- Was leading breeder of 2022 in California, led by his prized stallion Grazen who was the Golden State’s leading sire of California-conceived foals by earnings, by number of winners and by Turf earnings. He also bred California champion older female of 2022, Becca Taylor.
- Had his best year to date in 2022 when he had 143 starters, 38 winners and more than $2.3 million in earnings. Becca Taylor won five of her six starts including two graded stakes victories, the G3 Desert Stormer at Santa Anita and the G2 Great Lady M at Los Alamitos. The daughter of Old Topper retired with a career record of 10-9-1 and earnings of $499,160.
- Though the low-key Alexander demurs, it has been suggested he could wear the title “Mr. California Racing.” A quick check gives reasons why: has owned horses in the Golden State for more than 40 years; Los Angeles native chose to buy a farm in Santa Ynez and now lives on site as he breeds, raises and races his own stock from there; agreed to become chairman of the Thoroughbred Owners of California in 2016. All that, plus he never misses a chance to beat the drum for a game he loves. “I’m no big deal; just a regular guy who fell in love with horses,” he says.
- Graduated from Pasadena High, did two years at USC, then dropped out to do something he turned out to be exceptionally good at – selling automobiles.
- He sold Fords and Volkswagens, then found his groove with BMWs and opened his own dealership in 1979, later adding Mini Coopers.
- His popular radio campaigns using the catch phrase “Nick Can’t Say No” was something everyone in Tinseltown knew and helped him grow his import dealership into a hugely successful enterprise.

- As his auto business expanded, he had some fun on the side delving into a unique “California thing” -- collecting Woodies -- V-8 powered Ford and Mercury wood-bodied cars built between 1932 and 1952. His assembled collection, which experts called the world’s most comprehensive, grew to more than 60. In 2009, when he decided to transition from horse power under the hood to the four-legged kind, he sold the Woodies with most of the proceeds going to a charitable remainder trust, turned his dealership over to his son and daughter and headed north to the Central California wine and horse country of the Santa Ynez Valley.
- There he purchased his 280-acre ranch – Horse Haven – in the town of Santa Ynez and went all in as a rancher specializing in racehorses. These days he notes that the ranch is home to approximately 100 horses, including 30 broodmares, 25 to 30 racehorses and dozens of juveniles, yearlings and foals/weanlings. The former city boy now can be spotted atop his tractor helping to raise and harvest all the hay, alfalfa and feed needed for his growing equine population.
- Alexander recalls first dipping his toes into the Thoroughbred world in 1978 when he bought a small share of a horse that never won a race. But he followed that by purchasing a half interest in a runner named Pashanat Reb and – bingo! “He was just a wonderful racehorse; everything you’d want a horse to be,” Alexander said. “He won races, tried hard every time, he was exciting. Right then and there I was in love with horses and horseracing.”
- Subsequently, Alexander teamed up with claiming-trainer-deluxe Mike Mitchell and, over the next 30-plus years – despite a time or two apart – they assembled a well-respected barn full of runners and put together a solid run of success. Mitchell, sadly, died of the effects of brain cancer in 2015 and his chief assistant, Phil D’Amato, took over the stable. Alexander stuck with him, as well as sending some horses to another former Mitchell assistant, Steve Miyadi.
- Alexander now has gone from a “claiming” owner to a breeder/owner who produces 100% of his stable on his ranch. “Raising your own, then racing them. That’s the best,” he says.

- The key to that transition for him was his first “big” horse, the gray speedster Grazen, whom he bred, raced and now stands. The stakes winning son of the late California sire Benchmark does stallion duties at nearby Tommy Town Thoroughbreds in Santa Ynez then returns to Horse Haven after the season to be the ranch’s chief pet. Alexander keeps him in a covered paddock alongside his house and can check on him from his living room window.
- Grazen was the leading sire of Cal-bred foals by earnings and by turf earnings in 2023.
- Among Alexander’s top runners – all homebred stakes winners – have been Enola Gray, Pee Wee Reese, Sunday Rules, S Y Sky, Tough Sunday and Just Grazed Me.
- Coming into 2024, his overall record shows 459 wins and more than $19 million in purses.
- Prior to 2022, his best year had been 2021 when he exceeded $2 million in earnings for the first time in his career. The 4-year-old gelding Lieutenant Dan led the way with two graded stakes wins and a second in the Breeders’ Cup Turf Sprint at Del Mar behind Golden Pal. The son of Grazen also won the G2 Eddie D at Santa Anita and the G3 Green Flash at Del Mar, posting earnings of $407,720 on his way to being named California’s Horse of the Year in 2021.
- Having grown up in Pasadena, it was natural for him to root for one of the town’s favorite sons -- a pretty fair baseballer named Jackie Robinson. That helped make him a lifelong Dodgers fan (even in their Brooklyn days), as well as a horse owner given to tying baseball names to his runners: For example, the previously mentioned Pee Wee Reese, as well as Preacher Roe, Clem Labine, Catfish Hunter, Van Lingle Mungo, Nap Lajoie, Sudden Sam (McDowell), Satchel Paige, Moose Skowron, Arky Vaughan and Johnny Podres, who won back-to-back stakes races in early 2024.
- Family: Wife Mary; one son, one daughter.

- Got their first horse in the Kentucky Derby in 2024 when Endlessly punched his ticket to the big dance with a win in the G3 Jeff Ruby Steaks at Turfway Park. They thought twice about running the son of homebred Oscar Performance in the Derby since he’d never run on the dirt, only winning on the grass and synthetics. But they caught the fever and gave it a shot, finishing ninth.
- Got into racing through partnerships in Team Valor, and opened their own stable in 1996. First stakes winner was Valor Lady.
- Earned first Breeders’ Cup championship win in 2003 as Adoration cruised to a front-running victory in the Distaff, paying $83.40 to win.
- She returned in 2004 to win Santa Anita’s Santa Margarita Invitational Handicap, Churchill Downs’ Fleur de Lis Handicap and the Arlington Matron Handicap at Arlington Park. Retired that year with career earnings of more than $2 million.
- Along with Adoration, Amermans were represented by millionaires and multiple stakes winners Happyanunoit, a New Zealand-bred mare, Chilean champion Lido Palace, Coffee Clique and Balance, a half-sister to champion mare Zenyatta. In 2010 they sold her first foal (a colt by super sire A.P. Indy) for a Keeneland September Sales record topping $4.2 million.
- Their top money winner was turf ace Oscar Performance, a multiple graded stakes star who captured the 2016 Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Turf at Santa Anita, one of his seven graded stakes wins. Retired after the 2018 season with $2,457,632 in earnings and now stands at Mill Ridge Farm in Kentucky.
- The couple shifted an underperforming 5-year-old homebred Ghostzapper gelding of theirs named Award Winner from the east coast to west in 2021 and put him in the capable hands of veteran trainer David Hofmans.

He promptly won the Grade II Charles Whittingham at Santa Anita.

- Amermans have raced 23 different graded stakes winners, including Gift List who won the 2021 G2 Edgewood Stakes at Churchill Downs on Kentucky Oaks Day. Pulled off the big upset of the 2024 Derby weekend when Trihari romped home the winner in the G2 American Turf at 47-1
- As they head into 2024, Equibase says they've won 329 races all told, earning over $27 million.
- John is retired; formerly was chief executive officer of Mattel Toy. He's credited with helping reinvigorate the Barbie line.
- Member of the California Horse Racing Board from 2006 to 2008.
- Elected as a member of The Jockey Club in 2011.
- Amermans have been generous to good causes in racing, notably the California Equine Retirement Foundation (CERF). He serves on the board of directors of Tranquility Farm and previously was on the board of the Winner's Foundation.
- Operate Peacefield Farm in Temecula, CA, a rehabilitation facility for injured horses, with daughter, Anne, serving as manager.
- Family: One daughter, one son

Gary Barber	279	47	$2,995,187

- Brothers grew up racing fans in their native South Africa; came to the U.S. when business brought them here.
- Older brother Cecil arrived in 1979 and has had success running a property-management firm (Ross Morgan & Co.); deals primarily with home owner associations in Los Angeles.

- Gary started as an accountant in SA, then in the U.S. after immigrating in 1982. Has gone on to a Hollywood career as former chairman and CEO of the iconic MGM film studios and also as co-founder (with Roger Birnbaum) and CEO of Spyglass Entertainment, a film and television production company. He is currently chairman and CEO of Spyglass Media Group.
- Among Spyglass' Academy Award-level hits: "The Sixth Sense," "Memoirs of a Geisha," "The Insider," and "Seabiscuit."
- Gary is listed as producer or executive producer of 77 major movies.
- Cecil and Gary became U.S. citizens in the mid-1980s.
- They have owned horses, often in partnership, since the 1990s. Gary is much more involved with the horses than his brother and he (Gary) currently races scores of horses on his own all over the world, as well as with 24 different partnerships in North America. Gary also has entered the breeding game, standing three different stallions with partners.
- Gary won six Sovereign Awards, Canada's version of the Eclipse Award, in 2024. In addition to being named Outstanding Owner for the first time ever, he won, in partnership, the top Two-Year Old Colt with My Boy Prince, Top Two-Year-Old Filly with Witwatersrand, Top Champion Three-Year-Old Male with Paramount Prince, Champion Three-Year-Old Filly Elysian Field and Champion Male Turf Horse with Lucky Score.
- One of Gary's earliest successes came in a partnership with Team Valor with The Deputy, who captured 2000 Santa Anita Derby, then ran 14th as the second choice in that year's Kentucky Derby.
- Brothers established a Del Mar record in 2008 when they won 14 races — the most ever by an owner in a seaside season — and also wound up leading owners by money won with $633,700.
- Brothers have horses in California with trainers Peter Miller and Steve Miyadi. Additionally, Gary has horses in the east with Mark Casse, Bill Mott, Todd Pletcher and Jerry O'Dwyer among others.
- The brothers had success with Cost of Freedom, a $50,000 claim in 2008 who went on to be a multiple-stakes winner of $900,000, the majority of it for them. With other partners, Gary raced the multiple-stakes winning gelding Comma to the Top, who won more than $1-million.
- Gary was elected to The Jockey Club in 2019.
- In 2014, Gary raced Canadian 3-year-old filly Lexie Lou, who won the Queen's Plate over the boys and was subsequently named Canada's Horse of the Year. Lexie Lou, who was retired in 2016, won 10 races (nine stakes) and $1.7 million for 12-time Canadian training champ Casse. Owner and trainer did it again with the crack filly Wonder Gadot (named for owner's friend, movie star and Israeli supermodel Gal Gadot), beating the boys in the Queen's Plate and piling up more than $1.7 million in purses.

- In 2015, Gary won major stakes with Appealing Tale ($773,222) and Jack Milton ($853,828). He also raced another Canadian Horse of the Year (2015) in Catch A Glimpse, a rapid filly who won more than $1.8 million, including the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turfat 2, and was sold at auction for $3 million to Japanese interests late in 2017.
- Won a second Breeders' Cup race with Tourist in the Mile in 2016.
- Gary says his favorite horses have come of late: 2019's Preakness Stakes winner War of Will; the 2019 Breeders' Cup Grass Sprint winner (over the boys) Belvoir Bay, and the multiple-stakes winning mare Got Stormy.
- That trio led him to his best year yet as an owner in 2019 when he won 69 races and banked $6,039,948, the third-best mark among all owners in the country.
- Had another banner year in 2021, ranking fifth in the nation in wins with 91 and 10th in earnings with over $4.3 million. Much of Gary's success came north of the border at Woodbine where he notched all three of his graded stakes victories in 2021.
- He has posted winnings of over $1 million every year since 2013.
- As he enters 2024, his Equibase statistics have Gary with 648 victories and over $40 million in purses.
- Family: Cecil — Wife Avril; one son, one daughter; Gary — three daughters.

- Posted their best year ever regarding earnings in 2022, winning 15 races and $1,766,214, a mere $33,000 better than their previous best in 2021. Beyond Brilliant and Express Train were the top money winners with two graded stakes victories apiece. Those two horses had won the stable's last eight graded stakes races between them entering 2023.

- Had their best year in terms of victories in 2023 with 22. The $1,628,180 in earnings was third best in their 24 years of operation.
- Logged two graded stakes wins in 2023, both by the brilliant turf miler, Exalted. He won the G1 Shoemaker Mile and the G3 American Stakes.
- Lee Searing went to the races as a young lad with his father, who later owned several horses beginning in 1966.
- Had numerous horses in partnership with his father, beginning in 1968 until his father's death in 2002.
- Top horses have included Our New Recruit, winner of the 2004 Dubai Golden Shaheen and an earner of $1.4 million who was a stallion at Central California's Legacy Ranch near Sacramento until his death in 2009; and Switch, the Quiet American mare who was a multiple Grade I winner of nearly $1.5 million before her retirement in 2012.
- Raced two solid 3-year-old stakes horses in 2014 - Candy Boy and Kobe's Back - both of whom won graded Kentucky Derby preps at Santa Anita. Candy Boy, a son of Candy Ride, won the Robert Lewis Stakes (G2) and Kobe's Back won the San Vicente (G2). Candy Boy eventually finished sixth in the Breeders' Cup Classic. The gray horse Kobe's Back went on to be a multiple-stakes winner as a late-running sprinter with more than $1 million in the bank.
- Searings have raced these other stakes winners: Gladding, Kettle Corn, Ceeband, Dr. Park, Scooter Brown, She's an Eleven, Jump On In and Cindago. Cindago was a promising stallion but died in 2012. Kettle Corn is at stud in Ohio.
- Into 2015, Searings had used John Sadler as their primary trainer for previous 17 years. Their horses are now trained by Peter Eurton and John Shirreffs.
- Eurton won stakes for them with Exalted and Draft Pick, while Shirreffs was a stakes winner with Honor A.P. (now a Kentucky stallion at Lane's End), Midcourt and Express Train.
- Posted their best year ever in terms of victories in 2021, making 17 trips to the winners circle. The most came from Express Train who won three graded stakes including the G2 San Diego Handicap at Del Mar. He kept the ball rolling in 2022, winning the G1 Santa Anita Handicap.
- Searing and his brother, Jim, operate Searing Industries, specializing in welded steel tubing, in Ontario, CA.
- Searings have been married 46 years and the stable name reflects the names of their children — Christina, Richard and Katherine.

- Family: Two daughters, one son

- Homebred Indian Blessing, by the Earnhardts’ stallion Indian Charlie, won Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies in 2007 and the Eclipse Award as undefeated 2-year-old female. In 2008 she finished first or second in nine stakes and was named filly Sprint champion. Finished her career with earnings of $2,995,420.
- Earnhardts won the 1998 Santa Anita Derby with Indian Charlie, who was retired with an injury after finishing third in the Kentucky Derby. Sired six champions as a top stallion at Airdrie Stud in Midway, KY, until his death in 2011.
- Indian Charlie is responsible for Uncle Mo, among the hottest young stallions in U.S. and sire of Nyquist, 2016 Kentucky Derby winner.
- Other major winners include Soviet Sojourn, the dam of Indian Charlie and Earnhardts’ first Breeders’ Cup runner, finishing 11th in the 1991 Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies, and multiple graded stakes winner El Corredor, who won seven of 10 starts, including the Cigar Mile and the Del Mar Mile twice and retired to stud with purse earnings of $727,920, as well as the multiple-stakes winner Behaving Badly.
- Is president of Earnhardt Auto Centers, operating numerous dealerships in the Phoenix area. The dealership brands include BMW, Chrysler, Ford, Honda, Jeep, Nissan, Dodge, Hyundai and Mazda. Company was started by Earnhardt’s father and grandfather in 1951, has annual sales of nearly $1 billion and employs about 2,000.
- Attended Central Arizona College on a rodeo scholarship.
- Is trainer Bob Baffert’s longest-tenured owner, dating to Baffert’s Quarter Horse racing days.

- “No Bull” that appears on his racing silks is a long-standing slogan used in his automobile advertising.
- Has three Arizona cattle ranches, and donates time and money to a child crisis center and other charities in the Phoenix area.
- Family: Two sons, two daughters.

- Grandson of Leonard Lavin, who founded Glen Hill Farm in 1966 and remained the patriarch of the stable until his death on August 2, 2017 at age 97.
- Bernick took control of Glen Hill in 2008 as president and chief operating officer. Under his direction the outfit experienced a resurgence that has resulted in finishes among the leaders for earnings in North America. Bernick expanded the farm’s reach beyond breeding and racing its own stock to investing in horses bought privately or in sales.
- Recent figures show Glen Hill with approximately 40 broodmares at its Ocala, Florida, training center and approximately 15 more in partnerships. Glen Hill also has horses at the Fair Hill training facility in Maryland.
- Among the farm’s major winners of the late 20th century were Relaunch, winner of the 1979 Del Mar Derby and Glen Hill’s major stallion for many years; Uniformity, Convenience, Concept Win, Top Rung, Star of the Crop, Split Run, Rich in Spirit and Marketing Mix.
- Among the farm’s top performers of late: Caribou Club, Chiropractor, Diversy Harbor, Family Meeting, Pontchatrain, Left a Message, Customer Base, Wishing Gate, Global View and Enterprising.
- Farm unleashed a nice one-two punch at Del Mar when Family Meeting won the Grade III Jimmy Durante Stakes and, an hour or so later, Chiropractor took the Grade I Hollywood Derby at the 2015 Bing Crosby meeting.
- Into 2024, Equibase numbers show Glen Hill with a career total of 510 winners and purses of over $24 million.
- For a span of four years, from 2011 to 2014, the stable posted earnings of over $2 million a year. Its best year in terms of wins came in 2013 when they won 35 races.

Its best year in terms of earnings came the following year when they collected $2,248,015.

- Tom Proctor, who handles a string in the Midwest as well as those at Del Mar, is a second-generation trainer for Glen Hill and one of several Proctor family members associated with the stable. Tom's father, Willard, was Glen Hill's conditioner for 32 years and his brother, Alan, managed Glen Hill for many years. Tom's brother, "Hap," oversees the Ocala farm.
- Bernick is a Tulane University graduate, a member of the boards of both the Breeders' Cup and Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance, managing partner of Elevage Bloodstock and an officer of the Lavin Family Foundation.
- Family: Wife Lindsey, two daughters.

- One of the world's richest men is the ruler of Dubai and the prime minister and vice president of the United Arab Emirates on the Persian Gulf.
- Is the third of four sons and has 19 children of his own (8 sons, 11 daughters); his senior wife is Sheikha Hind bint Maktoum bin Juma Al Maktoum, whom he married in 1979, and his junior wife is HRH Princess Haya, the daughter of the late King Hussein of Jordan, whom he married in 2004.
- Has helped shape the city of Dubai into one of the world's great metropolises and overseen its rise as the economic hub of the Gulf. It has a population of approximately 250,000 "locals" and roughly one million foreign workers.
- Among the major projects he has realized are the creation of Dubai International Airport, world-traveling Emirates Airlines, the striking, sail-like, "seven star" Burj Al Arab hotel and the Burj Khalifa, a $1.5-billion project that features the world's tallest skyscraper (2,717 feet) which opened in 2010 as the heart of a $20-billion mixed-use development in downtown Dubai.
- Was schooled as a boy in Arabic and Islamic studies in his native land, then completed his education in England

- at Cambridge and at a military academy at Aldershot.
- Grew up with a close association to, and kinship for, horses and saw his first western horse races at Newmarket in 1967.
- Purchased his first racehorse — a filly named Hatta — in 1976 and she was a stakes winner for him. Since then he has gone on to invest a fortune in some of the world's best bloodstock.
- Prominence began in 1985 when he was England's leading owner (a title he'd win 12 more times in the following 14 years) and raced two remarkable fillies — Oh So Sharp, winner of the British fillies' Triple Crown, and the American Breeders' Cup Turf winner Pebbles.
- List of stars has grown to include Balanchine, Lamtarra, Swain, Sakhee, Shamardal, In the Wings, Indian Skimmer, Carnegie and Barathea.
- Perhaps his best — and apparently his favorite — was the mercurial Dubai Millennium, a winner of nine of 10 starts. Unfortunately, he died of a rare grass sickness a year after entering stud.
- In 1996, he sponsored what was then the world's richest race — the Dubai World Cup, which now is worth $12 million — and has seen his horses win it nine times — Singspiel (1997), Dubai Millennium (2000), Street Cry (2002), Moon Ballad (2003), Electrocutionist (2006), Monterosso (2012) Prince Bishop (2015) Thunder Snow in both 2018 and 2019 and Mystic Guide in 2021).
- Thunder Snow amassed more than $16.5 million in earnings and is the second-leading horse of all time in that category.
- Among the Sheikh's more notable U.S. triumphs are the championship season of Bernardini in 2006 (Preakness, Travers, Jockey Club Gold Cup) and the win by Raven's Pass in the 2008 Breeders' Cup Classic.
- Made a major splash with the 3-year-old ace Essential Quality, his homebred colt who was the U.S.'s 2-year-old champion in 2020 and 3-year old champ in 2021 when the son of Tapit captured the Belmont Stakes, the Travers Stakes at Saratoga and the Blue Grass Stakes at Keeneland for trainer Brad Cox. As the favorite, the colt ran fourth (moved up to third with the disqualification of Medina Spirit) in the Kentucky Derby and was retired following his third-place finish in the Breeders' Cup Classic at Del Mar.
- His horses have won Grade I or Group I races in 14 countries. He's won more than 100 graded stakes in the United States and more than twice that number overseas.
- As part of his showcasing of Dubai, built both the Al Quoz training center and the Nad Al Sheba Racecourse, and in 1996 created a festival of racing topped by the Dubai World Cup.

- One-upped himself by opening in 2010 the world's most spectacular racetrack — Meydan Racecourse — adjacent to Nad Al Sheba. The multi-billion-dollar project, which includes a hotel, restaurants, a museum and a marina, hosted its first World Cup on March 27, 2010.
- Raced under two banners -- Godolphin and Darley Stable -- for more than two decades. However, with the start of 2016 the two entities were divided between strictly racing (Godolphin) and breeding (Darley). At the beginning of 2018 the familiar all-blue colors that have been associated with Godolphin in the past now race under the name Godolphin Racing, LLC.
- Currently, the Godolphin operation has approximately 2,000 horses in training worldwide, while the Darley end of the business can claim approximately 2,500 breeding stock. All told they employ about 1,500 people.
- In 2009, Godolphin was awarded its first Eclipse Award as North America's top owner. It has since won the prestigious award five times in 2012, 2020, 2021, 2022 and 2023. Darley won an Eclipse as North America's outstanding breeder in 2012.
- In 2023, they won $17,297,973 in earnings, second best all-time for the operation. Their 87 victories included two Breeders' Cup wins, the Dirt Mile with Cody's Wish and the Mile with Master of the Seas.
- Their North American string was led by 2023 Horse of the Year Cody's Wish. The son of Curlin won four of his five races in 2023, all graded stakes, the G1 Churchill Downs on Derby Day, the G1 Metropolitan Mile at Belmont Park, the G2 Vosburgh and the G1 Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile for the second year in a row.
- Cody's Wish was named after Cody Dorman, a young boy stricken with a rare genetic disorder. The two captured the hearts of millions of race fans as Cody attended several of his namesake's races. Sadly, young Cody died the day after Cody's Wish won at the Breeders' Cup.
- In 2021, Godolphin had their best year yet in North America in terms of earnings when they amassed over $17,571,871 in purses, tops on this side of the pond. Much of that came from the three Breeders' Cup victories at Del Mar: Modern Games in the Juvenile Turf; Space Blues in the Mile; and Yibir in the Turf.
- Flirted with breaking their all-time mark for earnings in 2022 when their charges posted earnings of $16,343,067 led by four Breeders' Cup victories at Keeneland: Mischief Magic in the Juvenile Turf Sprint; Cody's Wish in the Dirt Mile; Modern Games in the Mile; and Rebel Romance in the Turf.
- Their success at the Breeders' Cup lifted them to the top of the all-time list of earnings by owners at Del Mar.

- In all, Godolphin horses have won 18 Breeders' Cup races and posted 10 runner-up finishes.
- Sent out 2023's Kentucky Oaks winner Pretty Mischievous, a daughter of Into Mischief out of the Tapit mare Pretty City Dancer. The win in the Oaks was the filly's fifth win in seven starts.
- In the former arrangement, Godolphin horses were trained by Saeed bin Suroor, and raced in Dubai from January to March, then in England and the U.S. The Darley horses raced all around the world with many of the world's top trainers, including Andre Fabre and Jean-Claude Rouget in France, Michael Stoute and John Gosden in England, John Oxx and Jim Bolger in Ireland; James Cummings in Australia, and Todd Pletcher, Tom Albertrani and Eoin Harty in the U.S. The new racing division has taken on additional trainers, besides, allowing -- for instance -- newly purchased horses to stay with the trainers that have guided them to their current success.
- Darley stands more than 50 stallions in six countries (including Australia and Japan). Its U.S. farm in Lexington, the former Jonabell Farm, stands a dozen stallions, including Kentucky Derby winners Street Sense, Animal Kingdom and Nyquist.

- Longtime prominent breeding and racing figure in California has horses with Carla Gaines in Southern California and several trainers in Northern California.
- Bolstered by the success of their chestnut mare, Closing Remarks the operation posted it's best year ever in terms of earnings at $1,628,186. The daughter of Vronsky won four Grade 2 races in 2023 including the Yellow Ribbon and the John C. Mabee at Del Mar. She was named top Cal-bred Older Female and top Cal-bred Turf runner in 2023.
- Closing Remarks alone compiled $601,000 in earnings in 2023. Their decision to pass on the Breeders' Cup and run instead in the G2 Goldikova the next day paid off with a victory. She would not win another race after that and was retired in 2024. She returned to Harris Farms where she was bred.

- In 1966, began raising and training Thoroughbreds on his 400-acre horse division at the 1,800-acre agricultural complex known as Harris Farms, created mostly as a cattle ranch in 1937 by Harris' father, Jack, near Coalinga, CA, in the San Joaquin Valley. Farm owns 60 broodmares with room for another 60, and currently stands nine stallions — Acclamation, Desert Code, Om, Smiling Tiger, Uptown Rhythm, Halladay Eight Rings, Stanford and Tamarando.
- Two of their better-known stallions were Lucky Pulpit, the state's most successful sire in 2014 based primarily on the championship credentials of his son California Chrome, and Unusual Heat, who was the state's top sire from 2008 to 2013. Both passed away in 2017.
- Racing Hall of Fame inductee California Chrome was foaled at Harris Farms in 2011.
- They lost one of the farm's promising stallions, Majestic Harbor, the state's top stallion in terms of average earnings per runner in 2021, to an apparent cardiac event in March of 2022, days before he turned 14. The winner of the G1 Gold Cup at Santa Anita in 2014 was California's top freshman sire in 2020.
- Alphabet Kisses gave the farm its first Grade I victory with a win in Santa Anita's La Brea Stakes in 2004.
- Most outstanding horse campaigned was the speedy female Soviet Problem, in partnership with frequent collaborator Don Valpredo. She was retired in 1996 with 15 victories in 20 starts, for earnings of $905,416. She finished second to Cherokee Run in 1994 Breeders' Cup Sprint. For the year she was voted California's Horse of the Year, champion older female, sprinter and turf horse, the first time a horse won three divisions and Horse of the Year.
- Another major runner was Work The Crowd, a multiple graded stakes winner and 1993 champion Cal-bred 2-year-old filly, 1994 Cal-bred 3-year-old filly, 1995 Cal-bred turf horse and 1995 Northern California Horse of the Year.
- Other stable stars include homebreds Compari and Unzip Me, both multiple stakes winners. Unzip Me was third in the Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint in 2010.
- Bred California's Top Three Year Old Female of 2023, Ceiling Crusher. The daughter of Mr. Big earned $898,200 while winning five of six races, including the G3 Torrey Pines at Del Mar and the G1 Cotillion at Parx. The only defeat of her seven race career came in the Fleet Treat at Del Mar. She was sold to Japanese interests at the Fasig Tipton Keeneland mixed sale in November.

- Racing on their own, Harris Farms has won 637 races and over $20 million in purses coming into 2024.
- Harris earned a degree in agricultural production from University of California-Davis. Harris Farms, Inc. is one of the nation's leading producers of agricultural products, most notably beef cattle. Farm also produces tomatoes, almonds and cotton, and has a feed lot that handles 100,000 head of cattle. The family's 7,000-acre Harris River Ranch, about 70 miles east of Sanger, CA, includes a 160-acre facility devoted to yearlings and lay-ups.
- Member of The Jockey Club since 1988, and is a past president and still a board member of the California Thoroughbred Breeders Association. He twice served as Chairman of the California Horse Racing Board.
- Commenced his association with racing when his father owned Thoroughbreds in the 1950s. Worked at racetracks as a teenager and had his first horse (Jogaway Miss) in 1958. First winner: The Blend in 1961.

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Family moved from Nebraska to Los Angeles when he was five and he grew up in South L.A. • After a hitch in the Army during the Korean War, he got into building and developing commercial properties in Southern California. • Initially bitten by the racing bug in 1972 and found himself in the Appaloosa business with his first trainer, Don Collins. • Almost right off the bat came up with a serious Appy runner in Blowing Easy, who won the first $100,000 race for the breed at Santa Rosa. • Followed that up by inviting his family members from all around the country (60 showed up and all donned T-shirts that said "Blowing Easy" on the front and his silks' happy face on the back) to see the horse run next in another $100 grander at Sacramento. "It was a wonderful reunion," House recalled. "And when the horse won again, it was perfect."

- He segued into Thoroughbreds in California employing, among others, trainers Dale Landers, Ross Brinson and Jude Feld and, more than 40 years and over a hundred horses later, he's still at it.
- Early on he rang the stakes bell with runners such as Broadway Point, Ouilladine, Nazirali, Final Fling, Cayoke and Brooke's Halo.
- More recently, had continued high-level success with conditioners like Jeff Mullins, the late Mike Mitchell and Phil D'Amato.
- Mullins called the shots for him on millionaire Battle of Hastings, an English-bred turf ace who was a multiple-stakes winner on both coasts, as well as the owner's second Breeders' Cup horse, Dry Summer, who went unplaced in the 2012 BC Juvenile Turf. Mullins trained multiple-stakes star Gabriel Charles, a double winner on the Del Mar turf (2013 Del Mar Derby and 2015 Eddie Read Stakes.)
- Won his first graded stakes in four years when Prince Abama rolled home the winner in the 2022 G2 Hollywood Turf Cup at Del Mar.
- Is part owner, with Repole Stable and Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners, of the filly Nest, runner-up to Mo Donegal in the 2022 Belmont Stakes. The daughter of Curlin was also runner-up to Secret Oath in the 2022 Kentucky Oaks and prior to that race she won the prestigious G1 Ashland at Keeneland by eight lengths. Became a millionaire after winning four of her first seven starts. She was retired from racing in May of 2024 and bred to Uncle Mo.
- House partnered with New Mexico cattle rancher and longtime horse owner Sam Britt on Dry Summer and Gabriel Charles. Mullins was at the OBS 2-year-old sale in Florida in 2012 and wanted to buy Dry Summer for House, but Britt beat him to it. Then Britt wanted Gabriel Charles, but Mullins told him that House was planning on buying him. A deal was struck on the spot with House and Britt each taking half of each horse. Stakes victories ensued on both fronts and the Britt and Houses were happy partners and friends, indeed.
- Mitchell gave House his initial taste of the Breeders' Cup when he saddled his stakes horse Delta Storm to finish fourth in the 2009 BC Turf Sprint.
- D'Amato handled the Irish-bred stakes mare Havanna Belle and the long-winded Big John B, victorious in 14 races (including back-to-back tallies in the Del Mar Handicap in '14 and '15). Big John B was House's third Breeders' Cup starter, going unplaced in the BC Turf in 2015. He won 15 races and more than $800,000.
- Had another stable ace in the Irish-bred gray Hunt, a handy gelding with a nifty late kick. Was a three-time stakes winner at Del Mar in 2017 and captured the Grade I Shoemaker Mile at Santa Anita in 2018. When the veteran gave indications in 2019 that he had had enough of the racing game, owner made the call to retire him and start him on a new career as a jumper for his 7-year-old grandson.

- Coming into 2024, House shows 163 victories and more than $9 million in purses all told.
- Owned Chestnut Farm, a 163-acre breeding operation in Versailles, KY, that was sold early in 2018 to San Diego owner-trainer Mick Ruis.
- When he's not at the racetrack, he now runs a company out of El Cajon (about 25 miles from Del Mar) in eastern San Diego County that manages commercial property sites.
- Family: Wife Dawn; eight grown children, 18 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

- Owns 2022's Horse of the Year Flightline in partnership with Siena Farm, Summer Wind Equine, West Point Thoroughbreds, Woodford Racing and the 2.5% reportedly sold to a Dutch coffee maker for an astounding $4.6 million.
- Flightline, a handsome son of Tapit, won the 2021 G1 Malibu at Santa Anita and six months later dominated a class field in the 2022 G1 Met Mile at Belmont Park. The $1M yearling purchase won his first four starts by a combined 43 1/2 lengths and was never headed once he took the lead. He went on to win the TVG Pacific Classic by a record 19 1/4 lengths and the Breeders' Cup Classic by 8 1/4 lengths. Undefeated when he was retired from racing following the Breeders' Cup, he now stands at Lane's End.
- Led all owners in wins and earnings at Del Mar's 2021

Summer meet with eight victories and $1,021,440 in purses. Victories by Tripoli in the TVG Pacific Classic and Edgeway in the G3 Rancho Bernardo led the way for the pair, the only owners to exceed $1 million in earnings at the meet. Edgeway would come back and place second behind Ce Ce in the Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Sprint at Del Mar.

- That gives them six owner's crowns at the seaside oval, winning at both the 2013 and 2014 Del Mar summer meets, then coming back to do it again in 2017, 2018 and 2019 at the shore. Also led in victories by owners in consecutive Santa Anita winter meetings – 2011-12 and 2012-13, and at Hollywood Park's 2013 summer meet.
- Had their best racing season by many lengths in 2018 when they banked over $7.3 million in winnings (first in the nation), took home an Eclipse Award as the country's leading owners and earned an additional Eclipse Award with their stable star Accelerate, 2018 champion older horse after an exceptional season that included victories in Santa Anita Handicap, the Gold Cup at Santa Anita, the TVG Pacific Classic and the Breeders' Cup Classic. He would finish second to Triple Crown winner Justify in the balloting for Horse of the Year.
- With $2.6 million in purses in 2014, the brothers started a serious run after entering the business in 2010. They came right back in 2015 to outdo themselves with $2.8 million in winnings, highlighted by the stellar season of 3-year-old champion filly Stellar Wind. 2016 was even better at $3.04 million.
- Their 2019 earnings of $5,632,611 were fourth-best in the nation.
- Brothers have 30 to 40 horses in training, headed by a collection of private purchases racing in their silks. Leading that crew was Stellar Wind, a winner of more than $2.9 million to go along with her Eclipse Award hardware. Retired, she sold for $6 million in November, 2017 at Keeneland.
- In 2014 they raced Iotapa -- claimed for $50,000 by their trainer John Sadler in 2012 -- winner of the Vanity Stakes at Santa Anita and the Clement L. Hirsch Stakes at Del Mar, both Grade 1 offerings. Iotapa then went on to finish third in the Breeders' Cup Distaff and brought $2.8 million from Chinese racing and breeding interests in Keeneland's November Sale.
- They also had stakes success with the French grass horse Talco, a winner of over $500,000 who took honors in the Grade I Shoemaker Mile in 2015, as well as stakes winner Daddy DT, who ran third in the 2014 B.C. Juvenile Turf and 2013 Del Mar Handicap winner Vagabond Shoes.
- Another Hronis' ace was the flashy chestnut Catalina

Cruiser, a four-time stakes winner at Del Mar who is now at stud at Lane's End in Kentucky.

