky Derby. A comeback in 2011 fell short and he went to stud at Kentucky’s Darby Dan Farm.
- Had a lucrative start to his 2009 season when Well Armed

- won by 14 lengths in the $6-million Dubai World Cup. Son of Tiznow pushed his bankroll past the $5.1-million mark after overcoming a series of injuries.
- Well Armed’s big race and the exploits of both Colonel John and American Lion sent Harty’s purse total for 2009 above the $5.2-million mark, his best season ever.
 - Colonel John won Grade III Sham Stakes and Grade I Santa Anita Derby on his way to the 2008 Kentucky Derby, where he finished sixth to Big Brown. Came back to capture Saratoga’s Travers that summer and completed the year with more than $1.2 million in earnings. Managed a win and nearly $300,000 in purses during his 4-year-old season in 2009, then was retired to stud for 2010 at WinStar in Kentucky with earnings of more than $1.7 million.
 - Harty worked as top assistant to trainers John Russell and Bob Baffert prior to becoming private trainer for Godolphin Racing in 2000. Headed Sheikh Mohammed’s “American Project,” training 2-year-olds in the U.S. and sending them to Dubai for 3-year-old seasons.
 - In second season for Godolphin sent out Tempera and Imperial Gesture to run 1-2 in the Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies in 2002. Tempera was voted the Eclipse Award as top juvenile filly.
 - Among top Godolphin graduates was Street Cry, winner of more than $5 million in purses and sire of both 2007 Kentucky Derby winner Street Sense and distaff sensation Zenyatta.
 - Won Saratoga’s Sanford in 2008 with Desert Party, who was a stakes winner for Godolphin in Dubai in 2009, showing enough promise to be entered in the Kentucky Derby. Son of Street Cry finished 14th and was injured, but made a winning comeback in 2010.
 - Other Harty stakes winners: Dubai Escapade, Burmillia, Marietta, Shamoan, Essence of Dubai, Tizdubai, Lydgate, Zosima, Sunray Spirit, Ruler’s Court and Crittenden, winner of Del Mar’s Let It Ride Stakes in fall 2015.
 - Has five stakes victories at Del Mar.
 - Racing runs deep in his blood. Father, Eddie, was a rider who won the Grand National, rode in Olympic Games three-day events and worked as a bloodstock agent. Grandfather, great-grandfather and great-great grandfather trained horses in Ireland.
 - Following a year working at the Irish National Stud, began United States career at 17.
 - Currently the president of the California Thoroughbred Trainers.
 - Eoin is pronounced “Owen.”
 - Family: Wife Kathleen; one son.

- Old-school trainer received the state’s highest racing honor in 2015 when inducted into the California Thoroughbred Breeders Association Hall of Fame. Said Headley: “There are a lot of great men in there, in that Hall of Fame, that I learned from, so to be in there with them is quite an honor.”
- Topping a long list of accomplishments for the trainer was the victory by one of his all-time favorite horses, Kona Gold, in the 2000 Breeders’ Cup Sprint at Churchill Downs in stakes and track record time. That victory earned the speedster the Eclipse Award — by unanimous vote — as the nation’s top sprinter. Gelding competed in the Sprint a record five times, posting a second, third, fourth and seventh to go along with his win.
- Kona Gold was retired in 2003 and served as a stable pony until taking up retirement and living out his days at Kentucky Horse Park in Lexington.
- Turned up another sprinting ace in 2009 with Cal-bred M One Rifle. Won Grade I Malibu at Santa Anita that year and set a five-furlong Cushion Track record (:55.98) at Hollywood Park in 2011. Topped half a million in earnings before being retired in 2012.
- 2010 stakes wins came with filly Free Flying Soul in Desert Stormer and Kalookan Queen handicaps, following four-win 2009 campaign which included a good third in the Breeders’ Cup Filly & Mare Sprint.
- Had a good year in 2008 with stable aces Street Boss and Surf Cat showing the way. The former, a sprint specialist, won six of nine starts, including Grade Is in Triple Bend and Bing Crosby, for earnings of nearly $800,000, and ran third in the Breeders’ Cup Sprint. Surf Cat finished his career with nine wins — six in stakes — for more than $1-million in purses.
- Headley has had six other starters on Breeders’ Cup championship day, with Bertrando finishing second in the 1991 Juvenile; Fine Spirit, third in 1984 Juvenile Fillies, and Got Koko, third in 2003 Distaff the most noteworthy.

- Other stakes winners: Variety Road, who upset Broad Brush, Snow Chief and Ferdinand in 1987 San Fernando at Santa Anita; Kalookan Queen, Silveyville, Softshoe Sure Shot, Son of a Pistol, Stylish Winner and Lakota Brave.
- Overall, has won 123 stakes races, more than 40 with Cal-breds. Has 14 stakes tallies at Del Mar.
- Though he’s downshifted of late, trainer won at least $1 million in purses for 12 straight years between 1998 and 2009, with 2002 supplying the high-water mark of $2,273,578.
- Headley was introduced to racing at age 6 by an uncle, a trainer.
- Went to Suzy Q Ranch in La Puente — where he roomed with an aspiring jockey named Bill Shoemaker in 1948 — and was an exercise rider from 1949-59.
- Encouraged by trainer Frank Childs to buy a horse and Childs provided him his first one, a filly named Thorium.
- Took out his trainer’s license in 1959.
- Prides himself as being “developing” trainer, taking young horses through all the steps from bridle to saddle to being ridden.
- Family: Wife Aase; one daughter, Karen, and one son, Gus, both of whom either train on their own or aid their father.

- Splits his efforts between strings in the east and west, racing in Kentucky and Florida, as well as California. But, for the most part, concentrates on racing in the west.
- Registered 1,000th victory of his career December 18, 2011 with So Tempted at Hollywood Park.
- Has always been active at the claim box, but in addition has trained stakes winners River Special, Slerp, Wekiva Springs and Guide.
- Del Mar has been a particularly friendly track to the trainer, providing him with his first winner (Parlapiano, July 31, 1987), his first training title (1991) and first

- graded stakes victory (River Special in 1992 Del Mar Futurity). Has a total of 12 stakes wins at the seaside oval.
- Had noteworthy success with veteran handicap horse Imperative. The gelded son of Bernardini has raced in the lucrative Charlestown Classic four times for him, winning it twice and finishing second once. Was third to Shared Belief in the 2014 Pacific Classic, unplaced in the event twice subsequently.
 - Has won two Del Mar training titles (‘92 & ‘91) to go with a pair at Hollywood Park.
 - 2019 was his best year yet for purses as his charges banked $2,806,139. His best season for wins was 1992 when he captured 105 races.
 - Other stakes winners: D’wildcat, Blueprint, Forty On Line, Known Heights, River Keen, The Tender Track, Courageous Pirate and Spring Meadow.
 - Second-generation horseman, following father – Bob Hess, Sr. -- who had trained at Caliente until the track burned in 1970, at which time he moved his operation to Northern California where he continues to train.
 - The younger Hess played baseball at Stanford before graduating with a degree in economics.
 - Became father’s assistant in 1983; began training on his own in 1987.
 - Family: Wife Amy; two sons.

- Veteran trainer has a rich history in the game as he moves through his 46th year of conditioning.
- Resurgent in 2016 via the exploits of Melatonin, upset winner of the Grade I Santa Anita Handicap in March and the Gold Cup at Santa Anita in June. In between those wins was a second to Effinex in the Oaklawn Handicap. Melatonin completed his year finishing fifth behind Arrogate in the Breeders’ Cup Classic. Another successful runner for Hofmans in 2016 was Home Run Kitten, victorious in the American Stakes. Both Melatonin and Home Run Kitten are owned by Susan Osborne, who races as Tarabilla Farms.

- Stakes victories in Best Pal and Del Mar Futurity by JP's Gusto, top juvenile of 2010 meeting, increased trainer's Del Mar total to 26.
- Put yet another feather in his cap when Desert Code won the first Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint at Santa Anita in 2008.
- The Desert Code win at $75 was a reminder that Hofmans can be a force in a big race: Note his $41.70 payoff for Alphabet Soup when he outdid Cigar in the Breeders' Cup Classic in 1996, and Adoration's $85.40 upset of the 2003 Breeders' Cup Distaff.
- Trainee Touch Gold denied the Triple Crown to Silver Charm by winning the 1997 Belmont Stakes.
- Has five million-dollar wins to his credit — the three Breeders' Cup races and the 1997 Haskell at Monmouth Park with Touch Gold and Woodbine's 1994 Molson Million with Dramatic Gold.
- Other Grade I triumphs: 2005 Bing Crosby with Greg's Gold, 2000 Del Mar Debutante with Cindy's Hero, 2007 Santa Margarita with Balance and same race in 2004 with Adoration, 2001 Blue Grass Stakes with Millennium Wind, 2001 Hollywood Futurity with Siphonic and 1995 Acorn with Cat's Cradle.
- Best year collecting purses was 1996 when he brought home more than $5.5 million. Next best was 1997 when he went over $4.4 million.
- Involved in a pair of historic moments for Hall of Fame jockeys Laffit Pincay, Jr. and Chris McCarron. When Pincay won the 1992 Palos Verdes Handicap aboard Hofmans trainee Individualist it made him Santa Anita's all-time win leader, and McCarron's victory on Andestine in the 1994 Milady Handicap was the 6,000th win of his career.
- Other top runners: Yearly Tour, Northern Afleet, Starrer, Fighting Falcon, Follow The Money, French Legionnaire, River Flyer and Awesome Again.
- Registered first victory as a trainer in 1974 with Nu Kali at Santa Anita.
- Was introduced to racing by his father, who was an avid fan, and to the backstretch by former trainer Gary Jones, a classmate at Pasadena City College.
- Family: Wife Linda; by a previous marriage he has two daughters, one son.

• Received overdue induction into racing Hall of Fame in 2010, making him one of five Hall of Fame conditioners in California.
• There are hard-working trainers, then there are hard-working trainers...then there is Jerry Hollendorfer.
• Surpassed the $5-million mark in annual earnings for the 22nd straight year in 2018, following up his record year of $12,806,593 in 2014 with $11.6 million in 2015.
• Won 219 races in 2015, achieving a milestone of more than 7,000 victories and counting. He ranks third-best all time in that department (7,639 through 2019) behind Dale Baird and Steve Asmussen. In purses won, through 2019, he was seventh-best all time at $200,902,920.
• Has won 39 stakes at Del Mar, 10th best all time. One of those victories in 2017 was with Battle of Midway in the Grade I Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile. Battle of Midway returned to competition after an unsuccessful stint at stud and won the 2018 Native Diver during Del Mar's fall meeting and the subsequent San Pasqual Stakes. Unfortunately, the classy son of Smart Strike was injured in training in February of 2019 and had to be euthanized.
• His 2018 Del Mar stakes wins included the Grade I Clement L. Hirsch with the brilliant Unique Bella; the Best Pal with Instagrand; the John C. Mabee with the claimer turned distaff stakes star Vasilika; the Cecil B. DeMille with Flying Scotsman and the aforementioned Native Diver with Battle of Midway. In 2019 he won a trio of local stakes, highlighted by Vasilika's tally in the John C. Mabee.
• Vasailika, a $40,000 claim in February of 2018, won 11 of her next 13 starts, five of them graded stakes. She finished up her career with more than $1.8 million in earnings, then sold as a broodmare prospect at the end of 2019 for $1.5 million.
• Hollendorfer's biggest Del Mar stakes success prior to Battle of Midway's Breeders' Cup triumph came in the 2014 TVG Pacific Classic with the ill-fated superstar Shared Belief. An Eclipse Award-winner as champion

- 2-year-old of 2013, Shared Belief won 10 of 12 starts and more than $2.9 million in his career, including the 2015 San Antonio Stakes, defeating California Chrome, and the Santa Anita Handicap before suffering a hip injury in the Charles Town Classic. Returned to training late in 2015, the gelding suffered a colic attack and died of complications in emergency surgery. In his honor, Del Mar Thoroughbred Club renamed the El Cajon Stakes the Shared Belief Stakes starting in 2016, and interred the horse's ashes at a memorial site in the Del Mar infield in September, 2016.
- Trainer guided the mercurial Songbird through a thrilling 15-race career between 2015 and 2017 where she won 13 of 15 starts and earned more than $4.6 million. She was 2-year-old filly champion in 2015, then 3-year-old filly champ in 2016. Her head and head battle ending in a nose loss to multiple champion Beholder in the Breeders' Cup Distaff at Santa Anita in 2016 is on many racing fans' lists of greatest races of all time. Songbird sold at auction as a broodmare prospect for $9.5 million.
 - Had another grand filly in his barn in Unique Bella, champion female sprinter of 2017, winner of eight of her first 11 starts and a millionaire.
 - 2016 was the 16th year out of the previous 17 that he started at least 1,000 horses in races long and short, from Grade I to bottom-level claimer, on dirt, grass or synthetic.
 - In 2011, won 250 races and nearly $8 million in purses. Among his 23 stakes scores were three each by champion Blind Luck and Killer Graces.
 - Won at least 200 races for 19 consecutive years, 1997-2015. Best year for wins was 2004 with 308.
 - Outstanding 2010 season included 28 stakes victories, among them four Grade Is — the Alabama, Kentucky Oaks and Las Virgenes by 3-year-old filly champion Blind Luck and the Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile by Dakota Phone. Over $9.3 million in earnings made it his best year for purses to that point.
 - Other recent 200-plus win years: 243 in 2007; 282 in 2008; 273 in 2009. All told, has won more than 200 races in a year 20 times.
 - In 2009 Blind Luck won or placed in four Grade I stakes, including a close third in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies. In 2010 she was named champion 3-year-old filly and in 2011 she defeated eventual Horse of the Year Havre de Grace in a stirring Delaware Handicap. She finished her career with 12 wins, 10 of them in stakes, and earnings of more than $3.2 million.
 - Trained two of the best horses in the country during 2008 in Heatseeker (who won the Californian and $1-million Santa Anita Handicap) and Hystericalady (first in the - Fleur de Lis and the $1-million Delaware Handicap).

- Captured 7,000th race of his career at Golden Gate Fields on November 25, 2015 with Kiss N Scat. Had won 6,000th race on September 3, 2011 at Golden Gate Fields with Just Tappin It.
 - Once primarily a claiming trainer who raced almost exclusively in Northern California, he now also races in Southern California and was leading trainer at Arlington Park near Chicago in 2001. Has also raced in New York and Arkansas.
 - Among his list of major accomplishments are three victories in the Kentucky Oaks, considered the Kentucky Derby for fillies. Winners were Lite Light in 1991, Pike Place Dancer in 1996 and Blind Luck in 2010.
 - Hasn't had the same sort of good fortune on Kentucky Derby day. Took two major players — Event of the Year and Globalize — to the classic only to have injuries sideline both. Event of the Year, who was the likely favorite for the 1998 running, suffered a slab fracture in a knee while training at Churchill Downs and Globalize (2000) was injured when kicked by a lead pony also during training at the Louisville oval. Nonetheless, he has started five horses in the race — Eye of the Tiger in 2003 (5th), Cause to Believe in 2006 (13th), Bwana Bull in 2007 (15th), Chocolate Candy in 2009 (5th) and Battle of Midway in 2017 (3rd).
 - A major winner and the one who first turned the spotlight on the trainer was King Glorious, who returned Hollendorfer to his native Ohio to capture the Ohio Derby in 1989. He also won the Hollywood Futurity in 1988 and the Haskell Invitational in '89, giving the trainer his first $1-million earner.
 - The King of Northern California captured every Bay Meadows and Golden Gate Fields training title since 1986 — that was 36 straight at Bay Meadows and 32 straight at Golden Gate — until Bill Morey nipped him at the spring Golden Gate meeting in 2008.
 - Won his first Southern California title when he tied with Peter Miller with 20 firsts at Del Mar's 2014 summer session, then took the Santa Anita winter/spring crown with 34 winners in 2015 before repeating at Del Mar that summer with 22 wins.
 - Other major stakes winners over the years: Tuscan Evening, Rendezvous, Somethinaboutlaura, Traces of Gold, Trickey Trevor, Mula Gula, River Flyer, Variety Road, Novel Sprite and Misty Ocean.
 - Came to California in late 1960s to visit friends and never left.
 - Began working as a groom at Bay Meadows in 1969 and worked in various capacities with trainers Jerry Dutton and Jerry Fanning until he took out his trainer’s license in 1979.

- Family: Wife Janet.

• Won at least $1-million in purses 12 years straight, 2004-15.
• Called the shots for homebred My Sweet Addiction, winner of the 2015 Grade I Vanity at Santa Anita. Mare banked more than $330,000.
• Had a fine run with multiple-stakes winners Unzip Me and Compari. The mare Unzip Me registered 14 wins, most of them sprinting on grass, with earnings just under $1 million. The gelding Compari boasted eight wins and a bankroll of over $600,000.
• Notched his seventh Del Mar stakes victory when So Sweetitiz accounted for the 2016 Daisycutter Handicap.
• Big horse in 2013 was Tiz Flirtatious, winner of Del Mar’s Grade I John C. Mabee. She finished sixth in the Breeders’ Cup Filly & Mare Turf.
• Helped revive the career of stakes horse Tres Borrachos, winning the 2011 San Diego Handicap, then getting him to run third in the Breeders’ Cup Mile at Churchill Downs. Eventually surpassed $1-million mark in earnings.
• Third generation horseman: His grandfather Farrell is Del Mar’s all-time leader for training titles won with 11. Father Gary enjoyed an outstanding career, conditioning many top stakes horses, including Best Pal, winner of the inaugural Pacific Classic in 1991. Both Gary Jones and Best Pal were voted into racing’s Hall of Fame.
• Upon father’s retirement in 1996, after serving as his assistant, Marty opened his own stable and won his first race May 13 of that year at Hollywood Park with his dad’s Made of Jade.
• His first stakes winner was Gastronomical in the ’96 Hidden Light Stakes. He garnered his first Grade I success with Auriette in the ’96 Gamely Handicap.
• Won the Grade I Triple Bend Handicap in 2007 with Bilo, who also took the Cal Cup Sprint at Oak Tree.