- Other stable stars were millionaires Gift Box, Combatant and Higher Power. The last-named rang the bell in the 2019 TVG Pacific Classic. After winning the 2018 Santa Anita Handicap with champion Accelerate in 2018, the brothers continued their run by taking the same race with Gift Box (2019) and Combatant (2020).
- The horse that really got them rolling was Lady of Shamrock, a multiple graded stakes winner of more than $950,000 who was fifth in the 2012 Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf and eighth in 2013. She won the Grade I Del Mar Oaks in 2012.
- Coming into 2024, Equibase numbers show them winning a total of 416 races and over $37 million in purses.
- Brothers started things by claiming two horses in 2010. From there their empire expanded greatly.
- The pair got their first taste of racing when they went to Santa Anita on many occasions when the family would journey from Delano to their grandfather's home in Pasadena.
- Hronis Inc., headquartered in Delano, is an extensive (6,000 acre) family farming operation in California's San Joaquin Valley. Their holdings stretch from Visalia to the north of Delano to Bakersfield on the south. Began with raising table grapes and have widened into major citrus holdings, mostly navel oranges.
- Hronis joined the board of directors of Del Mar Thoroughbred Club in 2018.
- Family: Kosta: Wife, Stephanie; two sons, three daughters; Pete: Wife, Laurie; two sons, one daughter.

- Samantha Siegel carries on a family racing tradition that stretches back nearly 50 years, beginning with her father, Mace (who died in 2011 at age 86), and her mother Jan (who died in 2002).
- Their first stakes win came in 1976 at Calder Race Course with Wininreno.
- The late Brian Mayberry trained for the Siegels from 1977 to 1995. Brian Koriner now trains the stable's horses in California, Paul McGee in the midwest and Michelle Nevin in the east.

- Jan Siegel was a big band singer who married Mace in 1962, became the mother of their daughter Samantha and son Evan, as well as his racing partner.
- Though Evan showed little interest, Samantha took right to racing.
- Over several decades, the father-mother-daughter team campaigned more than 25 stakes winners as well as 10 under Mace's name.
- The Siegels began buying at yearling sales in 1988, with Samantha a key person at the sessions. She also was active in naming many of the horses.
- Best horse — so far — was the gelding Declan's Moon, 2004 Eclipse Award winner as the nation's top 2-year-old male and the undefeated Del Mar and Hollywood Futurity winner.
- Stable also raced a quartet of millionaires – By the Moon ($1.5 million), Rail Trip ($1.5 million), Suave ($1.3 million) and Arson Squad ($1.1 million).
- A further list of the Jay Em Ess stakes stars would include Masochistic, Stormy But Valid, Hedonist, Denim Yenem, Fluttery Danseur, Urbane, I Ain't Bluffing, Ramblin Guy, Suave, Miss Iron Smoke, Ifyoucouldseemenow, Distinctive Sis, Garden Gal, Zealous Connection, I Believe in You, How So Oiseau and Prospectors Gamble.
- Won Hollywood Park's Landaluce Stakes for 2-year-old fillies three years in a row (1990-92) with Garden Gal, Fluttery Danseur and Zealous Connection.
- Coming into 2023, Jay Em Ess shows a total record of 620 wins for purses worth over $34 million.
- Over the past seven consecutive years they have posted earnings of $1 million or more.
- Their best year, in terms of earnings, came in 2012 when they collected over $2.8 million, the year their filly, Include Me Out, won 4-of-7 races, all graded, including the G1 Clement Hirsch at Del Mar. It would conclude a run of 10 straight years in which the stable made over $1 million in earnings, six years of which they exceeded the $2 million mark.
- The father and daughter were honored in 2008 by the Gregson Foundation, which raises money for college scholarships for children of backstretch workers.
- Samantha was appointed to the board of directors of the Thoroughbred Owners of California in 2017. She also serves as the treasurer of the California horse retirement umbrella organization CARMA.

- The personable Koch is a high-energy people person who has been a racetracker since the age of 5 and syndicated his first horse right out of college.
- After graduating from Northwestern, he dabbled a bit in the family business, which was show business. His father, Howard W. (Hawk) Koch, Jr., and his grandfather, Howard W. Koch, were highly successful Hollywood producers and directors with strings of movie and TV credits and honors. (The elder Koch was the producer of such diverse star vehicles as "The Manchurian Candidate," "The Odd Couple" and "Airplane," while his son was equally eclectic in producing "Gorky Park," "The Pope of Greenwich Village" and "Wayne's World.") Both father and son did tours as president of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences, the folks who hand out the Oscars.
- But Billy found that he liked the characters at the racetrack more than he did the ones in Hollywood and he's been "horsing around" ever since.
- First run at Thoroughbred ownership came when he talked 10 friends into putting up $1,000 each to buy the horse No More Worries. She was a winner trained for the crew by Ron Ellis and Koch was off and running.
- Today, he calls as many as 300 people partners in his Little Red Feather Racing club, started in 2002 and based in Southern California.
- The partnership name comes from a mythical Indian who was the product of his grandfather's imagination in telling young Billy bedtime stories. Little Red Feather was always in trouble, but always found a way to get out of it, Billy recalls. He said it was a good life lesson for him.
- Billy's grandfather (whose own father was a man who 'made a little book' on the streets of New York) had an affinity for the racetrack and he and one of his Hollywood pals – the noted actor Telly Savalas, who revolutionized

- TV cop shows with his “Kojak” series in the 1970s – hit the racing jackpot with the horse Telly’s Pop, a multiple stakes winner (including the Del Mar Futurity in 1975). Savalas’ Kojak gimmick was to be the tough detective who sucked on lollypops and Billy Koch was his bag man at the racetrack, holding the stash of lollypops that the actor would hand out to the crowds that gathered in the winner’s circle.
- Billy’s good luck was apparent early when the second horse the Little Red Feather crew ever bought – a $30,000 purchase named Singletary – took them to the heights under trainer Don Chatlos by winning the Breeders’ Cup Mile in 2004 at Lone Star Park in Texas. He would go on to win nearly $2 million in his career and notch victories at age 2,3,4 and 5.
 - Subsequently the syndicate has made nearly 2,000 starts, won more than 360 races, including a dozen major stakes, earned in the neighborhood of $23 million in purses and laid claim to being the largest racing partnership in the west.
 - Outfit clicked in 2019 when their filly Secret Spice took down the Grade I Beholder Mile at Santa Anita.
 - Another recent stable ace (owned with partner Alex Venneri) was multiple stakes winner Midnight Storm, whose tallies included five Del Mar stakes, starting with the Del Mar Derby (2014) and going forward to the 2016 Native Diver. Quick son of Pioneer of the Nile won 10 races on grass and dirt and banked more than $1.7 million. He entered stud in 2018 at Taylor Made Farm in Kentucky.
 - Four trainers are employed, three in Southern California – Phil D’Amato, Mike Puype, and Peter Eurton, -- and Michelle Nevin in the east.
 - Stable currently has about 100 horses. They race with as many as 10 or 20 partners to a horse and have many of their runners in additional partnerships with other owners.
 - Gold Phoenix, an Irish-bred they own in partnership with Sterling Stables and Marsha Naify, made it back-to-back wins in the G2 Del Mar Handicap in 2023 on his way to earning $846,500. He also won the G1 Kilroe Mile at Santa Anita and the G2 Eddie Read at Del Mar before finishing fourth in the Breeders’ Cup Turf. He came back in 2024 and won the G1 Charles Whittingham.
 - They also have started a pin-hooking arrangement in Florida with seven yearlings they bought in 2016 with the aid of their bloodstock agent Tom McCrocklin.
 - Their Grade I winner Egg Drop -- a winner of more than $500,000 under the tutelage of the late Mike Mitchell -- sold as a broodmare at the 2014 Keeneland November sale for $1.9 million.

- Billy got his nuts and bolts man for LRF when he talked his horse-loving childhood pal Gary Fenton into leaving behind his role as an entertainment attorney with the William Morris Agency and coming on board as his co-managing partner in 2005. Fenton also serves as chairman of the board of directors of the Thoroughbred Owners of California.
- Was unanimously elected board president of the California Retirement Management Account (CARMA), a non-profit organization that provides funding for retirement of California-raced Thoroughbred horses
- Family: Wife Kathy; three sons.

- Has been one of the most successful, colorful and popular characters on the national scene for nearly 30 years. It’s difficult to single out his most remarkable equine star -- was it Real Quiet, Silverbulletday, Lookin at Lucky, Midnight Lute, Secret Circle, or all of the above? The last three came in partnership with Tucson, AZ, auto dealers and steady pals Karl Watson and Paul Weitman.
 - Pegram has been extremely successful on his own, of course, as 1998 Kentucky Derby and Preakness winner Real Quiet and multiple Eclipse Award and graded stakes winner Silverbulletday stand out. He caused an individual splash at Santa Anita in the 2014 Strub Stakes when Shakin It Up and Govenor Charlie, both bred and co-owned by Pegram, finished one-two.
 - Pegram bought Real Quiet for $17,000 as a yearling and the colt missed winning the 1998 Triple Crown by a nose when caught at the wire by Victory Gallop in the Belmont Stakes. As a 4-year-old, Real Quiet won the Pimlico Special and retired to stud with earnings of $3,271,803. Among the horses he sired prior to his death in 2010 was Midnight Lute.
 - Pegram also raced the super filly Silverbulletday, winner of Eclipse Awards in 1998 (2-year-old filly) when she won the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies and 1999 (3-year-old filly) when she won the G1 Kentucky Oaks. She put together a run of eight straight wins, all graded stakes, dating from October of 1998 to May of 1999. The streak was snapped when she ran in the 1999 Belmont Stakes when she finished seventh but she started a new three race win streak in her next start. The daughter of Silver Deputy was enshrined in racing's Hall of Fame in 2009.

- Was the owner of Captain Steve, who won the $6-million Dubai World Cup in 2001, retiring to stud with earnings of $6,828,356.
- Other major winners: Pussycat Doll, a Grade I-winning daughter of Real Quiet; Icecoldbeeratreds, winner of the 2002 Del Mar Futurity; Wanna Runner, Danthebluegrassman, Isitingood, Preachinatthebar, High Stakes Player and Letthebigbossroll.
- First runners were Quarter Horses bought in partnership with his father in the 1970s. Met trainer Bob Baffert through Arizona-based car dealer Hal Earnhardt, another longtime Baffert client. Made the switch to Thoroughbreds with Baffert in 1988.
- First Thoroughbred bought by Baffert for him was Thirty Slews, in partnership with three others. The $30,000 purchase was a multiple stakes winner, including the 1992 Breeders' Cup Sprint.
- With his partners Watson and Weitman, Pegram has a Del Mar career mark that tallies 193 starts, 54 wins and $4,092,365 in purses. Together they took the owners title at Del Mar's 2022 summer meet with nine victories.
- Got acquainted with racing by going to Ellis Park, in Western Kentucky, while growing up in Southern Indiana.
- Took over as chairman of the Thoroughbred Owners of California in November 2011. Stayed in that role until 2016 and continued as a board member through 2019.
- Had success in fast-food business with ownership of more than 20 McDonald's franchises. He also has partnered in a trio of casinos in the Carson City, NV, area.
- Named Turf Publicists of America's "Big Sport of Turfdom" in 1998.
- Brother Jim and nephews Brad and J. R. are successful jockey agents in Southern California.
- Family: Wife Mary Ellen; one son, one daughter.

- The group finished second with five wins during the 2023 Del Mar summer meet and third in earnings with $387,200. They posted their second best year with 25 victories and $1,716,765 in purses.
- They won the G3 La Jolla Handicap at Del Mar in 2023 with Maltese Falcon and the Let It Ride Stakes with Dandy Man Shines.
- Teamed with his father, Jed, for the first 10 years of the group's existence. The father and son team topped all owners in earnings at the 2022 Del Mar fall meet with $335,140. Their four victories tied with Nick Alexander for the most at the meet.
- Sadly, Jed passed away at the age of 89 following a long illness in November of 2022.
- Posted their best year ever in wins and earnings with 38 victories and $2,698,681 in 2022. It exceeded their previous high in purses by over $1 million.
- Tim abandoned a career in hotel management 15 years ago to pursue racehorse ownership. He oversees the operation at Rancho Temescal, a 6,000 acre Thoroughbred farm in Piru, California, in Ventura County, about an hour drive from Santa Anita.
- Jed managed an investment advisory business based in Beverly Hills until his death. At one time, he was an economic advisor to John F. Kennedy.
- Jed was involved in horse racing for over 60 years. He bought his first horse, Wayward Jenny, in 1959 for $2,500. He watches every race and remains involved in the business, but defers to his trainers with one piece of advice, "take care of my horse."
- Janet was Red Baron's first big money earner, winning four graded stakes from 2001 to 2002, two of them Grade 1's, the Ramona Handicap at Del Mar (now the G2 John C. Mabee) and the Yellow Ribbon at Santa Anita. Janet won eight of her 27 starts and retired a millionaire.
- Their gelding Itsinthepost won eight stakes races, all Grade 2's, between 2017 and 2019. A master of the turf marathon, the French bred was the definition of a "horse for the course", winning seven of those graded stakes at Santa Anita. He tried the Breeders' Cup once, in 2017 at Del Mar, when he ran 7th. He finished his racing career with 11 wins in 42 starts and $1,384,604 in earnings.

- Part of several partnerships, one involving Dr. Schivel, a sprinter who came within an eyelash of giving the Cohens their first Breeders' Cup victory. The son of Violence was nailed on the wire by a fast-closing Aloha West in the Breeders' Cup Sprint at Del Mar in 2021.
- Dr. Schivel won the G1 Del Mar Futurity in 2020 but then had to go on the shelf for nearly a year with bone issues. He returned during Del Mar's summer meet in 2021 to win the G1 Bing Crosby. They took him up to Santa Anita and, despite a broken rein, won the G2 Sprint Championship setting him up for his bid in the Breeders' Cup.
- River Boyne was another millionaire runner for the Cohens, notching five graded stakes victories between 2018 and 2020, including the G1 Kilroe Mile at Santa Anita. He won nine of his 25 starts and $1,229,918 in purses.
- Rancho Temescal was a cattle ranch and oil field when the family bought the land in 1999. It is now filled with fruit trees, a horse farm and pastures so picturesque part of their marketing campaign solicits movie makers to use the setting for photo shoots. HBO filmed portions of its hit series, Westworld, on the sprawling property.

- Had the most victories by an owner with six during the 2023 Del Mar summer meet then tied Gary Barber for the most wins with three during the fall meet. The $758,492 in earnings was also best among the owners during the summer meet.
- Had a magical run in 2015-16 with the classy Nyquist, a $400,000 2-year-old-in-training purchase in March of 2015 who won the Del Mar Futurity and the Breeders' Cup Juvenile en route to a perfect 5-for-5 season and championship honors that year, then came back to win his first three starts as a sophomore capped off by a sharp score in the Kentucky Derby. The colt finished third in the Preakness, though, but went on to win more than $5.1 million and now is at stud at Darley's Jonabell Farm in Kentucky. With Nyquist leading the way in 2016, Reddam was America's third-leading owner for purses won with more than $7.2 million in earnings.

- Nyquist was named for the Detroit Red Wings Swedish hockey player Gustav Nyquist. Reddam, a huge Red Wings fan since his Canadian youth, has named several of his other horses after players on the team, including Mrazek (also a stakes winner), Zetterberg, Hudler, Lidstrom, Datsyuk, Tatar and Kronwall.
- I'll Have Another, a colt he named for his standard request when his wife brought around her homemade cookies, stood at the edge of Thoroughbred immortality in 2012 after capturing the Kentucky Derby and Preakness.
- Alas, on the eve of the Belmont Stakes in New York, a case of tendinitis in the colt's left foreleg forced his withdrawal and retirement. Was sold to Japanese breeders after winning five of seven starts and $2,693,600. He currently stands stud at Ocean Breeze Ranch (formerly Vessels Ranch) in Bonsall, CA.
- Ran five horses in Breeders' Cup races in 2012, including B.C. Juvenile runner-up He's Had Enough. Had five horses also in 2013 Breeders' Cup, with a fourth by Bond Holder in the Juvenile being the highest finish.
- Earlier he had a pair of Breeders' Cup champions: 2004 Juvenile winner Wilko, as a partner, and on his own with Red Rocks, victor in the 2006 Turf.
- Among his recent runners are the gray horse Pavel, a stakes winner of more than $2 million, and the multiple-stakes winning mare Mopotism, who earned more than $800,000 and won or placed in a dozen stakes. Pavel has taken up stud duties at Ocean Breeze Ranch in Bonsall, CA.
- Reddam won Grade I races with Spring At Last (2007 Donn) and Square Eddie (2008 Lane's End Breeders' Futurity). Square Eddie, a son of Smart Strike and a prolific California stallion over the last decade, was pensioned after the 2019 breeding season.
- Won another Grade I in 2023 with Slow Down Andy taking the Awesome Again at Santa Anita, four weeks after finishing third in the FanDuel Racing Pacific Classic at Del Mar. It set up the son of Nyquist for another shot at the Breeders' Cup but a post race examination found filling in one of his ankles and he was forced to miss the Classic one year after his third-place finish in the Dirt Mile.
- Slow Down Andy never raced again. He suffered a sesamoid injury while training for his 5-year-old debut in early 2024 and was retired. He finished with $1.2 million in earnings including his take from winning the 2022 G2 Del Mar Derby.

- Other top runners include Dancing Edie, as part owner, winner of the 2006 John C. Mabee Handicap at Del Mar; Great Hunter, a Grade I winner who finished third to Street Sense in 2006 Breeders' Cup Juvenile and was 13th in the 2007 Kentucky Derby; Elloluv, multiple graded stakes winner who finished second in the 2003 Breeders' Cup Distaff; Cash Included, fifth in the 2006 Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies; the 2002 Met Mile winner Swept Overboard, and Momentum, second to Came Home in the 2002 Pacific Classic.
- Has banked over $2 million in earnings in 11 of the past 12 years (2012–2023).
- Reddam's lead trainer is Doug O'Neill, but he also runs horses with Edward Freeman, Simon Callaghan and Ben Cecil.
- Was Del Mar's leading owner at its 2015 summer meet both for money won ($1,048,180) and number of victories (13, either on his own or with partners), led by Nyquist's stakes tallies in the Best Pal and Futurity. Was the track's leading owner again in 2020.
- Coming into 2024, Reddam's Equibase numbers show he has won a total of 438 races and over $43 million in purses.
- Became interested in horse racing as a teen-ager. It continued after he moved to Southern California, where he watched Spectacular Bid win the Santa Anita Handicap in 1980.
- Bought his first horse, Ocean Warrior, in 1988, but he never won.
- Received a Ph. D in philosophy from the University of Southern California and taught the subject at Cal State Los Angeles following graduation.
- Entered mortgage business to supplement his income, founding Ditech.com in 1995 to offer mortgage loans; sold the company to General Motors in 1999.
- Not long after that, created CashCall, a high-risk lending agency based in Irvine, CA. For a time, the company sponsored Hollywood Park's Grade I CashCall Futurity.

- Stable made first big splash on the national/international racing scene by winning both the 2017 Breeders' Cup Sprint with Hartunian as the major partner in Roy H and as sole owner of the BC Turf Sprint champion Stormy Liberal.
 - The Sprint victory brought Roy H the 2017 Eclipse Award as North America's champion sprinter.
 - Then, in an unmatched feat, they both came back in 2019 at Churchill Downs to win their Breeders' Cup races again, earning Roy H. another Eclipse as Sprint champion. The geldings retired following the 2019 season – Roy H. with 10 wins and more than $3.1 million in earnings to his credit and Stormy Liberal with a dozen firsts and more than $2.2 million in winnings.
 - Hartunian has a special connection with his Sprint ace Roy H., having named the horse in honor of his grandfather, who had a shout-out from his grandson at the 2017 Eclipse Awards when he said, "My grandfather was a big mentor to me. He was very disciplined. It was always 'Moderation, moderation, Gary.'"
 - The ranch had its best year ever in earnings in 2017, exceeding $2.9 million in purses.
 - Hartunian currently has approximately 100 horses in training from coast to coast.
 - Has expanded into breeding with 16 broodmares and the stallion Finnegan's Wake, a Grade I stakes winner.
 - Among his major stakes winners, other than the Breeders' Cup champions: Surrender Now, Chalon, Richard's Boy, Conquest Fahrenheit, Arms Runner and XYJet, who finished second in the 2018 Golden Shaheen on the Dubai World Cup undercard..
 - Hartunian, whose business is commercial real estate and apartment management, got interested in horse racing while going to the races with his father, Don, who ran a car dealership in Hollywood and raced a few horses besides.

- The son's interest stuck and he got involved in 2012 when he bought Fast N Furious Cat at Barretts Paddock Sale at Del Mar for $50,000. He lost the horse in a claiming race, but his appetite was whetted and he's gone on with it from there, including naming a horse he bought at a sale Hollywood Don and watching him become a stakes winner.
- Was the leading owner at both the 2017 and 2018 Del Mar fall race meets; was the top owner for wins (11) at the shore's 2016 summer meet. Twice has been leading owner at Santa Anita and was named the TOBA's 2016 California Owner of the Year.
- Heading into 2024, his Equibase numbers say he's won a total of 360 races and more than $14 million in purses.
- Has this to say about racing: "It's kind of fun. It gives me a little action. Real estate is a very slow, long-term investment -- slow, slow and slower -- and this has given me something to look forward to on a daily, weekly basis."

- The mercurial Ruis never stays still for too long. After a brief but exciting second run as a horse trainer, the San Diego-area native dropped back to "merely" being an owner. He owns 120 horses, three stallions, one farm in Kentucky, another farm in Montana and a ranch in California.
- Additionally, he's gone back to running his scaffolding business in San Diego and also builds condos on the side. When he decided to drop the "trainer" title from his resume he turned that part of his operation back over to his 31-year-old daughter Shelbe.
- Ruis initially trained for three years -- 2005 - 2007 -- but left to devote full attention to developing his San Diego-based American Scaffold company. Following the sale of controlling interest in the company for a reported $78 million, Ruis returned to racing in a big way, spending about $2 million on horses to get his stable, Ruis Racing, underway.

- Ruis and his team of buyers purchased 16 yearlings in 2016 and 14 in 2017. One of the 2016 purchases was Bolt d'Oro, named by combining Olympic champion sprinter Usain Bolt with the colt's sire Medaglia d'Oro. Ruis paid $635,000 for the bay at the Saratoga Select Yearling Sale. It proved to be money well spent.
- Bolt d'Oro won three of his four starts in 2017, including a pair of Grade Is -- the Del Mar Futurity and Front Runner Stakes at Santa Anita. He finished third in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile, then was a hot item heading into the 2018 Kentucky Derby, where he showed speed, but went unplaced.
- The colt was moved up to first place in 2018 Santa Anita Derby following a prolonged legal battle. The winner of the race, Justify, failed a post-race drug test but the CHRB attributed the finding to environmental contamination and refused to disqualify the winner. Ruis pursued the litigation and in December of 2023 got the ruling he was fighting for.
- Subsequently, the flashy colt was retired with $1,016,000 in earnings and bred to a full book at Spendthrift Farm in 2019, then went to Australia and bred another book during their season. He's the sire of 2023 G1 Del Mar Debutante winner Tamara, out of the super mare Beholder.
- Ruis also stands two sires in Pennsylvania -- War Envoy and Saburo.
- His Kentucky farm is the 160-plus acre Chestnut Farm, now called the Blackwood Stables Training Center, in Versailles. He sold his 300-plus acre Woodford Thoroughbreds Farm near Lexington to Tom and Debi Stull of Tommy Towns in early 2023.
- Ruis' second run as a conditioner went for three years also -- 2017 to early in 2019 -- and saw his stable win more than a million dollars in his full years of '17 and '18. After a brief respite, he returned to training horses in 2023 and as of Derby weekend had 44 starts to his credit as a conditioner in 2024.
- Portending things to come for Ruis Racing was the 2016 victory by Union Strike in the Del Mar Debutante, then trained by Shelbe. That tally made her the first female to train a Debutante winner and gave her a Grade I score for her initial stakes win. After training throughout 2016, the younger Ruis dropped back to being her father's assistant, but now has resumed control of the racing stable.
- Mick Ruis' Del Mar numbers as a trainer read like this: 102 starts, 10 wins and $1,045,014 in purses.

- Born and raised in the San Diego suburb of El Cajon, Ruis dropped out of high school in his senior year (but not until he had finished a banner wrestling season) to start working construction, rising to supervisory positions at a young age and eventually owning the scaffolding company in which he made his fortune.
- Credits Lupe Flores with being a mentor in his training career dating back about 15 years to the San Luis Rey Downs Training Center in Bonsall, CA. Flores serves as the barn foreman at the Ruis home base at Santa Anita.
- Career record as a trainer: 537 starts, 65 wins for earnings of $3,814,065.
- Family: Wife Wendy; three boys, four girls, among them Mick Jr, a former jockey, and 13 grandchildren.

- Stated the case for being a major player when he finished second nationally among all owners in 2014 with almost $6-million in purses. Among his best horses so far are Awesome Baby, Bayern, Fed Biz, Dortmund, Eden's Moon, Bellafina, American Gal and Concord Point.
- Fed Biz (2012) and Bayern (2014) put Shah on the brink of the Kentucky Derby, but Fed Biz missed it with an injury and Bayern was left just outside the list because of a lack of points in Derby prep races due to minor physical issues.
- Both colts bounced back nicely, however. Fed Biz turned in a track-record performance in the 2013 Pat O'Brien on Pacific Classic Day going seven eighths, while Bayern clicked in New York on Belmont Day in 2014 in the Grade II Woody Stephens, also at seven furlongs.
- Bayern finished a classic year for Shah by winning the Haskell Invitational before capturing the Breeders' Cup Classic at Santa Anita in a tight three-way finish that required him to withstand a long stewards' inquiry. He retired with more than $4.4 million in purses.
- Multiple stakes-winning Dortmund came on strongly in 2015, including a victory in the Santa Anita Derby before finishing third in the Kentucky Derby and fourth in the Preakness. He finished up the year with an impressive

- triumph in the Native Diver Stakes during Del Mar's fall meet. He was hampered by issues throughout 2016 and into 2017 and was retired and went to stud in 2018 at Bonita Farm in Maryland. His bankroll topped out at more than $1.9 million.
- Raced the speedy filly Bellafina, a multiple-stakes winner of more than $1.6 million through 2020. The $800,000 2-year-old sale purchase won seven races including two stakes at Del Mar in 2018, the Grade II Sorrento and the Grade I Del Mar Debutante.
- Unveiled another topnotch runner in juvenile Klimt in 2016, winner of Del Mar's Best Pal and Futurity and more than $400,000 in purses.
- Also raced a multiple-stakes winner in the speedy mare Fantastic Style, a winner of more than $425,000.
- Owner captured Fleet Treat Stakes with Sweet Marini in 2013 at the shore and tied for leading owner at the meet with six wins. He banked $537,910 in purse money locally that summer.
- Won first Grade I race in 2012 when Eden's Moon captured Las Virgenes Stakes at Santa Anita; later in the year, Eden's Moon won Del Mar's Grade II San Clemente Handicap.
- The 4-year old filly Madone was a multiple-stakes winner in 2021, including the G2 San Clemente at Del Mar.
- Coming into 2024, his Equibase numbers say he has won a total of 249 races and over $23 million in purses.
- Owner's silks bear the colors of the American flag, with red and white stripes and a field of blue with stars. Some horses carry "American" or "Patriot" in their names. He's employed the likes of Art Sherman, Bob Baffert and Doug O'Neill to train his horses.
- Owns 10 broodmares kept at Hill 'N' Dale Farms in Kentucky. Has bred some of his mares to his stallion Concord Point, also at Hill 'N' Dale. His homebred American Gal, a Grade I winner of more than $900,000, is a daughter of Concord Point, a son of super sire Tapit.
- Started small in 1996, racing horses in Maryland with trainers Jimmy Murphy and Dale Capuano and a few in California with O'Neill.
- Developed love for horses and racing as a child. Father, Majeed, was a major trainer in India who won many classic races including the Indian Triple Crown twice. Uncle won two Indian Derbies.
- Father kept him away from races as a youth, preferring he concentrate on schooling.
- Education: Bachelor's degree in electrical engineering from India's Bangalore University; masters in computer engineering, Clemson University; MBA in international finance, George Washington University.

- Founded CalNet in 1989 and serves as its president. Company offers intelligence analysis, telecommunications, financial and information technology. Clients include U.S. government, armed forces and state governments. Based in Reston, VA, with branch office in San Diego.

- Was named to the Board of Directors of the Del Mar Thoroughbred Club in 2023.
- Is a native of the Bronx in New York City and was raised in New Jersey.
- Attended Syracuse University where he earned a degree in accounting. It's there he met his wife, Margie.
- His first exposure to horse racing came with the trotters he watched at Vernon Downs, near the college.
- After a successful career in Manhattan, where he was Vice President of Operations at Chipsoft/Intuit, he picked-up and moved to Del Mar in 1992 and co-founded Provide Commerce, which would become one of the nation's leading e-commerce companies. It includes the popular ProFlowers.com and Shari's Berries, a company from which you can order hand-dipped cookies, fruits and cakes online. He was CEO of the company until 2011.
- His brother, Jeffrey, is a master chef and the two are partners in the popular Pamplemousse Grille in Solana Beach, across from Del Mar. It was at the restaurant one night where he met bloodstock agent Alex Solis II, who helped him buy his first Thoroughbred in 2008. They aptly named the 2-year old The Pamplemousse. After winning two Derby preps in early 2009, the colt was favored to win the Santa Anita Derby but a tendon injury the day before the race prevented him from ever racing again.
- Won back-to-back Breeders' Cup Sprints with Mizdirection in 2012 and 2013, notching both victories on the downhill turf course at Santa Anita. The daughter of Mizzen Mast won 11 of her 17 starts and over $1.7 million.
- Partnered with Roadrunner Racing and Boat Racing to purchase Hot Rod Charlie in 2019. The son of Oxbow shocked the racing world when he ran second to Essential Quality in the 2020 Breeders' Cup Juvenile at 94-1. It set the stage for a run on the Derby trail the following spring which included a victory in the G2 Louisiana Derby at Fair Grounds.

- Hot Rod Charlie ran third in the 2021 Kentucky Derby behind Medina Spirit and Mandaloun. He was moved up to second by Medina Spirit's disqualification. He would go on to finish second again to Essential Quality in the Belmont Stakes. After finishing fourth in the Breeders' Cup Classic at Del Mar, "Chuck" was runner-up to Country Grammar in the 2022 Dubai World Cup. He was retired from racing following the Breeders' Cup at Keeneland where he ran sixth in the Classic.
- Attended his first Kentucky Derby in 2000 as a guest of Hall of Fame jockey Chris McCarron.
- Currently sits on the board of the Thoroughbred Owners of California.
- He has been involved in many local business endeavors and charitable organizations including UCSD Connect, Casa De Amparo, Naval Special Warfare Foundation, and the MS Society – Pacific South Coast Chapter.

- Stulls have been involved in racing and breeding since the early 1980s, first with a farm in Hemet, CA.
- It all started with ownership as partners with Jim Wilson of Wilson Stock Farm in a horse called Fa La Te Dough, who won seven stakes and $254,050. They owned a few more horses before deciding "to do it right," meaning the purchase in 2000 of D. Wayne Lukas' former Westerly Training Center in the Santa Ynez Valley. Original 160-acre plot has been expanded twice to cover approximately 350 acres and is home to some 260 horses.
- Since 2004, Stulls were in the upper echelon among California breeding farms, finishing on top in 2009, 2013 and 2015. In 2010 and 2011 they were second-best by earnings and tops for races won in 2014. In 2016 they were first for races won and second for earnings.

- 2013 was their best year for earnings with $2,201,639 keyed by 64 trips to the winner's circle. In 2017, outfit had second-best season with $2,186,997 in purses. They have posted earnings of $1 million or more for the past eight years and for all but one year since 2007.
- Tommy Town offered money-back guarantee on top stallion Old Topper's stud fees if the stallion wasn't California's leading freshman sire in 2004, which he was.
- Old Topper was major winner while being trained by the late Noble Threewitt for Kentucky owner-breeder Barbara Hunter, capturing Del Mar's Best Pal Stakes in 1997 and Pat O'Brien Handicap in 1998.
- Farm issued a similar 2009 money-back guarantee for their stallion Ministers Wild Cat. That worked, too.
- Old Topper was pensioned in 2019. Their roster of stallions consist of Kafwain; California's leading sire Grazen; the Malibu Moon stallion Stanford; and their latest addition Eight Rings.
- Among stakes winners bred and owned by Tommy Town was Shout to the North, who won the 2004 Glorious Song Stakes at Woodbine Race Course in Ontario, Canada. Also bred stakes winners Beat the Chalk, Go Kitty Go, Random Memo, She's Gottogetaway and Sierra Sweetie, 2005 Cal-bred 2-year-old filly champion.
- Raced Irish-import and millionaire Whatsthescript and stood him at their farm briefly.
- Filly Let Faith Arise gave farm its first Grade I victory by taking the Grade I Santa Margarita at Santa Anita in 2014. The homebred daughter of Kafwain was a triple stakes winner of nearly $500,000. The dam of Let Faith Arise, Babe Hall, was purchased for $400,000 at the Keeneland November mixed sale and bred to Kafwain in Kentucky, producing Let Faith Arise. Subsequently, the Stulls moved Kafwain to California and Tommy Town. They also raced millionaire It Tiz Well.
- Raced the solid mare, Victim of Love, who won the '20 and '21 editions of Belmont Park's G3 Vagrancy Handicap and banked more than $400,000.
- Keeper Of the Stars was retired in 2022. The multiple-stakes winner of more than $500,000 won the Grade I Gamely at Santa Anita in 2020.
- In early 2023 the Stulls bought the 300-plus acre Woodford Thoroughbreds Farm near Lexington and the decision was made to transition to a completely Kentucky-based program.
- Stulls stepped into a new realm in 2014 as executive producers of the movie "50 to 1," the story of Mine That Bird's upset in the 2009 Kentucky Derby.

- Tom Stull was a success in business prior to getting into racing and breeding. Established a machine shop in Santa Fe Springs in Southern California in the mid-1970s and built it into Tower Industries with 200 employees in shops in Wisconsin, as well as Anaheim and Ontario in Southern California. He's also involved in real estate sales and purchases.
- Debi Stull is an accomplished equestrienne.
- Family: One daughter, one son.

- Have become major owners as partners with Mike Pegram, longtime client of trainer Bob Baffert. Also have operated as partners on their own on a lesser level, as clients of Baffert. Overall, they usually have about a dozen or so horses with the trainer.
 - With Pegram, they took down the owners title at Del Mar's 2022 summer meet with nine victories and $849,680 in earnings.
 - Notched their best year ever with Pegram in 2022, winning 27 races and compiling $2,702,021 in earnings, both high watermarks for the partnership.
 - The trio won 10 stakes races in 2022, all with horses trained by Baffert and run in Southern California including Cave Rock in the G1 Del Mar Futurity and Defunded in the G3 Native Diver at Del Mar
 - Their colt, Havnameltdown, won two graded stakes at Del Mar in 2022, one in the summer in the G3 Best Pal and one in the fall in the G3 Bob Hope. The colt returned in 2023 and won his 3-year old debut in the G2 San Vicente before going overseas to the Middle East and finishing

- second in the Saudi Derby. He returned to the States and started in the G3 Chick Lang at Pimlico on Preakness Day but suffered a catastrophic injury.
- The partnership just missed topping their 2022 mark in earnings in 2023 when they racked-up $2,668,326 in purse money. It was their second best year in regards to earnings, exceeding 2019's mark by $3,000. Their 20 victories were third best ever.
 - They won five graded stakes in 2023, again all with Baffert. Defunded won two of them, the G2 Californian followed by the G1 Hollywood Gold Cup. They also won the G1 Malibu with Speed Boat Beach and the G3 Bayakoa with Midnight Memories who the year before had won the G3 Torrey Pines at Del Mar and, one month later, the G2 Zenyatta Stakes at Santa Anita.
 - First connection with Pegram came with two-time Breeders' Cup Sprint winner Midnight Lute who won consecutive Breeders' Cup Sprints (2007-08) and the 2007 Eclipse as champion sprinter,
 - As good as that was, it got better with Lookin at Lucky who won Del Mar's Best Pal and Del Mar Futurity in 2009 and the Eclipse Award as top juvenile. Colt returned to win the 2010 Preakness, Haskell Invitational and Indiana Derby and the Eclipse as top 3-year-old male.
 - The group's Secret Circle won the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Sprint in 2011 and BC Sprint in 2013, then the hero of the 2015 $2-million Dubai Golden Shaheen to push his bankroll past the $3.6-million mark; and finished his career with more than $3.6 million in winnings.
 - Coil, the 2011 Haskell winner, was retired in January 2013 after winning San Pasqual 'Cap at Santa Anita for the threesome; earned more than $1.1 million. Stood stud at Barton Thoroughbreds in Santa Ynez, CA, prior to being pensioned. The partners also had a stellar 2012 campaign with filly Executiveprivilege, winner of the Del Mar Debutante and more than $900,000 and had further stakes success with Drill and Candrea.
 - Partners also had their own ATM machine between 2014 and 2018 with always-trying veteran Hoppertunity, who went to the post 34 times against stakes horses far and wide and missed a check only one time. In the end, the son of Any Given Saturday scored nine wins, eight seconds and five thirds for $4,712,625 in purses. He's now standing at stud at the Northview PA Farm in Peach Bottom, PA.
 - The trio together won over $2 million in earnings five years in a row, from 2012 to 2016, then came back in 2019 and notched their best year to date when they won $2.6 million. All told, the partnership has collected over $30 million in purses.
 - Other major runners for the pair in partnership with Pegram: dual Grade I winner Midnight Lucky; their homebred 3-year-old Gimme Da Lute; Drill, winner of 2011 Del Mar Futurity; and, the bay horse McKinzie, named for the late Los Alamitos executive Brad McKinzie. Over four seasons he won six graded stakes and more than $3.4 million in purses and now stands at stud at Gainsway Farm in Lexington, KY.
 - Their golden touch with Pegram also included additional stakes winners Whiskey Ticket, Pretty N Cool and Toews On Ice.
 - On their own, raced stakes winners Da Stoops and Tough Tiz's Sis. Da Stoops, a multiple-stakes winner named for former University of Arizona football coach Mike Stoops, earned $640,906 and was sold for $2.5 million as a stallion prospect. Tough Tiz's Sis won two Grade I stakes, earned $903,792 and retired to the pair's broodmare band.
 - Watson began selling cars in the Kansas City area and bought his first dealership in 1981. Moved to Tucson in 1984 and now is turning over operations of several dealerships to family members.
 - Weitman graduated from Valdosta (GA) State in 1964 and was a teacher and basketball coach before moving to Tucson and buying his first auto dealership in 1977. He, too, is beginning to turn over operation of agencies to family members.
 - Weitman was a big buddy of University of Arizona's late Hall of Fame basketball coach Lute Olsen. They often attended many of the Wildcats basketball games together after his retirement. Olsen and his supposed last-minute recruiting tactics were the source for the name of their champion sprinter Midnight Lute.
 - Family: Watson: Wife, Kathy, two sons, one daughter; Weitman: Wife, Betty, two sons.

- Founded the Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners' ownership group in 2011.
- Had their best year ever in regards to earnings in 2023 accumulating $2,477,236, exceeding their previous high in 2016 by $90,000. Much of that money came with the success of Anisette who won three Graded Stakes, two at Del Mar, earning her top 3-year old Filly honors at the summer meet. She posted victories in the G2 San Clemente, the G1 Del Mar Oaks and the G1 American Oaks at Santa Anita.
- Aron's involvement in horse racing started at an early age. He was 8-years-old when he convinced a trainer at Del Mar to allow him to tag along in the mornings. Every summer until he graduated from law school, he worked the backside, from mucking stalls to hot walking to becoming the groom of a Grade 2 winner (Ville Vigne, who won the Chula Vista Stakes at Del Mar in 1991).
- His parents owned a small breeding operation for 37-years in Fresno. He says because of them he was able to "hang out" with racing royalty, meeting the likes of Bill Shoemaker and Eddie Delahoussaye.
- Graduated from the University of Santa Barbara in 1999 followed by three years of studies at Southwest University Law School where he graduated in 2002. He passed the California Bar Exam and got a job at a defense firm in Los Angeles.
- While developing his practice, he worked a second job... setting up informal racing partnerships. It led to him leaving his job in 2008 and becoming the vice president of Team Valor, working with Barry Irwin for three years during which time the stable won the Kentucky Derby in 2011 with Animal Kingdom.
- The first starter for the newly founded Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners was Patrioticandproud who promptly won a maiden race at Woodbine in October of 2011.
- His first graded stakes winner under the Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners' banner came in 2012 when In Lingerie won the G3 Bourbonette at Turfway Park. The filly would follow that victory two months later with a win in the G2 Black Eyed Susan at Pimlico and in October of that year she provided the group with their first Grade 1 win, capturing the Spinster Stakes at Keeneland.
- In 2013, the legendary owner Cot Campbell retired and asked Aron to oversee the preservation of the legacy of his stable. In July of that year, Campbell's famed Dogwood Stable merged with Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners.
- The filly Curalina brought the group three Grade 1 victories in 2015-16 when she won the Acorn at Belmont Park, the Coaching Club American Oaks at Saratoga and the La Troienne at Churchill Downs. The daughter of Curlin would retire with six wins out of 13 starts and over $1.5 million in earnings.
- He was elected to the Breeders' Cup Members Board in 2016.
- The group's first classic win came in the 2017 when Tapwrit captured the Belmont Stakes. Trained by Todd Pletcher and ridden by John Velazquez, the son of Tapit rolled past the likes of Irish War Cry, Patch and Santa Anita Derby winner Gormley to win the third jewel in racing's Triple Crown.
- Sharing provided the group with their first Breeders' Cup victory when she won the Juvenile Fillies Turf in 2019 at Santa Anita. The daughter of Speightstown was trained by Graham Motion and ridden by John Velazquez.
- Breeders' Cup win number two came at Del Mar in 2021 when Aloha West ran down Dr. Schivel in a thrilling edition of the Sprint. Trained by Wayne Catalano and ridden by Jose Ortiz, the son of Hard Spun rewarded his backers with a $24 payoff.
- Other Grade 1 winners for the group include Ohio (BRZ), winner of the 2019 Kilroe Mile at Santa Anita; Speech, winner of the 2020 Ashland Stakes at Keeneland; Red Lark, winner of the 2020 Del Mar Oaks and Valiance, winner of the 2020 Spinster at Keeneland.
- Another star for the stable was Nest who retired from racing in 2024. She was runner-up against the boys in the 2022 Belmont Stakes and won four graded stakes that year, the G1 Ashland at Keeneland; the G1 Coaching Club American Oaks and the G1 Alabama at Saratoga and the G2 Beldame at Belmont Park, racking up earnings exceeding $1.7 million and winning the Eclipse Award for top 3-year-old filly.
- They also raced Queen Goddess, winner of the 2021 American Oaks at Santa Anita and the 2023 G3 Pegasus World Cup Filly & Mare Turf at Gulfstream Park.

- Won the 2022 G1 Hollywood Derby at Del Mar with Speaking Scout.
- Family: Wife Talya; one daughter, one son

- Had another banner year in 2023. Their horses won 32 races and rolled-up over $3.7 million in earnings. The barn was led by West Will Power who won the G2 New Orleans Classic at Fair Grounds and the G1 Stephen Foster at Churchill Downs. Two months later the son of Bernardini had to be retired from racing after suffering a soft tissue injury while training for the G1 Whitney at Saratoga. He hit the board in 15 of his 17 races and compiled over $1.7 million in earnings.
- Their colt Hit Show took them on a Triple Crown ride in 2023, winning the G3 Withers and running second in the Wood Memorial, punching his ticket to the Kentucky Derby. The son of Candy Ride finished a respectable fifth in the Run For the Roses then came back and ran fourth in the Belmont Stakes.
- Gary was introduced to racing at age 19 by his father at the old Ak-Sar-Ben racetrack in Omaha, Nebraska.
- Mary owned a horse in high school and has always loved horses and the sport of racing.
- It was in Omaha that Gary and Mary met at a dance. Their meeting went well: for the past 50 years they have been husband and wife.
- When first married, they frequently went to Ak-Sar-Ben and dreamed of owning racehorses.
- Couple had a powerful hand in 2019 Kentucky Derby with their champion juvenile Game Winner and Florida Derby hero Maximum Security in the lineup. The latter took them to the highest high when he went wire-to-wire to outrun 18 rivals and earn the roses. But after a long inquiry by Churchill Downs stewards, they were crushed when – for the first time in its 145-year history – the apparent winner of racing's most storied prize was disqualified and placed 17th for interference with several runners and longshot Country House was made the winner.

- Subsequently, the mercurial Maximum Security returned to win six stakes, four of them Grade or Group I, including the world's richest race, the $20-million Saudi Cup in February 2020. Among his other stakes tallies were scores in Del Mar's San Diego 'Cap and the TVG Pacific Classic. He finished his career with more than $12.4 million in earnings and now stands at Ashford Stud in Versailles, KY.
- Their previous top money winner was the powerhouse colt West Coast, who banked more than $5.8 million and the 3-year-old Eclipse championship in 2017 when he won the Travers and Pennsylvania Derby. He now stands at stud at Lane's End in Versailles, KY.
- Their best year to date, in terms of earnings, came in 2018 when they collected over $4.8 million in purses, sixth best in the nation. Game Winner led the way, breaking his maiden at Del Mar then posting back-to-back-to-back victories in the Del Mar Futurity, the American Pharoah at Santa Anita and the Breeders' Cup Juvenile at Churchill Downs. West Coast chipped in with a runner up finish in the $16 million Pegasus World Cup at Gulfstream Park.
- The Wests went into business together in 1979, founding WATS Telemarketing, and later, West Corporation. Their vision for the companies turned them into telecommunications giants nationally. In 2006 they sold controlling interest in West Corporation for $2.2 billion while retaining a 20% ownership in it.
- The couple claimed their first racehorse in 1981, Joe Blow for $13,500. They picked a winner. By Gary's estimates he started about 100 times for them (mostly in Nebraska), winning approximately 20 races and around $130,000 while never being claimed.
- The Wests' first trainer was Nebraskan Ben Glass, who later became the West's racing manager and bloodstock adviser, a role he continues today.
- Thoroughbred holdings grew over the years and the couple made a national splash for the first time when their Rockamundo (trained by Glass) won the 1993 Arkansas Derby at odds of 108-1 under Calvin Borel. "Biggest price ever (in the race)," noted Gary West. "I had a real adrenalin rush. That probably hooked me for life."
- The Wests' stable has had its share of good stakes horses in the seasons since, among them Calide Valley, Ubiquity, Baptize, million-dollar-earner Dollar Bill, Mongoose, Buddha, High Limit, Mass Media, Sweet Lips, Guilt Trip, Book Review, Power Broker, Concert Tour and Fighting Mad.

- Primary trainers are Bob Baffert in the west and Wayne Catalano in the midwest.
- At one point in 2013, Wests had five possible Kentucky Derby horses in Flashback, Code West, Power Broker, Treasury Bill and Title Contender. Though none of them made the race, the couple's desire to go back on the Derby Trail has become an annual ritual.
- The Wests' won over $4.5 million in purses in 2013, third best in the country.
- Wests' equine holdings include approximately 150 horses.
- Equibase numbers indicate the couple has won 662 races and more than $44 million in purses heading into 2024. They have collected earnings of at least $1 million dollars every year since 2009.
- In 2006 the Gary and Mary West Foundation (www.gmwf.org) was established and it supports four focus areas: lowering the cost of health care; independence for seniors; career opportunities for disadvantaged youth, and service canines for seniors and veterans. To date it has provided more than $200 million in funding to non-profits primarily located in San Diego and Omaha.
- Two other West efforts based in San Diego are the non-profit Gary and Mary West Health Institute, supported by their West Health Policy Center and the West Health Incubator (www.westhealth.org); as well as the Gary and Mary West Senior Wellness Center, which provides nutritious meals seven days a week to low-income and homeless seniors.

- Finley's partnership group is celebrating its 33rd season. In 2015 they were the nation's top money-winning racing syndicate (from among more than 50 identified major crews) with over $3.3 million in purses. They were the syndicate leaders again in 2016 and 2017 with $5.2 million in purses.

- They were part of the ultimate ownership fantasy in 2017 when their Always Dreaming -- whom they had a piece of in partnership with a crew of businessmen/buddies from Brooklyn -- raced through the stretch to glory at Churchill Downs in the Kentucky Derby.
- Terry Finley is both founder and president of West Point Thoroughbreds. It is estimated that since 1991 he has syndicated more than 200 horses for more than $20 million. Their website boasts of having won over 1,100 races, 156 stakes and over $79 million in purses.
- Part owner of Flightline, a $1-million yearling purchase who went undefeated in six starts with dominating victories in the 2021 G1 Malibu at Santa Anita, the 2022 G1 Met Mile at Belmont Park on Belmont Stakes Day, and the 2022 G1 TVG Pacific Classic at Del Mar where he won by a record 19 ¼ lengths. He finished his career with another dominating performance in the 2022 Breeders' Cup Classic at Keeneland. and was named 2022 Horse of the Year.
- Flashy Bull became West Point Thoroughbreds' first Grade I winner by capturing the 2007 Stephen Foster Handicap at Churchill Downs. He finished his career with $844,313 in earnings and was a stallion at Airdrie Stud in Midway, KY prior to heading off to stud duty in Saudi Arabia.
- West Point's Commanding Curve was a rallying runner-up to California Chrome in the 2014 Kentucky Derby, beaten less than two lengths at 37-1. Was retired from racing in 2016 with more than $600,000 in winnings.
- Outfit landed another Grade I tally when their long-winded veteran Twilight Eclipse gamely captured the Man o' War Stakes at Belmont Park in 2015. World-record holder for 12 furlongs on grass (2:22.63 in Pan American 'Cap at Gulfstream Park in 2013) was retired with a bankroll of $2 million.
- Stable's longest-running star was the old pro Awesome Gem, retired in 2012 at age 9 following a multiple-stakes-winning career that saw him race 52 times and earn nearly $2.9 million, including four Breeders' Cup starts.
- Other stakes winners include Belle of the Hall, King Congie, Seattle Fitz, Macho Again, El Gato Malo, Justwhistledixie, Kanthaka and Giza Goddess.
- First graded-stakes victory came with Ethan Man in the 2002 Swale Stakes, and Big City Bound brought West Point its initial black-type win in the 1995 Miss Liberty Stakes.
- West Point Thoroughbreds maintains offices in New York, New Jersey, Kentucky and California. It currently employs 16 trainers, a who's who in the conditioning business. Brad Cox, Todd Pletcher, Christophe Clement

- and west coast connected conditioner John Sadler are just a few of the top trainers working for the group.
- They currently race approximately 100 horses for 400 owners.
 - Finley was elected to The Jockey Club in 2019.
 - Finley is a graduate of the United States Military Academy at West Point, NY and served in the U.S. Army as an airborne ranger. He holds a master's degree in business from Boston University.
 - Established the Thoroughbred Thank You Fund that took 400 soldiers to the Kentucky Derby in 2005.
 - Also established the Congie Black and Gold Fund to channel funds toward retired racehorses.

- Owners of the state-of-the-art Tree Top Ranches in Parma, Idaho have become notable west coast players in racing in the past several years, especially when the late Lucky Pulpit hit the racetrack as a runner and then as a California stallion and sire of two-time Horse of the Year California Chrome. Lucky Pulpit died of an apparent heart attack in February of 2017 at Harris Farms, where he had stood his entire career. He was 16.
- 2023 was their best year in earnings since 2014 with $1,298,660 and they just missed eclipsing the mark from 10 years earlier by a mere $2,000. Their 36 victories in 2023 equaled their high water mark set in 2017.
- The star of the barn was Grand Slam Smile, a filly by Smiling Tiger they bred and raced. She broke her maiden at first asking then won the Debutante Stakes at Santa Anita before running second to Pushiness in the CTBA Stakes at Del Mar in August. She rebounded with a win in the Golden State Juvenile Fillies Stakes before running second in the Golden Gate Debutante. Her consistency paid off when she was named Top 2-Year Old Cal-bred female of 2023 at the CTBA Awards. She backed-up the - award with a win in the Cal Cup Oaks in January (2024).

- Williams scored a major victory at Del Mar in 2013 when Tamarando won Del Mar Futurity. Also won Real Good Deal Stakes with U'narack. 2013 was their best year in regards to earnings when they won $1,719,570.
- They've won two other Del Mar stakes in 2004: Wild Babe in a division of the Oceanside Stakes and Coastal Strike in Generous Portion Stakes.
- Tamarando raced for five seasons, made 31 starts and earned more than $700,000. He took up stud duty at Harris Farms in central California in 2017.
- Williams' raced homebred Rousing Sermon (by Lucky Pulpit) who won more than $820,000. He finished eighth in the 2012 Kentucky Derby won by I'll Have Another.
- The Williamses usually have 30 to 35 horses in training with Mike Puype, Jerry Hollendorfer, Cliff Sise, Jr. and Jeff Bonde in Southern California and Steve Specht in Northern California.
- They keep 20 broodmares at the 700-acre Tree Top Ranches and have a few in Kentucky. The Idaho broodmares are sent to California to be bred, then after foaling their offspring are raised and broken at Tree Top before being sent to Shaun Hadley at Legacy Ranch in Clements, CA for their final development prior to going to the racetrack. The best of their Kentucky foals are sold at auction with the others joining their racing program.
- Larry, who grew up with Quarter Horses on a ranch, decided in the late 1990s to get into the horse business; bought three broodmares and two horses in training at a Kentucky sale in 2000.
- The couple were childhood sweethearts; married shortly after high school graduation in 1962. Began a lumber business in 1979 that was sold in 2005 following their 1999 founding of Tree Top Ranches, which also includes a large cow/calf operation in southeastern Oregon.
- Are longtime, generous supporters of Boise State University's academic and athletic endeavors.
- Larry purchased 72 acres along the Boise River in 2005 and donated the property to the city of Boise in his wife's honor. It has been named the Marianne Williams Park.
- Family: One daughter, two sons.

- Won their first owners' title at Del Mar at the 2021 Bing Crosby Fall meet, winning four races out of nine starts.
- They own Wilson Automotive, a group of dealerships based in Southern California, one of the 10 largest car dealership chains in the U.S. Dave won Sports Illustrated's Dealer of Distinction Award in 1988 and Time Magazine's Quality Dealer Award in 1991 and then again in 2004.
- They have been involved in racehorse ownership for over 25 years.
- The Wilsons first graded stakes victory came in 2000 when Early Pioneer stormed home to win the G1 Hollywood Gold Cup at Hollywood Park. The gelded son of Rahy, bred by Mr. and Mrs. John C. Mabee, retired a millionaire in 2001.
- The Gold Cup victory was one of many for the Wilsons in 2000 as they posted their best year ever in terms of earnings, collecting $1,857,321.
- Dave takes pride in his ability at claiming horses. That's how they got Early Pioneer, who they bought from the Mabee's in a $62,000 claimer at Santa Anita in 1998.
- Another graded stakes winner for the Wilsons was Designed For Luck, also a gelded son of Rahy. He captured the G3 Ascot Handicap at Bay Meadows in Northern California in 2000, the G2 Oak Tree Breeders' Cup Mile (now known as the City of Hope) in 2003 and the G1 Shoemaker Mile at Hollywood Park in 2004. He was 10 years old when they retired him from racing in 2007.
- They raced Barraza, a son of Into Mischief, who won the G3 San Simeon at Santa Anita in 2022
- Dave's father was a weekend rodeo cowboy and the family grew up on a ranch in Traer, Iowa with Quarter Horses and Appaloosas. He was the oldest of five children. His parents eventually retired to Phoenix and, to hear Dave tell it, they started buying racehorses to get his retired father out of the recliner.
- His venture into horse ownership started with a chance

- meeting at Santa Anita with Anaheim Ducks hockey player Jim Thomson, who put Dave in touch with trainer Vladimir Cerin, who introduced him to Alan Landsburg and Greg Anderson. The trio partnered on six racehorses.
- After moving from Phoenix, Dave began buying car dealerships. In 1982 he bought Toyota of Orange and now owns 12 dealerships in Southern California, two in Scottsdale, Arizona and one in Puerto Vallarta, Mexico.
 - Big Sky Chester was the Wilsons first big success when they decided to go out on their own. He won three stakes races at Turf Paradise in 1996-97 before being shipped to Santa Anita where he won the Henry P. Russell Handicap during the Oak Tree meet. With the money earned, they entered the son of Afleet in the Breeders' Cup Turf at Hollywood Park. He finished fifth.
 - The Wilsons established a breeding operation in Arizona where they stood Big Sky Chester. In 2007 they donated the facility, broodmares and all, to the University of Arizona's Race Track Industry Program.
 - Other donations include $3M to Chapman University where now sits Holly and David Wilson Field. They also gifted $1M to Northern Iowa University, David's alma mater.
 - Holly grew up in Laguna Beach which the couple now call home.
 - Family: Two sons; one daughter.

- Runs mostly selling stock with a reputation for claiming sharply and moving horses up.
- Rang up a nice stakes tally with Spirit Rules in the 2015 Cal Cup Sprint.
- Had pair of stakes winners — Coconut Girl and Texcess — that sent him to best earnings of his career in 2004 at $1.5 million.
- Texcess was sold for $300,000 at January 2006 Barretts sale.
- Top runner for him in 2013 was Tiz a Minister, who was on the Kentucky Derby trail but couldn't make the field. Wound up third in the Snow Chief Stakes before winning the Grade III Affirmed Handicap at Hollywood Park.
- Trainer's other stakes winners include: Asong for Billy (2002 Pomona Derby), The Morris Monroe, Green Eyed Lady and Rush Into Heaven.
- Tied for two training titles in 1998 — Fairplex Park with Sandy Shulman, Caesar Dominguez and Jeff Mullins and Hollywood Park autumn meet with Neil Drysdale.
- Avid basketball player in his youth, was member of junior varsity squad at UCLA. Graduated UCLA and was headed to graduate school, but took a summer job at the racetrack and never left.
- Met his wife on an Opening Day at Del Mar. Yes, she was wearing a great hat.
- Family: Wife Lisa; one daughter.

- Inducted into Thoroughbred racing's Hall of Fame in 2009.
- Finished second in the 2023 Del Mar trainers standings in both the summer and fall meets. His 20 wins left him one short of Philip D'Amato but helped compile $2.4 million in earnings, tops among trainers in the summer meet.
- He won his seventh G1 Pacific Classic in 2023 with Arabian Knight, a 3-year-old son of Uncle Mo who outdueled Geaux Rocket Ride to win by a neck. The win gives Baffert the most victories by a trainer in Del Mar's most prestigious race, lifting him past the late Bobby Frankel.
- He won three grade one's at Del Mar in 2023. In addition to the FanDuel Racing Pacific Classic, he took the G1 Clement Hirsch with Adair Manor and the Runhappy Del Mar Futurity with Prince of Monaco. He scored in five other graded stakes races and 11 stakes total to bring his all-time leading number of stakes victories at Del Mar to 168.
- Became Del Mar's all-time winningest trainer in 2017. His 624 wins in 35 years of training at Del Mar continues to be an all-time high among conditioners.
- Pulled off a rare feat in racing when two of his horses dead heated for the win in the 2023 Shared Belief. Mr. Fisk and Tahoe Sunrise could not be separated by the photo at the end of the one mile race. It was actually the second time Baffert has been involved in a dead heat at Del Mar. In 1992, two of Baffert's horses, Wheeler Oil and Boss Soss, hit the wire together in the De Anza Stakes.
- Tied for the top spot in the trainers' standings for the 2022 summer Meet, his first trainer's title at Del Mar since 2003. In the second to last race on closing day, Cave Rock won the G1 Futurity, lifting his conditioner into a tie with Philip D'Amato with 19 victories.

- Won his record seventh Kentucky Derby with hard-trying Medina Spirit in 2021, but the horse was disqualified by the Kentucky Racing Commission due to a drug positive. The KRC's decision came two months after Medina Spirit died suddenly at Santa Anita. Results of a necropsy were inconclusive as to the cause of death.
- Previously Baffert won the Run for the Roses with Authentic (2020), Justify (2018), American Pharoah (2015), Warm Emblem (2002), Real Quiet (1998) and Silver Charm (1997).
- Master trainer pulled off his second Triple Crown classic in 2018 with the undefeated Justify, whose dash through the Kentucky Derby, Preakness and Belmont under Mike Smith was a front-running thing of beauty. Late-blooming colt was a perfect six-for-six and a winner of more than $3.7 million before being retired to Ashford Stud. Keyed by Justify, 2018 was Baffert's second-best year ever for earnings at $17 million plus, exceeded only by his earnings in 2017 - $21 million plus. Justify will be inducted into the Racing Hall of Fame in August.
- Previously, Baffert won the Triple Crown with American Pharoah in 2015, breaking a 37-year dry spell (Affirmed in 1978) on the Triple front. "Pharoah" won the Del Mar Futurity as a 2-year-old en route to becoming 2014 2-year-old male champion. Mercurial colt won seven of eight starts as a 3-year-old, climaxed by a front-running score in the Breeders' Cup Classic to push his bankroll past the $8.6-million mark and sew up both 3-year-old and Horse of the Year honors.
- Trainer joined the legendary "Sunny Jim" Fitzsimmons (Gallant Fox 1930 and Omaha 1935) as the only conditioners to win two Triple Crowns. Justify's tour de force marked the fifth time the trainer had tried to take the Crown, losing in the final leg three times with Silver Charm in 1997, Real Quiet in 1998 and War Emblem in 2002. The first two finished second in the Belmont, the third was eighth.
- Baffert also can claim to having won most Triple Crown races, winning number 18 in the 2023 Preakness with National Treasure. He has triumphed in seven Derbies, eight Preaknesses and three Belmonts.
- Witty, white-haired conditioner – surely the sport's most recognizable face -- wrote yet another amazing chapter in his incredible career with his development of the brilliant Arrogate, who, in a span of eight months, became North America's all-time richest racehorse with earnings of $17,422,600 by sweeping four Grade I events - the Travers Stakes by 13 1/2 lengths in track record time after a Del Mar prep race; an upset of California

- Chrome in the Breeders' Cup Classic; the inaugural $12 million Pegasus World Cup Invitational in January 2017 and arguably his greatest race in the $10 million Dubai World Cup. Breaking last and falling far back, Arrogate put together a spectacular rally to score going away under Mike Smith. Unfortunately, the horse, who just had begun a stud career at Juddmont Farms in Kentucky, died of an illness that caused him to be put down in June, 2020.
- Conditioner's resume includes 21 Eclipse Award champions who have won 29 titles: Chilukki, Point Given (2), Real Quiet, Silverbulletday (2), Silver Charm, Vindication, War Emblem, Indian Blessing (2), Midnight Lute, Midshipman, Lookin At Lucky (2), American Pharoah (3), Drefong, Arrogate, West Coast, Abel Tasman, Game Winner, Justify (2), Gamine and Authentic (2), Corniche.
- He added Speedway Stables' Corniche to his list of champions in 2022 when the son of Quality Road won the Eclipse Award for top 2-year old male. The colt won the first three races of his career in 2021, his maiden race at Del Mar in September followed by victories in the G1 American Pharoah at Santa Anita and then a dominating performance in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile at Del Mar.
- When Baffert entered HOF in 2009, he was joined by his trainee Silverbulletday, owned and raced by chief client Mike Pegram, as the honoree in the female horse category.
- Has won four Eclipse Awards as nation's outstanding trainer – 1997, '98, '99 and 2015.
- At the end of 2023, he had won 3,357 races and more than $349 million in purses. The purse money is third-most all time among conditioners.
- Won the 3,000th race of his career on February 1, 2020 at Santa Anita with a horse named Thousand Words in the Robert B. Lewis Stakes. Lewis was a client of Baffert's who most famously raced the star Silver Charm.
- Baffert has dominated the Del Mar Futurity with a remarkable 18 victories including 2023's edition with Prince of Monaco. At one stretch, won seven in a row – 1996-2002. He's won the last three years, taking the 2022 race with Cave Rock and winning in 2021 with Pinehurst, a colt that would go on to win the $1.5 million Saudi Derby in 2022. Baffert also won the Futurity in 2018 with Game Winner, later acclaimed champion 2-year-old.
- Established a one-season record for stakes wins at Del Mar with 13 in 2000.
- Among his many stakes tallies at Del Mar are seven Pacific Classics — General Challenge in 1999, Richard's Kid (2009 and 2010), Game On Dude (2013), Collected (2017), Maximum Security (2020) and Arabian Knight (2023).

- Among his victories in races worth at least $1 million are American Pharoah's Arkansas Derby, the Triple Crown sweep and Breeders' Cup Classic, as well as Santa Anita Derby, twice; Haskell Invitational, seven times; Hollywood Gold Cup, Jockey Club Gold Cup, Santa Anita Handicap, Travers Stakes, three Dubai World Cups, Pegasus World Cup and 18 Breeders' Cup wins
- His Preakness winner, National Treasure, won the 2024 Pegasus World Cup at Gulfstream Park. His talented colt Muth captured the 2024 Arkansas Derby.
- Won the Dubai World Cup for the fourth time in 2022 when Country Grammar ran down Life Is Good to win the $12-million race. He's won previously with Silver Charm in 1998, Captain Steve in 2001 and Arrogate in 2017. Silver Charm's career earnings were $6.9 million; Captain Steve's $6.8 million. Silver Charm went into Hall of Fame in 2007.
- Breeders' Cup victories – 18 -- Five wins in the Sprint, Thirty SLEWS (1992), Midnight Lute (2007, 2008), Secret Circle (2013) and Drefong (2016); two in the Juvenile Fillies, Silverbulletday (1998) and Indian Blessing (2007); five in the Juvenile, Corniche (2021), Vindication (2002), Midshipman (2008), New Year's Day (2013) and Game Winner (2018); Juvenile Sprint once, Secret Circle (2011); Filly & Mare Sprint once Gamine (2020) and Classic four times - Bayern (2014), American Pharoah (2015), Arrogate (2016) and Authentic (2020).
- His heart attack in Dubai in 2012 while training Game On Dude for the $6-million World Cup was a scary, though temporary, setback from which he recovered well. Returned to Dubai for the first time since 2012 to win the World Cup with Arrogate in 2017.
- Won seven straight trainer titles at Del Mar, 1997-2003, and has won 30 titles overall on the Southern California circuit.
- Began career as Quarter Horse trainer. Had world champion Gold Coast Express in 1986.
- Graduate of University of Arizona's Racetrack Industry Program in 1977, began training handful of Thoroughbreds in 1988; went full time in '91.
- Credits much of his success to main client, Mike Pegram, who urged him to make the switch to Thoroughbreds.
- Grew up on family cattle/chicken ranch in Nogales that parents, Bill and Ellie Baffert, bought four months before Bob was born.
- Got started at age 12 by grooming and galloping his father's Quarter Horses.
- First Thoroughbred bought at public auction was Thirty SLEWS in 1988. The $30,000 purchase, owned in part by Pegram, won the 1992 Breeders' Cup Sprint.

- Family: Wife, Jill; one son; three sons and daughter from prior marriage.

- Returned to training in December, 2023 after a one-year suspension for race-day supplements.
- After two decades worth of "lean years," hard-working trainer began a successful run with one of the top stables on the Southern California circuit. Outfit won $3.7 million in purses in 2015; $4.6 million in 2016; $4.9 million in 2017; $5.5 million in 2018; all-time best of $7.3 million in 2019; $5.1 million in 2020, and $5.3 million in 2021.
- He's put seven Grade I feathers in his cap with millionaire Next Shares, Big Macher, Lady Prancealot, Secret Spice, Spanish Queen, Idol, and Going to Vegas.
- He notched two graded stakes wins at Del Mar in 2021 with Ginobili in the G2 Pat O'Brien and Going to Vegas in the G2 John C. Mabee. Also won the Osunitas Stakes with Ippodamia's Girl.
- Currently has four major stakes winners in his barn: Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile runner-up, Ginobili; multiple-stakes winner Going to Vegas who, by the end of 2021, had banked in excess of $634,151; 2021 San Francisco Mile winner Whisper Not, and the ultra-tough Bob And Jackie.
- His family moved to Huntington Beach, CA when he was nine; he graduated from Marina High School in 1979.
- Attended the races with his father as a child and fell in love with it early. When he turned 21 he thought he wanted to break into the industry but didn't know how so he started with a move to Lexington, KY in 1983.
- In 1984, Baltas attended the Kentucky Equine Institute in Lexington and began working at Spendthrift Farm where Triple Crown winners Seattle Slew and Affirmed were stationed. He rubbed yearlings and started working as a groom while he was there learning the business "from the ground up."
- Worked for trainers Tom Skiffington, Eric Guillot, Barry

Abrams, Craig Dollase and Hall of Famer Richard Mandella.