- Other successes: Alphabet Kisses, who continued a family tradition by winning the 2005 A Gleam Handicap, a race grandfather Farrell and father Gary won; Hugh Hefner, El Don, High Standards, Sharekann, Debutant Trick and Lucky Primo.
- Family: Single.

• Successful claims include Icantgoforthat, for $50,000 who subsequently earned $500,000 and won several stakes; The Candy Queen, for $20,000 who earned $160,000, and Secret Caper, for $12,500 before ringing up $100,000.
• Did well with Harlington’s Rose, a 4-year-old filly who won the Grade III Las Flores at Santa Anita in 2015.
• Won first training title at Oak Tree in 2005, saddling 16 winners, including Brite Maneuvers, a $40,000 claim, in the Cal Cup Juvenile Stakes.
• Best year so far was 2005 when his horses earned $2.1 million.
• Has a trio of Del Mar stakes wins.
• Sold a uniform company he co-owned with his father for 15 years to enter Thoroughbred racing.

• Had a great run with the gray flash California Flag, whom he handled for six seasons, 11 victories and nearly $1.3 million in purses. Gelding won the 2009 Breeders’ Cup Turf Sprint at Santa Anita and Santa Anita’s Morvich Handicap three different times. All were on the track’s unique downhill turf course. He also won Del Mar’s unofficial grass sprint championship — the Green Flash — twice.
• Earned California Thoroughbred Breeders Association’s award as “Trainer of the Year” in 2009 when California Flag shared the CTBA’s “Horse of the Year” honors with Breeders’ Cup Sprint winner Dancing in Silks.
• Trainer won a 2010 Del Mar stakes with Sweet August Moon in the Rancho Bernardo Handicap. Mare retired in 2011 with nearly $500,000 in purses.
• Has won eight Del Mar stakes all told, including in 2018 the Real Good Deal with Take the One O One and, in the fall, the Betty Grable with Spiced Perfection. The latter also won the La Brea at Santa Anita and was recognized as California’s Horse of the Year for 2018. She subsequently won the Madison at Keeneland before finishing fourth in the Humana Distaff at Churchill Downs during Derby Week.
• Had best earnings year in 2008 when stable won more than $2 million ($2,092,627) for the first time. Black Seventeen headed that outfit and captured Belmont Park’s Vosburgh Handicap, trainer’s initial Grade I win. Broke the $2 million mark again in 2018, his horses earning $2,078,688.
• Seems to have a special touch with sprinters, which may tie into his Quarter Horse roots. Besides Black Seventeen, California Flag and Sweet August Moon, has won sprints with Barbecue Eddie, Northern Soldier and Mr. Vargas.
• Path from Quarter Horses to Thoroughbreds started with success at Los Alamitos for approximately 10 years. Made change first in Northern California, then came south in 2005.
• Other top runners: Hoovergetthekeys, winner of the El Camino Real and Golden Gate Derbies before leaving the Kentucky Derby trail with an injury in 2001; Courts in Session, Excessive Theresa, Stormin Lyon, Onebadkitty, Railroad and Weewinnin, the last-named victorious in the 2015 California Dreamin’ Handicap at Del Mar.

- Grew up in Diamond Bar; was introduced to racing by his father, Ed.
- Was good enough high school pitcher to be offered college scholarships, but chose the racetrack instead and started out galloping horses.

• The J. stands for Joseph, his paternal grandfather’s first name. But he’s always been Eric.
• Grew up on a ranch between Carmel and Salinas, where his mother’s father, Walter Markham, raised cattle and bred Thoroughbreds. Markham’s trainer was Hall of Famer Buster Millerick and young Kruljac hung around his barn as a teenager.
• Father’s produce business had the family in Phoenix in the winters and Eric turned out to be a good enough football player to land a full scholarship to Arizona State. Broken ankle in sophomore year ended his football career.
• After college, wound up in private detective business and at age 22 started his own agency. Business was good but he was spending the profits doing something he really loved — buying and selling horses.
• For roughly 16 years he followed that path, having his brother Edward train some of the horses he bought. Then at 38 he switched gears and began training on his own.
• Raced a small stable at Turf Paradise in Phoenix in the winters, then shifted to California for the rest of the year. In 2008 when the last of his four children was off to college, made the transition to being a full-time Californian.
• Usually has about 25 horses in training, as well as several mares and their offspring at farms in California.
• Scored his 1,000th training victory December 13, 2014

at Los Alamitos with Small Claims Court. Tally was part of a then record-setting season for him with his top purse total of $1,693,665, as well as his best win count in a year at 98. He surpassed that purse mark in 2015 when his horses won $1,865,429.

- Best horse so far has been Leave Me Alone. The California-bred filly was a multiple-stakes winner of more than $650,000, including Saratoga’s Grade I Test Stakes in 2005. In 2006, she was sold as a broodmare prospect at the Fasig-Tipton sale in Kentucky for $1 million.
- Stakes filly Bauble Queen won the R.J. Frankel on Santa Anita lawn in 2012 and banked $221,257 for her connections.
- Ran into some tough luck in 2011 when two of the better runners in his barn, the stakes-winning filly La Nez and the stakes-placed colt Major Art, both sustained racing injuries.
- Has won three stakes at Del Mar, including the 2010 Fleet Treat with La Nez.
- Son Ian got off to a great start to his training career. Finest City, named for San Diego by owner Tyler Seltzer, a native of the city, and the first horse young Kruljac had trained on his own, won the Breeders’ Cup Filly and Mare Sprint in November of 2016 to earn an Eclipse Award. Previously she set a Los Alamitos track record of 1:14.48 for 6 1/2 furlongs in winning the Great Lady M Stakes. She won $1.2 million during her career, then sold in Kentucky as a broodmare for $1.5 million.
- Family: Three sons, one daughter, who is the barn’s bookkeeper.

• Was introduced to the game by his father, who used to bring him along for track outings. Lewis remembers going to Caliente in Tijuana on the weekends as a young boy with his older brother, Larry.
• Earned a bachelor’s degree in history from Cal Berkeley, then studied law at Pacific Coast College.
• Started in racing as a teenager, learning under trainer

Hirsch Jacobs, then took out his training license in 1978. This is his 43rd year hanging around shedrows.

- Owner/trainer of popular Larry The Legend, a $2,500 colt who won three stakes in 1995 capped by a game victory in the Santa Anita Derby following wins in the San Rafael Stakes and Santa Catalina, now the Robert B. Lewis Stakes.
- Larry The Legend was injured prior to the Triple Crown races, but returned in the summer of 1996, only to be sidelined again due to a bruised foot. He attempted two subsequent comebacks at Santa Anita and won Oak Tree’s Skywalker Stakes in 1997 before being retired to stud in 1998.
- Cutlass Reality won four stakes races at Hollywood Park in 1988 for Lewis, including The Californian and the Hollywood Gold Cup, providing trainer with his first two Grade I victories. Defeated sprint champion Gulch in The Californian, then bested a pair of Kentucky Derby winners -- Ferdinand and Alysheba -- in winning the Gold Cup. The 6-year-old son of Cutlass won four other stakes that year and nearly $1-million, leading the way for Lewis to have his best season as a trainer with 82 victories and over $3.3-million in purses.
- Music Merci captured the Grade I Del Mar Futurity in 1988 before running fourth in the Breeders’ Cup Juvenile and returning the following year to take Santa Anita’s San Rafael Stakes, the Illinois Derby and the Grade I Malibu Stakes at Santa Anita.
- Has nine stakes wins at Del Mar all told. Besides scores by Cutlass Reality and Music Merci, also won graded races with Our Sweet Sham and Knight Prospector.
- Carefully spotted the Candy Ride horse Clubhouse Ride over six seasons at the track and 43 starts, primarily against tough California stakes competition. The stretch runner managed to win five times, but also was either second or third on 19 other occasions and retired to stallion duties in 2015 at age 7 with earnings of more than $1.3 million. He is now a rising star among California stallions and is standing at Legacy Ranch in Clements, south of Sacramento.
- Had noteworthy success with Cal-bred mare Warren’s Veneda, whom he positioned nicely to win eight races, five stakes (including Grade I Santa Margarita) and nearly $900,000.
- Was leading trainer at Hollywood Park in 1988 spring/summer.
- Four-time leading trainer at Fairplex Park – 1987, 1988, 1991 and 1993
- Family: Single.

• Son of Hall of Famer Richard Mandella worked for father from 1995 to ’99, left training to be an analyst on TVG, returned as his dad’s chief assistant two years later and assembled his own stable beginning in 2002.
• Had a special father-son moment on opening day of the 2013 Santa Anita meet when his Silentio won the Sir Beaufort Stakes, while his father won the Malibu Stakes later in the day with Jimmy Creed.
• Silentio was third in the 2013 Del Mar Mile prior to finishing third in the Breeders’ Cup Mile. Finished 14th in Breeders’ Cup Turf Sprint in 2014.
• Enjoyed his best year in 2005 (more than $1.5 million in purses) thanks principally to Taste of Paradise, who gave the young trainer his first Grade I success in the Vosburgh Handicap. Then 7-year-old horse also won the Vernon O. Underwood Stakes and wound up the year being nosed out by Silver Train in the Breeders’ Cup Sprint.
• Won his first race and first stakes when he sent out Big Shot to capture the Seabiscuit Claiming Stakes at Golden Gate Fields in 2002.
• Other outstanding horses: Japanese-bred Silent Name, Living the Life, Le Mans, Man Among Men, No Silent, Albertus Maximus and Courtly Jazz.

- Endured a serious disappointment on the 2019 Kentucky Derby trail when Omaha Beach, winner of the Arkansas Derby and pre-race favorite for the “Run for the Roses,” had to be withdrawn because of a throat problem discovered a few days before the race. Star-crossed colt had other bumps along the road, but still managed to wins five of his 10 starts (with four seconds and a third) and more than $1.6 million. He’s now one of the featured stallions at Spendthrift Farm in Kentucky.
- Finished 2019 with career totals of 2,156 victories and earnings of $142,278,809; his purse totals are 11th best all time among trainers.
- Posted his 2,000th career victory May 2, 2015 at Santa Anita with Catch A Flight in the $100,000 Precisionist Stakes.
- Began his apprenticeship in racing as assistant to his blacksmith father in Beaumont, California. Worked at Three Rings Ranch for three years and at trainer Farrell Jones’ ranch for one year, then was an assistant for 18 months to V.J. (Lefty) Nickerson in New York. Next became a private trainer for Roger Braugh in ’74 prior to striking out on his own in ’76 with a public stable.
- First of numerous major stakes winners to follow was Bad N Big, 1977 champion Cal-bred 3-year-old and 1978 older horse.
- Numerous accomplishments include 22 million-dollar wins, nine of them in the Breeders’ Cup. Four of those BC wins were on the same day in 2003 at Santa Anita — Action This Day in the Juvenile, Halfbridled in the Juvenile Fillies, Johar, a deadheat in the Turf, and Pleasantly Perfect in the Classic.
- Year following his Breeders’ Cup tour de force, brought Pleasantly Perfect back to win a trio of stakes, including $6-million Dubai World Cup and Pacific Classic. Horse retired with earnings of $7,789,880, then 11th-best all time.
- Beholder was a true star for Mandella. Won Eclipse Award as top 3-year-old filly, following up Eclipse as top 2-year-old filly after BC Juvenile Fillies score in 2012. Showed flashes of her brilliance in 2014, but an injury and a fever kept her from reaching the high ground again. Returned in 2015 better than ever, going unbeaten in five starts, including an unforgettable triumph versus males in Del Mar’s TVG Pacific Classic, which she won by 8 1/4 lengths. She clinched a third Eclipse Award, as best older female, with a second straight triumph in the Grade I Zenyatta at Santa Anita.
- Mare was shipped to Keeneland to run in the 2015 Breeders’ Cup Classic and a showdown with Triple Crown winner American Pharoah. But the daughter of Henny Hughes spiked a fever and was unable to compete, finishing 2015 with earnings of $1,068,300. In 2016 she won the Adoration Stakes and Vanity Mile to run her record to eight consecutive victories, but then lost three races in a row - to Stellar Wind twice, in the Clement L. Hirsch and Zenyatta Stakes, and to California Chrome in the Pacific Classic.

- Undaunted by those defeats, Beholder stamped herself as one of the greatest mares of recent years and a future first ballot Hall of Famer when she climaxed her amazing career with an epic, nose triumph over previously unbeaten 3-year-old Songbird in the Breeders' Cup Distaff. Dueling the length of the stretch, Beholder prevailed at the wire under Gary Stevens over an equally courageous rival in Songbird. It was her 18th win in 26 races (with six seconds) and increased her earnings to $6,156,600 while also clinching a remarkable fourth Eclipse Award.
- Mandella's other Grade I stakes successes include many of the sport's greatest races — Arlington Million, Dubai World Cup, Haskell Invitational, Hollywood Gold Cup (twice), Santa Anita Handicap (three times) and Del Mar's Pacific Classic (four times).
- Engineered one of the game's most memorable upsets when Dare And Go at 40-1 ruined Cigar's bid for a 17th consecutive victory in the 1996 Pacific Classic.
- His Eclipse Award champions: Kotashaan, Phone Chatter, Halfbridled, Action This Day and Beholder (four times). The list of major winners also includes Phone Trick, Siphon, Sandpit, Gentlemen, Rock Hard Ten, Best Pal, Memo, Reluctant Guest, Dixie Chatter, Dixie Union, Soul of the Matter, Afternoon Deelites, Arcangues, Event of the Year, Horse Greeley, El Roblar, Champ Pegasus, The Tin Man and Redattore.
- Registered two super training feats when his Beautiful Melody and Reluctant Guest dead-heated for the win in the Grade I Beverly Hills 'Cap in 1990, and had 1, 2, 3 finishers in 1997 Santa Anita Handicap with Siphon, Sandpit and Gentlemen.
- Has won five training titles on the Southern California circuit, including Del Mar's in a tie in 1990.
- Has won 64 stakes at Del Mar, sixth best all time among conditioners.
- Proteges include his son, Gary; Dan Hendricks, Mike Machowsky, Beau Greely, Doug O'Neill and Richard Baltas.
- Played an historical role in Laffit Pincay, Jr.'s quest to be the sport's winningest jockey when he gave the Panamanian a leg up for record-setting career victory No.

8,834 aboard Irish Nip at Hollywood Park Dec. 10, 1999.

• Inducted into Thoroughbred racing's Hall of Fame in 1990.
• Had been Del Mar's all-time winningest conditioner from 1998 (when he went past Farrell Jones) until 2011 when he was surpassed by Mike Mitchell. McAnally now holds fourth place on the list with 447 firsts coming into the 2020 meet.
• Trainer also has 77 Del Mar stakes wins, second to leader Bob Baffert (133).
• This will be his 61st summer at the seashore, an amazing longevity streak and more than any other conditioner in the track's 81-year history.
• Finished 2019 with lifetime records of 2,587 wins for earnings of $125,970,683.
• Career accomplishments include three Eclipse Awards as nation's top trainer, 1981-'91-'92; five national champions — Bayakoa, John Henry, Northern Spur, Paseana and Tight Spot — accounting for 12 titles; 10 training titles on the Southern California circuit, including Del Mar in 1980 and 1989; 10 million-dollar victories, including four Breeders' Cup races, the Arlington Million three times, Santa Anita Handicap, Hollywood Gold Cup and Pacific Classic.
• John Henry was his masterpiece, winning Horse of the Year honors twice — in 1981 and 1984 — as well as champion grass horse 1980-'81-'83-'84. His epic triumphs included the inaugural Arlington Million in 1981 when he nosed out The Bart and a second success in the race at the age of 9 in 1984.
• John Henry came to McAnally late in his 4-year-old year and proceeded to win 27 of 45 starts, including 18 stakes in Southern California. Retired at age 9 in 1984 as the sport's leading money winner with earnings of $6,597,947. Lived in retirement at Kentucky Horse Park near Lexington, dying at age 32 Oct. 8, 2007.

- Trainer scored his most important Del Mar victory in 2003 when Candy Ride won the Pacific Classic under Julie Krone.
- Chilean-bred Quick Casablanca provided McAnally with his fourth success in Santa Anita's grass marathon San Juan Capistrano in April of 2016. McAnally's previous winners of the race were John Henry, 1980; Amerique, 1998, and Interaction, 2013.
- Raised in an orphanage in Northern Kentucky with two younger brothers and two sisters, was given his start at Rockingham Park by his uncle, Reggie Cornell, who later trained the come-from-behind legend Silky Sullivan.
- McAnally won his first race in 1958.
- Other top horses have included Donut King, Olympio, Sea Cadet, Super Moment, Different, Mr Purple, Festin, Hawkster, Queens Court Queen, Tout Charmant, House of Fortune, Sweet Return and Mea Domina.