- Took out his trainer's license in 1991 and won his first race at Hollywood Park with Latchburn.
- Registered his first stakes victory with Freedom Crest, a former claimer in the Grade II San Pasqual Handicap at Santa Anita in 2001. Baltas had haltered Freedom Crest out of a $32,000 maiden claimer in June 1999 and he went on to win the Grade II Goodwood Breeders' Cup Handicap (where he beat 2000 Horse of the Year Tiznow) en route to banking more than $600,000 for conditioner.
- Made another nifty claim – this one for only $20,000 -- in Big Macher. The Beau Genius gelding was haltered out of his first start in July 2013 at Del Mar and was a running machine thereafter, winning eight races and nearly three-quarters of a million dollars over four seasons at the track. Trainer registered his initial Grade I victory with him at Del Mar in July 2014 when he captured the Bing Crosby Handicap.
- Big Macher's success as a sprinter afforded Baltas the opportunity to travel to Dubai in 2014 to race in the Group I, $2 million Golden Shaheen at Meydan Racecourse during the Dubai World Cup (he finished fifth after missing the break). "He was nothing but a blessing," said Baltas. "I'd never been out of the country. Horses can take you all over the world. It's an amazing sport."
- Among his other stakes winners are Flashy Ways, Wild in the Saddle and Free Rose, who was acclaimed Del Mar's best 3-year-old in 2016 after winning the La Jolla Handicap and Del Mar Derby. Also sent out Mokat to win the 2016 San Clemente Handicap, then won that same race with Madam Dancealot in 2017.
- Has 20 stakes wins at Del Mar.
- Is married to Debby Baltas, whose family ran the backside track kitchen at Hollywood Park for many years until it closed in 2013.

Librado Barocio

Born: June 20, 1964
Richmond, California

Reside: Culver City, California

- Had a banner year in 2023. He won $1,274,670 in earnings, far exceeding his previous high of $574,410 in 2021. His 24 victories were more than in any other year of his career and his 178 starts more than doubled his previous high.
- Won his first graded stake with Visually in the G3 Senorita at Santa Anita in May (2024).
- Won his first stakes race at Del Mar during the 2021 Fall meet when longshot Principe Carlo nosed out Positivity in the Cary Grant. The Cal-bred would go on to run second to Cezanne in the 2022 G2 San Carlos at Santa Anita.
- Learned the ropes from the late trainer Julio Canani. He took out his trainer's license in 1998 and has been training horses on-and-off since. When he's not training horses, he's directing and producing movies.
- His all-time top money earner remains Is It True Mex, by Is It True. Primarily a claimer, the gelding raced from 1998 to 2005 and earned $386,895, $219,355 of which while under Barocio's care.
- A graduate of the UCLA film school in 1987, he's worked with the likes of actors Kevin Hart, John Travolta, Nicholas Cage and Jamie Foxx. He heads the motion picture production company New Latin Cinema Productions out of Culver City.
- He's directed and produced the films "The Boyz Klub," "The USS Indianapolis," and "Speed Kills."
- A native of the Northern California community of Richmond.
- Likes to work with the older, veteran horses such as Angelcents, a daughter of Goldencents, who returned from a one year layoff in 2021 and won five of her first six races, including an allowance at Del Mar.
- His latest project is the 7-year-old gelding Johnny Podres, who captured a pair of stake races at Santa Anita this spring. Named after the former major league pitcher who won World Series games for the Brooklyn and Los Angeles Dodgers and started and won the second major league game ever for the expansion San Diego Padres in 1969.
- Calls his racing stable the Mia Familia Racing Stable, meaning "my family" in Spanish.
- Family: Wife Christine, two daughters, one son.

- Posted the best numbers of his 13-year training career when he won 18 races and $947,298 in earnings in 2023, led by the talented speedster, Straight No Chaser who won the G3 Maryland Sprint at Pimlico on Preakness Day.
- Developed a love for horses at a very young age, dating back to when he saw his very first horse as a 4-year-old in Oxford, England. Rode competitively as a teenager before attending college at Edinburgh University where he majored in environmental geoscience with aspirations of working in the oil and gas industry.
- While at Edinburgh, he and two other fellow classmates rode horses for trainer Peter Montieth as a way to make some extra cash. He credits Montieth with being “so influential” in his decision to become a trainer.
- After he graduated, he was accepted to the Godolphin Flying Start program in 2005. As part of the curriculum, he got to travel around the world and spent time in the U.S. That’s when he experienced his first Kentucky Derby and watched Barbero win the Run for the Roses in 2006. He was also assigned to work in the barn of Hall of Fame trainer, Richard Mandella. After three months with Mandella he says he was hooked on American horse racing.
- He also spent time with Australian trainer David Hayes and English trainer Jeremy Nosada. But when the two years at Flying Start were up, he returned to Mandella’s barn as an assistant.
- Father is a renown equine sculptor following a successful career as an accomplished steeplechase rider in England. His sculpture of Northern Dancer stands at Woodbine Racecourse in Toronto, Canada.
- Took out his California training license in 2011. His friend, Jamie Lloyd was leaving training and offered his stable to the fledgling conditioner. He had all of two horses in his barn.
- Won his first graded stakes race with Hit the Road in the 2021 G3 Thunder Road at Santa Anita. Next out Hit the Road gave him his first Grade I victory in the Kilroe Mile.

- Family: Married to FanDuel TV host, Christina Blacker. They have three daughters.

- Scored in two stakes during the 2023 Del Mar summer meet, capturing the Graduation Stakes with Lord Prancelot and then the Generous Portion with Crazy Hot.
- Northern California bred, born and based conditioner has been splitting his time between the Bay Area and Southern California since 1996
- Had his best career year, in terms of earnings, in 2013 with more than $3.2 million in purses. Leading the way was the speedy filly She’s a Tiger, who won the Grade I Del Mar Debutante and crossed the finish line first in the Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies only to be disqualified for causing interference. She became the trainer’s first champion taking home the Eclipse Award as top 2-year-old filly.
- Before her came another “Tiger,” this one named Smiling Tiger. Extra fast son of the Storm Cat sire Hold That Tiger won seven sprint stakes, including a trio of Grade I’s – Bing Crosby, Ancient Title, Triple Bend – and finished up with more than $1.4 million in earnings. He’s now considered one the top California stallions in the state, residing at Harris Farms in Coalinga.
- Bonde has developed a knack with young horses, many purchased for bargain prices. Usually has around 60 or so horses in training.
- Hails from a horse background: Grandfather Duke Bonde, Sr. was a trainer, while his father, Duke, Jr. was a Hall of Fame farrier, uncle Bob Dupont and brother Gary were also farriers. Gary also serves as his assistant with his Northern California string.
- Jeff came to racing at age 15 and learned under Bay Area conditioners Emmett Campbell, Don Jeffries, Tex Johnson and Jerry Dutton.
- Began training on his own in 1974 and saddled his first winner at the Stockton Fair that year.

- Smiling Tiger was Bonde's second Breeders' Cup starter when he ran third in the BC Sprint in 2010 at Churchill Downs. He previously saddled 2-year-old filly Spain to run fourth in the 1999 BC Juvenile Fillies. (Spain later was transferred to D. Wayne Lukas and went on to win the Breeders' Cup Distaff.)
- Trainer also had a pair of Triple Crown colts in 2011 in Sunland Derby winner Twice the Appeal, who finished 10th in the Kentucky Derby, and Sway Away, 12th in the Preakness Stakes.
- Has saddled 18 stakes winners at Del Mar, including back-to-back CTBA Stakes wins with Sterling Cat in 2004 and Devons Smokin in 2005. Won a trio of Del Mar stakes with Miss Sunset (Generous Portion in 2016, Fleet Treat and CERF in 2017) and a pair in 2017 with Bookies Luck (I'm Smokin and Golden State Juvenile).
- Other major winners: Cambina, Sierra Sunset, Untouched Talent, Sierra Sweetie, Epic Honor, General Royal and Mr. Doubledown.
- Was named C.T.B.A Trainer of the Year in 2017
- He has won over $49 million in purses over his career.
- Family: Wife Stephanie; five sons; one daughter.

- Brit is now in his 14th year of training on his own in the U.S., working from his Southern California base.
- He had his first big year in 2015 with a stable headed by Firing Line, winner of the Sunland Derby and runner-up to American Pharoah in the Kentucky Derby.
- Followed that up in 2017 by winning more than $2.8-million in purses led by Grade I stakes winners Moonshine Memories and American Gal.
- All told, he's saddled eight Grade I winners, including millionaire Taris, Dubawi Heights, Fashion Plate, Byrama and the speedy filly Bellafina who won seven races, all stakes, and more than $1.6 million before being retired in 2020 due to a minor injury on the eve of her start in the Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Sprint at Keeneland.
- His eighth Grade 1 came with his steady gray mare

Maxim Rate, who clicked in the Gamely at Santa Anita in 2021. She won four stakes and over $600,000 racing on grass only.

- Trainer grabbed a second in the 2019 BC Juvenile Fillies with Donna Veloce as he finished his best year for earnings with more than $2.9 million.
- Callaghan grew up in the racing hub of Newmarket in England where his father, Neville, trained for about 25 years. He first worked with his father, then spent most of his teenage years learning under the well-known British trainer Richard Hannon.
- While in a return tour at his father's yard, young Callaghan spent two fall and winter seasons with leading U.S. conditioner Todd Pletcher. He began training on his own in England at age 24.
- Made his move to the U.S. in 2010 with horses owned by his father, Michael Tabor, Ben Sangster, Derrick Smith and Mrs. John Magnier. Has become major trainer for major owner Kaleem Shah, whose silks flew on Bellafina and Donna Volce.
- Called the shots for filly Abel Tasman into her early 3-year-old year in 2017 before she was moved to a different barn. Quality Road miss went on to be 3-year-old filly champ.
- Has won U.S. stakes with Qaraaba, Belle Royale, Turning Top, Treasuring and Beau Recall, all European imports.
- Is a 17-time stakes winner at Del Mar, notching three in 2021 including Madone in the G2 San Clemente.
- Family: Single.

- Consistency is trainer's hallmark with the stable exceeding $1 million in earnings 10 different times. His best years were 2004 - $2,580,222 and 2014 - $2,353,389.
- Victory in the $1 million Delta Jackpot in Louisiana with Ocho Ocho Ocho topped off a good 2014. That colt finished 14th in the 2015 Kentucky Derby following a third-place finish in Keeneland's Blue Grass Stakes and won more than $800,000.

- Trainer's other star in 2014 was Tom's Tribute, who won both Del Mar's Grade I Eddie Read Stakes and the Grade II Del Mar Mile.
- Has trained four million-dollar-plus earners: The Usual Q.T. ($1.5 million-plus), Moscow Burning ($1.3 million-plus), Ticker Tape ($1.3 million-plus) and Evening Jewel ($1.2 million-plus).
- Saddled winners of two of Del Mar's Grade I stakes in 2010, sending The Usual Q.T. to victory in the Eddie Read and Evening Jewel in the Del Mar Oaks.
- His 2010 was highlighted by California-bred Horse of the Year Evening Jewel. Three-year-old filly's campaign included victory in Ashland Stakes, nose loss to Blind Luck in Kentucky Oaks and consecutive wins in the Honeymoon Handicap at Hollywood Park, San Clemente and Del Mar Oaks.
- California breeders named him state's top trainer for 2010.
- Had his best year for winners in 2009 with 33, including six straight — the last four in stakes — with The Usual Q.T. Among horse's wins was the Grade I Hollywood Derby. Was named California's top older horse and top grass runner in 2010.
- Trainer has been extremely successful with runners purchased in Europe, mostly in England. Examples of that are multiple-stakes winner Prize Exhibit and Grade I victress Sophie P.
- Saddled two other starters in Kentucky Derby — Jamaican Rum, sixth in 2001 and Ocean Sound, 17th in 2002.
- Has won 17 stakes races at Del Mar.
- Coming into 2023, the Equibase numbers say he's won 439 races and more than $30 million in purses during his career.
- Though born in the Bronx and a New York Yankees fan, grew up on a horse farm and became a racing fan.
- First experience came with hunters and jumpers. First job on the racetrack was with trainer Joe Cantey and then Frank Whiteley in the east. While working with Whiteley, the star filly Ruffian was stable's big horse.
- Moved to Southern California in 1981 and was an assistant to both Darrell Vienna and Brian Mayberry, then for a veterinarian for nine years before opening his own stable.
- Former president of California Thoroughbred Trainers.

- Kept alive his impressive string of consecutive training titles at Del Mar in 2023, winning both the summer and fall meet titles for the second year in a row. He edged fellow conditioner Bob Baffert by one victory during the summer, making 21 trips to the winner's circle. Came back in the fall and dominated, winning the trainers championship 14-to-8. He has won five straight titles at the seaside oval starting with the Fall meet in 2021.
- Compiled the second most earnings in a given year of his career, winning over $10 million in 2023. It was led by the Irish-bred Gold Phoenix, who won the G1 Kilroe Mile at Santa Anita and two Grade 2 races at Del Mar, the Del Mar Handicap and the Eddie Read. He also trained Macadamia to a victory in the G1 Gamely and Conclude to a win in the G2 Del Mar Derby.
- In all, he won 21 graded stakes in 2023, six at Del Mar including the G2 Seabiscuit with Easter, the G3 Green Flash with Motorious and the G3 Jimmy Durante with Zona Verde.
- He won a total of 10 stakes races at Del Mar in 2023, climbing into seventh place all-time among trainers at the seaside oval with 54.
- All of his graded stakes victories at Del Mar in 2023 came on the grass. His dominance on the turf was never more evident than in the G2 Eddie Read when his four entries finished 1-2-3-4. He nearly pulled off the feat again in the fall when he saddled the top three finishers in the G2 Seabiscuit.

- On any given Sunday at Del Mar, the only time horses are allowed to train on the Jimmy Durante turf course, he has been known to bring over 15 horses to train in the morning.
- Had his first Kentucky Derby horse in 2024. Stronghold won the G3 Sunland Derby then waltzed off with the G1 Santa Anita Derby, punching his ticket to Louisville. Ridden by Antonio Fresu, the son of Ghostzapper finished seventh on the first Saturday in May.
- Started his run of training titles in 2021's fall meet when he finished four victories better than runner-up Bob Baffert. His 15 wins included victories in the G1 Hollywood Cup Turf with Say the Word and the G2 Goldikova with Going Global, an Irish-bred filly that also captured the G1 Del Mar Oaks during the summer meet.
- He shared the 2022 Summer meet training title with Baffert. The two tallied 19 winners a piece. He won four Grade 2's during the meet including a pair on Pacific Classic Day with Hong Kong Harry in the Del Mar Mile and Gold Phoenix in the Del Mar Handicap. He also won with Going Global in the Yellow Ribbon and Bellabel in the San Clemente.
- His 19 victories were more than enough to clinch and defend his title during the 2022 Fall meet, 11 more than runner-up Baffert. He added two more Grade 2 victories with Hong Kong Harry in the Seabiscuit Handicap and Prince Abama in the Hollywood Turf Cup.
- He has become the go-to trainer for Irish-breds coming over to America. All six of his graded stakes victories at Del Mar in 2022 were with horses bred in Ireland.
- His earnings of $11,954,300 in 2022 ranked 8th in the nation and set a career high. He was the only trainer to exceed $1 million in earnings during the Fall meet at Del Mar.
- His success isn't confined to Del Mar. He won the winter/spring (Classic) meet training title at Santa Anita three years running until 2024 when he was beaten by Doug O'Neill.
- C.T.B.A.'s Trainer of the Year in 2018 when his stable earned $6 million, his accomplished sprinter Ransom the Moon won the Grade I Bing Crosby Stakes for the second year in a row and his other stakes winners in the barn that year were Grade I aces Fault and Bowies Hero, as well as S Y Sky, Just Grazed Me and Hunt.
- Took over operation of the Mike Mitchell stable in April 2014 after serving as assistant to his retiring mentor for 10 years.
- Mitchell, who died in April of 2015, was Del Mar's all-time leading trainer with 476 wins and had praised D'Amato on numerous occasions for his loyalty, work ethic and capabilities.
- Had a breakout season at Del Mar in '14, posting four stakes victories, including Del Mar Handicap with Big John B and Del Mar Derby with Midnight Storm. Big John B came back in 2015 to take the Cougar II Handicap and repeat in the Del Mar Handicap. Midnight Storm would go on to win four other Del Mar stakes making him one of only four horses to win five stakes at Del Mar. He's now a stallion at Taylor Made Farm in Kentucky.
- In 2015 he got the Irish speedster Obviously over the hump when he saddled him to win the Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint in his fifth try in the race.
- Stable has put up earnings of at least $5 million in eight of the past nine years with a run of five years in a row from 2015 to 2019.
- Southern California native D'Amato came to the Mitchell barn after four years working with trainer Chuck Simon in the east and Midwest. He says he was exposed to training methods of Hall of Famer Allen Jerkens through Simon.
- D'Amato cites all he learned through his time with Mitchell, too.
- He's a graduate of the University of Southern California with a major in political science and a minor, he says, in race-tracking. He also earned a degree in animal science from the University of Arizona Racetrack Industry Program.
- Grew up in the San Pedro area and his immediate family still lives there or in nearby Pacific Palisades.
- Scored first graded stakes victory when Obviously captured the Grade III American Handicap at Santa Anita in 2014. Speedy gelding followed that up by giving D'Amato his first Grade I triumph in the Shoemaker Mile that June at Santa Anita. Obviously also won the Del Mar Mile in 2012 and 2013.
- Trainer put an exclamation point on his first full meet at Santa Anita when he closed out his initial spring/summer stand by saddling four winners on the final program of the 2014 session.
- Was leading trainer at the 2016 Santa Anita spring-summer season, his first title on the Southern California circuit, and won the Del Mar summer crown that same year with 23 victories.
- Was Del Mar's top trainer again in summer of 2017 in a tie with Richard Baltas.
- Has won the Del Mar Handicap eight times and four in a row with Hunt (2017), Fashion Business (2018), Acclimate (2019) and Red King (2020).
- His stepdaughter, Jessica Pyfer, won the Eclipse Award for top apprentice jockey in 2021.
- Family: Wife Sherri; one daughter, one son.

- Enjoyed noteworthy success with his hard-knocking warhorse Awesome Gem, who was retired in September 2012 at age 9. The son of Awesome Again spent his career with Dollase, posting a record of 11 victories, 15 seconds and seven thirds from 52 career starts, good for earnings of $2,881,370.
- Entering 2024, he had over $37-million in earnings over his 28 year career.
- Had his best earnings record in 2007 (more than $3.3 million), headlined by stakes victories by Awesome Gem, Dancing Edie, Monterey Jazz, P.S.U. Grad, Treadmill, Bai and Bai and Ten a Penny.
- Monterey Jazz won the Strub Stakes and the Texas Mile for him in 2008, then the American Handicap in 2009. Another stakes winner at the same time was El Gato Malo.
- Also won 11 races and more than $700,000 with the hard-trying Cal-bred mare Bai and Bai.
- Youngest trainer, at 27, to win a Breeders' Cup championship day title when Reraise won the 1998 Sprint and was awarded an Eclipse as the nation's top sprinter.
- In 1998 won Hollywood Park's spring/summer training title with 19 victories in 38 starts. Scored first stakes win at Del Mar that year when Daring General triumphed in Graduation Stakes for 2-year-old Cal-breds.
- One of his earliest thrills came from the victory in the 1997 Vernon Underwood Stakes by the former $12,500 claimer Tower Full, trainer's first stakes tally.
- Had good success with multiple stakes winner Futural in 2001 and picked up a major win in 2002 when he shipped Swept Overboard east to win the prestigious Metropolitan Handicap.
- Developed major stakes winner Elloluv, winner of Hollywood Starlet in 2002 and Keeneland's Ashland Stakes in 2003; finished fourth in 2003 Kentucky Oaks.
- Spurred on by Dancing Edie, winner of Del Mar's Grade I John C. Mabee Handicap, and Grade I Oak Leaf winner Cash Included, trainer posted purse money of $2.5 million in 2006.

- Among other major winners: El Cielo, Major Charmer, Road to Slew, Momentum, Abbey Girl, Reality Road, Saint's Honor, Walk In Time, PT's Grey Eagle, Anziyan Royalty and Saint Afleet.
- Has 12 stakes wins at Del Mar including 2021's California Dreamin' Stakes with Brandothebartender, an 8-year old gelding who has since been retired and spends his days with Awesome Gem at the Old Friends Equine Retirement facility in Georgetown, Ky.
- Craig was assistant to his late father, Wallace, for several years before going on his own in the fall of 1997.

- Took out his training license at the age of 20 in 1980. First winner, To B. Or Not, became a multiple-stakes winner.
- Trained outstanding race mares Twice the Vice and Exotic Wood to Grade I victories and multiple-stakes wins during their careers.
- Trainee Pirate's Revenge scored major upset by defeating champion Paseana in 1995 Milady Handicap at Hollywood Park.
- Has 20 stakes victories at Del Mar, including the 2004 Del Mar Futurity with gelding Declan's Moon, who went on to win the Hollywood Futurity and the Eclipse Award as the nation's top juvenile. In 2016, sent out Magic Market to win a division of the Harry F. Brubaker and won the Pat O'Brien Stakes with speedy Masochistic.

- Saddled Rail Trip to victories in the Mervyn LeRoy and Californian at Hollywood Park in 2010 following an unlucky third in the 2009 Pacific Classic. After an extended period in the east with another trainer, Rail Trip returned to Ellis' barn in 2012, winning the San Diego Handicap and placing second in the Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile.
- For major client at the time, the late B. Wayne Hughes, saddled Atswhatimtalknabout to fourth-place finish to Funny Cide in 2003 Kentucky Derby.
- In 2005, the Hughes-Ellis team went back to Churchill Downs to win the Derby Trial with Don't Get Mad; ran back the next week to finish fourth to Giacomo in the "Run for the Roses." Colt went on to win Indiana Derby.
- Unearthed another top female in stakes star Include Me Out, a winner of four graded stakes and more than $800,000 during 2012.
- Among his other stakes horses: Mr Gruff, Vision in Gold, Buzzards Bay, Benchmark, Lexa, Que Belle, I Ain't Bluffing, Glass Ceiling, Denim Yenem, Key Phrase, Pharma and Shake the Yoke.
- Has done TV gigs over the years as a racing analyst for TVG.
- Two brothers-in-law are active in racing, Paul McGee, a well-known trainer based at Churchill Downs, and Marty McGee, longtime writer for Daily Racing Form who retired following the 2023 Kentucky Derby to become jockey agent for Joe Talamo.

- Had a blockbuster 2023, posting the most wins in a given year in his 39-year career with 56, 21 of them coming at Del Mar. His 6-year old son of Twirling Candy, Exaulted, won four straight races including the G1 Shoemaker Mile and the G3 American Stakes before ending his 2023 campaign finishing second to Du Jour in the G2

Del Mar Mile.

- His earnings for 2023 of over $3.3 million was the second best of his career, trailing only his output in 2016 when he exceeded over $4.2 million.
- He finished fifth in the trainers standings during the summer meet at Del Mar and compiled over a million dollars in earnings.
- Trainer finally sent distance- and grass-loving Ashleyuvssugar home in 2020 after 9-year-old Cal-bred gelding won 10 races, six stakes and more than $1.4 million in purses. Hard-trying old warrior had danced 38 dances, the majority of them against stakes company.
- Won more than $1 million with Champagne Room ($1.4), Giant Expectations ($1.3) and Storm the Court ($1.2) who pulled off a nifty upset in the 2019 Breeders' Cup Juvenile, paying $93.80, the longest price in the race's history.
- Called many of the shots for stretch-running sprinter Kobe's Back, a five-time winner for more than $1.1 million.
- Trainer did well in 2014 with promising Dance With Fate, winner of Keeneland's Blue Grass Stakes, then sixth in the Kentucky Derby. Unfortunately, he was severely injured in a freak training accident and had to be euthanized in July of 2014.
- Clicked in major stakes with Core Beliefs and Draft Pick. Won the 2021 G3 Remington Park Oaks with Lady Mystify.
- Captured black-type races with a quartet of fillies: My Gi Gi was retired in 2014 after winning or placing in eight of 18 races and earning $334,290; She's Cheeky won more than $430,000; took Madame Cactus to Keeneland in 2013 to capture GII Lexus Raven Run, and Sheza Smoke Show became a stakes winner at Santa Anita in the GIII Senorita in 2014.
- Had best season for purse earnings ($4,235,430) in 2016. His stable has won at least $1 million in purses for 13 straight years.
- Got rolling in 2011 with 2-year-old filly Weemissfrankie, who won the Del Mar Debutante and the Oak Leaf, both Grade I events. Was undefeated going into Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies, where she finished third.
- Trainer puts together a budget prior to going to sales and tries to stay within the boundaries. Weemissfrankie was outside the budget when he went to $175,000 to buy her. She was the stalwart of the stable made up of partners Sharon Alesia, the widow of Frank Alesia, Bran Jam Stable (Mike Mellen) and Joe Ciaglia, as well as minority partners Rob Dyrdek and Nick Cosato.
- Met Frank Alesia at age 18 and began conditioning horses for him in 1989. Eurton entered the business as a jockey at age 19; rode for 2 1/2 years - at Agua Caliente in Tijuana, in Canada at Edmonton and Calgary, then at Bay Meadows and Golden Gate Fields.

- Went to races with father, Wayne, when he was about 10 and because of his size and encouragement from his father, he decided to try riding. Attended Rex Ellsworth's jockey school in Chino, CA.
- His mother, Shirley, remarried and stepfather was trainer Steve Ippolito, for whom he exercised horses when weight issues ended his jockey career.
- Ippolito encouraged him to become a trainer. Took out his license in 1985 and saddled his first winner, Mah Jong, late that year.
- For several years, trained mostly claimers, but moved into buying horses and developing them. Among early purchases were Masterpiece and Star Nicholas, both of whom became stakes horses. Won the Golden State Juvenile Fillies with Pacific Heat at the Del Mar fall meet in 2015.
- Made what's believed to be Santa Anita history by saddling eight straight winners at the winter-spring meeting of 2012.
- Has 11 stakes wins at Del Mar including the 2023 G3 Cecille B. DeMille with Stay Hot.
- In addition to the 2016 Del Mar Handicap with Ashleyuvssugar, also won the Sorrento Stakes that year with Champagne Room, who went on to Eclipse Award honors after winning the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies in a 33-1 surprise.
- Family: Wife Lisa; one daughter, Britney, an on-air racing commentator with NBC.

- He served notice in the summer of 2023 at Del Mar when Senor Buscador closed with a furious rush and won the G2 San Diego Handicap. The son of Mineshaft wouldn't win another race in 2023 but he hit paydirt in February of 2024 when he won the richest race in the world, the $20 million Saudi Cup in Riyadh.

- Senor Buscador – as of 6/1/24 – has a record of 19-7-2-3 with winnings of $12,696,427, ninth best of all time.
- Prior to his breakout win in Saudi Arabia, Senor Buscador posted runner-up finishes in the G2 Cigar Mile at Aqueduct and the G1 Pegasus World Cup at Gulfstream Park. He would return after the Saudi Cup and run third in the Dubai World Cup.
- Senor Buscador was a Kentucky Derby contender in 2021 until an injury after the G2 Risen Star at Fair Grounds knocked him out of consideration. He missed an entire year of racing before returning in the summer of 2022. He would become the barn's first Breeders' Cup participant, winning the G3 Ack Ack, at Churchill Downs a "Win & You're In" for the Breeders' Cup. He ran eighth in the Dirt Mile.
- Fincher posted his best year in terms of earnings in 2023 with over $5.5 million exceeding his previous highwater mark from the year before ($4,488,273). The barn has won over a million dollars every year since 2009.
- Grew up in the racing business. His dad was a jockey who rode for 25-to-30 years. His mother was a trainer. The family moved from Colorado to New Mexico in 1985.
- Was a jockey for 10 years, starting when he was 16. He won over 900 races on Quarterhorses and Thoroughbreds but after a while he found he couldn't keep his weight down and turned to training.
- Built his operation from the ground up, beginning in 1998. It involves the selection of yearlings and 2-year-olds for his clients. He doesn't claim horses. He then trains them, giving them a good foundation.
- Won his first race as a trainer at Ruidoso Downs with Cool Barron in a $3,200 claimer in 1998.
- Had his best year in 2022, winning 104 races led by Graded Stakes victories in the G3 Ack Ack at Churchill Downs with Senor Buscador and the G2 Thoroughbred Club of America at Keeneland with Slammed, his first victory at Keeneland and it was a "Win & You're In" for the Breeders' Cup. The New Mexico-bred would go on to finish last of 12 in the Filly & Mare Sprint after setting the early pace.
- Slammed also won an allowance and finished second to Edgeway in the G3 Rancho Bernardo during the 2022 Del Mar summer meet.
- While expanding into Oklahoma, Kentucky and Texas, most of his success comes in New Mexico. He won the trainers title at Sunland Park four out of five seasons between 2018 and 2022. (Sunland didn't run in 2020 due to Covid).
- Scored his first graded stakes win at Sunland Park with Runaway Ghost who won the 2021 G3 Sunland Derby. The son of Ghostzapper would go on to win six of his eight races at Sunland, all stakes races, and eventually compile $783,509 in earnings.

- First came to Del Mar in 2018 and went oh-for-15 that summer but says he's lived and learned. "The first time I came here I just didn't bring the right type of horses. I've learned you don't come here unless you have the quality."
- Trained one of the more popular horses on the New Mexico circuit. Sheriff Brown raced 35 times and won 10, including the Sunland Park Handicap and the Downs at Albuquerque Handicap. He brought the son of Curlin out to Del Mar for the 2021 Pacific Classic and finished a respectable fourth. The 7-year-old gelding retired with over $600,000 in earnings.
- Had a day to remember at Sunland Park in February of 2023, winning six races including all four stakes races on the card.
- Family: Wife April; three sons.

• Riding on the success of her Cal-bred mare, Closing Remarks, she posted her best year, in regard to earnings, since 2009 compiling $2,115,634 in 2023, third best in her career that spans over three decades.
• Won her first graded stake in four years when Closing Remark captured the G2 Royal Heroine at Santa Anita. The daughter of Vronsky then went on to win three more Grade 2 stakes in 2023, the Yellow Ribbon and John C. Mabee at Del Mar and the Goldikova at Santa Anita the day after the Breeders' Cup. The grey mare ran three more times before being retired and sent back to Harris Farms where she was bred. She was named Cal-bred champion Older Female and Turf runner of 2023.
• Steady, low-key conditioner, now in her 36th year of training.
• Had a fine run with Bolo, a gelding she nursed along between 2014 and 2020 to make 23 starts, win six races

- four of them stakes – get a run in the Kentucky Derby (finishing 12th to American Pharoah in 2015), win the 2019 Grade I Whittingham despite a two-year layoff and come up just short of banking $1 million.
- Trainer did well with 3-year-old Cal-bred Gervinho, winner of an Oceanside Stakes division and runner-up in a division of the Del Mar Derby in 2013. Curlin's Fox provided Gaines with her 16th Del Mar stakes success when she won the Sandy Blue Handicap in 2015. Del Mar stakes No. 17 was with Texas Ryano in the Hollywood Turf Cup in 2016.
- Saddled Temple City (sire of Bolo) to victory in the 2010 Cougar II Handicap, commenting "I think I'm too old to be a cougar, but I won the Cougar and that's all I care about." Victory capped a three-win day, which equaled her previous best at Del Mar.
- Snared sweetest prize of career when 25-1 shot Dancing in Silks won by a whisker in the Breeders' Cup Sprint in 2009. Triumph pushed his bankroll to more than $1.4 million and helped Gaines earn $2,568,891 on the year, a close second to her top season of $2,572,360 in 2008.
- Dancing in Silks shared honors with Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint winner California Flag as the 2009 California Thoroughbred Breeders Association's "Horse of the Year."
- Saw her post a career equaling 42 victories in 2008, including eight stakes, led by ill-fated stable ace Nashoba's Key's win in the Grade I Santa Margarita. She also won 42 races in 2006.
- Nashoba's Key had gone undefeated in her first seven races before finishing fourth in the Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf in 2007. She was severely injured in a freak stable accident at Hollywood Park and had to be euthanized on May 28, 2008. Had eight victories and a second in 10 starts for earnings of more than $1.2 million.
- Did well with Foxysox, who rang up seven wins (six in stakes) and more than $700,000 in purses.
- Had good luck with multiple-stakes winner Tiz Elemental, who won five of 12 starts and nearly $500,000.
- In 2002, Super High posted four stakes victories, including the Solana Beach Handicap at Del Mar in which she set a stakes record of 1:33.65 for a mile on the turf. Later, won the California Cup Matron.
- Other top runners: Malibu Pier, Excessive Blend, Top Of Our Game, Lucky J.H., Spot the Diplomat, Image of Glory, Blending Element, Freeport Flight, Los Gatos and Closing Remarks, winner of the 2021 California Oaks at Santa Anita.
- First career victory came in 1989 with Glory Quest at Vallejo.

- Earned bachelor's and master's degrees in sociology and psychology from the University of Alabama and spent several years as a counselor of youths in rural Alabama, outside her hometown of Birmingham.
- Rode and showed hunters and jumpers in competition as a teenager.
- Got her first taste of training as she broke and trained yearlings for sales of 2-year-olds in training.
- Moved west in the mid-1980s, training horses at sales and working as an exercise rider. She then became assistant trainer in Northern California with several conditioners, including Mike Harte and Mark Cuoto.
- Took out her license in 1988 and trained in Northern California for seven years before heading to the Southern California circuit in 1996.

Affable Irishman is always ready with a smile and quick with a joke, though not necessarily good ones.

He's registered 12 stakes wins at Del Mar with the most recent coming in 2020 when he saddled Red Lark to capture the Grade I Del Mar Oaks. Naturally enough, she is an Irish-bred lassie.

Gallagher did well with stretch-running filly Magical Fantasy, who upset the Grade I Del Mar Oaks in 2008 and then won four stakes in 2009, including three Grade Is — the Gamely at Hollywood, the John C. Mabee at Del Mar and the Yellow Ribbon at Santa Anita. English-bred daughter of Diesis closed out her career with a fifth in the Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf to push her past the $1-million mark. Was sold to Japanese interests for $1.8 million.

Trainer had some luck in 2008 with Yankee Bravo, a stakes winner considered for the Kentucky Derby, who instead ran and went unplaced in the Preakness.

His Domestic Dispute finished 10th in the 2003 Kentucky Derby. Tried again in the Kentucky Derby in 2016 with the maiden Trojan Nation who earned his spot in the field with a narrow loss to Outwork in the Wood Memorial. Alas, Trojan Nation was 16th behind Nyquist in the Roses Run.

Registered his best season for purses in 2007, banking more than $3.1 million, led by stakes winners Valbenny, Hucking Hot, Leesider and Singalong.

Among his other stakes winners: French-bred millionaire Flamboyant; German-bred La Force; Walkslikeaduck, winner of Grade II Del Mar Derby in 2000; McCann's Mojave, 2005 Cal Cup Classic; Tucked Away, Grade II Clement L. Hirsch Handicap in 2005; Adminniestrator, Sunshine Millions Turf in 2003; Grandeur, Aggie Engineer, Three Degrees and Swiss Diva.

Involved in racing most of his life; competed as an amateur rider in Ireland and rode jumpers in his youth. His older brother, Jimmy, also rode in Ireland.

Worked at The Curragh for trainer Paddy Norris for several years and then worked for another trainer, Andy Geraghty, for a few seasons before coming to the United States in 1980.

On the staff at Earl Scheib's Green Thumb Farm in Southern California for a short time before returning briefly to Ireland. Soon came back to the U.S. and served as assistant to fellow Irishman John Sullivan from 1981 to 1990; then joined legendary Bill Shoemaker as his assistant.