• Took racing's version of the great leap of faith in January 2014 when he went from lead assistant in the No. 1 barn in the country to training on his own with a one-horse stable. But he's made it work — in spades.
• Moved with his family at age 5 from Ohio to Arcadia, hard by Santa Anita, and graduated from Arcadia HS. Though his family wasn't racing oriented, his neighborhood pals included a couple with fathers who were trainers and trips to the track — and a chance for it to work its spell — became part of his growing up.
• So did a nickname he picked up at the time — “Whitey” — due to a head full of blonde hair. The hair isn't so blond anymore, but the nickname has stuck.
• In high school and then while trying a brief stint at Cal Poly Pomona, he also was earning extra bucks on the backside, initially as a hot walker for trainer John O'Hara. Subsequently, he worked his way up under conditioners Doug Peterson and Ben Cecil as the racetrack won out - over college.

- Jockey agent Ron Anderson, seeing something in young McCarthy, told him he ought to try to move up by making a connection with a rising, young horseman in the east named Todd Pletcher. McCarthy tried, repeatedly, but initially his requests didn't register. Finally, the persistent Californian wore his man down and he signed on with the Texan in 2002 at the start of one of the most successful training runs in history. (Pletcher now has won more money in purses -- $390 million and counting — than anyone in the history of the game. He also won six of his record seven Eclipse Awards as the nation's leading trainer in the years he and McCarthy were together.)
 - McCarthy and Pletcher spent approximately 11-1/2 years together and both came away with admiration for the other: McCarthy on Pletcher: “He taught me dedication; total dedication. He leads by example. He's there from sunrise to sundown. He's special.” Pletcher on McCarthy: “Michael was a top class assistant and I'm not surprised that he's succeeding now that he has his own stable.”
 - McCarthy had married his grade school classmate, Erin, in 2008 and a daughter, Stella, came along in 2010. But Erin's work kept her in Southern California, while most of his work with Pletcher kept him in Florida, Kentucky and New York. Thus came the need for his big-change leap of faith in 2014.
 - Starting with a single horse provided to him by Aron Wellman of Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners, McCarthy has steadily built a new world and a new business for himself and his family. In 2014, he won just over $200,000 in purses. In 2015, he doubled that amount. In 2016, he doubled it again...and did the double once more in 2017.
 - Then, in 2018, with the primary backing of the Eclipse group and Tulsa, Oklahoma businessman William K. Warren, Jr. and his wife, Suzanne, he broke through. The key horse was the Williams' City of Light, who went from success to success under the conditioner, culminating the year with a smart tally in the Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile at Churchill Downs and year-ending earnings of $1.4 million. The Quality Road horse then took it up another notch and rang the bell in pouring rain in Florida in January 2019, romping home atop the $9 million Pegasus World Cup to earn a $4 million prize in his final start before heading off to stud. Quality Road horse finished with earnings of $5,388,715.
 - Trainer's 2019 totals were the best yet with purses of $5,388,715 banked. Besides City of Light he also saddled stakes winners Ohio and Smooth Like Straight. Has approximately 30 head on his Southern California shedrow.

- Starting off 2020, conditioner has a very sharp filly in the multiple-stakes winner Ce Ce for Bo Hirsch, the son of Clement Hirsch, one of the founders of the Del Mar Thoroughbred Club.
- McCarthy also has had stakes success with Axelrod, The Lieutenant (an older half-brother to Triple Crown hero Justify), Liam the Charmer, Paved and Illuminant.

- Hard-working trainer has produced more than a decade of high success, winning at least $1-million in purses every year since 2006. In fact, since 2013 he’s never dipped below the $4 million in earnings mark. And the past three years he’s registered $7-million-plus (2017), $8-million-plus (2018) and $7-million-plus (2019).
- Expanded his large stable to compete in Kentucky in 2019 as well as California. Performers include stable stars Roy H and Stormy Liberal, plus Savagery, Solid Wager, Belvoir Bay and Richard’s Boy. His Gray Magician competed in the Kentucky Derby in 2019, finishing 19th and last over the sloppy surface. Competed at the Oaklawn Park meet in Arkansas this year, too.
- Had his best year yet in 2018 with his most wins (133) and highest purse amount ($8,076,631)-- 10th best in U.S. 2018 followed up his previous best in 2017 when he won 124 races and had earnings of $7,380,416. Amazingly, both years were capped off by victories in the Breeders’ Cup by the same two horses -- Stormy Liberal in the Turf Sprint and Roy H in the Sprint, an unprecedented Breeders’ Cup feat.
- Amazingly, won BC Turf Sprint again in 2019 with 6-year-old mare Belvoir Bay, beating the boys and setting a course record for five furlongs at Santa Anita.
- In 2012 at Del Mar he won his first training crown with 21 firsts. Followed that up with a sweep of training honors during both Del Mar seasons in 2014, first tying with Jerry Hollendorfer at 20 wins apiece for the summer session, then scoring outright with 15 trips to the circle in 15 racing days during the track’s fall session. Was second to Hollendorfer in the 2015 summer meet, losing by two winners, 22-20, and tied for second with Phil D’Amato behind leader Doug O’Neill, 15-13, during the fall meet. He was runner-up again in the 2016 summer, losing to D’Amato by two wins, 23-21, but topped the fall meet standings, 16-8, over O’Neill and Richard Baltas. Won another fall session in 2017 with 19 firsts. He swept Del Mar’s training titles for both summer and fall seasons again in 2018, then finished second to O’Neill (24 to 21) at the 2019 summer stand.

- Made his first bit of big noise by winning 2007 Del Mar Debutante with Set Play for initial Grade I tally. Has won 29 stakes at the shore, including five Grade Is.
- Made next big splash with Comma to the Top, a triple stakes winner in 2010 as a 2-year-old at Hollywood Park. Horse was tried in 2011 Kentucky Derby, but could only finish 19th after prompting the pace for a mile. Was finally retired with 14 victories and $1.3 million in earnings.
- Miller has trained three other millionaires – Roy H ($3.1 million), Stormy Liberal ($2.0 million) and Belvoir Bay ($1.6 million).
- Filly Reneesgotzip was a bolt of lightning for trainer between 2012 and 2014. Chestnut took Del Mar’s Rancho Bernardo Stakes (in track-record time for the 6-1/2 furlongs) en route to finishing in dead heat for second in Breeders’ Cup Turf Sprint in 2013. Came back to win a little stakes at Del Mar in 2014 before retiring with more than $860,000 in purses.
- The long-winded late runner Finnegans Wake was a multiple-grass-stakes winner of nearly a million and Big Cazanova set a pair of track records at Del Mar in 2014 for trainer and came back in the fall to go wire to wire in the Native Diver Stakes. His Red Outlaw was a four-time stakes winner in 2014.
- Scored three straight victories in 2006-07 with Fast Parade, including the $500,000 Nearctic at Woodbine near Toronto, Canada. Fast Parade also won the 2006 Baldwin Stakes, giving conditioner his first triumph in an event worth at least $100,000.
- Other stakes winners: Mo Forza, Spiced Perfection, Laura’s Light, Majestic City, Miss Empire, All Squared Away, Got Even, Whatever Whenever, Backbackbackgone, Trifecta King, Spirited Susan and Pinata.
- Trainer’s first winner was Dynashield on April 25, 1988 at Santa Anita.
- Wanted to be a jockey, but was advised he’d grow too big. Instead worked as a groom during the summers in high school, then served apprenticeship under trainer Charlie Whittingham, for whom he went to work as a full-time

- groom after graduating from school. Also worked in the barns of Mike Mitchell and Don Warren.
- His stable is currently based at San Luis Rey Downs training center in Bonsall.
 - Family: Wife Lani; two sons.

- At 21, could have been youngest trainer — and first female — to win the Kentucky Derby in 2004 when her first Derby runner, Imperialism, was third to Smarty Jones. Colt came back to be fifth in the Preakness. As a 4-year-old, Imperialism won the Pat O’Brien Handicap and finished his career with six wins and just under $900,000 in earnings.
- Late father, Richard, was a longtime trainer in Southern California; also racing manager and president of Ahmed bin Salman’s The Thoroughbred Corp.
- Kristin’s background includes a time in the show ring and as a jump rider. Qualified to become a member of Young Riders, prelude to a possible spot on the U.S. Olympic equestrian team; arm injury ended that quest.
- While recovering from her arm injury, galloped horses for trainer John Shirreffs at Del Mar. In June 2002, passed the trainer’s test. First winner was Atarama that summer over the Del Mar turf.
- Had some good luck with Florida-bred John Johnny Jak in 2011 and ’12, winning three stakes. One of them – the Harry F. Brubaker in 2011 – was at Del Mar, where she has six stakes victories.
- Gallops many of her own horses in the morning.
- Stakes-winners include Tale of a Champion, Tronare, Statement, Alyzig, Sentimental Value, Puerto Banus, Mister Acpen, Californian and Cheiron.
- Family: Single.

- Edged up to the highest of highs, but got hit with the lowest of lows at the 2009 Kentucky Derby when his trainee, I Want Revenge, went from morning line favorite to a day-of-the-race scratch with a leg injury. The son of Stephen Got Even had won the Gotham and Wood Memorial en route to his Derby heartbreak.
- Had another so high/so low situation in 2009 with the swift filly Carlsbad. Arizona-bred won a trio of graded stakes, including a track-record performance (1:14.93 for 6 1/2 furlongs) in the Rancho Bernardo Handicap at Del Mar, before suffering a fatal breakdown while training at Santa Anita later that year.
- Battle of Hastings, an English import, also had an exceptional campaign for Mullins in 2009, finishing first or second in eight of nine starts and banking more than $1 million.
- Called the shots for the French-bred gelding Itsinthepost, a veteran with a love for running long on the grass. The seven-time stakes winner scored 10 victories and more than $1.2 million.
- Has another millionaire on the shedrow now in the hard-knocking, hard-trying Irish horse River Boyne. Has $1.2 million in the bank, six stakes wins to his credit and more battles to fight.
- Also trained millionaires Choctaw Nation ($1.2 million) and Captain Squire ($1.0).
- Has won 20 black type races at Del Mar, including Green Flash with Sirocco Strike and a division of the Del Mar Derby with Gabriel Charles in 2013. Gabriel Charles amazingly returned from a layoff of more than 17 months due to a bowed tendon to win the 2015 Grade I Eddie Read Stakes, his fourth start back.
- Had his best year for wins — 140 — and purses — $6,910,572 — in 2004. His stable aces that year included stakes winners Choctaw Nation, Summer Wind Dancer, Boston Common, Sweet Win and Glick.
- His stable has won at least $1 million in 13 of the past 15 years and he’s already gone past that mark at the

- midpoint of 2020.
- Trainer has been around horses his whole life; started galloping when he was 8 years old and rode in races at bush tracks in the Utah region. At 17, ran horses at Les Bois Park in Boise, Idaho, under his father’s name, since he didn’t have a license. First winner was Doctorius in 1980 ridden by future Hall of Famer Gary Stevens.
 - Arrived on the Southern California circuit on a full-time basis in 2001 after competing in Idaho, Wyoming, Utah, New Mexico, Ohio and Arizona. Has won 11 training titles on the local circuit, including Del Mar in 2005 when he shaded many-times champion Bob Baffert, 23-22, on closing day.
 - Became the first trainer to win the Santa Anita Derby three consecutive times — Buddy Gil in 2003, his first Grade I winner; Castledale in ’04, and Buzzards Bay in ’05, all longshots. All three ran in the Kentucky Derby — Buddy Gil, 6th; Castledale 14th, and Buzzards Bay 5th. His other Derby starter was his first, Lusty Latin, who finished 15th in 2002.
 - Saddled his 1,000th winner January 5, 2007 with Lady Le Belle at Santa Anita.
 - Won the Grade I Del Mar Debutante in 2005 with Wild Fit, the same year he was Del Mar’s training champ; filly was second in that year’s Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies.
 - His other notable horses include King Robyn, Excess Summer, Mighty Beau, L’Effaceur, Sweeter Still, Boule d’Or, Final Fling and Brooke’s Halo.
 - Family: One daughter, two sons.

- Was a key factor during the 2016 Triple Crown with Nyquist for major client J. Paul Reddam. Winner of the Del Mar Futurity as a juvenile in 2015 en route to an Eclipse Award as champion 2-year-old colt, Nyquist became the eighth undefeated horse to win the Kentucky Derby when he outran familiar rival Exaggerator for his eighth consecutive triumph. Compromised by a pace duel in the Preakness Stakes, the Uncle Mo colt faltered

- to finish third as Exaggerator scored. A fever precluded his participation in the Belmont Stakes.
- Had an earlier magical Triple Crown ride with I’ll Have Another for Reddam during 2012 Triple Crown season.
 - Colt had shown promise at 2 — including a second in Del Mar’s Best Pal Stakes — but came into full bloom when teamed with little-known rider Mario Gutierrez. They won Santa Anita’s R.B. Lewis Stakes, then the Santa Anita Derby. Next came victories in the Kentucky Derby and Preakness.
 - Unfortunately, their chance for racing immortality was sidetracked by tendinitis, forcing I’ll Have Another’s withdrawal from the Belmont Stakes on the eve of the race. Son of Flower Alley retired with five wins in seven starts and earnings of $2.6 million; was sold as a stallion to Japanese interests.
 - Was back on the Triple Crown trail in 2013 with Santa Anita Derby winner Goldencents. Colt, partly owned by NCAA champion basketball coach Rick Pitino, was well beaten in both Kentucky Derby and Preakness, but returned to show his forte is going shorter. Won Breeders’ Cup Dirt Mile in 2013 and 2014; also set track record for seven furlongs in Del Mar’s Pat O’Brien in 2014. Retired to stud at B. Wayne Hughes’ Spendthrift in Kentucky with more than $3 million in earnings.
 - Trainer has captured 38 stakes at Del Mar, 11th on the all-time list.
 - Became the first trainer in Del Mar annals to win five races on a single afternoon, accomplishing the feat July 29, 2015 to surpass four-baggers by Red McDaniel, Farrell W. Jones, Ron McAnally, Jack Van Berg and John Sadler.
 - Has won a minimum of $3-million-plus in purses each of past 17 years, topped by his $11.2-million season in 2006. Best season for number of victories was 2010 when he visited win circle 185 times. Career total purses: more than $134 million through 2019, good enough for 12th-best all time.
 - Claimed his sixth shore training title at Del Mar’s 2019 fall meeting with 24 wins. Has been leading conditioner at more than 30 SoCal meets. Ranks fifth for winners all-time at Del Mar with 378.
 - The amazing run of Lava Man, the California-bred gelding who was claimed for $50,000 at Del Mar in 2004 by O’Neill, and went on to win $5,170,103, the most ever earned by a horse following a claim, ended in 2009. Lava Man’s exploits included three consecutive victories in the Hollywood Gold Cup, matching the feat of Native Diver; two wins in the Santa Anita Handicap, and a triumph in the Pacific Classic. In 2006, he became the first horse to sweep that trio of Grade I races in the - same year. He is also the only horse to win Grade I races on dirt, turf and synthetic. The Slew City Slew gelding ranks fourth on the list of all-time leading California-bred money winners with total earnings of $5,268,706. He has taken on a new career as a stable pony for Team O’Neill and served as I’ll Have Another’s big brother throughout his 2012 campaign.

- Trainer has developed five Eclipse Award champions — Thor’s Echo, sprinter; Stevie Wonderboy, 2-year-old male; Maryfield, female sprinter, all of whom won Breeders’ Cup races; I’ll Have Another, 3-year-old male, and Nyquist, juvenile male and another Breeders’ Cup race winner.
 - Ran eight horses in 2013 Breeders’ Cup Championships, with Goldencents winning the B.C. Dirt Mile.
 - He has won 14 races worth at least $1 million, including the Japan Cup Dirt with Fleetstreetdancer in 2003 and the Godolphin Mile with Spring at Last in 2007.
 - Scored his 1,000th victory when No Means Maybe won the Bustles and Bows Stakes at Fairplex September 13, 2007.
 - Among other top horses: Richard’s Kid, Square Eddie, Sky Jack, Supah Blitz, Sharp Lisa, Cambiocorsa, Super Freaky, Mistical Plan and Avanzado.
 - Began working at racetrack after finishing high school. Was employed by trainers Jude Feld, Hector Palma, Richard Mandella and Doug Peterson. Took out trainer’s license in 1994.
 - His right-hand men around the stable are his brother, Dennis O’Neill, who also is a bloodstock agent, and chief assistant Leandro Mora.

- Hard-working French transplant has made a name for himself as one of the steady guys on the Southern California circuit.
- His climb since hanging out his training shingle in 2005 has been mostly upward, culminating in his best year yet

- in 2019 when he won 26 races and more than $900,000 in purses.
- To this point, most racing folks know him – and pay him tribute – for his exceptional work with the grand campaigner Soi Phet (“diamond necklace” in the Thai language), whom he claimed at age 3 for $16,000, then trained and patiently coaxed through 48 starts up through the age of 11, winning 14 races with him (including eight stakes) and pushing the Cal-bred’s bankroll past the $1-million mark. For him, Powell says, the gallant horse was nothing less than “a real joy.”
 - Soi Phet was saluted one last time when he was invited to retire and happily live out his days being adored by the racing public at the sport’s preeminent retirement farm, Old Friend in Georgetown, KY.
 - Powell grew up with horses on his family’s 200-acre Normandy stud farm – le Haras du Lieu des Champs – and rode as an amateur jockey on both the flat and over the jumps. His father, David, an American (thus Powell’s American citizenship) journalist, ran the farm and taught his sons both the business and the value of hard work.
 - Powell’s brother Freddy is currently the head of bloodstock acquisitions at Arqana, the French auction house. Brother Richard now runs the family stud farm. And a stepbrother, Arnaud Delacour, is a trainer of note in the eastern U.S.
 - He managed to earn a degree in business management at the University of Caen Normandy, while spending summers and post-school years doing the real learning – on backstretches around the world.
 - His racetrack odyssey started in the United States, but also went on to England, Australia and Singapore. His list of teachers is an international Who’s Who that includes Richard Mandella, Neil Drysdale, John Shirreffs, John Gosden, John Hawkes, Peter Snowden and Michael Kent.
 - And what did those learned teacher teach their willing pupil along the way? “Three primary things,” he says in his flowing French accent. “Observe, pay attention to the details and shut up.”
 - Powell, who currently has about 30 horses in his barn, had some early success with the Giant’s Causeway horse Niagara Causeway, a graded stakes winner who went on to a stud career in Kentucky.
 - More recently, he clicked with stakes winners Beach View and Fatale Bere, both graded stakes winners at Del Mar. Beach View won the Cougar II Handicap in 2018, then was stakes-placed four times before going to the sidelines for most of 2019. Powell still has hopes of bringing back the now 7-year-old in 2020. Fatale Bere, a triple stakes winner, gave the conditioner his first Grade I trophy when she captured the Del Mar Oaks in 2018. She subsequently was sold to Japanese breeding interests for $700,000.

- The trainer’s long suit has been his patience with his charges. He’s a big believer in giving them freshenings (“Just like people need vacations, so do horses.”) and also provides them with long, long walks (“It’s good for them to get out of their stalls and get some exercise without putting pressure on their joints.”)
- He gallops many of his own horses, as many as he can during his busy training mornings. That allows him to learn each horse’s personality, which he says is the key for him in unlocking whatever talent they might possess.
- Powell served as the official guardian for blossoming superstar rider Flavien Prat for several years when the French youngster came stateside as a teenager. Their shared language was a natural, of course, as was their shared enjoyment of watching replays of past famous races and Netflix shows, as well as listening to the very politically incorrect French radio show “Les Grosses Tetes.”
- Family: Wife Mathilde; three daughters.

- Tall Texan hails from a racing family: Father Willard was a trainer for 60 years, including a 41-year run in California where he conditioned more than 70 stakes winners, most of them for the Glen Hill Farm; Tom’s brother Harry (Hap) manages the 325-acre Glen Hill Farm in Ocala, Florida; his uncle Jack ran the family farm in Texas and another uncle, Alan, managed Glen Hill until 1990. Tom has trained for Glen Hill for more than three decades, initially for their founder, the late Leonard Lavin, now for his grandson, Craig Bernick.
- Took out his trainer’s license in 1978 and won with his first starter, a California-bred bullet named I’m Smokin. Horse turned out to be a California champion sprinter and, to this day, Procter says he’s the fastest horse he’s ever had. Del Mar named a stakes race in his honor and has run it every year since 1990.

- Scored 1,000th victory when Avanzare won at Tampa Bay Downs in January 2014.
- Marketing Mix was Glen Hill’s big gun between 2011 and 2013, winning 10 races from 21 starts and more than $2 million. She was retired to join the farm’s broodmare band in November 2013 following a fifth-place finish in the Breeders’ Cup Filly & Mare Turf, a race in which she was second in 2013.
- Following Marketing Mix were the likes of Wishing Gate, winner of the 2013 San Clemente Handicap at Del Mar, and other stakes winners: Pontchatrain, Please Explain, Left a Message, Customer Base, Global View and Diversy Harbor.
- Proctor pulled off a beauty at the 1994 Breeders’ Cup when he won the Distaff with 47-1 shot One Dreamer. The mare, who won more than $1.2 million, raced for Glen Hill. The Distaff that year was sponsored by Alberto VO5, the hair product that was the backbone of the Alberto-Culver company owned by Glen Hill’s Lavin.
- Trained another millionaire in Keertana, a turf specialist who won 11 races and finished a close-up third in the 2010 Breeders’ Cup Filly/Mare Turf.
- Has won 19 Del Mar stakes, including the Del Mar Derby with Banned in 2011, the La Jolla Handicap with Old Time Hockey in 2012 and the Oceanside and La Jolla in 2014 with Enterprising. Chiropractor was an upset winner of the Hollywood Derby at the fall meeting in 2015. Won two stakes at the track in 2017 with Cambodia. His 2018 Del Mar stakes winners were Cambodia, Yellow Ribbon Handicap; Summering, Juvenile Fillies Turf; Chicago Style, Hollywood Turf Cup, and Caribou Club, Seabiscuit Handicap.
- Usually has about 80 horses in training and races from coast to coast. Has saddled winners in Florida, Kentucky, New York, Illinois, California and Ontario, Canada.
- Posted best earnings year in 2014 with purses of $4,364,087. 2015 marked his second best at $4,225,518. Stable has won at least $1 million over past 15 years.
- Among his other stakes winners are Feature Price, Split Run, No Inflation, Purim, Snow Top Mountain, Bonus Pack, Rich in Spirit and Family Meeting. The last-named won the 2015 Del Mar Mile.
- During training career managed to win stakes races that his father won before him. “Something I do,” he says, “is if Dad’s won a stakes and I win (the same) stakes, I put the (winning) pictures together. That’s happened a little more than you might think.”
- Family: one son, one daughter.

- Led by speedy Mizdirection’s second straight Breeders’ Cup Turf Sprint victory in 2013, trainer posted best career year for total wins and earnings with 62 and $3,333,766.
- During 2012, combination of Turbulent Descent and Mizdirection helped build the purse pot until Turbulent Descent was sold to the partnership of Mrs. Susan Magnier, Michael Tabor and Derrick Smith and sent to trainer Todd Pletcher, for whom she won her last race before being retired to become a broodmare.
- Following second Breeders’ Cup triumph, Mizdirection was sold for $2.7 million at the Fasig-Tipton November sale in Kentucky to Al Shaqab Racing of Qatar. The daughter of Mizzen Mast raced for a partnership that included TV/radio sports personality Jim Rome and Del Mar restaurateur William Strauss.
- Puype took over training of Argentine-bred Calidoscopio after he won B.C. Marathon in 2012. Won New York’s Brooklyn Handicap with him in June, 2013
- Puype also conditioned the stretch-running sprinter Supreme Summit, a winner of nearly $400,000; finished a close-up fourth in the 2010 Breeders’ Cup Sprint.
- Won 2010 Cal Cup Mile with Bruce’s Dream, an earlier winner of the California Dreamin’ Handicap at Del Mar. In 2009, won Hollywood’s Wilshire Handicap with Gorgeous Goose.
- Currently has stakes winning veteran Ward ‘n Jerry on his shedrow and has won six races and more than $375,000 with veteran Cal-bred by Lucky Pulpit.
- Came onto racetrack out of high school, working odd jobs on the backside at Turf Paradise. Served as assistant to Walter Greenman and made connection with owner Gary Biszantz for whom he worked from 1996 until 2002 when he opened a public stable.
- Top horse with Biszantz was Old Trieste, winner of the Affirmed, Swaps and Del Mar Breeders’ Cup Handicap as 3-year-old in ’98 and the ’99 Californian, running nine furlongs in 1:46 2/5, fastest since Spectacular Bid (1:45 4/5) in 1980.

- Won the California Derby in 2004 with a son of Old Trieste named Trieste’s Honor.
- Has won 10 stakes races at Del Mar going back to 1995.
- Also won important stakes with Muny, Cobra King, Varavadour, Running Flame (his first Grade I winner), Home Journey, Star of Goshen and Lord Grillo (upsetter of Silver Charm in ’97 Malibu Stakes).
- Family: Single.

- Led by stable star Accelerate in 2018, winner of six of seven races, and more than $5 million, the Sadler stable had its best year for earnings with $8,914,045, eighth nationally. En route to an Eclipse Award for Accelerate as the champion older dirt male, Sadler engineered a campaign for the 5-year-old that would have won “Horse of the Year” laurels in any other year were it not for Triple Crown champion Justify. Accelerate, a son of Lookin At Lucky, won the Santa Anita Handicap, Santa Anita Gold Cup, TVG Pacific Classic, Awesome Again, San Pasqual and climaxed his year with a brilliant triumph in the Breeders’ Cup Classic. He was retired to stud at Lane’s End Farm in Versailles, KY.
- Accelerate raced for Sadler’s chief clients -- Hronis Racing of Kosta and Pete Hronis -- who had huge success with the crackerjack mare Stellar Wind. Champion 3-year-old filly went on to win 10 races, more than $2.9 million in purses and then was sold as a broodmare at Keeneland for $6 million.
- Hronis Racing has had remarkable success with private purchases that their one and only trainer, Sadler, has worked his magic with. Examples are the multiple-stakes winner of $1.2 million Hard Aces; Gift Box ,winner of Santa Anita Handicap and more than $1.1 million; Higher Power, winner of TVG Pacific Classic and more than $1.4 million, and Combatant, winner of Santa Anita Handicap and more than $1 million.
- Sadler has put his 40-plus years of experience to good use for the Hronis Brothers and other clients. He’s been firing big shots lately with multiple-stakes winning sprinters Cistron and Flagstaff, as well as the router Campaign and the Grade I winning mare Ollie’s Candy.

- He’s run horses in 13 different Breeders’ Cup races since 2008 who have finished third or better.
- Besides his eighth-place finish among all trainers in 2018, he also was 11th best in 2019. Among all trainers all time for winnings, he’s No. 15 with more than $127 million in purses.
- His 2014 roster was led by multiple graded-stakes winner Iotapa (for Hronis Racing, of course) and 2-year-old stakes winner Daddy DT. Iotapa won Del Mar’s Grade I Clement L. Hirsch Stakes and Santa Anita’s Grade I Vanity Stakes prior to finishing third in Breeders’ Cup Distaff. She won six of 14 starts and more than $1 million, then was sold for $2.4 million at the Keeneland November sale. Daddy D T won 2014 Oak Tree Juvenile Turf at Del Mar and finished third in Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Turf.
- Ran his fourth Kentucky Derby starter - Candy Boy - in 2014; finished 13th. Prior to the Derby, was third in Santa Anita Derby to California Chrome, who went on to take the roses in Kentucky.
- Conditioner has won 76 stakes at Del Mar (third all-time), including eight in 2018 and nine in 2019. Is second best for wins at Del Mar all-time with 480.
- A leading runner for Sadler and Hronis Racing in 2012 was Lady of Shamrock, winner of the Santa Barbara Handicap at Santa Anita. She subsequently was sold for $2 million to Alain and Gerard Wertheimer at the Keeneland November sale.
- Could do no wrong in spring of 2010 with major stakes wins by Sidney’s Candy, Line of David, Hurricane Ike, Mona de Momma, Crisp, Switch, Cozi Rosie and Ranger Heartley. Ran a pair in the Kentucky Derby that year -- Santa Anita Derby winner Sidney’s Candy and Arkansas Derby winner Line of David -- though neither fared too well.
- His 2008 campaign saw him claim training titles at Hollywood Spring/Summer, Del Mar and Oak Tree. Also won 16 stakes, including a pair of Grade Is and eight other graded races.
- Captured his first training crown at the 2007 Hollywood Park autumn session, highlighted by six graded stakes victories.
- Since winning that Hollywood training title, has captured eight other ones, including 2008-09 and 2009-10 Santa Anita winter/spring meet and 2008, 2009 and 2013 at Del Mar.
- Won 2,000th race of his career November 9, 2012 at Betfair Hollywood Park with Rooster City. Has now gone past 2,500 winners.

- Has done well with claims that he’s moved up to stakes class, the best being Cost of Freedom, who was claimed for $50,000 in 2008 and won seven races that included five stakes and more than $750,000 in earnings. Horse was beaten a head in the 2009 Breeders’ Cup Sprint. Another $50,000 claim was the aforementioned Iotapa.
- Took out his trainer’s license in 1978 and won his first race in 1979.
- Rode show horses early in career and tried out for the U.S. Olympic equestrian team. While in high school, walked hots for trainer Tom Pratt at Santa Anita. After leaving the University of Oregon, was a vet’s assistant for Dr. Jack K. Robbins. Served as assistant to David Hofmans and campaigned a string of horses in Northern California for trainer Ed Gregson.
- Among his other career highlights: winning first match race in Santa Anita history when Valiant Pete defeated champion quarter-horse Griswold in 1991; three straight wins in Del Mar’s Rancho Bernardo Handicap with Track Gal; upset of Snow Chief with the filly Melair in the ’86 Silver Screen in 1:32 4/5, a record for one mile on the dirt by a female; winning his first $1 million event when Our New Recruit captured the $2 million Dubai Golden Shaheen, and taking the Sunshine Millions Classic in ’05 with Musique Toujours at $142.20.
- Other stakes horses: Evita Argentina, Black Mamba, Healthy Addiction, Dearest Trickski, Noble Court, Get Funky, Victory Encounter, Olympic Prospect, Frost Free, Ceeband, Taste of Paradise, Hasty Kris, Geronimo and Christmas Boy.
- Previously held position of president of California Thoroughbred Trainers.
- Family: Single.

• California Chrome elevated his trainer to rarified heights in 2016 when the 5-year-old California-bred son of Lucky Pulpit became the all-time leading money winner in North America with earnings of $12,532,650 by capturing the world’s richest race, the $10 million Dubai World Cup at Meydan Racecourse, a race awarding $6 million to the winner. A year earlier, he had finished second in the Dubai World Cup.

- The distinctively-marked runner followed up his Dubai success with victories in the San Diego Handicap, the Pacific Classic over Beholder, the 2015 winner, and the Awesome Again. He suffered a heart-breaking loss to the then rising 3-year-old star Arrogate in the Breeders’ Cup Classic. After an easy win in the Winter Challenge at Los Alamitos, the stage was set for a rematch with Arrogate in the inaugural $12 million Pegasus World Cup at Gulfstream Park. Alas, California Chrome failed to bring his “A” game for one of the few times in his career and finished a disappointing ninth in his final race as Arrogate won in brilliant fashion.
- Thus, California Chrome, a training masterpiece by Sherman, went off to stud at Taylor Made Farm in Kentucky after an unforgettable career during which he compiled a record of 27-16-4-1 and earned $14,752,650. At the end of 2019, horse was sold to Japanese breeding interests and now stands as a stallion there.
- In 2014, California Chrome won the Santa Anita Derby, Kentucky Derby and Preakness Stakes. He missed a Triple Crown sweep, though, finishing in a dead -heat for fourth behind Tonalist in Belmont Stakes.
- The flashy colt, a winner of Del Mar’s Graduation Stakes as a juvenile, had the racing world and a national television audience abuzz in his quest to become the first Triple Crown winner in 36 years.
- With Sherman the perfect media maestro, the sport received a much-needed injection of positive publicity. California’s newest Thoroughbred track -- Los Alamitos -- also rode the “Chrome” wave nicely as Sherman’s training headquarters and “The Home of Chrome.”
- Colt finished third in Breeders’ Cup Classic, but Sherman subsequently called a perfect shot for his charge when he put him on the grass for the first time at Del Mar in the Grade I Hollywood Derby and watched him win smartly, the final boost he needed to win honors not just as 3-year-old male champion, but Horse of the Year.
- Sherman and “Chrome” put another large feather in their caps in 2016 when he was once again voted Horse of the Year.
- In 2014 at 77, Sherman supplanted the legendary Charlie Whittingham as the oldest (76) trainer to win the Kentucky Derby.
- 2016 marked Sherman’s best year with $8,608,255 in purse earnings, thanks to the remarkable exploits of California Chrome. Previously, his most successful season for winnings was 2014 with $4,368,073, California Chrome accounting for $4,007,800 of that total.

- Trainer had a fine season in 2011 with Cal-bred mare Ultra Blend, who won four stakes, including Del Mar’s Grade I Clement L. Hirsch. She earned nearly $650,000 for the year, finishing career with 11 victories and purses of more than $1 million.
- Registered third Grade I win of his career in 2010 when 3-year-old Haimish Hy won the Hollywood Derby. Ecton Park horse banked more than $360,000.
- 2007 was his winningest year since starting in 1979 as he won 207 races to rank sixth in America, with earnings of $4,025,569. Most important triumph: Lang Field in the Grade I Citation Handicap.
- Shifted operation to Southern California in 2007, with son Steve handling Northern California. His other son, Alan (who had a brief career as a rider), is chief assistant and main man in the south. Alan was at California Chrome’s side for his world-wide exploits.
- Art has registered a dozen stakes wins at Del Mar.
- Sherman family came to Los Angeles when Art was a youngster and his size led him to a path where he wound up galloping horses for the famed Rex Ellsworth stable. Accompanied the great Swaps on a railroad car to Kentucky for his Derby win in ’55 and also to Chicago when Swaps lost to Nashua in their epic match race.
- He had a 21-year-plus riding career, from 1957 until 1978, then switched to conditioning Thoroughbreds. Won more than 2,000 races as a rider; has won more than 2,200 races as a trainer.
- Training highlights include winning six races in a single day, August 13, 2005 when he tied a Northern California record with five victories while also winning a race at Del Mar on the same afternoon.
- Won 13 stakes between 1992 and ’97 with Lykatil Hill, including Del Mar’s Grade II Del Mar Budweiser Breeders’ Cup Handicap.
- His $50,000 claim Siren Lure emerged as one of the nation’s top sprinters of 2006 when he won five stakes, including the Grade I Triple Bend at Hollywood Park, his first Grade I success as a trainer, as well as Del Mar’s Pat O’Brien Handicap. Later that year Siren Lure finished eighth to Thor’s Echo in the Breeders’ Cup Sprint.
- His other stakes winners include Fancee Bargain, Lindsay Jean, Perfec Travel, Presidio Heights and My Captain.
- Family: Wife Faye; two sons.