Took over Shoemaker string in fall 1997 when "The Shoe" retired. While with Shoemaker, helped train stakes winners Diazo, Fire the Groom, Glen Kate and Fine 'n Majestic.

Heading into 2024, his Equibase numbers point to 684 winners and just over $37 million in purses for his career.

- For the third year in a row, he set a career mark in earnings with $4,908,292 in 2023, besting his previous highwater mark of $4,235,706 in 2022, which had topped his best of $3,794,974 in 2021.

- He also posted the most wins in a given year in his career with 78 in 2023, topping his previous high of 73 in 2019. He finished in the Top 10 in the trainers standings at Del Mar in both the summer and fall meets of 2023.
- Grew up on a farm in Auburn, Washington – about 30 miles south of Seattle. His father, Ron Glatt, was a racehorse trainer throughout the Northwest.
- Served as an assistant trainer for his father and other trainers in the Northwest growing up.
- Obtained his trainer's license immediately after graduating from Western Washington University at the age of 21 in 1994.
- Began training in his home state, then shifted his stable south to the Bay Area. In 2000, his client Plan B Stables (then run by the late Bill Bannasch and his wife Linear) coaxed him south again, this time to the Southern California circuit, which is where he's been ever since.
- Won his first stakes race with Northwest Storm in the Miss Yakima Handicap on March 28, 1994 at now-closed Yakima Meadows in Yakima, WA.
- Won his first graded stakes at another now-closed track, Bay Meadows in San Mateo, with Michigan Bluff in the Gr. III Hillsborough Handicap on October 14, 2000.
- Now in his 31st year of conditioning, his stable has banked at least $2 million in nine of the last 10 years.
- Won three graded stakes in 2022 including the G3 Red Carpet at Del Mar with Bellstreet Bridie, a filly he purchased in England and brought to Del Mar for her U.S. debut. He has won 14 stakes races at the seaside oval.
- In 2019 he made 73 trips to the winner's circle. Four of those were graded stakes, two with Law Abiding Citizen who won the G3 San Simeon and the G3 Longacres Mile.
- Nearly won his first Breeders' Cup race when his Dr. Schivel came within an eyelash of winning the 2021 Breeders' Cup Sprint at Del Mar only to get nailed on the wire by a surging Aloha West. The heartbreaking loss snapped the colt's five race win streak dating back to August of 2020 when he broke his maiden at Del Mar. The run included victories in the 2020 G1 Del Mar Futurity as a 2-year old and the 2021 G1 Bing Crosby and G2 Santa Anita Sprint Championship at age 3.
- He took another swing at the Breeders' Cup Sprint with Dr. Schivel in 2023 and finished seventh. The son of Violence was retired after the race with a 7-2-3 record from 15 starts and $1,347,100 in earnings.
- Named a member of the Thoroughbred Owners of California board of directors in July 2024. He is one of two trainers on the 14 member board.

- The conditioner won Del Mar's top sprint race, the G1 Bing Crosby, two years in a row, grabbing the 2020 edition with Collusion Illusion, a 5-year-old horse by Twirling Candy. Dr. Schivel won it the following year.
- He has shown an affinity to keep old class horses running. Examples are Sharp Samurai, who earned $1.1 million and raced at a high level into his 7-year-old season; Blackjackcat, a winner of nearly $600,000 who ran as a 6-year-old, and Law Abidin Citizen, who competed as an 8-year-old against stakes horses and compiled more than $600,000 in career earnings.
- Reba Is Tops, a hard-knocking mare who won 14 races competing between Seattle and Del Mar from 2007 to 2011, holds a special place in Glatt's memory bank. The Washington-bred was a multiple-stakes winner of more than $460,000
- Other stakes winners from his shedrow include Elusive Diva, Zashrany, Sunday Goer, Shay, Harvest Girl, Daunting, Italian Rules, Czechers, Leroy's Dynameaux, It Tiz, Pure Class, Boozer and Beer Can Man, winner of the 2020 G3 Cecil B. DeMille at Del Mar.
- Rang up victory # 1,000 of his career at Del Mar on 11/20/20 with Zestful.
- Family: Two sons, one daughter.

- Raised in Idaho, he's a fourth-generation horseman and was a licensed jockey at the age of 16. In the winters he would chariot race and was World Champion in 2006. His father and grandfather also won the prestigious honor.
- Was a leading rider in the inter-mountain region (Idaho, Colorado, Oregon). Soon after high school he grew too big to be a jockey and so he went to work as an assistant trainer in his father Jim's barn at Los Alamitos.
- In 2015 he went to work for trainer Robertino Diodoro and soon became Diodoro's Southern California assistant. When Diodoro left California in 2017, the young trainer decided to give it a go on his own and with one horse, a $12,500 claimer named True Ranger, he opened for business at Santa Anita.

- Has a real knack with teaching gate work to young and problem horses. He's also built a reputation for finding "diamonds in the rough." His most successful claims include AQHA World Champion distance horse Honoroso and multiple graded stakes winner Fall For It.
- In 2017 he only won one race, with Poshkey, a horse he co-owned with his father. By 2018 he began attracting outside clients like Chris Drakos, a fellow Idahoan who grew up just 15 minutes from the Hansons though the two never met.
- His best year to date is 2022 when he saddled 22 winners and earned over $1.3 million in purses, led by the longshot win by One More Bid in the G2 Mathis Mile at Santa Anita.
- Won his first stakes race in 2020 when Weston, a $7,000 purchase at the Keeneland September Yearling Sale, took the G2 Best Pal at Del Mar. The son of Hit It a Bomb went on to run as a 3-year-old but never won another race, until brother Mark took over and moved the colt to the inter-mountain region where he has strung together a 10-race win streak at smaller tracks in Nevada, Idaho, Colorado and Oregon dating back to July of 2022.
- Won his first race in 2013 with Ella Bea Awesome in a $7,000 claimer at Los Alamitos.
- One of only two trainers on the board of directors of the Thoroughbred Owners of California.
- Married to Michelle Yu, television handicapper and host of Daybreak At Del Mar on weekend mornings during the summer meet. They have one son and one daughter.

- Five-year-old Endorsement was barn ace for 2012. Distorted Humor horse was a multiple-stakes winner of over $600,000 with wins in Sunland Derby in 2010 and, following a year and a half of down time, Texas Mile at Lone Star in 2012.

- Victor's Cry captured Citation Handicap and Shoemaker Mile at Hollywood Park for him in 2010 and wound up a winner of more than three-quarters of a million dollars.
- Won Illinois Derby in 2010 with American Lion, then saw him run 11th in that year's Kentucky Derby. A comeback in 2011 fell short and he went to stud at Kentucky's Darby Dan Farm.
- Had a lucrative start to his 2009 season when Well Armed won by 14 lengths in the $6-million Dubai World Cup. Son of Tiznow pushed his bankroll past the $5.1-million mark after overcoming a series of injuries.
- Well Armed's big race and the exploits of both Colonel John and American Lion sent Harty's purse total for 2009 above the $5.2-million mark, his best season ever.
- Colonel John won Grade III Sham Stakes and Grade I Santa Anita Derby on his way to the 2008 Kentucky Derby, where he finished sixth to Big Brown. Came back to capture Saratoga's Travers that summer and completed the year with more than $1.2 million in earnings. Managed a win and nearly $300,000 in purses during his 4-year-old season in 2009, then was retired to stud for 2010 at WinStar in Kentucky with earnings of more than $1.7 million.
- Harty worked as top assistant to trainers John Russell and Bob Baffert prior to becoming private trainer for Godolphin Racing in 2000. Headed Sheikh Mohammed's "American Project," training 2-year-olds in the U.S. and sending them to Dubai for 3-year-old seasons.
- In second season for Godolphin sent out Tempera and Imperial Gesture to run 1-2 in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies in 2002. Tempera was voted the Eclipse Award as top juvenile filly.
- Among top Godolphin graduates was Street Cry, winner of more than $5 million in purses and sire of both 2007 Kentucky Derby winner Street Sense and distaff sensation Zenyatta.
- Won Saratoga's Sanford in 2008 with Desert Party, who was a stakes winner for Godolphin in Dubai in 2009, showing enough promise to be entered in the Kentucky Derby. Son of Street Cry finished 14th and was injured, but made a winning comeback in 2010.
- Other Harty stakes winners: Dubai Escapade, Burmilla, Marietta, Shamoan, Essence of Dubai, Tizdubai, Lydgate, Zosima, Sunray Spirit, Ruler's Court and Crittenden, winner of Del Mar's Let It Ride Stakes in fall 2015.
- Has five stakes victories at Del Mar.
- Racing runs deep in his blood. Father, Eddie, was a rider who won the Grand National, rode in Olympic Games three-day events and worked as a bloodstock agent. Grandfather, great-grandfather and great-great grandfather trained horses in Ireland.

- Following a year working at the Irish National Stud, began United States career at 17.
- Currently the president of the California Thoroughbred Trainers.
- Eoin is pronounced "Owen."
- Family: Wife Kathleen; one son.

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Won the G3 Cougar II with Order and Law during Del Mar's 2023 summer meet. Brought the son of Violence back for the G1 Pacific Classic but finished a distant ninth to winner Arabian Knight. • Splits his efforts between strings in the east and west, racing in Kentucky and Florida, as well as California. But, for the most part, concentrates on racing in the west. • Registered 1,000th victory of his career December 18, 2011 with So Tempted at Hollywood Park. • Has always been active at the claim box, but in addition has trained stakes winners River Special, Slerp, Wekiva Springs and Guide. • Del Mar has been a particularly friendly track to the trainer, providing him with his first winner (Parlapiano, July 31, 1987), his first training title (1991) and first graded stakes victory (River Special in 1992 Del Mar Futurity). Has a total of 12 stakes wins at the seaside oval. • Had noteworthy success with veteran handicap horse Imperative. The gelded son of Bernardini raced in the lucrative Charles Town Classic four times, winning it twice and finishing second once. Was third to Shared Belief in the 2014 Pacific Classic, unplaced in the event twice subsequently. • Has won two Del Mar training titles ('92 & '91) to go with a pair at Hollywood Park. • Scored two graded stakes in 2022, his first since 2019, when Cairo Memories won the G3 Providencia and G3 Honeymoon Stakes at Santa Anita. Sadly, the daughter of Cairo Prince succumbed to a sudden illness in November. • 2019 was his best year yet for purses as his charges banked $2,806,139. His best season for wins was 1992 when he captured 105 races.

- Other stakes winners: D'wildcat, Blueprint, Forty On Line, Known Heights, River Keen, The Tender Track, Courageous Pirate, Spring Meadow, Zuzanna and Heavenhasmynikki.
- Second-generation horseman, following his late father – Bob Hess, Sr. -- who had trained at Caliente until the track burned in 1970, at which time he moved his operation to Northern California.
- The younger Hess played baseball at Stanford before graduating with a degree in economics.
- Became father's assistant in 1983; began training on his own in 1987.
- Coming into 2024, his career numbers read 1,456 winners and over $51 million in purses. Since 1991 his barn has banked over $1 million every year but three.
- Family: Wife Amy; two sons.

- Veteran trainer has a rich history in the game as he moves through his 49th year of conditioning.
- Resurgent in 2016 via the exploits of Melatonin, upset winner of the Grade I Santa Anita Handicap in March and the Gold Cup at Santa Anita in June. In between those wins was a second to Effinex in the Oaklawn Handicap. Melatonin completed his year finishing fifth behind Arrogate in the Breeders' Cup Classic. Another successful runner for Hofmans in 2016 was Home Run Kitten, victorious in the American Stakes. Both Melatonin and Home Run Kitten are owned by Susan Osborne, who races as Tarabilla Farms.
- Stakes victories in Best Pal and Del Mar Futurity by J P's Gusto, top juvenile of 2010 meeting, increased trainer's Del Mar total to 26. Then he captured the Del Mar Juvenile Turf 10 years later with Big Fish showing that he still knows how to train a good horse.
- Turned up with another ace in 2021 when his longtime clients – John and Jerry Amerman – shipped him their 5-year-old Ghostzapper gelding Award Winner from the east and then watched him win the Grade II Charles Whittingham at Santa Anita.

- Put a feather in his cap when Desert Code won the first Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint at Santa Anita in 2008.
- The Desert Code win at $75 was a reminder that Hofmans can be a force in a big race: Note his $41.70 payoff for Alphabet Soup when he outdid Cigar in the Breeders' Cup Classic in 1996, and Adoration's $85.40 upset of the 2003 Breeders' Cup Distaff.
- Trainee Touch Gold denied the Triple Crown to Silver Charm by winning the 1997 Belmont Stakes.
- Has five million-dollar wins to his credit — the three Breeders' Cup races and the 1997 Haskell at Monmouth Park with Touch Gold and Woodbine's 1994 Molson Million with Dramatic Gold.
- Other Grade I triumphs: 2005 Bing Crosby with Greg's Gold, 2000 Del Mar Debutante with Cindy's Hero, 2007 Santa Margarita with Balance and same race in 2004 with Adoration, 2001 Blue Grass Stakes with Millennium Wind, 2001 Hollywood Futurity with Siphonic and 1995 Acorn with Cat's Cradle.
- Best year collecting purses was 1996 when he brought home more than $5.5 million. Next best was 1997 when he went over $4.4 million.
- Coming into 2024, his career marks include 1,083 victories and purses of over $53 million.
- Involved in a pair of historic moments for Hall of Fame jockeys Laffit Pincay, Jr. and Chris McCarron. When Pincay won the 1992 Palos Verdes Handicap aboard Hofmans trainee Individualist it made him Santa Anita's all-time win leader, and McCarron's victory on Andestine in the 1994 Milady Handicap was the 6,000th win of his career.
- Other top runners: Yearly Tour, Northern Afleet, Starrer, Fighting Falcon, Follow The Money, French Legionnaire, River Flyer and Awesome Again.
- Registered first victory as a trainer in 1974 with Nu Kali at Santa Anita.
- Currently a vice president of the California Thoroughbred Trainers.
- Was introduced to racing by his father, who was an avid fan, and to the backstretch by former trainer Gary Jones, a classmate at Pasadena City College.
- Family: Wife Linda; by a previous marriage he has two daughters, one son.

- Inducted into racing's Hall of Fame in 2010, making him one of five Hall of Fame conditioners currently working in California.
- There are hard-working trainers, then there are really hard-working trainers...then there is Jerry Hollendorfer.
- Surpassed the $5-million mark in annual earnings for the 22nd straight year in 2018, following up his record year of $12,806,593 in 2014 with $11.6 million in 2015.
- Won 219 races in 2015, achieving a milestone of more than 7,000 victories and counting. He ranks third-best all time in that department (7,754 at the end of 2022) behind Dale Baird and Steve Asmussen. In purses won, through 2021, he was ninth-best all time at $206,346,266.
- Has won 40 stakes at Del Mar. One of those victories in 2017 was with Battle of Midway in the Grade I Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile. Battle of Midway returned to competition after an unsuccessful stint at stud and won the 2018 Native Diver during Del Mar's fall meeting and the subsequent San Pasqual Stakes. Unfortunately, the classy son of Smart Strike was injured in training in February of 2019 and had to be euthanized.
- His 2018 Del Mar stakes wins included the Grade I Clement L. Hirsch with the brilliant Unique Bella; the Best Pal with Instagrاند; the John C. Mabee with the claimer turned distaff stakes star Vasilika; the Cecil B. DeMille with Flying Scotsman and the aforementioned Native Diver with Battle of Midway. In 2019 he won a trio of local stakes, highlighted by Vasilika's tally in the John C. Mabee.
- Vasilika, a $40,000 claim in February of 2018, won 11 of her next 13 starts, five of them graded stakes. She finished up her career with more than $1.8 million in earnings, then sold as a broodmare prospect at the end of 2019 for $1.5 million.
- Hollendorfer's biggest Del Mar stakes success prior to Battle of Midway's Breeders' Cup triumph came in the 2014 TVG Pacific Classic with the ill-fated superstar Shared Belief. An Eclipse Award winner as champion

2-year-old of 2013, Shared Belief won 10 of 12 starts and more than $2.9 million in his career, including the 2015 San Antonio Stakes, defeating California Chrome, and the Santa Anita Handicap before suffering a hip injury in the Charles Town Classic. Returned to training late in 2015, the gelding suffered a colic attack and died of complications in emergency surgery. In his honor, Del Mar Thoroughbred Club renamed the El Cajon Stakes the Shared Belief Stakes starting in 2016, and interred the horse's ashes at a memorial site in the Del Mar infield in September, 2016.

- Trainer guided the mercurial Songbird through a thrilling 15-race career between 2015 and 2017 where she won 13 of 15 starts and earned more than $4.6 million. She was 2-year-old filly champion in 2015, then 3-year-old filly champ in 2016. Her head and head battle ending in a nose loss to multiple champion Beholder in the Breeders' Cup Distaff at Santa Anita in 2016 is on many racing fans' list of greatest races of all time. Songbird sold at auction as a broodmare prospect for $9.5 million.
- Had another dandy filly in his barn in Unique Bella, champion female sprinter of 2017, winner of eight of her first 11 starts and a millionaire.
- 2016 was the 16th year out of the previous 17 that he started at least 1,000 horses in races long and short, from Grade I to bottom-level claimer, on dirt, grass or synthetic.
- In 2011, won 250 races and nearly $8 million in purses. Among his 23 stakes scores were three each by champion Blind Luck and Killer Graces.
- Won at least 200 races for 19 consecutive years, 1997-2015. Best year for wins was 2004 with 308. Was top five in the nation in wins every year between 2000 and 2015.
- Outstanding 2010 season included 28 stakes victories, among them four Grade Is — the Alabama, Kentucky Oaks and Las Virgenes by 3-year-old filly champion Blind Luck and the Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile by Dakota Phone. Over $9.3 million in earnings made it his best year for purses to that point.
- Other recent 200-plus win years: 243 in 2007; 282 in 2008; 273 in 2009. All told, has won more than 200 races in a year 20 times.
- In 2009 Blind Luck won or placed in four Grade I stakes, including a close third in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies. In 2010 she was named champion 3-year-old filly and in 2011 she defeated eventual Horse of the Year Havre de Grace in a stirring Delaware Handicap. She finished her career with 12 wins, 10 of them in stakes, and earnings of more than $3.2 million.
- Trained two of the best horses in the country during 2008 in Heatseeker (who won the Californian and $1-million

- Santa Anita Handicap) and Hystericalady (first in the Fleur de Lis and the $1-million Delaware Handicap).
- Captured 7,000th race of his career at Golden Gate Fields on November 25, 2015 with Kiss N Scat. Had won 6,000th race on September 3, 2011 at Golden Gate Fields with Just Tappin It.
- Once primarily a claiming trainer who raced almost exclusively in Northern California, he now races from coast-to-coast, from Oaklawn Park in Hot Springs, AR to Monmouth Park in New Jersey to California. He was leading trainer at Arlington Park near Chicago in 2001. Has also raced in New York and Delaware.
- Among his list of major accomplishments are three victories in the Kentucky Oaks, considered the Kentucky Derby for fillies. Winners were Lite Light in 1991, Pike Place Dancer in 1996 and Blind Luck in 2010.
- Hasn't had the same sort of good fortune in the Kentucky Derby. Took two major players — Event of the Year and Globalize — to the classic only to have injuries sideline both. Event of the Year, who was the likely favorite for the 1998 running, suffered a slab fracture in a knee while training at Churchill Downs and Globalize (2000) was injured when kicked by a lead pony also during training at the Louisville oval. Nonetheless, he has started five horses in the race — Eye of the Tiger in 2003 (5th), Cause to Believe in 2006 (13th), Bwana Bull in 2007 (15th), Chocolate Candy in 2009 (5th) and Battle of Midway in 2017 (3rd).
- A major winner and the one who first turned the spotlight on the trainer was King Glorious, who returned Hollendorfer to his native Ohio to capture the Ohio Derby in 1989. He also won the Hollywood Futurity in 1988 and the Haskell Invitational in '89, giving the trainer his first $1-million earner.
- The King of Northern California captured every Bay Meadows and Golden Gate Fields training title starting in 1986 — 36 straight at Bay Meadows and 32 straight at Golden Gate — until Bill Morey nipped him at the spring Golden Gate meeting in 2008.
- Won his first Southern California title when he tied with Peter Miller with 20 firsts at Del Mar's 2014 summer session, then took the Santa Anita winter/spring crown with 34 winners in 2015 before repeating at Del Mar that summer with 22 wins.
- Other major stakes winners over the years: Tuscan Evening, Rendezvous, Somethinaboutlaura, Traces of Gold, Trickey Trevor, Mula Gula, River Flyer, Variety Road, Novel Sprite and Misty Ocean.
- Came to California in late 1960s to visit friends and never left.

- Began working as a groom at Bay Meadows in 1969 and worked in various capacities with trainers Jerry Dutton and Jerry Fanning until he took out his trainer's license in 1979.
- Family: Wife Janet.

- Has regained the formula that saw his barn notch over $1 million in earnings five years in a row in the 2000's. In 2023 his earnings fell $4,000 shy of the $3 million mark, setting a new career high with $2,996,672. He has posted over $1 million in earnings three years in a row now.
 - His eight wins at Del Mar during the 2023 summer meet included a victory in the Real Good Deal Stakes with Bus Buzz. Unfortunately, the promising sprinter suffered a life threatening injury later in the year and was retired from racing.
 - His barn compiled over $1.6 million in earnings in 2022, its best year since 2006.
 - Been training on his own since 2000 after working for Bob Hess, Jr. for nine months. First winner was 50-1 longshot Dozey Doats on April 21, 2000 at Santa Anita.
 - Successful claims include Icantgoforthat, for $50,000, who subsequently earned $500,000 and won several stakes; The Candy Queen, for $20,000, who earned $160,000, and Secret Capar, for $12,500 before ringing up $100,000.
 - Did well with Harlington's Rose, a 4-year-old filly who won the Grade III Las Flores at Santa Anita in 2015.
 - Won first training title at Oak Tree in 2005, saddling 16 winners, including Brite Maneuvers, a $40,000 claim, in the Cal Cup Juvenile Stakes.
 - Best year prior to 2023 was in 2005 when his horses earned $2.1 million.
 - Has won five Del Mar stakes, including the 2020 edition of the Cary Grant with Loud Mouth.
 - Put together a successful 2021 campaign, exceeding the $1 million mark in earnings ($1,223,094) for the first time since 2008.

- Sold a uniform company he co-owned with his father for 15 years to enter Thoroughbred racing.

- Had a great run with the gray flash California Flag, whom he handled for six seasons, 11 victories and nearly $1.3 million in purses. Gelding won the 2009 Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint at Santa Anita and Santa Anita's Morvich Handicap three different times. All were on the track's unique downhill turf course. He also won Del Mar's unofficial grass sprint championship — the Green Flash — twice.
- Surpassed $1 million in earnings for the third year in a row in 2023 with $1,140,460. Just missed the $2-million mark in 2022 when his barn won $1,906,632.
- Earned California Thoroughbred Breeders Association's award as "Trainer of the Year" in 2009 when California Flag shared the CTBA's "Horse of the Year" honors with Breeders' Cup Sprint winner Dancing in Silks.
- Trainer won a 2010 Del Mar stakes with Sweet August Moon in the Rancho Bernardo Handicap. Mare retired in 2011 with nearly $500,000 in purses.
- Has won 10 Del Mar stakes all told, including the 2023 I'm Smokin' with Dr. No No. He also won the 2021 edition of the I'm Smokin' with Joker Boy. In 2018, he took the Real Good Deal with Take the One O One and, in the fall, the Betty Grable with Spiced Perfection. The latter also won the La Brea at Santa Anita and was recognized as California's Horse of the Year for 2018. She subsequently won the Madison at Keeneland before finishing fourth in the Humana Distaff at Churchill Downs during Derby Week.
- Had best earnings year in 2008 when stable won more than $2 million ($2,092,627) for the first time. Black Seventeen headed that outfit and captured Belmont Park's Vosburgh Handicap, trainer's initial Grade I win. Broke the $2 million mark again in 2018, his horses earning $2,078,688.

- Seems to have a special touch with sprinters, which may tie into his Quarter Horse roots. Besides Black Seventeen, California Flag and Sweet August Moon, has won sprints with Barbecue Eddie, Northern Soldier and Mr. Vargas, who won the Green Flash at Del Mar in 2019.
- Path from Quarter Horses to Thoroughbreds started with success at Los Alamitos for approximately 10 years. Made change first in Northern California, then came south in 2005.
- Other top runners: Hoovergetthekeys, winner of the El Camino Real and Golden Gate Derbies before leaving the Kentucky Derby trail with an injury in 2001; Courts in Session, Excessive Theresa, Stormin Lyon, Onebadkitty, Railroad and Weewinnin, the last-named victorious in the 2015 California Dreamin' Handicap at Del Mar.
- Grew up in Diamond Bar; was introduced to racing by his father, Ed.
- Was good enough high school pitcher to be offered college scholarships, but chose the racetrack instead and started out galloping horses.
- Family: One son.

Del Mar Career	727	79	$4,294,743

- The J. stands for Joseph, his paternal grandfather's first name. But he's always been Eric.
- Has been on a ride of a lifetime with the popular Cal-bred The Chosen Vron, who passed the $1 million mark in earnings with a win in the G1 Bing Crosby at Del Mar in 2023. It was the son of Vronsky's eighth win in a row, all black-type stakes races, and punched his ticket to the Breeders' Cup. He finished fifth in the Sprint but immediately started a new winning streak when, two weeks later, he successfully defended his crown in the $100,000 Cary Grant at Del Mar. He extended his win streak to four when he won the $100,000 Kona Gold at Santa Anita in April.
- In all (as of April 2024), The Chosen Vron has won 17 races in 22 starts and $1,359,678 in earnings. He was named California Horse of the Year, champion Older Male and champion Sprinter at the CTBA Awards earlier this year. He was also a finalist in the Turf Division for his win in the Sensational Star.

- Kruljac was recognized for his success with the 6-year old gelding by being named the California Thoroughbred Breeders Association's Trainer of the Year for 2023. He has part ownership of the horse with partners Sondereker Racing, Robert Fetkin and Richard Thornburgh.
- Grew up on a ranch between Carmel and Salinas, where his mother's father, Walter Markham, raised cattle and bred Thoroughbreds. Markham's trainer was Hall of Famer Buster Millerick and young Kruljac hung around his barn as a teenager.
- Father's produce business had the family in Phoenix in the winters and Eric turned out to be a good enough football player to land a full scholarship to Arizona State. Broken ankle in sophomore year ended his football career.
- After college, wound up in private detective business and at age 22 started his own agency. Business was good but he was spending the profits doing something he really loved — buying and selling horses.
- For roughly 16 years he followed that path, having his brother Edward train some of the horses he bought. Then at 38 he switched gears and began training on his own.
- Raced a small stable at Turf Paradise in Phoenix in the winters, then shifted to California for the rest of the year. In 2008 when the last of his four children was off to college, made the transition to being a full-time Californian.
- Usually has about 25 horses in training, as well as several mares and their offspring at farms in California.
- Scored his 1,000th training victory December 13, 2014 at Los Alamitos with Small Claims Court. Tally was part of a then record-setting season for him with his top purse total of $1,693,665, as well as his best win count in a year at 98. He surpassed that purse mark in 2015 when his horses won $1,865,429.
- Leave Me Alone is another Cal-bred he's had success with. The filly was a multiple-stakes winner of more than $650,000, including Saratoga's Grade I Test Stakes in 2005. In 2006, she was sold as a broodmare prospect at the Fasig-Tipton sale in Kentucky for $1 million.
- Stakes filly Bauble Queen won the R.J. Frankel on Santa Anita lawn in 2012 and banked $221,257 for her connections.
- Ran into some tough luck in 2011 when two of the better runners in his barn, the stakes-winning filly La Nez and the stakes-placed colt Major Art, both sustained racing injuries.
- Has won six stakes at Del Mar, including the 2010 Fleet

Treat with La Nez.

- Son Ian got off to a great start to his training career. Finest City, named for San Diego by owner Tyler Seltzer, a native of the city, and the first horse young Kruljac had trained on his own, won the Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Sprint in November of 2016 to earn an Eclipse Award. Previously she set a Los Alamitos track record of 1:14.48 for 6 1/2 furlongs in winning the Great Lady M Stakes. She won $1.2 million during her career, then sold in Kentucky as a broodmare for $1.5 million.
- Family: Three sons, one daughter, who is the barn's bookkeeper.

- Was introduced to the game by his father, who used to bring him along for track outings. Lewis remembers going to Caliente in Tijuana on the weekends as a young boy with his older brother, Larry.
 - Earned a bachelor's degree in history from Cal Berkeley, then studied law at Pacific Coast College.
 - Started in racing as a teenager, learning under trainer Hirsch Jacobs, then took out his training license in 1978.
 - This is his 46th year hanging around shedrows. Through 2023, he had won 1,050 races and compiled over $34-million in purses.
 - The star of his barn over the past few years, Brickyard Ride, was retired after one start in 2024. The 7-year old son of Clubhouse Ride won 13 races during his career and fell $75,000 short of earning $1 million in purses. The brilliant sprinter won the Kona Gold twice and the Cal Cup Sprint twice and notched victories in the G2 San Carlos, the Thor's Echo, the Tiznow, and the Sensational Star.
 - Owner/trainer of popular Larry The Legend, a $2,500 colt who won three stakes in 1995 capped by a game victory in the Santa Anita Derby following wins in the San Rafael Stakes and Santa Catalina, now the Robert B. Lewis Stakes.
 - Larry The Legend was injured prior to the Triple Crown races, but returned in the summer of 1996, only to be sidelined again due to a bruised foot. He attempted two subsequent comebacks at Santa Anita and won Oak Tree's Skywalker Stakes in 1997 before being retired to stud in 1998.

- Cutlass Reality won four stakes races at Hollywood Park in 1988 for Lewis, including The Californian and the Hollywood Gold Cup, providing trainer with his first two Grade I victories. Defeated sprint champion Gulch in The Californian, then bested a pair of Kentucky Derby winners -- Ferdinand and Alysheba -- in winning the Gold Cup. The 6-year-old son of Cutlass won four other stakes that year and nearly $1-million, leading the way for Lewis to have his best season as a trainer with 82 victories and over $3.3-million in purses.
- Music Merci captured the Grade I Del Mar Futurity in 1988 before running fourth in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile and returning the following year to take Santa Anita's San Rafael Stakes, the Illinois Derby and the Grade I Malibu Stakes at Santa Anita.
- Has 11 stakes wins at Del Mar all told. He added another in 2023 when Warren's Candy Girl captured the $100,000 Osunitas. The daughter of Clubhouse Ride has an affinity for the Del Mar track having won the $150,000 Solana Beach the year before.
- Besides scores by Cutlass Reality and Music Merci, also won graded races with Our Sweet Sham and Knight Prospector.
- Carefully spotted the Candy Ride horse Clubhouse Ride over six seasons at the track and 43 starts, primarily against tough California stakes competition. The stretch runner managed to win five times, but also was either second or third on 19 other occasions and retired to stud duties in 2015 at age 7 with earnings of more than $1.3 million. He is now a star among California stallions and is standing at Legacy Ranch in Clements, south of Sacramento.
- Had noteworthy success with Cal-bred mare Warren's Veneda, whom he positioned nicely to win eight races, five stakes (including Grade I Santa Margarita) and nearly $900,000.
- Posted his 1000th victory in October of 2020 at Santa Anita when Warren's Showtime won the G3 Autumn Miss. Sadly, he lost the star of his stable in February of 2022 when Warren's Showtime suffered a catastrophic injury during training and had to be euthanized. The ultra-steady mare hit the board in all but three of her 26 starts and in 17 consecutive stakes races. The daughter of Clubhouse Ride, out of Warren's Veneda, boasted a bankroll that exceeded $840,000.

- Was leading trainer at Hollywood Park in 1988 spring/summer.
- Four-time leading trainer at Fairplex Park – 1987, 1988, 1991 and 1993
- Family: Single.

- Son of Hall of Famer Richard Mandella worked for father from 1995 to '99, left training to be an analyst on TVG, returned as his dad's chief assistant two years later and assembled his own stable beginning in 2002.
- Had a special father-son moment on opening day of the 2013 Santa Anita meet when his Silentio won the Sir Beaufort Stakes, while his father won the Malibu Stakes later in the day with Jimmy Creed.
- Silentio was third in the 2013 Del Mar Mile prior to finishing third in the Breeders' Cup Mile. Finished 14th in Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint in 2014.
- Enjoyed his best year in 2005 (more than $1.5 million in purses) thanks principally to Taste of Paradise, who gave the young trainer his first Grade I success in New York's Vosburgh Handicap. Then 7-year-old horse also won the Vernon O. Underwood Stakes and wound up the year being nosed out by Silver Train in the Breeders' Cup Sprint.
- Won his first race and first stakes when he sent out Big Shot to capture the Seabiscuit Claiming Stakes at Golden Gate Fields in 2002.
- Other outstanding horses: Japanese-bred Silent Name, Living the Life, Le Mans, Man Among Men, No Silent, Albertus Maximus and Courtly Jazz.
- Family: Wife Audra; one son from prior marriage.

- Inducted into Thoroughbred racing's Hall of Fame in 2001.
- Coming into 2024, his stats show 2,290 wins and $155,471,116 in purses won. His earnings are 15th best all time among conditioners.
- Has posted earnings of over $2-million in 11 of the past 12 years.
- Posted his 2,000th career victory May 2, 2015 at Santa Anita with Catch A Flight in the $100,000 Precisionist Stakes.
- Began his apprenticeship in racing as assistant to his blacksmith father in Beaumont, Ca. Worked at Three Rings Ranch for three years and at trainer Farrell Jones' ranch for one year, then was an assistant for 18 months to V.J. (Lefty) Nickerson in New York. Next became a private trainer for Roger Braugh in '74 prior to striking out on his own in '76 with a public stable.
- First of numerous major stakes winners to follow was Bad N Big, 1977 champion Cal-bred 3-year-old and 1978 older horse.
- Numerous accomplishments include 23 million-dollar wins, nine of them in the Breeders' Cup. Four of those BC wins were on the same day in 2003 at Santa Anita — Action This Day in the Juvenile, Halfbridled in the Juvenile Fillies, Johar, a deadheat in the Turf, and Pleasantly Perfect in the Classic. It made for his best year ever in terms of earnings, a whopping $9,871,468.
- He added another million dollar win to his resume in 2023 when his colt Geaux Rocket Ride won the Haskell Invitational at Monmouth Park. The son of Candy Ride came back and ran second to Arabian Knight in the FanDuel Racing Pacific Classic, but sadly suffered a training accident in the days leading up to the Breeders' Cup and had to be euthanized
- Year following his Breeders' Cup tour de force, brought Pleasantly Perfect back to win a trio of stakes, including $6-million Dubai World Cup and Pacific Classic. Horse retired with earnings of $7,789,880, then 11th-best all time.