- Made the leap from virtual unknown to a player on the national stage in 2005 when Giacomo shocked the racing world at 50-1 in the Kentucky Derby. Has followed that up with a series of solid campaigns; top purse money was $5.7 million season in 2009. Was back on the Kentucky Derby trail in 2017 with Gormley and Royal Mo. Gormley won the Santa Anita Derby with his stablemate a close-up third. Gormley went on to finish ninth behind Always Dreaming in Kentucky. Royal Mo failed to qualify for the Derby and, unfortunately, suffered a career-ending injury while training for the Preakness Stakes.
- Trainer eligible to go Derby hunting once again in this unusual 2020 Run for the Roses season that has the Kentucky fixture shifted to Labor Day weekend. His big, strong 3-year-old colt Honor A.P. looked special winning the Santa Anita Derby in June and Derby plans are no doubt in the offing. Shirreffs might have some special insight into the son of Honor Code out of the stakes winning mare Hollywood Story. He trained Hollywood Story.
- Shirreffs’ everlasting piece of training art will remain Zenyatta, whom he guided through 19 straight victories in four seasons before she ended her career with a narrow loss to the colt Blame in the 2010 Breeders’ Cup Classic. Though she came up half a head short that day, she continued to earn honors, including her third and fourth Eclipse Awards, the last one being 2010 Horse of the Year.
- The stretch-runner deluxe won 13 Grade I races and made Del Mar’s 2010 Clement L. Hirsch — a race she had won the previous two years — her 18th straight victory. In 2009 she finished up her second year of being named champion older distaffer by beating 11 of the best male horses in the world in the Breeders’ Cup Classic and becoming the only female to win the race. She had won the Ladies’ Classic the previous year.
- Zenyatta finished her career with $7,304,550 in earnings, the most ever by a female. She has since completed her transition to broodmare with several offspring.

- In 2009 Shirreffs also saddled Life Is Sweet to capture the Breeders’ Cup Ladies Classic. Four-time stakes winner retired with more than $1.8 million in purses.
- Won more than $600,000 with good grass filly Harmonious during 2010-11, then had more grass success with a trio of stakes winners in 2011 in Nereid (more than $225,000), Star Billing (more than $350,000) and Mr. Commons.
- Scored in four Grade I stakes in ’07 — Tiago (half-brother to Giacomo) — Santa Anita Derby and Goodwood Handicap, and After Market, Whittingham Memorial and Eddie Read handicaps. Tiago also won the Swaps Stakes, was third to Rags to Riches in the Belmont Stakes and wound up the year running fifth to Horse of the Year Curlin in the Breeders’ Cup Classic.
- Tiago, who banked $1.2 million in ’07, came back in ’08 to take the Oaklawn Handicap, finish third in the Breeders’ Cup Classic and earn more than $1 million more.
- Zenyatta, Giacomo and Tiago were all owned by Jerry and Ann Holbrook Moss. Shirreffs’ wife, Dottie Ingordo, is the stable manager for Jerry Moss.
- Another Moss-owned runner for Shirreffs was Madeo, a multiple stakes winner including the 2008 Del Mar Derby. Moss and Shirreffs teamed up again in 2019 to capture the Del Mar Derby, this time with Nolde.
- Pulled off a major upset when his Zardana outran the odds-on 2009 Horse of the Year Rachel Alexandra in the New Orleans Ladies.
- Trainer’s family owned farm near Neufields, N.H., and father bred horses with Peter Fuller of Dancer’s Image renown.
- After a hitch in the Marine Corps, including a tour in Vietnam, Shirreffs was headed to Hawaii to become a surfer, but stopped in California and got a job as a hotwalker for trainer Gene Cleveland.
- Later broke yearlings for Ed Nahem at Lakeview Thoroughbred Farm.
- Took out training license in 1978 and operated a small stable in Northern California before going to work for Brian Mayberry and Bill Spawr. Trained privately starting in ’94 for Nahem and Marshall Naify’s 505 Farms, continuing until Naify died in 2000. Then opened a public stable.
- Among other stakes winners: Hard Not to Love, Midcourt, Manistique, Starrer, Borodislew, Proposed, Bertrando, Tarlow, A.P. Warrior, Stanley Park and Swept Overboard.
- Family: Wife Dottie.

- Rang the biggest bell of his long career when Amazombie won the Breeders’ Cup Sprint at Churchill Downs in 2011. It was gelding’s fifth win of the season — all stakes — and pushed his bankroll past the million-dollar mark. Cal-bred won still more stakes in 2012 — including Del Mar’s Grade I Bing Crosby — but couldn’t repeat in Sprint, finishing eighth. Retired with earnings of more than $1.5 million.
- Did stellar work with the filly Midnight Bisou, a triple stakes winner who ran third in the 2018 Kentucky Oaks and put more than a half-million in the bank.
- Was Del Mar’s leading trainer outright in 1994 after earning same honors in a three-way tie in 1990.
- Has won four other Southern California training titles: Oak Tree 2000, 2001 and the big Santa Anita meet 1990-’91 and 1995-’96.
- Known primarily as a busy and sharp claiming trainer. Best year for earnings was 2000, with $2.5 million; for winners, 1994 with 85.
- Has moved many of his claims way up, some becoming stakes winners. That includes Exchange, the filly he haltered for $50,000 who went on to win three Grade I races, more than $1 million in purses and a spot in the Breeders’ Cup Distaff in 1992; Sensational Star, a $32,000 tag who won 10 times that much including victories in the Bing Crosby and Pat O’Brien handicaps; Restage, a $12,500 claim who became a stakes winner, and My Sonny Boy, a $62,500 claim who captured the $300,000 Cal Cup Classic in 1990.
- Had yet another sharp halter — this one for $40,000 at Del Mar in 2017 — named Skye Diamonds. Mare responded to trainer’s care with eight wins, three of them in stakes, and finished her career with almost $700,000 in earnings.
- Developed the late bloomer Bordonaro into a major sprint force between 2005 and 2007. Though he didn’t make it to the races until his 4-year-old season, the gelding managed to win 10 of 20 starts, including six sprint stakes, and $938,128.

- Trained the rapid filly Enjoy the Moment, who won four stakes in 1999 and led the boys through the early portion of the B.C. Sprint that year before tiring.
- Other stakes winners: Potrimagic, Valiant Wonder, Saratoga Gambler, Mister Gennaro, Kitty On the Track, Drouilly’s Boy, Ladylore and Desiraes My Candy. Won his ninth Del Mar Stakes during the 2018 fall season when Risky Proposition took the Let It Ride.
- Registered his first victory with Cuda May in 1977 at Bay Meadows; had his first stakes winner with Darling Deanna in 1983 in the Black Swan Stakes at Fairplex Park.
- Forged a long and successful relationship with Laffit Pincay, Jr. When the Hall of Fame rider fell on hard times with limited opportunities in the 1990s, he credited Spawr with keeping his career going by riding him first-call.
- Spawr has worked around the racetrack since high school days, including tours as a blacksmith’s assistant, as assistant trainer to the late Joe Manzi and the manager of a veterinary hospital.

- Broke through in 2013 with his first “big” horse when Points Offthebench, a California-bred he’d nursed along until the gelding cut loose as a 4-year-old, registered victories in four of five starts, including a pair of Grade I sprint stakes — Del Mar’s Bing Crosby and the Santa Anita Sprint Championship. Next up for the son of Benchmark was to be his role as the favorite in the Breeders’ Cup Sprint at Santa Anita, but one week before that race he suffered a catastrophic injury during a workout and had to be euthanized.
- Points Offthebench’s brilliance — and Yakteen’s fine job with him -- received a bittersweet salute posthumously by the racing industry with an Eclipse as Sprint champion. He also was honored in his home state by being named California’s 2013 champion older male, sprinter and Horse of the Year by the California Thoroughbred Breeders’ Association.

- Prior to Points Offthebench, Yakteen had won stakes with Mucho Unusual, Fortunately, Bench Points, Ingrid the Gambler and Stratham.
- Has won five stakes at Del Mar.
- Had success recently with Big Score, a son of Mr. Big owned by George Krikorian. Big Score won the Transylvania Stakes as a three-year-old in 2017.
- Yakteen spent the first 18 years of his life in Germany, the son of a German mother and a Lebanese-born father who had become a U.S. citizen and joined the Army, which earned him an assignment in Nuremberg. Yakteen speaks fluent German.
- But on July 4, 1982 he started a new life by joining a sister who’d moved stateside to Cypress, California, right near Los Alamitos Race Course.
- Young Yakteen needed a job and, though he had no experience with horses, he was willing to learn and started by mucking stalls, first with trotters, then with Quarter Horses.
- As he moved up the ranks he hooked up with a Quarter Horse trainer on the rise – a white-haired fellow named Bob Baffert. And when Baffert made the jump to Thoroughbreds in 1988 and 1989, Yakteen made it with him.
- Yakteen remained with Baffert until 1991, when he was offered the opportunity to join Hall of Famer Charlie Whittingham. He took it and for the next six years was the Bald Eagle’s right-hand man, highlighted by his direct involvement with the careers of the multiple-stakes winning mare Flawlessly, Santa Anita Handicap winner Sir Beaufort and a record-setting run by the horse he saddled in the Japan Cup – Golden Pheasant.
- In 1997 the timing was right for him to return to the Baffert barn and for the next seven years he helped the future Hall of Famer saddle the likes of champions Silver Charm, Real Quiet, Silverbulletday, Chilukki and Point Given, along with dozens of other stakes winners.
- Stayed with Baffert through 2004 before going out on his own. “How exceptionally fortunate was I to be able to work and learn under two Hall of Fame trainers,” he says.
- Saddled his first winner in 1991 when he was still in the employ of Baffert, who let him keep a few horses on his own. That inaugural winner was Lady Keeper.
- Sent out his first all-on-his-own winner – and stakes winner – when he took Sabiango to the Dueling Grounds (now Kentucky Downs) in Kentucky to capture the 12-furlong Kentucky Cup Turf Handicap on September 25, 2004. Like his conditioner, Sabiango was a German-bred.
- He is the Southern California vice president of the California Thoroughbred Trainers.

- Married to horsewoman and television commentator Millie Ball, a Brit who began riding in Europe, then transitioned to California racing in 1995. She and Yakteen became friendly at the racetrack and the couple was engaged in Dubai the night before the 2001 Dubai World Cup where they had gone to oversee the Baffert ace Captain Steve – she as the exercise rider, he as the assistant trainer – for his run in the $6-million race. The horse was a winner and Yakteen and Ball were off and running, too. Couple have two sons.

Tyler Baze

Born: October 19, 1982
Seattle, Washington
Resides: Monrovia, California
Height: 5’4” • Weight: 114 pounds

DMR Stats	Mounts	Wins	Purses

Del Mar Career	3,552	414	$22,984,308

- Youthful old pro has taken to riding in the Midwest – with a degree of success -- for the last year or so due to the unsettled California racing situation. He’s eligible to return to Del Mar for either or both of the track’s 2020 meetings and his shore fan club will be hoping he does.
- Won an Eclipse Award as nation’s leading apprentice rider in 2000. Was also top apprentice that year at Del Mar and all other Southern California race meets, winning 246 races all told.
- Had his biggest year for purse money in 2004 when he won 239 races and posted earnings of more than $10.1 million, ranking him as the 14th best rider in the country. Also that year won his first riding title during Hollywood Park’s spring/summer meet. At 21, became the youngest meet title winner at the now-defunct Inglewood oval since Laffit Pincay, Jr. in 1968.
- 2015 proved his second-best year for purses with more than $8.5 million registered. He won seven graded stakes during that campaign, including Grade I tallies in the Santa Margarita (Warren’s Veneda), Triple Bend (Masochistic) and Awesome Again (Smooth Roller). 2008 was his next best for winnings -- more than $8.3 million -- highlighted by five Grade Is including the Del Mar Futurity (Midshipman).
- Has been doing well since 2014, clicking for some of the best purse tallies in his career -- $7.9 million in 2014; $8.5 million in 2015; $7.1 million in 2016; $7.3 million in 2017, and $6.5 million in 2018.
- Thru 2018, has won 104 graded stakes with 19 of them of Grade I status.
- Tallied 2,000th victory of his career at Del Mar on August 14, 2014 aboard Kate’s Event. Had booted home 1,000th

- winner (3/11/05) at Santa Anita aboard Mashiko. Has won nearly 2,700 races total into 2020.
- First career triumph came on Fleeting Wonder on October 29, 1999 at Oak Tree at Santa Anita. Shortly thereafter, moved his tack to Arizona for the long winter meet at TurfParadise, preparing him for his return to the Southern California circuit and his Eclipse year. Of his 246 wins in 2000, 239 of them came before losing his “bug” on December 12.
 - Missed nearly half of 2010 and a portion of 2011 when a mount head butted him at the starting gate at Del Mar on July 24, causing facial fractures and subsequent vision problems. Won with his second mount back April 28, 2011 at Hollywood Park.
 - Known as a rider who handles most anything thrown at him on the track -- good from the gate, good sprint rider, good grass rider, good on or off the pace. Simply a good athlete who can do it all.
 - Another in the long line of the Baze family in racing. Father Earl and mother, the former Cammie Hunt, both were riders, as well as an uncle, Gary, along with second cousin and North America’s all-time winning jockey, the now-retired Russell (12,842 winners). Was also a cousin to the late rider Michael Baze.
 - Got on a horse for the first time at age 3; began galloping horses the day after 16th birthday and won his first race 10 days after his 17th birthday.
 - Developed a feel for riding by using his Uncle Gary’s Equicizer and then getting instructions from Gary on the fine points of riding.
 - Family: Wife Christina; one daughter.

* All riders’ weights listed are actual body weights. Riders normally “tack” two or three pounds above that weight, depending on saddle type.

- Finished in the Top 10 nationally for earnings among all riders for 12 straight years (2004-2015), but a hand injury cost him several weeks (including the whole Del Mar fall meeting) and he “fell” to only 12th on the national list in 2016 with “only” $12,233,889 in purses. Was the top rider in America for earnings in 2004 with $12.2 million.
- More recently, sustained a broken wrist in a spill in March of 2018 which sidelined him for seven weeks.
- Had a virtual hammerlock on riding titles in Southern California for several years with 28. Seven of them were at Del Mar -- 2016 (in a tie), 2015 (summer and fall), 2014, 2013, 2012 and 2008.
- When he tied for a riding title at the shore in 2016, he also tied the legendary Bill Shoemaker as the rider with the most Del Mar championships at seven.
- Swept the riding crowns at all five major Southern California race meets in 2008, his first full year in California.
- Won a single-season record 13 stakes at Del Mar in 2012, eclipsing a standard of 12 black-type tallies shared by Chris McCarron, Laffit Pincay, Jr. and Corey Nakatani.
- In 2014 he scored his fifth victory in a Breeders’ Cup race, reprising his 2013 score aboard Goldencents in the Dirt Mile. Other BC winners: Secret Circle, 2011 Juvenile Sprint; Ginger Punch, 2007 Distaff; Intercontinental, 2005 Filly & Mare Turf.
- Thru 2019, has won 237 Graded stakes races, 59 in Grade Is.
- His $16.4 million in purses in 2008 was second-best in the country. Led all riders nationally in victories in 2004 with 455.
- His highest purse totals came in 2012 when he won more than $17 million, making him fourth-best rider in the country that year. Has gone past $205 million in purses for his career, ranking him 15th-best of all time among riders.
- Besides his 28 California riding titles, won five more in Kentucky.
- Captured his 3,000th race on May 11, 2013 at the now-closed Betfair Hollywood Park on Ondine.
- Rode his 4,000th career winner on June 16, 2019 at Santa Anita aboard the filly Portal Creek.
- Involved in an opening-day spill at Del Mar in 2009 where he suffered multiple facial fractures that cost him nearly the whole meeting. Despite that, he still won more than $12.4-million in purses for the year.
- Known as a rider who “does his homework.” Studies race videos and past performances on his mounts and his rivals and comes prepared when he gets a leg up.
- Only member of his family involved in racing. Attended

- races with his father one day in his native Peru by accident (they thought they were going to a soccer match) and was so taken by the sport he chose to enter that country’s jockey school.
- Began riding in Lima, Peru on December 8, 2001, winning with his first mount. Went on to win apprentice title at Hipodromo de Monterrico.
 - Came to the United States in May 2002 with the help of trainer Dante Zanelli, Sr. First U.S. tally came aboard his first mount in the country, John Bobby, at Cincinnati’s River Downs on July 10, 2002.
 - Came to Southern California in mid-November 2007 to ride first call for late Hall of Fame trainer Robert Frankel.
 - Proudly became a U.S. citizen on April 27, 2012 at a swearing-in ceremony in Louisville, KY.
 - Family: Single.