- Beholder was a true star for Mandella. Won Eclipse Award as top 3-year-old filly, following up Eclipse as top 2-year-old filly after BC Juvenile Fillies score in 2012. Showed flashes of her brilliance in 2014, but an injury and a fever kept her from reaching the high ground again. Returned in 2015 better than ever, going unbeaten in five starts, including an unforgettable triumph versus males in Del Mar's TVG Pacific Classic, which she won by 8 1/4 lengths. She clinched a third Eclipse Award, as best older female, with a second straight triumph in the Grade I Zenyatta at Santa Anita.
- Mare was shipped to Keeneland to run in the 2015 Breeders' Cup Classic and a showdown with Triple Crown winner American Pharoah. But the daughter of Henny Hughes spiked a fever and was unable to compete, finishing 2015 with earnings of $1,068,300. In 2016 she won the Adoration Stakes and Vanity Mile to run her record to eight consecutive victories, but then lost three races in a row - to Stellar Wind twice, in the Clement L. Hirsch and Zenyatta Stakes, and to California Chrome in the Pacific Classic.
- Undaunted by those defeats, Beholder stamped herself as one of the greatest mares of recent years and a future first ballot Hall of Famer when she climaxed her amazing career with an epic, nose triumph over previously unbeaten 3-year-old Songbird in the Breeders' Cup Distaff. Dueling the length of the stretch, Beholder prevailed at the wire under Gary Stevens over an equally courageous rival in Songbird. It was her 18th win in 26 races (with six seconds) and increased her earnings to $6,156,600 while also clinching a remarkable fourth Eclipse Award.
- In the summer of 2023, he introduced us to Tamara, the daughter of Beholder by Bolt d'Oro. The filly won at first asking in a maiden race at Del Mar and followed that with a dominating win in the G1 Del Mar Debutante. She was the favorite in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies but finished fifth and was found afterward to have suffered a splint bone injury.
- Mandella's other Grade I stakes successes include many of the sport's greatest races — Arlington Million, Dubai World Cup, Haskell Invitational, Hollywood Gold Cup (twice), Santa Anita Handicap (three times) and Del Mar's Pacific Classic (four times).
- Endured a serious disappointment on the 2019 Kentucky Derby trail when Omaha Beach, winner of the Arkansas Derby and pre-race favorite for the "Run for the Roses," had to be withdrawn because of a throat problem discovered a few days before the race. Star-crossed colt had other bumps along the road, but still managed to win five of his 10 starts (with four seconds and a third) and more than $1.6 million. He's now one of the featured stallions at Spendthrift Farm in Kentucky.

- Engineered one of the game's most memorable upsets when Dare And Go at 40-1 ruined Cigar's bid for a 17th consecutive victory in the 1996 Pacific Classic.
- His Eclipse Award champions: Kotashaan, Phone Chatter, Halfbridled, Action This Day and Beholder (four times). The list of major winners also includes Phone Trick, Siphon, Sandpit, Gentlemen, Rock Hard Ten, Best Pal, Memo, Reluctant Guest, Dixie Chatter, Dixie Union, Soul of the Matter, Afternoon Deelites, Arcangues, Event of the Year, Horse Greeley, El Roblar, Champ Pegasus, The Tin Man and Redattore.
- Registered two super training feats when his Beautiful Melody and Reluctant Guest dead-heated for the win in the Grade I Beverly Hills 'Cap in 1990, and had 1, 2, 3 finishers in 1997 Santa Anita Handicap with Siphon, Sandpit and Gentlemen.
- Trained United, a 10-time winner of more than $1.8 million. The two won the G2 Eddie Read at Del Mar in back-to-back years in 2020-and 2021.
- Has won five training titles on the Southern California circuit, including Del Mar's in a tie in 1990, the year he posted his most victories with 100.
- Has won 76 stakes at Del Mar. He passed Charlie Whittingham in 2023 and moved into fourth best all time among conditioners when Linda's Gift won the G3 Red Carpet. He needs just two stakes victories to pass Ron McAnally for third place all time.
- Proteges include his son, Gary; Dan Hendricks, Mike Machowsky, Beau Greely, Doug O'Neill and Richard Baltas.
- Played an historical role in Laffit Pincay, Jr.'s quest to be the sport's winningest jockey when he gave the Panamanian a leg up for record-setting career victory No. 8,834 aboard Irish Nip at Hollywood Park Dec. 10, 1999.
- Family: Wife Randi; one son, one daughter.

- Inducted into Thoroughbred racing's Hall of Fame in 1990.
- Had been Del Mar's all-time winningest conditioner from 1998 (when he went past Farrell Jones) until 2011 when he was surpassed by Mike Mitchell. McAnally now holds fourth place on the list with 448 firsts coming into the 2023 meet.
- Trainer also has 77 Del Mar stakes wins, third to leader Bob Baffert (156).
- This will be his 76th summer at the seashore, 65 years as a trainer, an amazing longevity streak and more than any other conditioner in the track's 84-year history.
- Was awarded the prestigious Laffit Pincay Award in 2022. It goes to those who have served the sport of horse racing with "integrity, extraordinary dedication, determination and distinction."
- Coming into 2024, his lifetime record reads 2,592 wins and earnings of $126,311,127*.
- Career accomplishments include three Eclipse Awards as nation's top trainer, 1981-'91-'92; five national champions — Bayakoa, John Henry, Northern Spur, Paseana and Tight Spot — accounting for 12 titles; 10 training titles on the Southern California circuit, including Del Mar in 1980 and 1989; 10 million-dollar victories, including four Breeders' Cup races, the Arlington Million three times, Santa Anita Handicap, Hollywood Gold Cup and Pacific Classic.
- John Henry was his masterpiece, winning Horse of the Year honors twice — in 1981 and 1984 — as well as champion grass horse 1980-'81-'83-'84. His epic triumphs included the inaugural Arlington Million in 1981 when he nosed out The Bart and a second success in the race at the age of 9 in 1984.
- John Henry came to McAnally late in his 4-year-old year and proceeded to win 27 of 45 starts, including 18 stakes in Southern California. Retired at age 9 in 1984 as the sport's leading money winner with earnings of $6,597,947. Lived in retirement at Kentucky Horse Park

- near Lexington until he passed at age 32 on Oct. 8, 2007.
- Trainer scored his most important Del Mar victory in 2003 when Candy Ride won the Pacific Classic under Julie Krone.
- Chilean-bred Quick Casablanca provided McAnally with his fourth success in Santa Anita's grass marathon San Juan Capistrano in April of 2016. McAnally's previous winners of the race were John Henry, 1980; Amerique, 1998, and Interaction, 2013.
- Slid over to the breeding side with his wife Debbie and made a splash in 2021 with the Triple Crown stakes colt Rock Your World, a son of his trainee Candy Ride, out of a mare (Charm the Maker) that he bred, trained and owned. The McAnallys sold him as a yearling for $650,000.
- Raised in an orphanage in Northern Kentucky with two younger brothers and two sisters, was given his start at Rockingham Park by his uncle, Reggie Cornell, who later trained the come-from-behind legend Silky Sullivan.
- McAnally won his first race in 1958.
- Other top horses have included Donut King, Olympio, Sea Cadet, Super Moment, Different, Mr Purple, Festin, Hawkster, Queens Court Queen, Tout Charmant, House of Fortune, Sweet Return and Mea Domina.
- Family: Wife Debbie; three daughters.

- He's coming off another stellar year having set a new career mark for victories with 71 in 2023 exceeding his previous high of 61 in 2021. He also compiled the second highest number in earnings of his career with $5,586,185. His barn has posted annual earnings exceeding $3.6 million over the past six years running.
- The current star of his barn is Endlessly who as a juvenile in 2023 won two Grade 3 races, the Del Mar Juvenile Turf and the Zuma Beach at Santa Anita. Then as a 3-year old the son of Oscar Performance won the El Camino Real up at Golden Gate Fields followed by the G3 Jeff

- Ruby Steaks at Turfway Park, punching his ticket to the Kentucky Derby. He would split the field, running ninth in the field of 20.
- He notched his best year ever as a conditioner in terms of earnings in 2021 with $6,985,218. That placed him 20th in the nation among trainers.
- Notched his first Triple Crown victory in the 2021 Preakness Stakes with Rombauer. The son of Twirling Candy was coming off a win in the El Camino Real Derby at Golden Gate Fields and a third-place finish in the G2 Blue Grass at Keeneland when he ran down Midnight Bourbon and Medina Spirit to win the prestigious race at Pimlico.
- 2021 also saw his second Breeders' Cup score when Ce Ce upset heavy favorite, Gamine in the Filly & Mare Sprint at Del Mar. It led to the mare winning the Eclipse Award for top Female Sprinter. She added to her resume in 2022 winning the G2 Azeri at Oaklawn Park and the G2 Princess Rooney at Gulfstream Park. She was retired from racing after a fourth place finish defending her crown in the Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Sprint in November. She finished with earnings exceeding $2.4 million.
- Took racing's version of the great leap of faith in January 2014 when he went from lead assistant in the No. 1 barn in the country to training on his own with a one-horse stable. But he's made it work – in spades.
- Moved with his family at age 5 from Ohio to Arcadia, by Santa Anita, and graduated from Arcadia HS. Though his family wasn't racing oriented, his neighborhood pals included a couple with fathers who were trainers and trips to the track – and a chance for it to work its spell – became part of his growing up.
- So did a nickname he picked up at the time – “Whitey” – due to a head full of blonde hair. The hair isn't so blond anymore, but the nickname has stuck.
- In high school and then while trying a brief stint at Cal Poly Pomona, he also was earning extra bucks on the backside, initially as a hot walker for trainer John O'Hara. Subsequently, he worked his way up under conditioners Doug Peterson and Ben Cecil as the racetrack won out over college.
- Jockey agent Ron Anderson, seeing something in young McCarthy, told him he ought to try to move up by making a connection with a rising, young horseman in the east named Todd Pletcher. McCarthy tried, repeatedly, but initially his requests didn't register. Finally, the persistent Californian wore his man down and he signed on with the Texan in 2002 at the start of one of the most successful training runs in history. (Pletcher now has won more money in purses -- $483 million and counting – than anyone in the history of the game. He also won six of his record eight Eclipse Awards as the nation's leading trainer in the years he and McCarthy were together.)

- McCarthy and Pletcher spent approximately 11-1/2 years together and both came away with admiration for the other: McCarthy on Pletcher: "He taught me dedication; total dedication. He leads by example. He's there from sunrise to sundown. He's special." Pletcher on McCarthy: "Michael was a top-class assistant and I'm not surprised that he's succeeding now that he has his own stable."
- McCarthy had married his grade school classmate, Erin, in 2008 and a daughter, Stella, came along in 2010. But Erin's work kept her in Southern California, while most of his work with Pletcher kept him in Florida, Kentucky and New York. Thus came the need for his big-change leap of faith in 2014.
- Starting with a single horse provided to him by Aron Wellman of Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners, McCarthy has steadily built a new world and a new business for himself and his family. In 2014, he won just over $200,000 in purses. In 2015, he doubled that amount. In 2016, he doubled it again... and did the double once more in 2017.
- Then, in 2018, with the primary backing of the Eclipse group and Tulsa, Oklahoma businessman William K. Warren, Jr. and his wife, Suzanne, he broke through. The key horse was the Warren's City of Light, who went from success to success under the conditioner, culminating the year with a smart tally in the Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile at Churchill Downs and year-ending earnings of $1.4 million. The Quality Road horse then took it up another notch and rang the bell in pouring rain in Florida in January 2019, romping home atop the $9 million Pegasus World Cup to earn a $4 million prize in his final start before heading off to stud. The Quality Road horse finished with earnings of $5,388,715.
- Has won 15 Grade I races with the likes of City of Light, Smooth Like Strait, Ce Ce, Ohio, Queen Goddess, Speech, Rombauer, Illuminant and There Goes Harvard who captured the 2022 Hollywood Gold Cup. He added his most recent G1 score in March (2024) when Sweet Azteca won the Beholder at Santa Anita.
- Coming into 2024, he shows career marks of 346 winners and $34,284,166 in earnings.
- McCarthy also has had stakes success with Axelrod, The Lieutenant (an older half-brother to Triple Crown hero Justify), Liam the Charmer, Paved, Rushie, Sanenus and Master Piece, who took the 2022 G2 Eddie Read at Del Mar, Three Witches and Offlee Naughty.
- He also trained Smooth Like Strait, arguably one of the most unlucky horse of his generation. In a span dating from October of 2020 to August of 2022, the son of Midnight Lute ran in 13 races, all of them graded stakes, and finished in the money in everyone, finishing second eight times. He was retired from racing in March of 2023.

- Won his ninth training title at Del Mar during the Summer meet in 2021, winning by six victories over Bob Baffert.
- Surprised the Southern California racing industry when he announced he was stepping down from his day-to-day supervision of his barn and handing the reins over to assistant Ruben Alvarado at the conclusion of Del Mar's 2021 Fall meet. Citing burnout and wanting to spend more time with his family, Miller took on an advisory role, visiting the barn at San Luis Rey Downs two or three times a week. In May of 2022, he announced he was returning to training full-time.
- His first meet back was the 2022 summer meet at Del Mar and he picked up where he left off, winning 17 races, just two victories shy of co-winners Baffert and Philip D'Amato, and tied for third in the trainer standings with Doug O'Neill. He also finished third at the meet in total earnings.
- He went on to win the trainers title at Santa Anita's 2022 fall meet before finishing fourth at Del Mar's fall meet.
- In 2023, he finished tied for fourth with Peter Eurton in the trainers standings during Del Mar's summer meet and tied for second with Bob Baffert in the fall.
- Hard-working trainer has produced a decade and a half of high success, winning at least $1-million in purses every year since 2006. In fact, since 2013 he's never dipped below the $4 million mark in annual earnings. Had a five year run in which he registered $7-million-plus (2017), $8-million-plus (2018) and $7-million-plus (2019) $6-million-plus (2020) and over $7-million in 2021.
- Expanded his large stable to compete in Kentucky in 2019 as well as California. Performers included stable stars

- Roy H and Stormy Liberal, plus Savagery, Solid Wager, Belvoir Bay and Richard's Boy. His Gray Magician competed in the Kentucky Derby in 2019. Ran his horses in Kentucky again in 2020 and 2021 and at the Oaklawn Park meet in Arkansas both those years, too. In 2022, he sent Get Her Number back to Aqueduct and nearly won the G1 Cigar Mile, missing by a head to Mind Control.
- Made a terrific claim for $40,000 at Oaklawn in April of 2020 in sprint specialist C Z Rocket. The gelding won over $2 million in purses and was runner-up to Elite Power in the 2022 Breeders' Cup Sprint. He won an allowance race at Del Mar in 2023 as a 9-year old and ran once at Oaklawn in 2024 before being retired and sent to Old Friends in Kentucky.
 - Had his best year yet in 2018 with his most wins (133) and highest purse amount ($8,076,631) -- 10th best in U.S. 2018 followed up his previous best in 2017 when he won 124 races and had earnings of $7,380,416. Amazingly, both years were capped off by victories in the Breeders' Cup by the same two horses -- Stormy Liberal in the Turf Sprint and Roy H in the Sprint, an unprecedented Breeders' Cup feat.
 - In yet another piece of amazing, he won BC Turf Sprint again in 2019 with 6-year-old mare Belvoir Bay, beating the boys and setting a course record for five furlongs at Santa Anita.
 - In 2012 at Del Mar he won his first training crown and has followed with seven more titles since including the summer and fall meets in 2018. He won back-to-back fall meet titles in 2016 and 2017 and consecutive summers meet in 2020 and 2021.
 - Made his first bit of big noise by winning 2007 Del Mar Debutante with Set Play for initial Grade I tally. He's won eight more since (Comma to the Top, Heir Kitty, Finnegans Wake, Mo Forza, Nucky, Spiced Perfection, Got Her Number and And Tell Me Nolies, 2022's Del Mar Debutante winner).
 - Has won 47 stakes at the shore, including nine in 2020. His six stakes wins in 2021 moved him up the ladder, He's now ninth all-time for trainers at Del Mar.
 - Made a big splash with Comma to the Top, a triple stakes winner in 2010 as a 2-year-old at Hollywood Park. Horse was tried in 2011 Kentucky Derby, but faded after prompting the pace for a mile. Was finally retired with 14 victories and $1.3 million in earnings.
 - Miller has trained six millionaires including Comma to the Top. There's also Roy H ($3.1 million), Stormy Liberal ($2.0 million), Belvoir Bay ($1.6 million), C Z Rocket ($1.7 million) and Mo Forza ($1.0 million, winner of the G2 Del Mar Mile in 2021 and now a California stallion.
 - Filly Reneesgotzip was a bolt of lightning for trainer between 2012 and 2014. Chestnut took Del Mar's Rancho Bernardo Stakes (in track-record time for the 6-1/2 furlongs) en route to finishing in dead heat for second in Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint in 2013. Came back to win a small stakes at Del Mar in 2014 before retiring with more than $860,000 in purses.
 - The long-winded late runner Finnegans Wake was a multiple-grass-stakes winner of nearly a million and Big Cazanova set a pair of track records at Del Mar in 2014 for trainer and came back in the fall to go wire to wire in the Native Diver Stakes. His Red Outlaw was a four-time stakes winner in 2014.
 - Scored three straight victories in 2006-07 with Fast Parade, including the $500,000 Nearctic at Woodbine near Toronto, Canada. Fast Parade also won the 2006 Baldwin Stakes, giving conditioner his first triumph in an event worth at least $100,000.
 - Other stakes winners: Laura's Light, Majestic City, Miss Empire, All Squared Away, Got Even, Whatever Whenever, Backbackbackgone, Trifecta King, Spirited Susan Pinata and 2023 G1 La Brea winner, Daddysruby.
 - Trainer's first winner was Dynashield on April 25, 1988 at Santa Anita.
 - Wanted to be a jockey, but was advised he'd grow too big. Instead worked as a groom during the summers in high school, then served apprenticeship under trainer Charlie Whittingham, for whom he went to work as a full-time groom after graduating from school. Also worked in the barns of Mike Mitchell and Don Warren.
 - His stable is currently based at San Luis Rey Downs training center in Bonsall.
 - Family: Wife Lani; two sons.

• Edged up to the highest of highs but got hit with the lowest of lows at the 2009 Kentucky Derby when his trainee, I Want Revenge, went from morning line favorite to a day-of-the-race scratch with a leg injury. The son of Stephen Got Even had won the Gotham and Wood Memorial en route to his Derby heartbreak.

- Had another so high/so low situation that same year with the swift filly Carlsbad. Arizona-bred won a trio of graded stakes, including a track-record performance (1:14.93 for 6 1/2 furlongs) in the Rancho Bernardo Handicap at Del Mar, before suffering a fatal breakdown while training at Santa Anita later that year.
- Battle of Hastings, an English import, also had an exceptional campaign for Mullins in 2009, finishing first or second in eight of nine starts and banking more than $1 million.
- The Irish-bred, Quattroelle led the barn in the first half of 2023, winning back-to-back graded stakes, the G3 Megahertz and the G2 Buena Vista. She was a major contributor to the conditioner's $2,520,298 in earnings.
- In 2022 he had his best year for earnings and victories since 2009 when he won 45 races and compiled $2,601,383. That included a victory by Packs a Wahlop in the G3 Del Mar Juvenile Turf.
- Called the shots for the French-bred gelding Itsinthepost, a veteran with a love for running long on the grass. The seven-time stakes winner scored 10 victories and rung up more than $1.2 million.
- Had another millionaire in the hard-trying Irish horse River Boyne, who won nine races, five stakes (including the Grade I Kilroe at Santa Anita) and earned more than $1.2 million. Horse returned to his native land and is in the stallion business now at Tara Stud in County Meath.
- Also trained millionaires Choctaw Nation ($1.2 million) and Captain Squire ($1.0).
- Has won 23 black type races at Del Mar, including the 2023 running of the Let It Ride Stakes with Dandy Man Shines.
- Won the Green Flash with Sirocco Strike and a division of the Del Mar Derby with Gabriel Charles in 2013. Gabriel Charles amazingly returned from a layoff of more than 17 months due to a bowed tendon to win the 2015 Grade I Eddie Read Stakes, his fourth start back.
- Had his best year for wins — 140 — and purses — $6,910,572 — in 2004. His stable aces that year included stakes winners Choctaw Nation, Summer Wind Dancer, Boston Common, Sweet Win and Glick.
- His stable has won at least $1 million in 20 of the past 22 years. Coming into 2024, he shows career marks of 1,732 winners and $58,836,762 in purses.
- Trainer has been around horses his whole life; started galloping when he was 8 years old and rode in races at bush tracks in the Utah region. At 17, ran horses at Les Bois Park in Boise, Idaho, under his father's name, since he didn't have a license. First winner was Doctorius in 1980 ridden by future Hall of Famer Gary Stevens.

- Arrived on the Southern California circuit on a full-time basis in 2001 after competing in Idaho, Wyoming, Utah, New Mexico, Ohio and Arizona. Has won 11 training titles on the local circuit, including Del Mar in 2005 when he shaded many-times champion Bob Baffert, 23-22, on closing day.
- Became the first trainer to win the Santa Anita Derby three consecutive times — Buddy Gil in 2003, his first Grade I winner; Castledale in '04, and Buzzards Bay in '05, all longshots. All three ran in the Kentucky Derby — Buddy Gil, 6th; Castledale 14th, and Buzzards Bay 5th. His other Derby starter was his first, Lusty Latin, who finished 15th in 2002.
- Saddled his 1,000th winner January 5, 2007 with Lady Le Belle at Santa Anita.
- Won the Grade I Del Mar Debutante in 2005 with Wild Fit, the same year he was Del Mar's training champ; filly was second in that year's Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies.
- His other notable horses include King Robyn, Excess Summer, Mighty Beau, L'Effaceur, Sweeter Still, Boule d'Or, Final Fling and Brooke's Halo.
- Family: One daughter, two sons.

- Was a key factor during the 2016 Triple Crown with Nyquist for major client J. Paul Reddam. Winner of the Del Mar Futurity as a juvenile in 2015 en route to an Eclipse Award as champion 2-year-old colt, Nyquist became the eighth undefeated horse to win the Kentucky Derby when he outran familiar rival Exaggerator for his eighth consecutive triumph. Compromised by a pace duel in the Preakness Stakes, the Uncle Mo colt faltered to finish third as Exaggerator scored. A fever precluded his participation in the Belmont Stakes.
- Had an earlier magical Triple Crown ride with I'll Have Another for Reddam during 2012 Triple Crown season. Colt had shown promise at 2 — including a second in Del Mar's Best Pal Stakes — but came into full bloom when teamed with little-known rider Mario Gutierrez. They won Santa Anita's R.B. Lewis Stakes, then the Santa Anita Derby. Next came victories in the Kentucky Derby and Preakness.

- Unfortunately, their chance for racing immortality was sidetracked by tendinitis, forcing I'll Have Another's withdrawal from the Belmont Stakes on the eve of the race. Son of Flower Alley retired with five wins in seven starts and earnings of $2.6 million; was sold as a stallion to Japanese interests.
- Was back on the Triple Crown trail in 2013 with Santa Anita Derby winner Goldencents. Colt, partly owned by NCAA champion basketball coach Rick Pitino, was well beaten in both Kentucky Derby and Preakness, but returned to show his forte is going shorter. Won Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile in 2013 and 2014; also set track record for seven furlongs in Del Mar's Pat O'Brien in 2014. Retired to stud at B. Wayne Hughes' Spendthrift in Kentucky with more than $3 million in earnings. He sired 2024 Kentucky Derby winner Mystik Dan.
- Trainer has captured 46 stakes at Del Mar, 10th on the all-time list. In 2023, he won the G2 Pat O'Brien with the nifty sprinter Anarchist and the G3 Torrey Pines with Ceiling Crusher, who went on to win the G1 Cotillion at Parx. The daughter of Mr. Big won five of her six races in 2023 and was named Cal-bred three-year-old female of the year.
- His colt Slow Down Andy took down the G2 Del Mar Derby and was third in the Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile in 2022. The son of O'Neill's Derby winner Nyquist returned to Del Mar in 2023 and ran second to Senor Buscador in the G2 San Diego and third in the Pacific Classic. He won the G1 Awesome Again at Santa Anita, but suffered an ankle injury which prevented him from another shot at the Breeders' Cup. While on the comeback trail in February he was diagnosed with a sesamoid injury and retired with earnings over $1.2 million.
- Became the first trainer in Del Mar annals to win five races on a single afternoon, accomplishing the feat July 29, 2015 to surpass four-baggers by Red McDaniel, Farrell W. Jones, Ron McAnally, Jack Van Berg and John Sadler.
- Has won a minimum of $3-million-plus in purses each of past 22 years, topped by his $11.2-million season in 2006. Best season for number of victories was 2010 when he visited win circle 185 times. Coming into 2024 he has won 2,845 races and $160,300,000 in purses, 14th on the all-time list.
- Claimed his sixth shore training title at Del Mar's 2019 fall meeting with 24 wins. Has been leading conditioner at more than 30 SoCal meets including the recently concluded 2024 Classic Meet at Santa Anita. Ranks fourth for winners all-time at Del Mar, 12 wins behind Mike Mitchell.

- The amazing run of Lava Man, the California-bred gelding who was claimed for $50,000 at Del Mar in 2004 by O'Neill, and went on to win $5,170,103, the most ever earned by a horse following a claim, ended in 2009. Lava Man's exploits included three consecutive victories in the Hollywood Gold Cup, matching the feat of Native Diver; two wins in the Santa Anita Handicap, and a triumph in the Pacific Classic. In 2006, he became the first horse to sweep that trio of Grade I races in the same year. He is also the only horse to win Grade I races on dirt, turf and synthetic. The Slew City Slew gelding ranks fourth on the list of all-time leading California-bred money winners with total earnings of $5,268,706. When his racing career ended, he became the chief stable pony for Team O'Neill until his retirement in 2022. He now resides at Old Friends in Kentucky.
- Trainer has developed five Eclipse Award champions — Thor's Echo, sprinter; Stevie Wonderboy, 2-year-old male; Maryfield, female sprinter, all of whom won Breeders' Cup races; I'll Have Another, 3-year-old male, and Nyquist, juvenile male and another Breeders' Cup race winner.
- Ran eight horses in 2013 Breeders' Cup Championships, with Goldencents winning the B.C. Dirt Mile.
- Won his 15th race worth at least $1 million when Hot Rod Charlie took the G1 Pennsylvania Derby at Parx in 2021, making up for being disqualified in a million dollar race, the G1 Haskell Invitational at Monmouth Park, two months earlier. In that race, Hot Rod Charlie came over on Midnight Bourbon, causing his rival to clip heels and drop his rider. 'Charlie' went on to win the race but was promptly brought down by the stewards.
- Hot Rod Charlie finished third in the 2021 Kentucky Derby but was moved up to second when Medina Spirit was DQ'd. The colt was runner-up to Essential Quality in the Belmont Stakes and fourth in the Breeders' Cup Classic at Del Mar, amassing over $2.1 million dollars in earnings in 2021. He was second in the 2022 Dubai World Cup earning $2.4 million and pushing his bankroll past the $5 million mark. He was retired following another run in the Breeders' Cup Classic, this time finishing sixth, with career earnings exceeding $5.6 million.
- The trainer's victories in million dollar races also include the Japan Cup Dirt with Fleetstreetdancer in 2003 and the Godolphin Mile with Spring at Last in 2007.
- His other Grade I winners are Gomo, Pavel, Ralis, Sharla

Rae, Sky Jack, Sharp Lisa and Shamdinan.

- Scored his 1,000th victory when No Means Maybe won the Bustles and Bows Stakes at Fairplex September 13, 2007. Won 2,000th race at Del Mar on November 22, 2015 with Formally Wild.
- Began working at racetrack after finishing high school. Was employed by trainers Jude Feld, Hector Palma, Richard Mandella and Doug Peterson. Took out trainer's license in 1994.
- His right-hand men around the stable are his brother, Dennis O'Neill, who also is a bloodstock agent, and chief assistant Leandro Mora.
- Family: One son, one daughter.

- Posted another career topping year in 2023, compiling $3,588,804 in earnings and equaling his mark for victories in a given year with 59. His 5-year-old sprinter Sprit of Makena led the way with back-to-back graded stakes wins in the G3 San Carlos and the G2 Triple Bend. He also won the G2 John Henry Turf Classic with Balladeer.
- Far surpassed his career best in wins and earnings in 2022, making 59 trips to the winners circle and compiling $3,392,502 in earnings. Prior to that, the most wins he had rung up in a year was 22 in 2018 and his highest earnings was $1,900,435 in 2014.
- Won four graded stakes with two of his horses in 2022, bringing his career total to six. Cabo Spirit won the G3 La Jolla Handicap at Del Mar in August and the G2 Twilight Derby at Santa Anita in October. American Theorem made his bid for top sprinter on the west coast with victories in the G2 Triple Bend at Santa Anita in May and the G1 Bing Crosby at Del Mar in July. American Theorem would finish 8th in the Breeders' Cup Sprint at Keeneland.
- Credits much of his success to Rustin Kretz, owner of both Cabo Spirit and American Theorem. His stable grew in large part due to Kretz and then doubled in size in 2022 when he received horses that were previously trained by Richard Baltas.

- His other graded stakes wins came with Mr. Roary in the 2017 G3 Eddie D at Santa Anita and his first was with Imperative in the 2014 G2 Charles Town Classic.
- Comes from a racing family. Both his grandfather and father were established horsemen in Cyprus, an island country in the Mediterranean Sea.
- First came to the United States soon after he got out of the army in his native country. He was hoping to be a jockey and came over with his father who was in search of some sires to take back to Cyprus. Young George decided to stay.
- He soon realized he was too big to race ride so he ended up galloping horses for trainers Bob Baffert and David Hofmans. After struggling for a few years, he convinced his father to return to the States and train a stable of horses with the idea that Andreas would help get the operation up and running before turning it over to his son. His father stayed in Southern California for six years, from 1997 to 2003.
- Only won nine races in his first four years of training but in 2014 struck gold when he claimed Imperative, a son of Bernardini, for $50,000. The 4-year-old would follow his win in the Charles Town Classic with a third place finish in the G1 Gold Cup at Santa Anita and a third in the G1 Pacific Classic at Del Mar behind Shared Belief. Imperative was retired from racing in 2019 with earnings of over $3.3 million.

- Hard-working French transplant has made a name for himself as one of the steady guys on the Southern California circuit.
- Had his best year ever in 2022, winning 32 races and collecting $2,132,523.
- His five graded stakes victories in 2022 were a career best led by Neige Blanche's two Grade 3 victories (the Astra and the Santa Barbara) at Santa Anita at the start of the year and Dicey Mo Chara (G2 San Gabriel) and Air Force Red's (G2 Joe Hernandez) triumphs in December.

- In between came his 5-year old mare Avenue de France's victory in the G2 John C. Mabey, one of two stakes victories at Del Mar in 2022. She also captured the $100,000 Osunitas Stakes and ran second to Going Global in the G2 Yellow Ribbon.
- Rode the success of his super filly Anisette to three graded stakes wins, two at Del Mar, the G2 San Clemente and the G1 Del Mar Oaks. She later took the G1 American Oaks. Her $597,000 in earnings nearly lifted her conditioner to his best year in earnings, but he came $24,000 short.
- Also won the 2023 G3 La Jolla at Del Mar with Maltese Falcon.
- His climb since hanging out his training shingle in 2005 has been mostly upward. He doubled his number of stakes victories at Del Mar from three to six in 2021. He captured the Opening Day feature, the Oceanside Stakes with Flashiest. A few weeks later he won the CTT and TOC Stakes with Neige Blanche, a French-bred who returned for Del Mar's Fall meet and won the G3 Red Carpet.
- His 29 wins and earnings of more than $1.4 million in 2021 topped his previous best year in 2019 when he won 26 races and more than $900,000 in purses.
- To this point, most racing folks know him – and pay him tribute – for his exceptional work with the grand campaigner Soi Phet (“diamond necklace” in the Thai language), whom he claimed at age 3 for $16,000, then trained and patiently coaxed through 48 starts up through the age of 11, winning 14 races with him (including eight stakes) and pushing the Cal-bred's bankroll past the $1-million mark. For him, Powell says, the gallant horse was nothing less than “a real joy.”
- Soi Phet was saluted one last time when he was invited to retire and happily live out his days being adored by the racing public at the sport's preeminent retirement farm, Old Friends Farm in Georgetown, KY.
- Powell grew up with horses on his family's 200-acre Normandy stud farm – le Haras du Lieu des Champs – and rode as an amateur jockey on both the flat and over the jumps. His father, David, an American (thus Powell's American citizenship) journalist, ran the farm and taught his sons both the business and the value of hard work.
- Powell's brother Freddy is currently the head of bloodstock acquisitions at Arqana, the French auction house. Brother Richard now runs the family stud farm. And a stepbrother, Arnaud Delacour, is a trainer of note in the eastern U.S.
- He managed to earn a degree in business management at the University of Caen Normandy, while spending summers and post-school years doing the real learning – on backstretches around the world.

- His racetrack odyssey started in the United States, but also went on to England, Australia and Singapore. His list of teachers is an international Who's Who that includes Richard Mandella, Neil Drysdale, John Shirreffs, John Gosden, John Hawkes, Peter Snowden and Michael Kent.
- And what did those learned teachers teach their willing pupil along the way? “Three primary things,” he says in his flowing French accent. “Observe, pay attention to the details and shut up.”
- Powell, who currently has about 30 horses in his barn, had some early success with the Giant's Causeway horse Niagara Causeway, a graded stakes winner who went on to a stud career in Kentucky.
- He clicked with stakes winners Beach View and Fatale Bere, both graded stakes winners at Del Mar. Beach View won the Cougar II Handicap in 2018, then was stakes-placed four times before being retired. Fatale Bere, a triple stakes winner, gave the conditioner his first Grade I trophy when she captured the Del Mar Oaks in 2018. She subsequently was sold to Japanese breeding interests for $700,000.
- The trainer's long suit has been his patience with his charges. He's a big believer in giving them freshenings (“Just like people need vacations, so do horses.”) and also provides them with long, long walks (“It's good for them to get out of their stalls and get some exercise without putting pressure on their joints.”)
- He gallops many of his own horses, as many as he can during his busy training mornings. That allows him to learn each horse's personality, which he says is the key for him in unlocking whatever talent they might possess.
- Powell served as the official guardian for current superstar rider Flavien Prat for several years when the French youngster came stateside as a teenager. Their shared language was a natural, of course, as was their shared enjoyment of watching replays of past famous races and Netflix shows, as well as listening to the very politically incorrect French radio show “Les Grosses Tetes.”

- Led by speedy Mizdirection's second straight Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint victory in 2013, trainer posted best career year for total wins and earnings with 62 and $3,333,766.
- Posted annual earnings of over $1 million every year but one between 2007 and 2022.
- During 2012, combination of Turbulent Descent and Mizdirection helped build the purse pot until Turbulent Descent was sold to the partnership of Mrs. Susan Magnier, Michael Tabor and Derrick Smith and sent to trainer Todd Pletcher, for whom she won her last race before being retired to become a broodmare.
- Following second Breeders' Cup triumph, Mizdirection was sold for $2.7 million at the Fasig-Tipton November sale in Kentucky to Al Shaqab Racing of Qatar. The daughter of Mizzen Mast raced for a partnership that included TV/radio sports personality Jim Rome and Del Mar restaurateur William Strauss.
- Took over training of Argentine-bred Calidoscopio after he won B.C. Marathon in 2012. Won New York's Brooklyn Handicap with him in June, 2013
- Also conditioned the stretch-running sprinter Supreme Summit, a winner of nearly $400,000; horse finished a close-up fourth in the 2010 Breeders' Cup Sprint.
- Won 2010 Cal Cup Mile with Bruce's Dream, an earlier winner of the California Dreamin' Handicap at Del Mar. In 2009, won Hollywood's Wilshire Handicap with Gorgeous Goose.
- Guided veteran Ward 'n Jerry through his 8-year-old season for 30 starts, eight wins and more than $486,000 in earnings with the Cal-bred by Lucky Pulpit.
- Came onto the racetrack out of high school, working odd jobs on the backside at TurfParadise. Served as assistant to Walter Greenman and made a connection with owner Gary Biszantz for whom he worked from 1996 until 2002 when he opened a public stable.
- Top horse with Biszantz was Old Trieste, winner of the Affirmed, Swaps and Del Mar Breeders' Cup Handicap as 3-year-old in '98, and the '99 Californian, running nine furlongs in 1:46 2/5, fastest since Spectacular Bid (1:45 4/5) in 1980.

- Won the California Derby in 2004 with a son of Old Trieste named Trieste's Honor.
- Has won 12 stakes races at Del Mar going back to 1995, adding another stakes tally in 2021 with Pulpit Rider who returned to successfully defend her crown in the Solana Beach Stakes.
- Also won stakes with Muny, Cobra King, Varavadour, Running Flame (his first Grade I winner), Home Journey, Star of Goshen, Lord Grillo (upsetter of Silver Charm in '97 Malibu Stakes), and Canoodling who scored in two Grade 3 races in 2022, the Megahertz and the Wilshire.

- Had a year to remember in 2022 with the emergence of Flightline. The son of Tapit dominated the G1 Met Mile at Belmont Park, winning by six lengths then followed with a more astounding victory in the G1 TVG Pacific Classic at Del Mar, winning by a record 19 1/4 lengths then finally the G1 Breeders' Cup Classic at Keeneland, coming home 8 1/4 lengths the best. In all, Flightline was undefeated for his career, winning all six of his starts, and was the clear choice for Horse of the Year honors.
- Flightline's achievements paved the way to the Sadler barn posting its best year, in terms of earnings, in its 44-year existence with $8,959,895... a mere $45,000 better than his previous high water mark in 2018.
- Of Flightline, the conditioner calls the $1 million purchase "the best horse he's ever trained."
- Led by stable star Accelerate in 2018, winner of six of seven races, and more than $5 million, the Sadler stable posted earnings of $8,914,045, eighth nationally. En route to an Eclipse Award for Accelerate as the champion older dirt male, Sadler engineered a campaign for the 5-year-old that would have won "Horse of the Year" laurels in any other year were it not for Triple Crown champion Justify. Accelerate, a son of Lookin At Lucky, won the Santa Anita Handicap, Santa Anita Gold Cup, TVG Pacific Classic, Awesome Again, San Pasqual and climaxed his year with a brilliant triumph in the Breeders' Cup Classic. He was retired to stud at Lane's End Farm in Versailles, KY.

- Accelerate raced for Sadler's chief clients -- Hronis Racing of Kosta and Pete Hronis -- who had huge success with the crackerjack mare Stellar Wind. Champion 3-year-old filly went on to win 10 races, more than $2.9 million in purses and then was sold as a broodmare at Keeneland for $6 million.
- Hronis Racing has had remarkable success with private purchases that their one and only trainer, Sadler, has worked his magic with. Examples are the multiple-stakes winner of $1.2 million Hard Aces; Gift Box winner of Santa Anita Handicap and more than $1.1 million; Higher Power, winner of TVG Pacific Classic and more than $1.4 million, and Combatant, winner of Santa Anita Handicap and more than $1 million.
- 15 of his Breeders' Cup entrees since 2008 who have finished third or better including Edgeway, who was runner up to CeCe in the 2021 Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Sprint at Del Mar. The 6-year-old mare by Competitive Edge returned to win the G3 Rancho Bernardo at Del Mar for the second year in a row in 2022.
- Among all trainers all time for earnings, he's now 17th amassing more than $150 million in purses.
- Has won a total of 164 graded stakes races with 46 of them being of the Grade I variety, including the 2021 edition of the G1 TVG Pacific Classic with Tripoli.
- Won 2021 Santa Anita Derby with lightly raced Rock Your World, then was among favorites for Kentucky Derby but was squeezed out of the gate and lost all chance.
- His 2014 roster was led by multiple graded-stakes winner Iotapa (for Hronis Racing, of course) and 2-year-old stakes winner Daddy DT. Iotapa won Del Mar's Grade I Clement L. Hirsch Stakes and Santa Anita's Grade I Vanity Stakes prior to finishing third in Breeders' Cup Distaff. She won six of 14 starts and more than $1 million, then was sold for $2.4 million at the Keeneland November sale. Daddy DT won 2014 Oak Tree Juvenile Turf at Del Mar and finished third in Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf.
- Ran his fourth Kentucky Derby starter - Candy Boy - in 2014; finished 13th. Prior to the Derby, was third in Santa Anita Derby to California Chrome, who went on to take the roses in Kentucky.
- Conditioner has won 85 stakes at Del Mar (second all-time), including eight in 2018 and nine in 2019. Is second best for wins at Del Mar all-time with 545.
- A leading runner for Sadler and Hronis Racing in 2012 was Lady of Shamrock, winner of the Santa Barbara Handicap at Santa Anita. She subsequently was sold for $2 million to Alain and Gerard Wertheimer at the Keeneland November sale.

- Could do no wrong in spring of 2010 with major stakes wins by Sidney's Candy, Line of David, Hurricane Ike, Mona de Momma, Crisp, Switch, Cozi Rosie and Ranger Heartley. Ran a pair in the Kentucky Derby that year -- Santa Anita Derby winner Sidney's Candy and Arkansas Derby winner Line of David -- though neither fared too well.
- His 2008 campaign saw him claim training titles at Hollywood Spring/Summer, Del Mar and Oak Tree. Also won 16 stakes, including a pair of Grade Is and eight other graded races.
- Captured his first training crown at the 2007 Hollywood Park autumn session, highlighted by six graded stakes victories.
- Since winning that Hollywood training title, has captured eight other ones, including 2008-09 and 2009-10 Santa Anita winter/spring meet and 2008, 2009 and 2013 summers at Del Mar.
- Won 2,000th race of his career November 9, 2012 at Betfair Hollywood Park with Rooster City
- Has done well with claims that he's moved up to stakes class, the best being Cost of Freedom, who was claimed for $50,000 in 2008 and won seven races that included five stakes and more than $750,000 in earnings. Horse was beaten a head in the 2009 Breeders' Cup Sprint. Another $50,000 claim was the aforementioned Iotapa.
- Took out his trainer's license in 1978 and won his first race in 1979.
- Rode show horses early in career and tried out for the U.S. Olympic equestrian team. While in high school, walked hots for trainer Tom Pratt at Santa Anita. After leaving the University of Oregon, was a vet's assistant for Dr. Jack K. Robbins. Served as assistant to David Hofmans and campaigned a string of horses in Northern California for trainer Ed Gregson.
- Among his other career highlights: winning first match race in Santa Anita history when Valiant Pete defeated champion quarter-horse Griswold in 1991; three straight wins in Del Mar's Rancho Bernardo Handicap with Track Gal; upset of Snow Chief with the filly Melair in the '86 Silver Screen in 1:32 4/5, a record for one mile on the dirt by a female; winning his first $1 million event when Our New Recruit captured the $2 million Dubai Golden Shaheen, and taking the Sunshine Millions Classic in '05 with Musique Toujours at $142.20.
- Other Grade I stakes horses: Flagstaff, Ollie's Candy,

Home Sweet Aspen, Zazu, Tell A Kelly, Evita Argentina, Black Mamba, and Dearest Trickski.

- Previously held position of president of California Thoroughbred Trainers.
- Family: Single.

- His everlasting piece of training art will remain Zenyatta, whom he guided through 19 straight victories in four seasons before she ended her career with a narrow loss to the colt Blame in the 2010 Breeders' Cup Classic. Though she came up half a head short that day, she continued to earn honors, including her third and fourth Eclipse Awards, the last one being 2010 Horse of the Year.
- The stretch-runner deluxe won 13 Grade I races and made Del Mar's 2010 Clement L. Hirsch — a race she had won the previous two years — her 18th straight victory. In 2009 she finished up her second year of being named champion older distaffer by beating 11 of the best male horses in the world in an absolutely thrilling Breeders' Cup Classic and becoming the only female to win the race. She had won the Ladies' Classic the previous year.
- Zenyatta finished her career with $7,304,550 in earnings, the most ever by a female at that point. She has since completed her transition to broodmare with several offspring.
- Made the leap from virtual unknown to a player on the national stage in 2005 when Giacomo shocked the racing world at 50-1 in the Kentucky Derby. Has followed that up with a series of solid campaigns; top purse money was $5.7 million season in 2009. Was back on the Kentucky Derby trail in 2017 with Gormley and Royal Mo. Gormley won the Santa Anita Derby with his stablemate a close-up third. Gormley went on to finish ninth behind Always Dreaming in Kentucky. Royal Mo failed to qualify for the Derby and, unfortunately, suffered a career-ending injury while training for the Preakness Stakes.
- Trainer went Derby hunting once again in the unusual 2020 Run for the Roses season that had the Kentucky fixture shifted to Labor Day weekend. His handsome colt Honor A.P. looked special winning the Santa Anita Derby in June, but ran a troubled fourth in Kentucky and came out of the race worse for the wear. He was retired shortly thereafter and now has taken up stud duties at Lane's End Farm in the Blue Grass.

- In 2009 Shirreffs saddled Life Is Sweet to capture the Breeders' Cup Ladies Classic. Four-time stakes winner retired with more than $1.8 million in purses.
- Trainer won more than $600,000 with good grass filly Harmonious during 2010-11, then had more grass success with a trio of stakes winners in 2011 in Nereid (more than $225,000), Star Billing (more than $350,000) and Mr. Commons.
- Scored in four Grade I stakes in '07 — Tiago (half-brother to Giacomo) — Santa Anita Derby and Goodwood Handicap, and After Market, Whittingham Memorial and Eddie Read handicaps. Tiago also won the Swaps Stakes, was third to Rags to Riches in the Belmont Stakes and wound up the year running fifth to Horse of the Year Curlin in the Breeders' Cup Classic.
- Tiago, who banked $1.2 million in '07, came back in '08 to take the Oaklawn Handicap, finish third in the Breeders' Cup Classic and earn more than $1 million more.
- Zenyatta, Giacomo and Tiago were all owned by Jerry and Ann Holbrook Moss. Shirreffs' wife, Dottie Ingordo, was the stable manager for Jerry Moss.
- Another Moss-owned runner for Shirreffs was Madeo, a multiple stakes winner including the 2008 Del Mar Derby. Moss and Shirreffs teamed up again in 2019 to capture the Del Mar Derby, this time with Nolde.
- Pulled off a major upset in 2010 when his Zardana outran the odds-on 2009 Horse of the Year Rachel Alexandra in the New Orleans Ladies.
- Coming into 2024, he shows career marks of 574 victories and $54,735,526 in purses. He's won 21 stakes at Del Mar, notching one in 2022 with Justique, a 2-year old filly by Justify, in the $100,000 Desi Arnaz.
- Express Train, a 5-year old son of Union Rags, started 2022 with three graded stakes wins, beginning with the G2 San Antonio on opening day at Santa Anita, (actually 12/26/2021). He followed five weeks later with a thrilling finish in the G2 San Pasqual when he nailed Hot Rod Charlie on the wire, winning the race for the second year in a row. A month later he romped in the G1 Santa Anita Handicap, giving his conditioner his first Big Cap victory.
- Beyond Brilliant won him a pair of Grade 2 races in 2022. The winner of the Hollywood Derby at Del Mar in 2021 won the Charles Whittingham and the City of Hope.
- Trainer's family owned farm near Neufields, N.H., and father bred horses with Peter Fuller of Dancer's Image renown.

- After a hitch in the Marine Corps, including a tour in Vietnam, Shirreffs was headed to Hawaii to become a surfer, but stopped in California and got a job as a hotwalker for trainer Gene Cleveland.
- Later broke yearlings for Ed Nahem at Lakeview Thoroughbred Farm.
- Took out training license in 1978 and operated a small stable in Northern California before going to work for Brian Mayberry and Bill Spawr. Trained privately starting in '94 for Nahem and Marshall Naify's 505 Farms, continuing until Naify died in 2000. Then opened a public stable.
- Among other stakes winners: Hard Not to Love, Midcourt, Manistique, Starrer, Borodislew, Proposed, Bertrando, Tarlow, A.P. Warrior, Stanley Park and Swept Overboard.
- Family: Wife Dottie.

- It all came together for the barn in 2023 as he posted career highs in victories and earnings making 32 trips to the winner's circle and compiling $2,853,737, eclipsing highwater marks set the year before.
- For the second year in a row he was awarded trainer Bob Baffert's Triple Crown hopefuls in 2023. Two made it to the Derby. Practical Move, a son of Practical Joke, was on a three race win streak heading to Kentucky following victories in the G2 Los Alamitos Futurity, the G2 San Felipe and the G1 Santa Anita Derby. Reincarnate, a son of Good Magic, won the G3 Sham and showed speed early on, but faded and finished 13th in Derby. Unfortunately, Practical Move spiked a temperature Derby week and had to be withdrawn from the race and a few months later he suffered a cardiac arrest and died while training for the Breeders' Cup.
- Got his first shot at the Triple Crown in 2022 when Baffert transferred his top 3-year olds to his former assistant's barn to give the colts a chance to qualify for the Kentucky Derby. Taiba and Messier, one-two in the G1 Santa Anita Derby, eventually made it to Louisville on the first Saturday in May. Taiba finished 12th in the Derby, Messier faded to 15th. The horses were transferred back to Baffert following the Derby.

- He won 29 races and compiled earnings of $2,358,140 in 2022, career highs at the time. It was the first time in his 19 years of training that his barn exceeded $1 million in purse money.
- Broke through in 2013 with his first "big" horse when Points Offthebench, a California-bred he'd nursed along until the gelding cut loose as a 4-year-old, registered victories in four of five starts, including a pair of Grade I sprint stakes—Del Mar's Bing Crosby and the Santa Anita Sprint Championship. Next up for the son of Benchmark was to be his role as the favorite in the Breeders' Cup Sprint at Santa Anita, but one week before that race he suffered a catastrophic injury during a workout and had to be euthanized.
- Points Offthebench's brilliance – and Yakteen's fine job with him – received a bittersweet salute posthumously by the racing industry with an Eclipse as Sprint champion. He also was honored in his home state by being named California's 2013 champion older male, sprinter and Horse of the Year by the California Thoroughbred Breeders' Association.
- His ace, the steady mare Mucho Unusual, was retired in March of 2021. The eight-time winner, including four graded stakes, banked $957,415.
- Has also won stakes with Big Score, Fortunately, Bench Points, Ingrid the Gambler and Stratham.
- Has won seven stakes at Del Mar including his score in 2023 with Big Pond in the Fleet Treat Stakes.
- Yakteen spent the first 18 years of his life in Germany, the son of a German mother and a Lebanese-born father who had become a U.S. citizen and joined the Army, which earned him an assignment in Nuremberg. Yakteen speaks fluent German.
- But on July 4, 1982 he started a new life by joining a sister who'd moved stateside to Cypress, California, right near Los Alamitos Race Course.
- Young Yakteen needed a job and, though he had no experience with horses, he was willing to learn and started by mucking stalls, first with trotters, then with Quarter Horses.
- As he moved up the ranks he hooked up with a Quarter Horse trainer on the rise – a white-haired fellow named Bob Baffert. And when Baffert made the jump to Thoroughbreds in 1988 and 1989, Yakteen made it with him.

- Yakteen remained with Baffert until 1991, when he was offered the opportunity to join Hall of Famer Charlie Whittingham. He took it and for the next six years was the Bald Eagle's right-hand man, highlighted by his direct involvement with the careers of the multiple-stakes winning mare Flawlessly, Santa Anita Handicap winner Sir Beaufort and a record-setting run by the horse he saddled in the Japan Cup – Golden Pheasant.
- In 1997 the timing was right for him to return to the Baffert barn and for the next seven years he helped the future Hall of Famer saddle the likes of champions Silver Charm, Real Quiet, Silverbulletday, Chilukki and Point Given, along with dozens of other stakes winners.
- Stayed with Baffert through 2004 before going out on his own. "How exceptionally fortunate was I to be able to work and learn under two Hall of Fame trainers," he says.
- Saddled his first winner in 1991 when he was still in the employ of Baffert, who let him keep a few horses on his own. That inaugural winner was Lady Keeper.
- Sent out his first all-on-his-own winner – and stakes winner – when he took Sabiango to the Dueling Grounds (now Kentucky Downs) in Kentucky to capture the 12-furlong Kentucky Cup Turf Handicap on September 25, 2004. Like his conditioner, Sabiango was a German-bred.
- Married to horsewoman and television commentator Millie Ball, a Brit who began riding in Europe, then transitioned to California racing in 1995. She and Yakteen became friendly at the racetrack and the couple was engaged in Dubai the night before the 2001 Dubai World Cup where they had gone to oversee the Baffert ace Captain Steve – she as the exercise rider, he as the assistant trainer – for his run in the $6-million race. The horse was a winner and Yakteen and Ball were off and running, too. Couple have two sons.

- Won an Eclipse Award as nation's leading apprentice rider in 2000. Was also top apprentice that year at Del Mar and all other Southern California race meets, winning 246 races all told.
- Had his biggest year for purse money in 2004 when he won 239 races and posted earnings of more than $10.1 million, ranking him as the 14th best rider in the country. Also that year won his first riding title during Hollywood Park's spring/summer meet. At 21, became the youngest meet title winner at the now-defunct Inglewood oval since Laffit Pincay, Jr. in 1968.
- 2015 proved his second-best year for purses with more than $8.5 million registered. He won seven graded stakes during that campaign, including Grade I tallies in the Santa Margarita (Warren's Veneda), Triple Bend (Masochistic) and Awesome Again (Smooth Roller). 2008 was his next best for winnings -- more than $8.3 million -- highlighted by five Grade Is including the Del Mar Futurity (Midshipman).
- Has been doing well since 2014, clicking for some of the best purse tallies in his career -- $7.9 million in 2014; $8.5 million in 2015; $7.1 million in 2016; $7.3 million in 2017, and $6.5 million in 2018. He has posted earnings of over $1 million every year since 2000.
- Thru 2018, had won 104 graded stakes with 19 of them of Grade I status.
- Tallied 2,000th victory of his career at Del Mar on August 14, 2014 aboard Kate's Event. Had booted home 1,000th winner (3/11/05) at Santa Anita aboard Mashiko. Coming into 2023, was closing in on 2900 victories.
- First career triumph came on Fleeting Wonder on October 29, 1999 at Oak Tree at Santa Anita. Shortly thereafter, moved his tack to Arizona for the long winter meet at TurfParadise, preparing him for his return to the Southern California circuit and his Eclipse year. Of his 246 wins in 2000, 239 of them came before losing his "bug" on December 12.

- Recovered from a near death experience in 2023 that caused him to miss five months of racing. In April he began suffering intense stomach pains and after many visits to the doctor and the hospital he was diagnosed with a bowel obstruction, one he compares to a horse colicing. He was told if he did not get surgery he would die. He returned to racing at the end of the Del Mar summer meet.
- Missed nearly half of 2010 and a portion of 2011 when a mount head butted him at the starting gate at Del Mar on July 24, causing facial fractures and subsequent vision problems. Won with his second mount back April 28, 2011 at Hollywood Park.
- Moved his tack to the Midwest in the spring of 2019 and rode Oaklawn and the Kentucky circuit, returning to Southern California to ride in the fall and winter. He repeated the schedule in 2020 before returning to SoCal fulltime in 2021. Returned this past winter to ride fulltime at Oaklawn.
- Known as a rider who handles most anything thrown at him on the track -- good from the gate, good sprint rider, good grass rider, good on or off the pace. Simply a good athlete who can do it all.
- Another in the long line of the Baze family in racing. Father Earl and mother, the former Cammie Hunt, both were riders, as well as an uncle, Gary, along with second cousin and North America's all-time winning jockey, the now-retired Russell (12,842 winners). Was also a cousin to the late rider Michael Baze.
- Got on a horse for the first time at age 3; began galloping horses the day after 16th birthday and won his first race 10 days after his 17th birthday.
- Developed a feel for riding by using his Uncle Gary's Equicizer and then getting instructions from Gary on the fine points of riding.
- Family: Wife Christina; one daughter.

* All riders' weights listed are actual body weights. Riders normally "tack" two or three pounds above that weight depending on saddle type.

- Had a breakthrough year in 2023, posting his most victories (91) and highest earnings ($6,963,970) since coming to ride in the U.S. in 2011. He finished fourth in the Del Mar jockey standings during the summer meet and eighth in the fall.
- He has become the regular rider for The Chosen Vron, the popular Cal-bred who won the G1 Bing Crosby in 2023. He also rode the gelding to a repeat victory in the Cary Grant.
- Notched four other graded stakes wins at Del Mar in 2023 with Gold Phoenix in the G2 Eddie Read; Dreamfyre in the G3 Sorrento; Conclude in the G2 Del Mar Derby and Planetario in the G2 Hollywood Turf Cup.
- Rode fulltime at Del Mar for the first time in 2022, finishing sixth in the jockey standings during the summer meet and then eighth in the fall.
- Picked up his first graded stakes victory in the U.S. when he rode the Argentina-bred mare Blue Stripe to victory in the 2022 G1 Clement Hirsch at Del Mar for Chilean trainer Marcello Polanco. He won two other stakes at Del Mar in 2022, the $100,000 Wickerr on Irideo and the $100,000 Cary Grant on The Chosen Vron.
- First came to the U.S. in 2011, riding at Gulfstream Park before moving west and riding at Del Mar, Hollywood Park and Santa Anita. He stayed in the states in 2012, again splitting time between Florida and California but returned to Chile in 2013 where he rode for the next four years.
- Was an accomplished rider in his home country, winning eight Triple Crown races and four Derbies. He compiled over 2,500 victories and on one day won nine-of-his-10 mounts.
- He returned stateside in 2018 and rode exclusively in Florida except for a quick trip out west for the Breeders' Cup at Santa Anita in 2019 where he rode Graceful Kitten to a 12th place finish in the Juvenile Turf.
- He continued to ride in Florida through 2020 but by 2021 began branching out to other tracks like Tampa Bay Downs, Monmouth Park and even a weekend trip to Del Mar.

- Decided to give the West Coast another try when Chilean trainer Amador Sanchez brought a string of horses to Del Mar in 2022.
- Rode in his second Breeders' Cup race on Blue Stripe, finishing second to Malathaat in the 2022 Distaff at Keeneland.
- Began riding when he was 17 and even at that early stage of his career, he set his sites on coming to the United States, which is unusual for Chilean riders. "A majority of riders in Chile want to ride in Sweden," Berrios says. "Many jockeys don't attempt to come here because they have to start from ground zero. I was number one in Chile and came here and had to start from scratch."
- He idolized Hall of Fame rider Jose Santos a Chilean rider whose success in the U.S. includes a Kentucky Derby victory on Funny Cide in 2003. The two have become good friends over the years.
- Family: Wife Stefanni; one daughter, one son.

- Had a meet to forget at Del Mar in 2023. Three days into the summer meet his horse clipped heels with another horse at the start of the fourth race, unseating the rider who landed on his head, breaking a bone in his neck. He was sidelined for the remainder of the meet. The injury didn't require surgery but instead six weeks of vigorous rehab. He returned to the races at Los Alamitos in September.
- Saying he has never ridden outside of California, he cut short his fall meet at Del Mar and moved his tack back east for the winter meet at Turfway Park. He had a good four months, winning 44 races and nearly $1.9 million in earnings, good enough to finish in the top five in the jockey standings.
- He stayed in Kentucky in the spring, riding at Keeneland and then Churchill Downs while making excursions into Indiana to ride at Horseshoe Indianapolis.
- Made the big jump from Northern to Southern California in the summer of 2019 with encouragement from his former agent – veteran Tom Knust – and trainer Doug O'Neill. The move proved a wise one.

- Tallied two Grade 2 victories at Del Mar in 2022, the Sorrento with Vegas Magic and the Eddie Read on Master Piece.
- For 2019, he wound up being the leading rider at the winter-spring Golden Gate Fields meet before heading south, then was third-leading rider at the Del Mar summer meet, tied for leading rider at the Santa Anita fall meet and finished up the year as leading rider at the Del Mar fall session.
- He also captured the 2020 Del Mar fall session and has firmly established himself as one of the top riders in Southern California.
- Won the opening day feature at Del Mar, the $100,000 Oceanside Stakes aboard Flashiest and went on to finish 3rd in the 2021 summer meet jockey standings.
- His shift to the “major” circuit opened stakes-riding opportunities to him that had not existed previously. In 2018, he won a total of two stakes races. In 2019, he won 11 stakes, including a banner weekend in September at Santa Anita when he won a pair of Grade II events and capped it off with his first Grade I tally aboard Mongolian Groom in the $300,000 Awesome Again. Then in 2020 he won a dozen graded stakes, four of them Grade Is, including a tally in the TVG Pacific Classic on champion Maximum Security.
- His climb up the esteem ladder can be tracked through his ranking among all riders: In 2015 he was ranked 206th in the nation; in 2019 he was 28th; in 2020 he was 14th. His purses earned in 2019 -- $6,277,622 – nearly doubled his best previous year. Then he topped that in 2020 with more than $8 million in earnings. Overall, he's totaled over $44 million in career earnings.
- Has earned a reputation as a rider who does all phases of his craft well – dirt or grass, short or long, on the lead or off the pace, good at the gate. “He gives all his horses a chance,” notes one knowledgeable observer.
- Solidly built reinsman says the thing he loves most about racing is the horses. “They are beautiful animals; I love them all,” he states.
- His three favorite places are his home, the racetrack and the gym. You'll find him in the last-named on virtually all of his off days.
- Native of Guatemala, Latin America's poorest country, grew up on family's coffee farm in Nebaj, a town of about 15,000 in the country's mountainous region approximately 240 miles northwest of the capital, Guatemala City, which is Central America's most populous city at 5.7 million inhabitants.

- The country has no racetracks and no racing history, so it is hardly a surprise that Cedillo – the oldest of four brothers and two sisters – never rode a horse growing up. He did, however, ride the family's mule while taking their coffee crop to market.
- Though Guatemalans now make up a substantial number of backstretch workers in Southern California (and are notably present on backstretches at other racing centers across the country), there are only a handful of riders who have made a mark on the American game. Cedillo currently is proving to be the most noteworthy of them.
- His first experience with horses was in 2006 on a farm in Ocala, FL, where he had gone to join his father, who had found work there. Abel signed on as a hot walker and groom initially, then – after about a year and a half and with his size and weight noted – got to gallop a few horses. That led to him actually riding a couple of races at Calder, but only a few.
- A subsequent trip to visit an aunt in Oakland opened up another door when he found his way to Golden Gate Fields and a job as a gallop rider for trainers Jeff Bonde and Greg Gilchrist. Again, he got a chance to ride a few races and this time it clicked. His first week of riding saw him win a race (aboard Scherzi on 3/26/10) and he's been winning them ever since.
- Family: Wife Yasmin; one son.

- Inducted into the Thoroughbred racing Hall of Fame in 2004.
- 2024 is his 39th year in the saddle.
- Became just the third rider in history to record a win in the G1 Santa Anita Handicap in three different decades when he guided Stilleto Boy to victory in the 2023 running. He had previously won the 'Big Cap' in 1992 aboard Best Pal and on Milwaukee Brew in 2002. Only Bill Shoemaker and Victor Espinoza have won the prestigious race over a span of three decades. Shoemaker won the race 11 times over four decades.

- Set a world record when he won 598 races in 1989. That mark still stands.
- Won an Eclipse Award as the nation's top apprentice in 1987, then became one of only four (McCarron, Cauthen, Leparoux) to double up as a journeyman in 1989. He added yet another Eclipse to his trophy case in 1992.
- Was nation's leading rider for wins in 1987 (450), 1988 (474) and 1989 (598) and its leader in purses won ($14,193,006) in 1992.
- Has won 376 Graded stakes with 120 of them of the Grade I variety.
- Youngest rider to win 3,000 races in 1995, then became youngest to surpass $100-million purse mark in 1997.
- Scored victory No. 6,000 on January 27, 2019 at Santa Anita aboard X S Gold. He's 17th best among all riders in that category.
- Currently eighth-leading rider all time in purse earnings with more than $294 million in purses.
- Best earnings year was 2008 - $15.6 million.
- Won the coveted George Woolf Memorial Jockey Award in 1993.
- Captured his first Kentucky Derby aboard Real Quiet in 1998, took the Preakness Stakes, too, then missed a Triple Crown on that colt by a whisker in the Belmont Stakes. Won Kentucky Derby again in 2000 with Fusaichi Pegasus, then got the Roses once more in 2008 with Big Brown, who came back to win Preakness, but couldn't finish Belmont and earn the elusive "Triple."
- Won another Triple Crown race in 2016 with Exaggerator, a colt trained by his brother Keith, when he captured the Preakness Stakes. They had been a closing second in the Kentucky Derby, but failed to fire in the Belmont. Kent registered one more Classic score in the 2009 Belmont aboard Summer Bird.
- Has won six Breeders' Cup races – Kotashaan (Turf, 1993); Desert Stormer (Sprint, 1995); Corinthian (Dirt Mile, 2007); Unrivaled Belle (Distaff, 2010), Texas Red (Juvenile, 2014, trained by brother) and Roy H (Sprint, 2017).
- Kent has earned more than 20 meet riding titles over the years, including three at Del Mar -- 1992, 1993 and 1997.
- Had a weekend to remember during Del Mar's 2021 Fall Turf Festival, winning six races in four days including the Grade II Hollywood Turf Cup aboard Say The Word and the Grade I Hollywood Derby with Beyond Brilliant.
- First rode in Southern California in 1990 and rode regularly at Del Mar until 2005. Returned in summer of 2014 and was second leading rider with 32 wins.

- Has 89 stakes wins at Del Mar, 10th best all time.
- Won his first stakes race on December 13, 1986 on Godbey in the Maryland City Handicap at Laurel.
- Louisiana boy with deep Cajun roots grew up in the heart of Cajun country in a horse-oriented family. He was on horseback on the family farm right after he could walk and rode races as a very young lad on the local bush circuit – including his father's track in Lafayette – for years prior to riding his first "official" winner at age 16 in 1986 at Evangeline Downs in Opelousas, LA.
- Family: Two sons.

- Voted into racing's Hall of Fame in 2017.
 - Won his fourth Breeders' Cup race in 2021 when he pulled-off the upset aboard Ce Ce, defeating heavy favorite Gamine in the Filly & Mare Sprint at Del Mar.
 - Fought a courageous battle to come back from a severe neck injury suffered during a workout spill early in the 2018 Del Mar meeting.
 - Despite beliefs that he might never ride again, seven months later he was back in the saddle and winning races.
 - After coming close twice, rider grabbed the brass ring in 2015 with his sweep of the Triple Crown aboard speedy American Pharoah, the first time in 37 years the feat had been accomplished.
 - First rode the son by Pioneer of the Nile when trainer Bob Baffert put him on for his initial victory, an impressive tally in the Del Mar Futurity in September 2014. Espinoza was the man from then on out and the two of them went on to racing immortality, winning eight of their next nine starts, climaxed by a runaway triumph in the 2015 Breeders' Cup Classic. Colt won more than $8.6 million, an Eclipse as 2-year-old champion, another as 3-year-old champion and then the grand prize as Horse of the Year. He now is a stallion at Ashford Stud in Versailles, KY.
 - Espinoza, who called himself "the luckiest Mexican on Earth” after American Pharoah’s Derby score, went on to become one of the most famous Mexicans on the planet in 2015. Besides the hundreds of interviews he did with racing and sporting media, the TV networks discovered his happy demeanor and he did spots on a series of shows, including “Dancing with the Stars” and “The Tonight Show.”

- He also earned several prestigious awards during and after “Pharoah:” The Laffit Pincay, Jr. Award at Del Mar in 2015 and the George Woolf Award at Santa Anita in 2016. Additionally, he was awarded his third ESPY (2002, 2014, 2015), the “Excellence in Sports Performance Yearly Award” presented by the ABC network.
- Espinoza touched hearts when he revealed that -- because of an emotional visit he’d made previously to children stricken with cancer at the City of Hope research and treatment center in Duarte, near Santa Anita -- he has been donating 10% of his earnings to the facility. Later he noted that all of his winnings from American Pharoah’s Belmont victory went to the cause.
- Steady veteran first became a force in 2000 with 242 wins and more than $13 million in purses. Made a national mark in 2002 when he won Kentucky Derby and Preakness on the Baffert-trained War Emblem, only to see his Triple Crown chances take a tumble when the colt stumbled badly out of the gate in the Belmont, where he wound up finishing eighth.
- Pulled off the Derby-Preakness double again in 2014 on the mercurial California-bred California Chrome, aboard whom he won six straight stakes and had all of racing -- and many outside it -- abuzz with hopes of the first Triple Crown winner in 36 years. Alas, to his chagrin and that of trainer Art Sherman, they could only manage a tie for fourth in the Belmont Stakes.
- California Chrome, however, had more to give beyond his Triple Crown run. He finished his 3-year-old season with a victory in Del Mar’s Hollywood Derby on the grass and locked up 2014 Horse of the Year honors. He ran twice in the $10-million Dubai World Cup, finishing second in 2015 and winning it all in 2016. He then won the San Diego Handicap, TVG Pacific Classic and Awesome Again Stakes before running into the rising superstar Arrogate in the Breeders’ Cup Classic and having to settle for second. “Chrome” did enough, though, to pick up a second Horse of the Year trophy and took a then North American record $14,752,650 in earnings into his stud career.
- Following his Triple Crown efforts with California Chrome in 2014, Espinoza went to Ascot in England and won a stakes (Windsor Castle Stakes aboard Hootenanny) for trainer Wesley Ward. While there he got to chat with Queen Elizabeth in the walking ring.