- Personable Frenchman has built a reputation on numerous victories on the turf and for his patience in a race.
- Rode first winner on February 5, 1995 at Santa Anita on Gulf Tide at 19-1.
- Rode winner No. 1,000 in 2017 aboard stakes filly Union Strike on April 9 in the Santa Paula Stakes at Santa Anita.
- Big 1999 season when he had 64 winners and $4.1 million in purse earnings, with 20 percent of his wins coming in stakes races. Twelve of 13 added-money wins were in turf races, headed by Happyanunoit’s late surge to win the $500,000, Grade I Matriarch at Hollywood Park.
- Best year was 1996 with 123 wins and $5.1 million in earnings.
- Had a pair of Grade I victories in 2000, both on grass: Happyanunoit in Beverly Hills and Caffé Latte in Del Mar’s Ramona Handicap, now the John C. Mabee Stakes. In all, won five stakes, four of them graded, with Happyanunoit.
- Won first stakes race in 1995 in Las Palmas Handicap with Onceinablueamoon for Hall of Fame trainer Jack

- Van Berg. Was top apprentice rider that year at Santa Anita, Hollywood Park and Del Mar.
- Through 2019, has won 72 Graded stakes, 10 of them Grade Is.
 - Captured a pair of Graded stakes with Spanish Queen in 2015, including Grade I American Oaks.
 - Won first Grade I with Famous Digger in 1997 Del Mar Oaks.
 - Biggest win in 2007 came in the Grade I Del Mar Debutante with Set Play.
 - Moved his tack from Southern California to Kentucky and Florida in 2003, but returned in 2007. Became interested in riding at age 14 because he was on the small side and did not particularly like school.
 - Attended apprentice school in native France before coming to the United States.
 - Family: One son.

- Made the big jump from Northern to Southern California last summer with encouragement from his current agent – veteran Tom Knust – and trainer Doug O’Neill. The move proved a wise one.
- For 2019, he wound up being the leading rider at the winter-spring Golden Gate Fields meet before heading south, then was third-leading rider at the Del Mar summer meet, tied for leading rider at the Santa Anita fall meet and finished up the year as leading rider at the Del Mar fall session.
- His shift to the “major” circuit opened stakes-riding opportunities to him that had not existed previously. In 2018, he won a total of two stakes races. In 2019, he won 11 stakes, including a banner weekend in September at Santa Anita when he won a pair of Grade II events and capped it off with his first Grade I tally aboard Mongolian Groom in the $300,000 Awesome Again.
- His climb up the esteem ladder can be tracked through - his ranking among all riders: In 2015 he was ranked 206th in the nation; in 2019 he was 28th. His purses earned in 2019 -- $6,277,622 – nearly doubled his best previous year and pushed his career earnings past the $23-million mark.

- Has earned a reputation as a rider who does all phases of his craft well – dirt or grass, short or long, one the lead or off the pace, good at the gate. “He gives all his horses a chance,” notes one knowledgeable observer.
 - Solidly built reinsman says the thing he loves most about racing is the horses. “They are beautiful animals; I love them all,” he states.
 - His three favorite places are his home, the racetrack and the gym. You’ll find him in the last-named on virtually all of his off days.
 - Native of Guatemala, Latin America’s poorest country, grew up on family’s coffee farm in Nebaj, a town of about 15,000 in the country’s mountainous region approximately 240 miles northwest of the capital, Guatemala City, which is Central America’s most populous city at 5.7 million inhabitants.
 - The country has no racetracks and no racing history, so it is hardly a surprise that Cedillo – the oldest of four brothers and two sisters – never rode a horse growing up. He did, however, ride the family’s mule while taking their coffee crop to market.
 - Though Guatemalans now make up a substantial number of backstretch workers in Southern California (and are notably present on backstretches at other racing centers across the country), there are only a handful of riders who have made a mark on the American game. Cedillo currently is proving to be the most noteworthy of them.
 - His first experience with horses was in 2006 on a farm in Ocala, FL, where he had gone to join his father, who had found work there. Abel signed on as a hot walker and groom initially, then – after about a year and a half and with his size and weight noted – got to gallop a few horses. That led to him actually riding a couple of races at Calder, but only a few.
 - A subsequent trip to visit an aunt in Oakland opened up another door when he found his way to Golden Gate Fields and a job as a gallop rider for trainers Jeff Bonde and Greg Gilchrist. Again, he got a chanced to ride a few races and this time it clicked. His first week of riding saw him win a race (aboard Scherzi on 3/26/10) and he’s been winning them ever since.
 - Family: Wife Yasmin; one son.

- Lost most of 2015 to an arm injury he suffered during a race. Spent the year in Mexico recovering. Suffered a broken collarbone in 2017 at Santa Anita and then another arm injury in 2018. But the old pro rides on.
- When he suffered that broken collarbone in 2017, he sucked it up and came back later in the afternoon to win the $100,000 Spring Fever Stakes on the mare Cuddle Alert.
- Popular veteran was born in Mexico City, but grew up in Guadalajara. Began career at 16 in Mexico after graduating from Hipodromo de las Americas jockey school.
- Came to California in 1986, was licensed in 1988 and rode with success in Northern California for more than a decade before coming to Southern California.
- First win: Courageous Pilot, Sept. 8, 1985, at Agua Caliente in Tijuana.
- Took break from career in 2002-03 due to struggles with weight.
- Was runner-up in 2004-05 Los Alamitos jockey standings although riding only half of the meeting; won the Los Alamitos 2005-06 Thoroughbred title with 76 victories.
- Won four stakes at four different tracks in 2006 aboard Juan Garcia-trained Jungle Prince, including Grade III Hollywood Turf Express.
- At Fairplex in 2006, was second with 22 wins to perennial champion Martin Pedroza.
- Biggest victory was on I’m a Jewel in 1997 California Derby.
- His lone Del Mar stakes tally came aboard Renee’s Queen in 2012 Oak Tree Juvenile Fillies Turf (now called Del Mar Juvenile Fillies Turf). Payoff that afternoon was $63.60.
- Other stakes winners include Swiss Diva (2006 California Breeders Champion S.), Take Her to Heart, TizFiz (2009 San Gorgonio H.) Ashley’s Kitty and Lit’sgoodlookngray.
- Has ridden in races against his son, Jose, on numerous - occasions.

- Best year for earnings by his mounts was 2013 with more than $2.5 million in purses. In 1997 had his top mark for winners with 160 firsts.
 - Family: Wife Nicolasa; two daughters, one son.

- Inducted into the Thoroughbred Racing Hall of Fame in 2004.
- Set a world record when he won 598 races in 1989. That mark still stands.
- Won an Eclipse Award as the nation’s top apprentice in 1987, then became one of only four (McCarron, Cauthen, Leparoux) to double up as a journeyman in 1989. He added yet another Eclipse to his trophy case in 1992.
- Was nation’s leading rider for wins in 1987 (450), 1988 (474) and 1989 (598) and its leader in purses won ($14,193,006) in 1992.
- Thru 2019, has won 372 Graded stakes with 119 of them of the Grade I variety.
- Youngest rider to win 3,000 races in 1995, then became youngest to surpass $100-million purse mark in 1997.
- Scored victory No. 6,000 on January 27, 2019 at Santa Anita aboard X S Gold. He’s 18th best among all riders in that category.
- Currently sixth-leading rider all time in purse earnings with more than $286 million in purses.
- Best earnings year was 2008 - $15.6 million.
- Won the coveted George Woolf Memorial Jockey Award in 1993.
- Captured his first Kentucky Derby aboard Real Quiet in 1998, took the Preakness Stakes, too, then missed a Triple Crown on that colt by a whisker in the Belmont Stakes. Won Kentucky Derby again in 2000 with Fusaichi Pegasus, then got the Roses once more in 2008 with Big Brown, who came back to win Preakness, but couldn’t finish Belmont and earn the elusive “Triple.”

- Won another Triple Crown race in 2016 with Exaggerator, a colt trained by his brother Keith, when he captured the Preakness Stakes. They had been a closing second in the Kentucky Derby, but failed to fire in the Belmont. Kent registered one more Classic score in the 2009 Belmont aboard Summer Bird.
- Has won six Breeders’ Cup races – Kotashaan (Turf, 1993); Desert Stormer (Sprint, 1995); Corinthian (Dirt Mile, 2007); Unrivald Belle (Distaff, 2010), Texas Red (Juvenile, 2014, trained by brother) and Roy H (Sprint, 2017).
- Kent has earned more than 20 meet riding titles over the years, including three at Del Mar -- 1992, 1993 and 1997.
- First rode in Southern California in 1990 and rode regularly at Del Mar until 2005. Returned in summer of 2014 and was second leading rider with 32 wins.
- Has ridden in Louisiana and Northern California of late, but is a fan favorite at Del Mar.
- Has 83 stakes wins at Del Mar, ninth best all time.
- Won his first stakes race on December 13, 1986 on Godbey in the Maryland City Handicap at Laurel.
- Louisiana boy with deep Cajun roots grew up in the heart of Cajun country in a horse-oriented family. He was on horseback on the family farm right after he could walk and rode races as a very young lad on the local bush circuit – including his father’s track in Lafayette – for years prior to riding his first “official” winner at age 16 in 1986 at Evangeline Downs in Opelousas, LA.
- Family: Wife Rosie; two sons by a previous marriage.

- Voted into racing’s Hall of Fame in 2017.
- Fought a courageous battle to come back from a severe neck injury suffered during a workout spill early in the 2018 Del Mar meeting
- Despite beliefs that he might never ride again, seven

- months later he was back in the saddle and winning races.
- After coming close twice, rider grabbed the brass ring in 2015 with his sweep of the Triple Crown aboard speedy American Pharoah, the first time in 37 years the feat had been accomplished.
 - First rode the colt by Pioneerof the Nile when trainer Bob Baffert put him on for his initial victory, an impressive tally in the Del Mar Futurity in September 2014. Espinoza was the man from then on out and the two of them went on to racing immortality, winning eight of their next nine starts, climaxed by a runaway triumph in the 2015 Breeders’ Cup Classic. Colt won more than $8.6 million, an Eclipse as 2-year-old champion, another as 3-year-old champion and then the grand prize as Horse of the Year. He now is a stallion at Ashford Stud in Versailles, KY.
 - Espinoza, who called himself “the luckiest Mexican on Earth” after American Pharoah’s Derby score, went on to become one of the most famous Mexicans on the planet in 2015. Besides the hundreds of interviews he did with racing and sporting media, the TV networks discovered his happy demeanor and he did spots on a series of shows, including “Dancing with the Stars” and “The Tonight Show.”
 - He also earned several prestigious awards during and after “Pharoah.” The Laffit Pincay, Jr. Award at Del Mar in 2015 and the George Woolf Award at Santa Anita in 2016. Additionally, he was awarded his third ESPY (2002, 2014, 2015), the “Excellence in Sports Performance Yearly Award” presented by the ABC network.
 - Espinoza touched hearts when he revealed that -- because of an emotional visit he’d made previously to children stricken with cancer at the City of Hope research and treatment center in Duarte, near Santa Anita – he has been donating 10% of his earnings to the facility. Later he noted that all of his winnings from American Pharoah’s Belmont victory went to the cause.
 - Steady veteran first became a force in 2000 with 242 wins and more than $13 million in purses. Made a national mark in 2002 when he won Kentucky Derby and Preakness on the Baffert-trained War Emblem, only to see his Triple Crown chances take a tumble when the colt stumbled badly out of the gate in the Belmont, where he wound up finishing eighth.
 - Pulled off the Derby-Preakness double again in 2014 on the mercurial California-bred California Chrome, aboard whom he won six straight stakes and had all of racing -- and many outside it -- abuzz with hopes of the first Triple Crown winner in 36 years. Alas, to his chagrin and that of trainer Art Sherman, they could only manage a tie for fourth in the Belmont Stakes.

- California Chrome, however, had more to give beyond his Triple Crown run. He finished his 3-year-old season with a victory in Del Mar’s Hollywood Derby on the grass and locked up 2014 Horse of the Year honors. He ran twice in the $10-million Dubai World Cup, finishing second in 2015 and winning it all in 2016. He then won the San Diego Handicap, TVG Pacific Classic and Awesome Again Stakes before running into the rising superstar Arrogate in the Breeders’ Cup Classic and having to settle for second. “Chrome” did enough, though, to pick up a second Horse of the Year trophy and took a then North American record $14,752,650 in earnings into his stud career.
- Following his Triple Crown efforts with California Chrome in 2014, Espinoza went to Ascot in England and won a stakes (Windsor Castle Stakes aboard Hootenanny) for trainer Wesley Ward. While there he got to chat with Queen Elizabeth in the walking ring.
- Captured his second Breeders’ Cup race when Take Charge Brandi took the Juvenile Fillies at Santa Anita in 2014 at a whopping $125.40. His first was also a boxcar special when he piloted Spain to take the 2000 Distaff for a $133.80 return. His third-time tally wasn’t nearly so big at the tote: American Pharoah paid $3.40.
- Rider had his best year for purses in 2006 with $16.1 million, which put him third in the country. Next best for him was 2004 when he earned $15.9 million (3rd best again) and then 2015 at $15.6 million (6th).
- Has been leading rider at 12 Southern California race meets, including 2000, 2005 and 2006 Del Mar summer sessions, as well as the 2014 fall meet at the shore oval. Highlight of his 2006 Del Mar meet was a record-setting seven victories on Labor Day, September 4. Several riders had held the previous mark of six winners in one afternoon.
- Through 2019, has won 255 Graded stakes with 72 of them being Grade Is.
- Captured two of those Grade Is in 2018 aboard Accelerate (SA Handicap and Gold Cup at SA), eventual champion older horse.
- His 102 stakes wins at Del Mar rank him third all-time.
- Won 3,000th race of his career May 31, 2013 at Betfair Hollywood Park on Flashy Delight.
- When he came to United States in 1993, he rode briefly in Southern California before finding good success in Northern California. Spent a short time riding in Kentucky, then returned to Southern California in 1996.
- He was top apprentice rider at Bay Meadows in 1993-94 and at Golden Gate Fields in ’94. He was runner-up to perennial Northern California champion Russell Baze

- at the 1995 Golden Gate fall meet.
- First encounter with horses came on a farm outside Mexico City following high school; attended jockey school in Mexico City.
- Drove a city bus as a teenager before becoming a jockey and says: “It’s a lot easier riding horses than driving in that traffic in Mexico City.”
- Comes from a family of 12 children; he is the 11th. Two brothers are jockeys: Jose Espinoza was a regular on the New York circuit before a lingering injury terminated his career, and Leo Espinoza exercises horses in Southern California and has ridden occasionally in the afternoons. Nephew Assael Espinoza now rides on the Southern California circuit.
- Became a U.S. citizen after taking his oath with approximately 1,000 other new citizens on April 18, 2018 at a ceremony in downtown San Diego’s Golden Hall.
- Family: Single.

- Hails from Bayamon, Puerto Rico’s second-largest city, and also the hometown of 2017’s Eclipse-winning apprentice, Evin Roman. Both riders came to Southern California at the beginning of their careers to make their marks.
- Figueroa registered his first victory on January 1, 2018 at Hipodromo Camarero in Puerto Rico. Then Puerto Rican riding legend and racing Hall of Famer Angel Cordero, Jr. – in his current role as a jockey agent -- brought Figueroa to Gulfstream Park in Florida. But shortly thereafter, another Puerto Rican – jockey agent Nelson Arroyo – sold him on the idea of following in Roman’s footsteps in Southern California. He began horsebacking at Santa Anita during their spring/summer meet beginning in April, 2018.
- Young rider registered 10 winners at the Santa Anita session, then led all jockeys at the Los Alamitos summer meet. Subsequently, he would be leading rider at the two - additional Los Al stands held in 2018 as his fan club among local horsemen grew.

- In his first season at Del Mar in 2018, registered 19 firsts to place fifth among all riders at the 36-day shore summer session. He would then win 10 races at the 16-day fall stand for a fourth-place ranking.
- Lost his “bug” (apprentice weight allowance) in March of 2019 and now rides as a journeyman, even though he’s only 20 years old.
- His parents had a concern with their youngster going stateside on his own, so, instead, they joined him. His folks bunk in with him in his digs in Arcadia, near Santa Anita.
- Rang up a pair of stakes tallies in 2018 aboard juvenile runners, first with the filly Kim K for trainer Peter Miller in Los Alamitos’ Barretts Debutante in September, then with the colt Bob and Jackie for trainer Richard Baltas in the Eddie Logan Stakes at Santa Anita in December. Followed that up with another stakes tally on Bob and Jackie in the Let It Ride Stakes at Del Mar’s fall session.

- After riding just a handful of mounts at Del Mar in 2017, the 28-year-old native of Mexico made quite a splash in his second go-round at the seaside oval in 2018, posting 17 wins in during the summer meet and a dozen in the fall with purse earnings totaling $1,441,383. He finished sixth in the win column for the summer stand and third in the fall.
- For the year, Franco went to the winner’s circle 109 times for winnings of $5,128,423, by far his best earning year since he began riding in 2009.
- After something of a slow start to begin his career, he has chalked up earnings of $1 million-plus every year since 2012.
- Registered his first Del Mar stakes wins in 2019 with tallies in the Rancho Bernardo (Danuska’s My Girl),

- Del Mar Mile (Prince Earl) and the Cecil B. DeMille (Smooth Like Strait).
- Has won several graded stakes elsewhere, including his first big one in the Grade II Oaklawn Handicap in 2017 with Inside Straight. Subsequently, he won the Grade I Santa Margarita in 2018 aboard Fault and the Grade I Beholder Mile with Secret Spice in 2019. Those last two victories were accomplished at Santa Anita.
- His first racing experience was with an uncle in Mexico who was a farrier. Franco didn’t do too well working under a horse, but when he switched to the top of them, things began to click.
- Rode his first winner at Mexico City’s Hipodromo de las Americas in March, 2009, then came to Canada and the United States later that year and broke through with wins at Hastings Park in Vancouver, British Columbia in July. Next he rode at Golden Gate Fields and Turf Paradise before a run through the midwest at Fair Grounds in New Orleans, Remington Park in Oklahoma and Canterbury Park in Minnesota. He did well at Oaklawn Park in Arkansas where he finished second in the rider standings before coming to Santa Anita in 2017. He also finished second in the rider standing at Santa Anita’s summer meet in 2018.
- He was leading rider at Turf Paradise in both 2012 and ’13 and that’s where he hooked up with the successful trainer Robertino Diodoro, earning the ride on Inside Straight in the Oaklawn Handicap.

- A late-comer to the game (he didn’t ride his first race until he was 20), the smallish but extra sturdy reinsman has been one of the top riders on the circuit. Competed in New York for several months in 2017-18 without much success, returning to Santa Anita in early 2018.
- Been riding in the Midwest of late and doing so with some success.

- Suffered a separated shoulder during Del Mar fall meet in 2018 and missed four months.
- Scored biggest victory of his career in 2014 when he got Bayern to hang tough and win the $5-million Breeders’ Cup Classic at Santa Anita. Won two TVG Pacific Classics -- in 2013 aboard Game On Dude and 2017 astride Collected, upsetting star Arrogate.
- Finished up both 2013 and 2014 with more than $10 million in purses, a good part of it built around his relationship with trainer Bob Baffert and his powerful stable. If Garcia wasn’t riding stakes horses for the conditioner, he was his main workout rider, as was the case throughout 2015 when he readied American Pharoah for his run through the Triple Crown and on to Horse of the Year honors.
- Was third to American Pharoah aboard Dortmund in 2015 Kentucky Derby.
- In the 2010 Preakness, Garcia stepped in on the beaten Kentucky Derby favorite Lookin At Lucky for Baffert and got the money in Maryland. That was the beginning of a breakout year for him, as he banked more than $10 million in purses, making him ninth-best money-winning rider in the country.
- Rang the bell with more than two dozen stakes winners in 2011, seven of them in Grade I affairs. Among those: Kentucky Oaks (Plum Pretty), Hollywood Gold Cup (First Dude), Haskell Invitational (Coil), Del Mar Futurity (Drill) and the Malibu and Pat O’Brien (The Factor). In each case, he was riding for Hall of Famer Baffert.
- Despite his relatively brief career, thru 2019 has won 105 Graded stakes with 31 of them being Grade Is.
- 2013 was keyed by a pair of Breeders’ Cup victories -- New Year’s Day in the Juvenile and Secret Circle in the Sprint. In 2016 he took a Breeders’ Cup Sprint again with Drefong.
- Had early success at the now-closed Bay Meadows, tying perennial champ Russell Baze at 47 wins for the riding title for the 2005-06 meet. Then rode 109 winners in a 65-day meet at Golden Gate Fields for the session’s top honors, the first time Baze hadn’t won a Northern California meet since 1980.
- Registered his first victory on August 17, 2005 at Bay Meadows Fair aboard Wild Daydreamer. First stakes victory came in the $75,000 Foster City Handicap at Bay Meadows on February 4, 2006 aboard Somethinaboutlaura. A week later, won his first $100,000 race by booting home Sierra Sweetie in the California Breeders’ Cup Oaks.
- Scored his first graded stakes win on Get Funky in the Morvich Handicap at Santa Anita in 2007.

- Won his 1,000th race August 30, 2012 at Del Mar on Bubba Fizz.
- Was a finalist for an Eclipse Award as top apprentice rider of 2006.
- Difficult family life growing up for rider: Abandoned by his 14-year-old mother, and never having seen his father, youngster was raised by his grandmother and had to work construction in Veracruz as an 11-year-old.
- Came to the United States in 2003 and got a job as a dishwasher and cook in a Pleasanton, CA delicatessen. Deli owner Terri Terry had a small string of show jumpers and Garcia persuaded her to let him ride.
- With just a handful of mane and riding bareback, the youngster took the horse over the jumps successfully, earning a chance to begin exercising horses at the Pleasanton racetrack for six months before beginning his career in earnest.

- Became an overnight sensation when he was named to ride the 3-year-old colt I’ll Have Another, who took him on the ride of a lifetime in 2012. Won four straight stakes on him, each bigger than the last — Santa Anita’s Robert B. Lewis and Santa Anita Derby, then the Kentucky Derby and Preakness. Next to come was a shot at racing immortality in the Belmont Stakes, but a touch of tendinitis forced the scratch of the colt on the eve of the race.
- I’ll Have Another’s owner, J. Paul Reddam, saw Gutierrez win a race at Santa Anita early in the 2011-12 meet and liked his style. He suggested to his trainer, Doug O’Neill, that he give the young rider a shot. He did and they were paid back nicely.
- Gutierrez has become Reddam’s go-to guy on many occasions since. Rider has won 16 stakes at Del Mar, 11 on Reddam horses.
- Won Best Pal Stakes and Del Mar Futurity in 2015 on

- Reddam’s Nyquist. Colt climaxed an undefeated 2-year-old season with an impressive tally in the Breeders’ Cup Juvenile at Keeneland to earn an Eclipse as champion 2-year-old male. He then came out firing as a 3-year-old and took an undefeated 7-for-7 mark into the Kentucky Derby, where he went favored and scored by better than a length. Gutierrez thus joined Willie Simms (Ben Brush, 1896; Plaudit, 1898) as the only other perfect 2-for-2 rider in the history of the race.
- Nyquist went favored again in the Preakness, but came up short this time, finishing third. Subsequently, he ran a fever and was taken out of consideration for a go in the Belmont Stakes. After two more starts, he was retired to stud for Darley at Jonabell Farm in Kentucky.
 - Thru 2019, Gutierrez has won 35 Graded stakes with 13 of them being Grade I. Scored a major tally in 2016 in the BC Juvenile Fillies aboard Champagne Room. 2016 was his best year, with $9.8 million in earnings.
 - Registered his 1,000th career victory on February 10, 2017 at Santa Anita aboard Hot Paris Night.
 - Now 32-year-old grew up on farm in the small town of El Higo in the Mexican state of Veracruz in the southeastern part of the country, one of four children. Caring for, and riding, horses were a part of his youth.
 - His father — Mario Gutierrez Hernandez Sr. — was a Quarter-Horse jockey and trainer and young Mario began riding at age 12.
 - Mario became his father’s rider for match races, taking part in at least 200 of them by his reckoning in and around his home state of Veracruz.
 - In 2005, with his parents’ blessing for a one-time shot at being a professional race rider, he went to Mexico City to ride as an apprentice at Hipodromo de las Americas. Caught the eye of a visiting Canadian trainer named Terry Jordan who invited him to try his luck the following year in Vancouver.
 - As an apprentice in 2006 he won 91 races at Hastings Park there; then was the track’s leading rider in 2007 and 2008. He won 47 stakes at the Western Canadian racetrack in his six seasons there.
 - He was the regular rider for 2007 Canadian champion 2-year-old filly Dancing Allstar, as well as the British Columbia champion Holy Nova.
 - Early on he was taken under wing as the first-string rider by Hastings’ training kingpin Troy Taylor, along with owner and syndicate manager Glen Todd. The three of them shared a house in Vancouver and were known as the “two and a half men.”
 - Gutierrez rode briefly at several U.S. tracks — among them Portland Meadows, Golden Gate Fields and Turf

- Paradise — but came to Southern California with Taylor and a string of horses in the fall of 2011. Was pondering a return to Vancouver when I’ll Have Another changed everything.
- The rider used some of his early Canadian earnings to buy his parents a home, their first.

- Steady veteran has been a regular in Southern California since 2010.
- Lost four months at the end of 2016 when a morning worker plowed him into the rail at Del Mar in September and broke his ribs and collapsed a lung.
- Rider finally returned during Santa Anita big meet.
- Put together a showcase year in 2012. Was fourth-leading rider at Del Mar, then took riding titles at Fairplex Park and Betfair Hollywood’s autumn meet. To win the Fairplex meet he had to do the near impossible: unseat perennial champion (13 straight riding titles) Martin Pedroza. He pulled it off, 26 winners to 19.
- Tied with Rafael Bejarano for top jock at 2013 spring-summer Betfair Hollywood Park session.
- Won half a dozen races at Del Mar in 2011; then won 24 in 2012. He took it up another notch in 2013 when he won 27 races and was the third-leading jock. Registered first Del Mar stakes victory in ’12 on Nechez Dawn in Daisycutter Handicap. He added three more in 2013, including a tally on Ethnic Dance in a division of the GII Del Mar Derby. Has a total of eight shore stakes on his ledger.
- Won half a dozen other stakes during 2012, including graded tallies on Izzy Rules in the Las Flores and Comma to the Top in the Daytona, both at Santa Anita. Has nine Graded stakes tallies to his credit.
- Rode winners of four straight runnings of Los Angeles Stakes -- Comma to the Top (2013), Cyclometer (2014), Distinctiv Passion (2015), San Onofre (2016).

- Best year was 2013 with $8.3 million in mount earnings.
- Got interested in the sport as a child when mother and uncle, Manuel Alicea, who was a jockey, took him to the races.
- Got initial grounding from trainer Ramon Flores on the Texas racing circuit. Started as hot walker, graduated to groom and then exercise rider.
- When he first began his career as a jockey, he was listed under the name Edwin Alicea, his mother’s first surname, or apellido. (Hispanics normally have two apellidos, a combination of their father’s first apellido along with their mother’s first apellido.) Subsequently, he rode under the name Edwin Maldonado-Alicea, a combination of his father and mother’s first apellidos. Now in the program he simply goes by Edwin Maldonado.
- Officially began his career and had his first winner at Assiniboia Downs in Winnipeg, Canada, before moving on to the familiar Texas circuit, where he rode for three years. Shifted next to Louisiana Downs and Delta Downs before heading west to Southern California to ride at the 2010 Fairplex Park meet.

- Won 19 races during Del Mar’s 2018 summer and fall meets, totaling purses of $963,082. For the year, won 86 races for purses of $3,528,064, his best earnings year so far in the United States.
- Came to the United States – and California – in 2014.
- Has been a steady, not splashy, performer at Del Mar during the past five summers. He rode seven winners in 2014; 14 in 2015; 13 in 2016; nine in 2017, and 14 in 2018.
- Has won six Del Mar stakes races over the past five years, including the I’m Smokin with Mo Soul in 2016, the 2017 Oceanside Stakes with Bowies Hero and the Rancho Bernardo Handicap with Skye Diamonds, also in 2017. In 2019 he finished first with Fashionably Fast

- in the fall’s Cary Grant Stakes. First Del Mar stakes tally came in 2015 aboard Obey in the CTBA Stakes.
- Also won stakes on Generosidade (2016 San Luis Rey) and Toowindytohaulrox (2015 Daytona) at Santa Anita.
 - Brazilian native has been a solid member of the Southern California jockey colony since 2014 and has had good luck with trainer Bill Spawr. As a result, he was the regular pilot for the conditioner’s multiple-stakes winner Skye Diamonds, not only at Del Mar but also in the Breeders’ Cup Filly & Mare Sprint, where she finished fourth in 2017 and 10th in 2018.
 - Has quite an international tinge to his riding career, having won more than 2,000 races not only in his native Brazil but also in Singapore, Macau and Dubai. In fact, his biggest win all time came in 2010 in the $10-million Dubai World Cup aboard Gloria De Campeao. He took the horse trained by Pascal Barry right to the front out of the gate and fended off challengers to win by a nose in the first-ever World Cup at Meydan Racecourse.
 - Broke his maiden in 1993 at Hipodromo do Cristal, Porto Alegre, Brazil.

- Popular local veteran dropped from the racing scene at the end of 2019 and has been keeping a low profile. His last mount was October 3, 2019 at Santa Anita. Speculation is the 54-year-old may have decided to hang it up, though that’s not for sure.
- All-time leading rider at the now-closed Fairplex Park/Barretts “bullring,” having won 15 riding titles, including 13 straight between 1999 and 2011. Holds the record for wins in a single meet at 51 in 2004 and wins at the track all-time at 730.
- Had a remarkable run to open the Fairplex meeting in 2008, winning seven races on September 5 (including win No. 3,000 on Airplane Attendant in his first mount of the day), then three races on September 6 followed - by seven more on September 7. He’s only second rider in history to win seven times in a year.

- Is also the leading rider at Los Alamitos in races for Thoroughbreds only. He was the king of the old Orange County Fair meet that was held there between 1977 and 1991 and has won the most races at the track’s afternoon cards that started in 2014.
 - Always known as an especially good gate and speed rider, he was a natural on the double-quick gelding Private Zone, who won seven stakes and placed in nine others running all over the country under Pedroza. Canadian-bred by Macho Uno won more than $2.9 million. His connection for “Zone” was the horse’s stable manager, Rene Douglas, a fellow Panamanian and former rider who has had a long friendship with Pedroza.
 - Pedroza became the 10th rider to win 1,000 races at Hollywood Park on July 10, 2010 when he took the Grade I Triple Bend Handicap on E Z’s Gentleman.
 - Burst into prominence on the Southern California scene when riding 50-1 shot Martial Law to victory in the $1-million Santa Anita Handicap in 1989.
 - Rode three straight winners of Landaluce Stakes — Garden Gal, Fluttery Danseur and Zealous Connection 1990-92 — for the late Brian Mayberry, for whom he often rode first call.
 - Won six straight races at Oak Tree meeting on October 31, 1992, equaling the Santa Anita record set by Laffit Pincay, Jr. in 1987.
 - Won first meet title at a major Southern California venue when he booted home 31 winners at Hollywood Park’s fall meet in 2005. Posted best-ever earnings mark that year with $5.2 million, then topped that in 2006 with $5.4 million.
 - Thru 2019, won 55 Graded stakes overall, 10 of them Grade Is. He has registered 19 stakes wins at Del Mar.
 - Came back well from the worst injury of his career, a broken pelvis suffered at Santa Anita in January 2009 that cost him just about the entire first half of the year. Fought through a fractured left shin in 2014 that had him on the shelf from February to June.
 - Graduate of Panama’s jockey school, where he started at age 17.
 - Brother Marcelino also is a rider. One of his sons, Brian, rides, too.
 - Name is pronounced “Mar-teen.”
 - Family: Two sons, one daughter.

- Flying Frenchman has become “The Man” in the Southern California jockey colony – in demand daily locally, as well as a hot ticket for stakes horses around the country.
- Was in the right place at the right time in 2019 when he was “kissed in” in the Kentucky Derby aboard Country House following the controversial disqualification of Maximum Security, the horse first under the wire who was moved back to 17th. Prat’s horse, posted at 65-1 on the tote, had finished second, but was made the winner following the first win DQ in the 145 running of the Run for the Roses.
- Meticulous reinsman broke through initially stateside in 2015, winning 84 races, more than $5.2 million in purses and several major stakes -- and this despite losing about four months to a nasty racing spill at Los Alamitos in September that had him in a body cast for more than two months.
- But in the last four years, he’s gone from good to better to among the very best. His purse totals have climbed ($12.3 million in 2016; $12.6 million in 2017; $12.9 million in 2018, then jumping to $19.6 million in 2019, 5th best nationally), as he won 683 races during that span.
- Was second-leading rider at Del Mar’s summer meet in ‘15, then second-leading rider at Santa Anita’s ‘15-’16 winter/spring session following his comeback from injury. Won 38 races and the 2016 riding title (in a tie with Rafael Bejarano) at Del Mar’s summer season. He won 35 races and the outright championship for summer 2017 and also took the fall crown. Finished second at Del Mar to Drayden Van Dyke for both the summer and fall 2018 sessions. He won Del Mar’s 2019 summer crown with 42 firsts.
- Has triumphed in 44 stakes in five years at Del Mar. Registered his initial tally in the $1-million TVG Pacific Classic in 2019 atop Higher Power.
- Booted home his first winner at Fontainebleau, France in September, 2009.

- When Prat was 17, he rode his first race in the United States at Hollywood Park, then registered his first victory stateside at Santa Anita on January 15, 2010 aboard Heavenly n’ Free, who paid $103.40 to win.
- Spent his winters in Southern California with trainer Leonard Powell, who acted as his guardian, for both the 2009 and 2010 meetings at Santa Anita. “I love racing in America, which is very different to the way races are run in France,” said Prat. “Let’s say I’ve learned about different race rhythms, and it has certainly improved my strength in the saddle.”
- In early 2012, Prat was named as the second call for the Wertheimer brothers in France, a role of honor behind star rider Olivier Peslier. He had won the “Etrier d’Or” as that country’s top apprentice in 2009.
- Being a jockey was the only profession Prat ever considered. He grew up around horses with his father, Frederic Prat, training harness horses for a living. Young Flavien was always at the stables and early on got a taste for things by riding in some pony races. His brother, Alexi, is a harness driver in France.
- Served his apprenticeship under Chantilly handler Tony Clout in France.
- In five years stateside between 2009 and 2014, Prat had limited opportunities, but managed 10 victories from 71 mounts.
- He committed to U.S. racing and moved to Southern California at the start of the Santa Anita big meet, beginning on December 26, 2014.
- Thru 2019, has won 92 graded stakes, 28 of them Grade Is.
- Has a trio of Breeders’ Cup triumphs -- Battle of Midway in the Las Vegas Breeders’ Cup Dirt Mile at Del Mar in 2017; the BC Turf Sprint aboard Obviously in 2016 at Santa Anita, and the Breeders’ Cup Juvenile on Storm the Court, also at Santa Anita.
- Prat’s first North American stakes winner was aboard Power Ped for trainer Neil Drysdale at Turf Paradise on January 17, 2015 in the Cotton Fitzsimmons Mile Handicap.
- His first North American graded stakes winner was the Argentine-bred Catch a Flight for Hall of Fame trainer Richard Mandella in the Gr. III Precisionist Stakes at Santa Anita on May 2, 2015, providing the conditioner with his 2000th career triumph. Mandella was among the first American horsemen to encourage young Prat to shift stateside permanently.
- Prat used his injury downtime in 2015 to some advantage by signing up with the Berlitz School in Pasadena and diving into English classes. He now speaks it well, with a charming French accent, mais oui.

- His agent, Derek Lawson, can go either way with his rider. He speaks fluent French.
- Family: Wife Manon; one daughter.

- Won Eclipse Award by a wide vote margin as America’s top apprentice jockey for 2017.
- That year he won 166 races for earnings of $5.1 million, easily outdistancing all other apprentice riders in the U.S. for both victories and earnings.
- Was an immediate sensation after hitting the Southern California circuit, winning five riding titles during his Eclipse year. He then captured Santa Anita’s 2018 winter meet title with 46 firsts despite losing his five-pound apprentice allowance that March.
- Lost two months during 2018 Santa Anita spring/summer meet to a broken toe.
- Graduate of Puerto Rico’s famous jockey school, Escuela Vocacional Hipica, and won his first race on January 5, 2017 at Hipodromo Camarero in his native land.
- His plan after that was to head to the United States to ride in Pennsylvania. Longtime successful jockey agent Tony Matos (also a Puerto Rican) persuaded him to alter his course and come to California.
- Became the first apprentice since Gordon Glisson in 1949 to win a Santa Anita riding title as he tied Flavien Prat for top rider at the 2017 spring-summer meet. Followed that up with the riding title at all three Los Alamitos meetings and the fall Santa Anita session.
- At Del Mar’s 2017 summer and fall meets, he finished second to Prat.
- Trainers showed a willingness to use Roman in stakes races, something that isn’t always true of “bug” boys. In 2017 he won the Longacres Mile for Vann Belvoir aboard Gold Rush Dancer at Emerald Downs; Santa Anita’s Southern Truce Stakes for Hall of Famer Jerry Hollendorfer aboard Street Surrender, and the CTBA Stakes at Del Mar on Show It N Moe It for Gary Sherlock.

- Has won a trio of stakes at Del Mar: the aforementioned CTBA, the Oceanside Stakes on Restrainedvengeance in 2018 and the Kathryn Crosby in 2019 aboard Wicked Old Fashion.
- Single.

- Entered racing’s Hall of Fame in 2003.
- Climbed a mountain he thought he’d never reach in 2018 aboard the mercurial Justify as he teamed up with the undefeated colt to sweep the Triple Crown. Smith gave the handsome chestnut speedster three perfect rides then, in his pro’s pro fashion, deferred to his mount: “He was sent down from heaven,” the emotionally spent rider said after their Belmont Stakes tally.
- Has taken on the moniker “Big Money Mike” because of his extraordinary run of top horses and big wins on the biggest stages. A sampling of the equine talent he’s sat atop would include Horses of the Year Skip Away, Azeri and Zenyatta, and, more recently, champions Arrogate, Songbird and now Justify.
- Enjoyed phenomenal success aboard Arrogate in 2016-’17, guiding him to victory in the three richest races in the world, the Breeders’ Cup Classic, the Pegasus World Cup and the Dubai World Cup en route to becoming the richest horse in North America history with earnings of $17,422,600. He was accorded an Eclipse Award as the champion three-year-old of 2016 and retired to stud at Juddmonte Farm in Kentucky in 2017.
- Songbird, the champion 3-year-old filly of 2016, rattled off 11 straight victories beginning as a juvenile, her streak ending when she was nosed out by another champion, the older Beholder, in an epic match in the Breeders’ Cup Distaff. She won two more races as a 4-year-old and then was retired after finishing second in the Personal Ensign.
- Became all-time Breeders’ Cup championship winning

- jockey with two victories in 2012 at Santa Anita, running his total to 17 and breaking a 15-all tie with retired Jerry Bailey. He’s added nine more since then and his total of 26 is well out front in that department.
- Over the past eight seasons, Smith has won no less than $10 million in purses each year as his sparkling career shows no signs of slowing down. Thru 2018 -- his 38th year in the saddle -- Smith can claim a staggering 605 Graded stakes wins. Perhaps even more amazingly, 217 of them – more than one third -- have been in Grade Is. It would be all but impossible to come up with another scenario in any sport in the world where an athlete of his age is in high demand from coast-to-coast to perform in his sport’s most prestigious and pressure-packed events.
- Though he has had success on literally hundreds of very good horses, he may always be known as the rider of the great mare Zenyatta, owned by Mr.-Mrs. Jerry Moss and trained by John Shirreffs.
- With the exception of her first three starts, Smith was Zenyatta’s jockey, guiding the remarkable champion through a marvelous four-year, undefeated run that finally ended at 19 straight with her last-gasp loss to the colt Blame in the 2010 Breeders’ Cup Classic at Churchill Downs. In 2009, she had become the only female to win the Breeders’ Cup Classic at Santa Anita in one of the most exciting contests in racing history.
- Smith’s partnership with the massive daughter of Street Cry helped earn her four Eclipse Awards, including the sweetest prize of all — Horse of the Year 2010. Along the way, they won Del Mar’s Clement L. Hirsch Stakes in 2008, 2009 and 2010. She also rang up more than $7.3 million in purses, most ever by a distaffer.
- A notable 2013 stakes score was with Palace Malice in the Belmont, his fourth Triple Crown triumph. That number is now seven after the Triple Crown success of Justify. Won the 2005 Kentucky Derby aboard the Shirreffs-trained and Moss-owned and -bred Giacomo at odds of 50-1. Also finished second eight times and third on seven occasions in Triple Crown races.
- Appeared he might have another Triple Crown notch on his belt in 2019 with his call on Omaha Beach, favored to win the Kentucky Derby. But, alas, the colt came up with an entrapped epiglottis three days before the race and had to be withdrawn.
- Rode 5,000th winner of his career April 7, 2012 at Santa Anita in Portrero Grande Stakes aboard sprint champion Amazombie
- He was the regular rider for another award-winning female — triple Eclipse winner Azeri, twice champion mare and Horse of the Year in 2002. He rode the chestnut

- in her first 18 starts, winning 15 times with two seconds and a third.
- Only rider 2017 female sprint champion and millionaire Unique Bella ever knew.
 - Though he didn’t begin riding at Del Mar until 2001, has rung up 70 stakes wins locally, 10th best of all time. Has won track’s $1-million TVG Pacific Classic four times in 10 attempts.
 - Rider built his early career mostly on the east coast, but has done well in Southern California since moving his tack west in 2001. Switched his base to Kentucky in 2005 and then rode in the east in 2006 before returning to Southern California full time in 2007.
 - Recovered from near-career-ending broken back suffered in a spill at Saratoga in 1998, returning to ride during 1999 Gulfstream Park season.
 - In 1993 and 1994, led nation’s jockeys in earnings, setting what was then in the latter year a record $15.9 million. Also established record of 67 stakes victories, breaking his mark of 62 set in 1993. Captured Eclipse Award each of those years as nation’s top jockey.
 - Currently third-leading jockey all time for money won with more than $330 million.
 - A sampler of other top horses ridden: Fourstars Allstar, winner of the 2,000 Guineas at The Curragh; Holy Bull, 1994 Horse of the Year; two-time Breeders’ Cup Mile champion Lure; Sky Beauty, Heavenly Prize, Devil His Due, Glitter Woman, Adoration, Royal Delta, Shared Belief, Drosselmeyer, Prairie Bayou, Bodemeister and Paynter.
 - Rode first winner — Future Man — at Santa Fe Downs on June 12, 1982. Rode primarily in the midwest — Oaklawn Park, Churchill Downs and Canterbury Downs — until heading to New York in late 1989.
 - Son of jockey George Smith.
 - Began riding races at age 11 in New Mexico. Took out jockey’s license when he was 16 in 1982.
 - Was inducted into New Mexico’s Hall of Fame in 2014.
 - Awards: Eclipse Award, 1993-94; Mike Venezia Award, 1994; George Woolf Memorial Jockey Award, 1999; ESPY Award for outstanding jockey, 1993; “Big Sport of Turfdom” award in 2010, after winning the same award in 2009 as part of “Team Zenyatta;” Bill Shoemaker Award three times, 2012-13-16, and Laffit Pincay, Jr. Award, 2017.
 - On the board of directors of Jockeys’ Guild.
 - Family: Wife Cynthia.

Joe Talamo

Born: January 12, 1990
Marrero, Louisiana
Resides: Monrovia, California
Height: 5’4” • Weight: 113 pounds

DMR Stats	Mounts	Wins	Purses
2019 (S)	124	23	$1,474,620
2019 (F)	39	1	$119,202
Del Mar Career	2,702	359	$22,255,597

- As several of his fellow California riders have, young old pro has shifted his emphasis to the Midwest in order to ride more horses and gain more opportunities. Quite a few California racing fans will hope he makes it back “home” for a summer at Del Mar.
- Came to Southern California in 2007 as a 17-year-old apprentice rider after becoming the first “bug boy” to win the riding title at New Orleans’ Fair Grounds with 119 victories, 25 more than runner-up and often-local-champion Robby Albarado.
- Didn’t disappoint as he battled throughout Hollywood Park spring-summer season with the late Michael Baze before finishing second for riders’ title. Finished second to him again at Del Mar, but in the process all but assured himself an Eclipse Award as the nation’s top apprentice for the year.
- In the years since, became one of Southern California’s solid guys, a Top 10 rider at virtually every meet on the circuit.
- 2012 was his best year for purses -- more than $11.8 million -- ranking him ninth-best in the country that year.
- Became first apprentice to win two Grade I races on same program with victories on Nashoba’s Key in the $300,000 Vanity and Bilo in $300,000 Triple Bend at Hollywood Park July 7, 2007. Says 7/7/07 is his lucky day.
- Reprised a Grade I double June 14, 2014 at Santa Anita when he won the Vanity Stakes on Iotapa and the Shoemaker Mile with Obviously.
- On his first day as a journeyman — July 22, 2007 — rode three winners at Del Mar, including Spenditallbaby in the Fleet Treat Stakes.
- In 2012, tied previous record for stakes wins at a Del Mar meet with 12, only to be edged out by Rafael Bejarano’s 13. Can boast of 56 stakes wins at Del Mar.
- Went past the $100-million mark in purses in 2018; now looming up on $110 million.

- Had to deal with a heartbreaker at 2009 Kentucky Derby: Came to the track Derby morning expecting to ride the favorite in the Run for the Roses — the colt I Want Revenge, aboard whom he won the Gotham Stakes and Wood Memorial. Instead, he found that the horse had been injured and would be scratched.
- 2009 finished up on a high note for him, however, when he zoomed home first in the Breeders’ Cup Turf Sprint with California Flag for his first tally in racing’s championship events.
- In 2009, rode 2-year-old colt Sidney’s Candy to a track-record win, then came back in 2010 to win a trio of stakes on him — including the Santa Anita Derby. The horse got the rider his first Kentucky Derby mount, but faded to 17th behind Super Saver.
- Only got to win 12 races at the 2010 Del Mar meet, but that was because he only got to ride 12 days. Went down in a turf course spill August 5 and broke his left wrist. Bounced back in 2011 with 42 firsts, second best at the seaside session.
- First victory: Well Heavens Sake, July 9, 2006, Louisiana Downs.
- First graded stakes win: Ashley’s Kitty in Railbird at Hollywood Park for trainer Ted H. West on May 13, 2007.
- First Southern California meet riding title: 2014 spring/summer session at Santa Anita with 43 winners.
- Thru 2019, registered 117 graded stakes wins with 23 of those of the Grade I variety.
- Was regular pilot for grass speedster Obviously, who set mile record on the green (1:32.10) in the 2012 Del Mar Mile, then came back to win it again in 2013.
- Grew up in Marrero, across the Mississippi River from New Orleans, with horses in his backyard. Did his first riding at age 11, learning his trade like many Cajun riders before him on the bush tracks of Louisiana. Rode his first recognized meet at age 16 at Louisiana Downs in Bossier City.
- Was one of the featured riders in the two seasons of the Animal Planet cable series “Jockeys.”
- Family: Wife Elizabeth; two sons.

Drayden Van Dyke

Born: September 10, 1994
Louisville, Kentucky
Resides: Monrovia, California
Height: 5’0” • Weight: 106 pounds

DMR Stats	Mounts	Wins	Purses
2019 (S)	149	32	$2,200,747
2019 (F)	58	12	$532,194
Del Mar Career	1,176	198	$12,160,575

- Rising riding star had a “coming out” of sorts at Del Mar in 2018 when he won both the summer and fall riding titles. Took down 11 stakes during the summer stand and three more in the fall, pushing his seaside total to 25. Added five more in 2019 for 30 overall.
- Had his best year by far in 2018 when he finished first in 150 races, captured 19 Graded stakes and banked $11,086,905 in purses.
- Has won 55 Graded stakes all told with 14 of them Grade I through 2019.
- Lost the first half of 2017 to a compound fracture of his right arm suffered in a spill at Santa Anita in January. Still came back to win more than $5 million in purses.
- In 2014, became third Southern California-based rider to win Eclipse Award as top apprentice since 2000, joining Tyler Baze and Joe Talamo. Van Dyke rode 192 winners during the year for earnings of more than $6 million. (That trio was joined subsequently by Evin Roman in 2017.)
- Losing his apprentice weight allowance in January, 2015 didn’t slow him down much. He finished eighth at the big Santa Anita meet with 24 wins and more than $1.6 million in earnings. Also registered his first Grade I victory there aboard Ring Weekend in the Kilroe Mile for trainer Graham Motion.
- Captured his first Breeders’ Cup victory in 2018 when he got Stormy Liberal home on top in the B.C. Turf Sprint at Churchill Downs.
- Won two Grade Is in one afternoon at Los Alamitos (12/8/18) aboard Improbable (Los Alamitos Cash Call Futurity) and Chasing Yesterday (Starlet), both for trainer Bob Baffert.
- Began riding professionally at Hollywood Park fall meet in 2013; won first race on second mount.
- Had ridden regularly for Tom Proctor stable; had galloped for Proctor at start of his career and then went to Glen Hill Farm in Ocala, FL, for polishing under Proctor’s brother, Hap, the farm’s manager.

- Scored a trio of stakes wins in 2018 aboard star City of Light. Won stakes doubles on Catapult and Catalina Cruiser.
- Father, Seth, was a rider for a short period who rode in the Midwest. Growing up in that atmosphere, young Drayden always wanted to be jockey.
- Lived his early years and went to school in Hot Springs, AR, where mother, Jennifer, lived. Father lived in Louisville, KY. Has older brother, Keeghan, an exercise rider in the Midwest, and younger sister, Alexandria.
- Tried out for his high school basketball team at age 13, but didn’t make it. Decided then that the way to go was to be a rider.
- Tacks a feathery 106 pounds.
- Family: Single.meet to a broken toe.
- Graduate of Puerto Rico’s famous jockey school, Escuela Vocacional Hipica, and won his first race on January 5, 2017 at Hipodromo Camarero in his native land.
- His plan after that was to head to the United States to ride in Pennsylvania. Longtime successful jockey agent Tony Matos (also a Puerto Rican) persuaded him to alter his course and come to California.
- Became the first apprentice since Gordon Glisson in 1949 to win a Santa Anita riding title as he tied Flavien Prat for top rider at the 2017 spring-summer meet. Followed that up with the riding title at all three Los Alamitos meetings and the fall Santa Anita session.
- At Del Mar’s 2017 summer and fall meets, he finished second to Prat.
- Trainers showed a willingness to use Roman in stakes races, something that isn’t always true of “bug” boys. In 2017 he won the Longacres Mile for Vann Belvoir aboard Gold Rush Dancer at Emerald Downs; Santa Anita’s Southern Truce Stakes for Hall of Famer Jerry Hollendorfer aboard Street Surrender, and the CTBA Stakes at Del Mar on Show It N Moe It for Gary Sherlock.
- Has won a trio of stakes at Del Mar: the aforementioned CTBA, the Oceanside Stakes on Restrainedvengence in 2018 and the Kathryn Crosby in 2019 aboard Wicked Old Fashion.
- Single.