- Captured his second Breeders’ Cup race when Take Charge Brandi took the Juvenile Fillies at Santa Anita in 2014 at a whopping $125.40. His first was also a boxcar special when he piloted Spain to take the 2000 Distaff for a $133.80 return. His third-time tally wasn’t nearly so big at the tote: American Pharoah paid $3.40.
- Rider had his best year for purses in 2006 with $16.1 million, which put him third in the country. Next best for him was 2004 when he earned $15.9 million (3rd best again) and then 2015 at $15.6 million (6th).
- Has been leading rider at 12 Southern California race meets, including 2000, 2005 and 2006 Del Mar summer sessions, as well as the 2014 fall meet at the shore oval. Highlight of his 2006 Del Mar meet was a record-setting seven victories on Labor Day, September 4. Several riders had held the previous mark of six winners in one afternoon.
- Through 2023, has won 281 Graded stakes with 77 of them being Grade 1’s.
- Captured two of those Grade 1s in 2018 aboard Accelerate (SA Handicap and Gold Cup at SA), eventual champion older horse.
- Won his third Santa Anita Handicap in 2022 when he rode Express Train to a thrilling victory. He joined Bill Shoemaker as the only riders to win the ‘Big Cap’ over three decades, having also won the prestigious race in 2004 aboard Southern Image and in 2018 on Accelerate. Shoemaker won the race 11 times over four decades. The pair was joined by Kent Desormeaux who completed the rare feat aboard Stiletto Boy in the 2023 ‘Big Cap’.
- His 109 stakes wins at Del Mar rank him second all-time. He passed Corey Nakatani with his lone stakes victory at Del Mar in 2023 aboard Tahoe Sunrise in the $125,000 Shared Belief.
- He is the leading rider all-time in money earned at Del Mar with $42,181,849.
- Won 3,000th race of his career May 31, 2013 at Betfair Hollywood Park on Flashy Delight.
- His 668 victories at Del Mar ranks eighth best all-time on the jockey’s list at the Seaside oval.
- When he came to United States in 1993, he rode briefly in Southern California before finding good success in Northern California. Spent a short time riding in Kentucky, then returned to Southern California in 1996.
- He was top apprentice rider at Bay Meadows in 1993-94 and at Golden Gate Fields in ’94. He was runner-up to perennial Northern California champion Russell Baze at the 1995 Golden Gate fall meet.

- First encounter with horses came on a farm outside Mexico City following high school; attended jockey school in Mexico City.
- Drove a city bus as a teenager before becoming a jockey and says: “It’s a lot easier riding horses than driving in that traffic in Mexico City.”
- Comes from a family of 12 children; he is the 11th. Two brothers are jockeys: Jose Espinoza was a regular on the New York circuit before a lingering injury terminated his career, and Leo Espinoza exercises horses in Southern California and has ridden occasionally in the afternoons. Nephew Assael Espinoza now rides in California.
- Became a U.S. citizen after taking his oath with approximately 1,000 other new citizens on April 18, 2018 at a ceremony in downtown San Diego’s Golden Hall.
- Family: Single.

Del Mar Career	768	77	$4,722,112

- Returned to Southern California to ride full time in 2023 after spending 2022 riding back east. Following the close of the 2021 Del Mar fall meet he picked up and moved his tack to the Midwest and Kentucky, riding at Oaklawn Park in the winter, Churchill Downs and Ellis Park in the spring and summer and at Indiana, Keeneland and back to Churchill in the fall. But by December he was back riding at Los Alamitos and remained in Southern California throughout 2023.
- Captured two graded stakes victories during the 2023 Del Mar summer meet winning the G2 San Diego Handicap onboard Senor Buscador and the G3 Green Flash on Motorious. Senor Buscador would provide Franco with his second Breeders’ Cup ride. They finished seventh in the Breeders’ Cup Classic at Santa Anita.
- After riding just a handful of mounts at Del Mar in 2017, the native of Mexico made quite a splash in his second go-round at the seaside oval in 2018, posting 17 wins during the summer meet and a dozen in the fall with purse earnings totaling $1,441,383. He finished sixth in the win column for the summer stand and third in the fall.

- For the year, Franco went to the winner’s circle 109 times for winnings of $5,128,423, by far his best earnings year since he began riding in 2009.
- After something of a slow start to begin his career, he has chalked up earnings of $1 million-plus every year since 2012.
- Has won several graded stakes including his first big one in the G2 Oaklawn Handicap in 2017 with Inside Straight. Subsequently, he won the G1 Santa Margarita in 2018 aboard Fault and the G1 Beholder Mile with Secret Spice in 2019, both at Santa Anita.
- He tallied nine graded stakes wins in 2019 including the G3 Rancho Bernardo at Del Mar with Danuska’s My Girl, the G2 Del Mar Mile with Prince Earl and the G3 Cecile B. DeMille at Del Mar with Smooth Like Strait. He finished the year with over $4.3 million in earnings.
- In 2021, he hooked up with trainer Steve Miyadi and his brilliant sprinter Lieutenant Dan. The three scored victories in the G3 Green Flash at Del Mar and the G2 Eddie D. at Santa Anita before taking a crack at the Breeders’ Cup Turf Sprint. They finished second to Golden Pal. Lieutenant Dan, named after the character in Forrest Gump, ran one more time, winning the 2022 Green Flash, before retiring with nine wins and $923,740 in earnings.
- His first racing experience was with an uncle in Mexico who was a farrier. Franco didn’t do too well working under a horse but when he switched to the top of them, things began to click.
- Rode his first winner at Mexico City’s Hipodromo de las Americas in March of 2009, then moved to Canada and rode at Hastings Park in Vancouver, British Columbia in July. He came to the United States later that year and rode at Golden Gate Fields and Turf Paradise.
- He was the leading rider at Turf Paradise in both 2012 and ’13. That’s where he hooked up with trainer Robertino Diodoro who convinced him to move his tack to the Midwest. He rode at Fair Grounds in New Orleans, Remington Park in Oklahoma and Canterbury Park in Minnesota.
- He finished second in the rider standings at Oaklawn Park before arriving at Santa Anita in 2017. He also finished second in the rider standings at Santa Anita’s summer meet in 2018.
- Is often mistaken for being Italian because of his last name. While riding at Canterbury Park race announcer Paul Allen would often refer to Franco as “the Godfather” in reference to the movie character and play the theme from the movie when he entered the winner’s circle. Soon fellow jocks were calling him “the Godfather”

- which Franco says was okay by him.

- Made quite a first impression in his debut at Del Mar. During the 2023 summer meet he finished second behind Juan Hernandez in the jockey standings with 31 victories. His earnings of $2,008,532 were fourth best. Then during the fall meet he finished third in the jockey standings behind Hernandez and Flavien Prat with 11 trips to the winner’s circle.
- Won his first stakes race at Del Mar when he guided Sister Otoole to a win in the $100,000 CTT and TOC stakes in August of 2023.
- He wound-up winning six graded stakes in 2023. His first in the U.S. came in October when he won the G2 Chandelier on Chatalas for trainer Mark Glatt. His first graded stakes win at Del Mar came in November onboard Easter in the G2 Seabiscuit for trainer Philip D’Amato. He added another stakes win at Del Mar before the end of the fall meet when he won the G3 Cecile B. DeMille on Stay Hot for trainer Peter Eurton.
- He scored his first Grade I win with Stronghold in the 2024 Santa Anita Derby, punching his ticket to the Kentucky Derby one month later. They ran a respectable seventh.
- He first rode Stronghold when the big colt arrived at Del Mar in the fall of 2023. They ran second to Nysos in the G3 Bob Hope. That was followed by another second place finish to Wynstock in the G2 Los Alamitos Futurity. Stronghold won his 2024 debut in the G3 Sunland Derby followed by his breakout win at Santa Anita.
- A native of Italy, he’s a fourth generation rider in his family. His father rode horses as well as his uncle, his grandfather, and his great-grandfather. Despite discouragement from his family, he decided to pursue a career in riding, though he admittedly started a little late. He was 20-years old when he rode in his first race after attending jockey school in Pisa, Italy.

- After a few years riding in Italy and doing very well, he was advised to go and try his skills in England. In 2016 he hooked up with trainer Erwan Charpy who needed a rider in Dubai. He began traveling to the Middle East where he rode at the world famous Meydan Racecourse.
- He became one of the top riders in the United Emirates, spending seven years riding in Dubai. He would ride the winters in Dubai and summers in Italy. He won the G1 Golden Shaheen in 2021 on the Dubai World Cup undercard with Zenden.
- It was in Dubai where he met trainer Doug O’Neill who was so impressed with the young jockey’s riding skills that he invited him to ride some of his horses in the U.S. At first he declined, choosing to remain in Dubai. The onset of COVID also played a part in his decision to stay put. But in the summer of 2022 he got a taste of American racing when he flew across the pond and made his U.S. debut at Saratoga. He rode two races for trainers Dallas Stewart and Michael Trombetta.
- He returned to the Middle East but by the spring of 2023 he made the leap of faith. Upon his arrival at Santa Anita, O’Neill hooked-up the young rider with jockey agent Tom Knust for the start of the Hollywood Meet at the end of April.
- Won on his first mount ever at Del Mar when he rode Economical to victory in a claiming race on day two of the 2023 summer meet.
- His idol is fellow Italian, Frankie Dettori.

- Won the Eclipse Award for top apprentice rider in 2011. He actually won on a second ballot after the first vote was ruled null and void due to some misinformation given out to voters.
- Won his first graded stakes race on Zakaroff in the 2017 El Camino Real Derby.
- Has won a total of four graded stakes races in his career, two onboard Blended Citizen (the G3 Jeff Ruby Steaks at Turfway Park and the G3 Peter Pan at Belmont Park) in 2018. The colt would go on to compete in the Belmont Stakes and finish 9th. It would be Kyle's only start in a Triple Crown race.

- Won his 1,000th career victory on November 19, 2021 aboard the 2-year-old gelding Tizlightning in the 3rd race at Del Mar.
- Moved his tack to Southern California at the start of the 2021 summer meet at Del Mar. He would go on to finish 8th in the jockey standings with 14 wins.
- His earnings of $4,581,893 in 2021 were tops in his career. He followed in 2022 with his second best year in terms of earnings with $4,490,730.
- Won his second El Camino Real Derby with Rombauer in 2021. The colt would go on to win the Preakness Stakes with Flavien Prat in the irons.
- Won four straight riding titles at Golden Gate Fields prior to moving to SoCal. In his final meet (from 12/20 to 6/21 of 2021) he notched 117 victories and collected $2,305,576 in earnings.
- Rode horses on-and-off as a youngster and then stopped. But in his teenage years his parents split-up and he began spending more time with his father at a ranch where he took-up riding jumping horses.
- At age 16, he mucked stalls and walked hots for trainer Steve Miyadi, eventually graduating to galloping horses.
- Rode his first race at Golden Gate Fields on November 26, 2010 and won his first race nine days later on his eighth career mount.
- Moved his tack back east to Pennsylvania in 2011 where he rode at Parx in Bensalem. The young aspiring rider found more opportunities with the larger fields and won with his first mount. He would go on to finish sixth in the jockey standings that year. He won 153 races from 884 mounts with earnings of over $4 million.
- Also rode at other east coast tracks including Monmouth Park, Atlantic City, Penn National and the Meadowlands.
- Won his first stakes race onboard Jake N Elwood in the 2012 Danzig Stakes at Penn National.
- Suffered a spill in July of 2012 and broke his femur prompting him to move back to the Bay Area to recover. During his rehab he met jockey agent Dennis Patterson who convinced him to try riding again at Golden Gate Fields.
- His grandfather was a top rider on the West Coast from the 1950's through the 1970's, winning over 4,000 races in his career. Paul Frey became just the second rider to win over 100 races in a season at Longacres in Washington when he won 103 in 1964.
- His father trained horses and was an exercise rider before becoming the jockey valet for Russell Baze.

- Married: Wife Miya; one daughter, one son.

- Became an overnight sensation when he was named to ride the 3-year-old colt I'll Have Another, who took him on the ride of a lifetime in 2012. Won four straight stakes on him, each bigger than the last — Santa Anita's Robert B. Lewis and Santa Anita Derby, then the Kentucky Derby and Preakness. Next to come was a shot at racing immortality in the Belmont Stakes, but a touch of tendinitis forced the scratch of the colt on the eve of the race.
- I'll Have Another's owner, J. Paul Reddam, saw Gutierrez win a race at Santa Anita early in the 2011-12 meet and liked his style. He suggested to his trainer, Doug O'Neill, that he give the young rider a shot. He did and they were paid back nicely.
- Gutierrez has become Reddam's go-to guy on many occasions since. The rider has won 19 stakes at Del Mar, 14 on Reddam horses including a big score in 2022 in the G2 Del Mar Derby on Slow Down Andy.
- Won Best Pal Stakes and Del Mar Futurity in 2015 on Reddam's Nyquist. Colt climaxed an undefeated 2-year-old season with an impressive tally in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile at Keeneland to earn an Eclipse as champion 2-year-old male. He then came out firing as a 3-year-old and took an undefeated 7-for-7 mark into the Kentucky Derby, where he went favored and scored by better than a length. Gutierrez thus joined Willie Simms (Ben Brush, 1896; Plaudit, 1898) as the only other perfect 2-for-2 rider in the history of the race.
- Nyquist went favored again in the Preakness, but came up short this time, finishing third. Subsequently, he ran a fever and was taken out of consideration for a go in the Belmont Stakes. After two more starts, he was retired to stud for Darley at Jonabell Farm in Kentucky.
- Thru 2023, Gutierrez had won 40 Graded stakes with 14 of them Grade I.

- Scored a major tally in 2016 in the BC Juvenile Fillies aboard Champagne Room. 2016 was his best year in terms of earnings with $9.8 million.
- Registered his 1,000th career victory on February 10, 2017 at Santa Anita aboard Hot Paris Night.
- Now 37-year-old grew up on farm in the small town of El Higo in the Mexican state of Veracruz in the southeastern part of the country, one of four children. Caring for, and riding, horses were a part of his youth.
- His father — Mario Gutierrez Hernandez Sr. — was a Quarter-Horse jockey and trainer and young Mario began riding at age 12.
- Mario became his father's rider for match races, taking part in at least 200 of them by his reckoning in and around his home state of Veracruz.
- In 2005, with his parents' blessing for a one-time shot at being a professional race rider, he went to Mexico City to ride as an apprentice at Hipodromo de las Americas. Caught the eye of a visiting Canadian trainer named Terry Jordan who invited him to try his luck the following year in Vancouver.
- As an apprentice in 2006 he won 91 races at Hastings Park in Vancouver; then was the track's leading rider in 2007 and 2008. He won 47 stakes at the Western Canadian racetrack in his six seasons there.
- He was the regular rider for 2007 Canadian champion 2-year-old filly Dancing Allstar, as well as the British Columbia champion Holy Nova.
- Early on he was taken under wing as the first-string rider by Hastings' training kingpin Troy Taylor, along with owner and syndicate manager Glen Todd. The three of them shared a house in Vancouver and were known as the "two and a half men."
- Gutierrez rode briefly at several U.S. tracks — among them Portland Meadows, Golden Gate Fields and Turf Paradise — but came to Southern California with Taylor and a string of horses in the fall of 2011. Was pondering a return to Vancouver when I'll Have Another changed everything.
- The rider used some of his early Canadian earnings to buy his parents a home, their first.
- Family: Wife Rebecca; one son.

- Swept both riding titles at Del Mar in 2023, once again dominating the summer meet with 39 victories, 14 better than runner-up Umberto Rispoli. He returned in the fall and beat his rival Flavien Prat, posting 21 wins to Prat's 19.
- En route to his back-to-back titles, he captured seven graded stakes at Del Mar in 2023 including the G1 Clement Hirsch aboard Adair Manor and the G2 Del Mar Handicap with Gold Phoenix.
- For the second year in a row he posted a career high in earnings with $15,200,291, exceeding 2022's highwater mark by just over $179,026.
- He has begun taking his act on the road, going to Oaklawn Park in Hot Springs, Arkansas this past spring and winning the G1 Apple Blossom with Adair Manor and the G1 Arkansas Derby with Muth.
- Five months earlier he had guided Muth to a runner-up finish behind Fierceness in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile at Santa Anita. The two were set to run in the Preakness at Pimlico but the son of Good Magic spiked a fever soon after shipping back east and had to be scratched.
- While back home in Southern California, he repeated as riding champion at Santa Anita's Classic meet, his fifth title at the Great Race Place.
- Followed up his first riding title at Del Mar in the fall of 2021 with a dominating wire-to-wire title run in the summer meet of 2022, finishing 21 wins ahead of the runner-up Umberto Rispoli. He posted six victories during the first week of the meet, three on opening day, then followed with seven more wins during the second week and never looked back, winning 25% of the races he rode in.
- Finished a heartbreaking second to Flavien Prat in Del Mar's fall meet jockey standings. He led going into the final day when Prat rang up six winners and surged past.
- Won a total of 18 stakes races during the 2022 Del Mar summer and fall meets including the G1 Del Mar Futurity with Cave Rock and the G1 Hollywood Derby on Speaking Scout.

- In all, he collected 30-graded stakes victories in 2022 and compiled earnings of over $15 million, his best year to date. His earnings were ninth best among jockeys in 2022.
- Came into the 2023 Del Mar Summer meet off of dominating riding titles at Santa Anita's Classic and Hollywood meets.
- Yet another top rider who made the transition from Northern to Southern California with aplomb. He followed the successful changeovers of the likes of Victor Espinoza, Joel Rosario and Abel Cedillo when he headed south in June, 2020.
- Prior to his shift downstate, he'd won a total of four Graded stakes in 11 years of riding up north. In the three years since his move, he has won 57. (As of 2/5/23)
- Rider underscored his abilities with a stakes triple at Santa Anita on the Memorial Day weekend in 2021, clicking with Maxim Rate in the Grade I Gamely, Award Winner in the Grade II Whittingham and Magic On Tap in the Grade II Triple Bend.
- In short order he has won over horsemen with his "do-it-all" style -- winning in front, from behind, on dirt and grass. He's a hard worker, too, ready to ride a full card anytime his agent (veteran Craig O'Bryan) can arrange it.
- Guided Cave Rock to second place finish behind Forte in the 2022 Breeders' Cup Juvenile at Keeneland. Prior to that his best run in a Breeders' Cup race had been a runner-up finish on Anneau d'Oro in the 2019 Juvenile.
- When Northern California leading rider Cedillo headed south in the summer of 2019, Hernandez took over. He captured the Golden Gate Fields fall riding title by winning at a 31% clip, besting his chief rival by 27 wins. Then he won the 2020 winter/spring crown – again at a 31% win rate – by finishing a remarkable 78 victories ahead of his closest pursuer. His trip south was all but assured after that.
- Lived near Veracruz until he was 10, then family moved to Mexico City so his father – a Quarter Horse rider who had ridden in races and matches – could work at the major track there, Hipodromo de las Americas.
- At 15, his dad brought Juan on as a groom at the track, then the young man – who had ridden ponies previously – worked his way up to exercise rider. Finally, he earned a jockey license in 2008 and rode his first winner there in November. Did well enough to be the track's leading rider as an apprentice in 2009, then headed to the U.S. and the Bay Area after that.
- Subsequently rode more than 1,700 winners over the next decade primarily out of his Northern California base. Tried an eight-month stint in the south in 2012 riding at Santa Anita, Hollywood Park and Del Mar (where he won

- 10 races), but returned north for the better business there.
- In 2020, he rode 212 winners, seventh-best among all jockeys nationally.
- Since his shift south, he's been a top five rider at the Santa Anita and Del Mar meets. He has rung up more than $83 million in career earnings.
- Rode the 2,000th winner of his career at Santa Anita on 2/28/21 aboard a Peter Miller-trained horse named Bedrock.
- His middle name is "Jose," thus the "JJ" nickname.
- Family: Wife Melissa; one daughter, one son.

- Continued his resurgence in 2023 with the most wins (85) since 2016 and the highest earnings since his career best in 2013 when he made over $8.3 million. He compiled $5,556,952 in 2023.
 - Teamed up with trainer Doug O'Neill and Ceiling Crusher to win the G3 Torrey Pines at Del Mar then parlayed that with a trip back east to Parx in Pennsylvania where the filly and jockey won the prestigious G1 Cotillion.
 - He went international this spring when he won the $1M Godolphin Mile aboard Two Rivers Over for O'Neill on the undercard of the Dubai World Cup.
 - Finished in the top 10 in the jockey standings of both Del Mar meets in 2023, finishing fifth in the summer and fourth in the fall. He solidified his reputation as a front running demon, winning several of his victories in wire-to-wire fashion.
 - Steady veteran has been a regular in Southern California since 2010.
 - Lost four months at the end of 2016 when a morning worker plowed him into the rail at Del Mar in September and broke his ribs and collapsed a lung. He hung tough and worked his way back inside of six months.
 - Put together a showcase year in 2012. Was fourth-leading rider at Del Mar, then took riding titles at Fairplex Park and Betfair Hollywood's autumn meet. To win the Fairplex meet he had to do the near impossible: unseat perennial champion (13 straight riding titles) Martin Pedroza. He pulled it off, 26 winners to 19.

- Tied with Rafael Bejarano for top jock at 2013 spring-summer Betfair Hollywood Park session.
- Won half a dozen races at Del Mar in 2011; then won 24 in 2012. He took it up another notch in 2013 when he won 27 races and was the third-leading jock. Registered first Del Mar stakes victory in '12 on Nechez Dawn in Daisycutter Handicap. He added three more in 2013, including a tally on Ethnic Dance in a division of the GII Del Mar Derby.
- Won half a dozen other stakes during 2012, including graded tallies on Izzy Rules in the Las Flores and Comma to the Top in the Daytona, both at Santa Anita. Has 13 Graded stakes tallies to his credit.
- Rode winners of four straight runnings of Los Angeles Stakes -- Comma to the Top (2013), Cyclometer (2014), Distinctiv Passion (2015), San Onofre (2016).
- Got interested in the sport as a child when mother and uncle, Manuel Alicea, who was a jockey, took him to the races.
- Got initial grounding from trainer Ramon Flores on the Texas racing circuit. Started as hot walker, graduated to groom and then exercise rider.
- When he first began his career as a jockey, he was listed under the name Edwin Alicea, his mother's first surname, or apellido. (Hispanics normally have two apellidos, a combination of their father's first apellido along with their mother's first apellido.) Subsequently, he rode under the name Edwin Maldonado-Alicea, a combination of his father and mother's first apellidos. Now in the program he simply goes by Edwin Maldonado.
- Officially began his career and had his first winner at Assiniboia Downs in Winnipeg, Canada, before moving on to the familiar Texas circuit, where he rode for three years. Shifted next to Louisiana Downs and Delta Downs before heading west to Southern California to ride at the 2010 Fairplex Park meet.

Del Mar Career	1,679	159	$9,206,034

- Notched a career high in earnings in 2023, compiling $4,761,145. His 82 victories were tied for second best in his career, four fewer than the 86 he posted in 2018.
- He won three graded stakes in 2023, including a victory on Linda's Gift in the G3 Red Carpet at Del Mar. The other two came on the Brazilian-bred Macadamia in the G3 Wilshire and the G1 Gamely, both at Santa Anita. The Wilshire was his first graded stakes victory since taking the Pacific Classic on Tripoli in 2021.
- Came to the United States – and California – in 2014.
- Has been a steady performer at Del Mar during the summers. He rode 14 winners in 2015; 13 in 2016; nine in 2017; 14 in 2018; seven in 2019; 21 in 2020, eight in 2021, and seven in 2022.
- Has won 12 Del Mar stakes races including the California Dreamin' on Carmelita's Man in 2023. Other notable stakes victories at Del Mar were the 2017 Oceanside Stakes with Bowies Hero and the Rancho Bernardo Handicap with Skye Diamonds, also in 2017. Won a trio of local stakes in 2020.
- But his biggest win at Del Mar came in 2021 when he rode Tripoli to victory in the G1 Pacific Classic. It helped boost the rider's earnings over $1 million at the meet, making him sixth best among the jockeys that summer.
- Brazilian native has been a solid member of the Southern California jockey colony since 2014 and has had good luck with former trainer Bill Spawr. As a result, he was the regular pilot for the conditioner's multiple-stakes winner Skye Diamonds, not only at Del Mar but also in the Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Sprint, where she finished fourth in 2017 and 10th in 2018.
- Has quite an international tinge to his riding career, having won more than 2,000 races not only in his native Brazil but also in Singapore, Macau and Dubai. In fact, his biggest win all time came in 2010 in the $10-million Dubai World Cup aboard Gloria De Campeao. He took the horse trained by Pascal Barry right to the front out of the gate and fended off challengers to win by a nose

- in the first-ever World Cup at Meydan Racecourse.
- Broke his maiden in 1993 at Hipodromo do Cristal, Porto Alegre, Brazil.
- Family: Wife Fernanda; one daughter.

- Flying Frenchman repeated his cross-country schedule in 2023 competing fulltime at the Keeneland meet in April and then the NYRA circuit through the summer before returning to Del Mar in November. He came up two wins short of repeating as the fall meet riding champion at the seaside oval when Juan Hernandez bested him 21-to-19.
- He made a couple of cameo appearances at Del Mar during the summer, compiling enough earnings to rank seventh in the jockey standings.
- He posted his second best year in earnings with over $26 million in 2023, third best in the nation behind Irad Ortiz, Jr and Tyler Gaffalione.
- Won 41 graded stakes races in 2023, 13 of the Grade One variety including the TVG Pacific Classic for the second year in a row, guiding Arabian Knight to victory. He also won the Del Mar Futurity with Prince of Monaco and the Hollywood Derby with Program Trading.
- He first moved his tack back East in March of 2022 returning to the Del Mar for the fall meet and promptly taking the riding title in dramatic fashion, winning six races on the final day to pass Juan Hernandez.
- Up until his departure, he had become "The Man" in the Southern California jockey colony – in demand daily locally, as well as a hot ticket for stakes horses around the country.
- Won Del Mar's Summer meet riding title in 2021, his third in a row and fifth summer crown in the last six years at Del Mar. He shared the title with Rafael Bejarano in 2016.
- Returned to finish second in the 2021 Fall meet Jockey Standings behind Juan Hernandez. Has won two Fall meet riding titles, the other in 2017.
- Overall in 2021, he won 246 races and earned over $23-million in purses, good enough for fifth in the nation.

- With his victories in the Beholder and the Kilroe Mile during Santa Anita's 2024 Classic Meet, he has now won a grade one race in ten straight years.
- Started 2022 with a bang, winning six of 10 mounts on New Years Day at Santa Anita and running second in the other four races. He just missed tying the track record of seven held by the great Laffitt Pincay, Jr but his mount, Beer Can Man, missed by a nose to Chewing Gum in the G2 Joe Hernandez Stakes. It was the third time in as many years he had notched six victories on a single card at Santa Anita.
- He would go on to produce his best year ever, in terms of earnings, compiling $29,832,252 in 2022, second best in the nation among jockeys, trailing only Eclipse Award winning jockey Irad Ortiz Jr. His 236 wins were second best in his career and eighth in the nation.
- Much of his earnings and three of the victories came on the back of Horse of the Year Flightline. He guided the undefeated son of Tapit to dominating wins in the G1 Met Mile at Belmont Park, the G1 Pacific Classic at Del Mar, and the G1 Breeders' Cup Classic at Keeneland.
- His victory in the 2022 G1 TVG Pacific Classic was a record breaker as he coasted home a 19 ¼ length winner, the largest margin of victory ever in the marquee race. In all, Flightline won six times, twice at Del Mar, with Prat onboard for all six.
- He won 42 graded stakes races in 2022, 13 of which were Grade 1.
- He won six stakes races at Del Mar in 2023 and now has 91 stakes wins in nine seasons of riding at the shore, ninth best all time.
- Was in the right place at the right time in 2019 when he was "kissed in" in the Kentucky Derby aboard Country House following the controversial disqualification of Maximum Security, the horse first under the wire who was moved back to 17th. Prat's horse, posted at 65-1 on the tote, had finished second, but was made the winner following the first win DQ in the 145 runnings of the Run for the Roses.
- Meticulous reinsman broke through initially stateside in 2015, winning 84 races, more than $5.2 million in purses and several major stakes -- and this despite losing about four months to a nasty racing spill at Los Alamitos in September that had him in a body cast for more than two months.
- In four years from 2016 to 2019, he's gone from good to better to among the very best. His purse totals have climbed ($12.3 million in 2016; $12.6 million in 2017; $12.9 million in 2018, then jumping to $19.6 million in 2019, 5th best nationally), as he won 683 races during that span.

- In 2020 he had another banner year, winning nearly $12 million in purses along with 28 graded stakes.
- Won 46 graded stakes races in 2021, trailing only the year's Eclipse Award winning jockey, Joel Rosario, who notched 49. Twelve of Prat's stakes victories were Grade 1.
- Won 21 graded stakes on turf in 2021, best in the nation and eight better than runner-up Irad Ortiz.
- He set a new Del Mar standard in 2020 when he won 15 stakes during its summer season, most ever by a jock.
- Among his '21 special scores was a Triple Crown tally with Rombauer in the Preakness Stakes. He would go on to finish second in the Belmont Stakes on Hot Rod Charlie, the colt he ran third with in the Kentucky Derby.
- Booted home his first winner at Fontainebleau, France in September, 2009.
- When Prat was 17, he rode his first race in the United States at Hollywood Park, then registered his first victory stateside at Santa Anita on January 15, 2010 aboard Heavenly n' Free, who paid $103.40 to win.
- Spent his winters in Southern California with trainer Leonard Powell, who acted as his guardian, for both the 2009 and 2010 meetings at Santa Anita. "I love racing in America, which is very different to the way races are run in France," said Prat. "Let's say I've learned about different race rhythms, and it has certainly improved my strength in the saddle."
- In early 2012, Prat was named as the second call for the Wertheimer brothers in France, a role of honor behind star rider Olivier Peslier. He had won the "Etrier d'Or" as that country's top apprentice in 2009.
- Being a jockey was the only profession Prat ever considered. He grew up around horses with his father, Frederic Prat, training harness horses for a living. Young Flavien was always at the stables and early on got a taste for things by riding in some pony races. His brother, Alexi, is a harness driver in France.
- Served his apprenticeship under Chantilly handler Tony Clout in France.
- In five years stateside between 2009 and 2014, Prat had limited opportunities, but managed 10 victories from 71 mounts.
- He committed to U.S. racing and moved to Southern California at the start of the Santa Anita big meet, beginning on December 26, 2014.
- Added his fifth Breeders' Cup triumph in 2023 with Hard to Justify in the Juvenile Fillies Turf at Santa Anita. It joins his list of Breeders' Cup winners that consists of Flightline in the 2022 Breeders' Cup Classic at Keeneland; Battle of Midway in the Las Vegas Breeders' Cup Dirt

Mile at Del Mar in 2017; the BC Turf Sprint aboard Obviously in 2016 at Santa Anita, and the 2019 Breeders' Cup Juvenile on Storm the Court, also at Santa Anita.

- Prat's first North American stakes winner was aboard Power Ped for trainer Neil Drysdale at Turf Paradise on January 17, 2015 in the Cotton Fitzsimmons Mile Handicap.
- His first North American graded stakes winner was the Argentine-bred Catch a Flight for Hall of Fame trainer Richard Mandella in the Gr. III Precisionist Stakes at Santa Anita on May 2, 2015, providing the conditioner with his 2000th career triumph. Mandella was among the first American horsemen to encourage young Prat to shift stateside permanently.
- Prat used his injury downtime in 2015 to some advantage by signing up with the Berlitz School in Pasadena and diving into English classes. He now speaks it well, with a charming French accent, mais oui.
- Family: Wife Manon; one daughter; one son.

Umberto Rispoli

2023 (F)	53	6	$463,300
Del Mar Career	937	165	$12,212,036

- A true international horseman, Rispoli has made his mark at racetracks in Italy, France, England, Australia, Singapore, Japan, Hong Kong and now the United States.
- He notched his 2,000th career win earlier this year (2024) when he kicked home Trihari in the $250,000 Rushaway Stakes at Turfway Park.
- He has been the model of consistency since he began riding in the U.S. in 2020. He has won 10 graded stakes races every year but 2021 when he won 11. He has posted $2.3 million in earnings at the Del Mar summer meet each year since 2020 except in 2021 when he finished with $2.1 million.
- He has finished second in the jockey standings three out of the four summers he's ridden at Del Mar. The lone exception in 2021 when he finished third. He's finished in the Top 10 all four years he's ridden the Del Mar fall meet.
- In 2023, he hooked up with trainer Leonard Powell who put him on the high-class filly Anisette. They proceeded to win the G2 San Clemente, the G1 Del Mar Oaks and the G1 American Oaks at Santa Anita.

- He also joined forces with trainer Carla Gaines and rode the 2023 Cal-bred Older Female and Turf champion Closing Remarks to a pair of Grade 2 stakes victories at Del Mar, the John C. Mabee and the Yellow Ribbon.
- His U.S. arrival in 2020 was smashing. He won 50 races at the winter/spring session at Santa Anita, then won 49 that summer at Del Mar.
- His Del Mar stand was a pip as he battled hammer and tongs with Southern California riding king Flavien Prat that saw first one, then the other, lead the stand. Their mano a mano was the highlight of the shortened 27-day session that finally saw Prat winning the second-to-last race of the summer and nipping his tenacious rival 50-49.
- In 2022, he finished a distant second to Juan Hernandez in the summer jockey standings both in wins and earnings.
- He won six stakes races at Del Mar in 2022 including the G2 San Clemente with Bellabel and the G2 Yellow Ribbon with Going Global. He now has 25 stakes victories at the seaside oval.
- Not surprisingly for an internationalist, Rispoli's ace in the hole proved to be his special touch on a turf course, something he underscored at the shore oval in the summer of 2020. At one point during the middle of the Del Mar stand he was winning turf races at a 40% clip.
- Grew up in the Naple's suburb of Scampia and went to work as a teenager in the stables of trainer Luigi Camici in Latina, roughly midway between Naples and Rome. Gravitated toward riding and a stint in the Italian Racing School in Pisa polished his game. He signed on in 2003 with trainer Alduino Botti and in 2004 he earned his jockey license.
- Won his first race in 2005 at Varese Racecourse north of Milan. He won 81 other races that year. By 2009 he was riding "molto bene," so much so that he was Italy's riding champion. His 229 victories that year broke the record established by his hero, international riding star Franco Dettori. Rispoli was national champion once more in 2010 with 245 wins.
- Then, starting in France, there came a decade of packed suitcases and race riding in far-distant locales all around the world. He continued despite several severe riding injuries, honing his craft and toughening his hide.
- His entrance into U.S. racing came via super agent Ron Anderson, who in 2020 signed him on in Southern California alongside his regular riding ace, Joel Rosario. But when Rosario and Anderson headed east in the spring, Rispoli stayed on and got lucky when old pro Scotty

- McClellan took his book. They've clicked nicely since.
- Has captured 41 graded stakes in California through 2023. He won the G3 Jeff Ruby Steaks this spring on Endlessly for trainer Michael McCarthy. It was his first graded stakes win outside of the Golden State. That victory punched his ticket to his second Kentucky Derby. The pair finished ninth.
- His first ride in the Run For The Roses came in 2021 aboard Brooklyn Strong. They finished 14th that day.
- He won eight stakes at Del Mar in 2020, including the Del Mar Handicap and the Del Mar Derby.
- Set a career high for earnings in 2021 with $10,197,247... ranked 14th in the nation.
- Registered three Grade I tallies in 2021 on Smooth Like Straight (Shoemaker Mile), Rock Your World (Santa Anita Derby) and Going To Vegas (Rodeo Drive).
- Rode his first Breeders' Cup race in 2021 at Del Mar, finishing second to Space Blues in the Mile onboard Smooth Like Strait.
- Is married to Kimberley Mosse, the daughter of highly successful French rider Gerald Mosse, who—like Rispoli—has ridden around the world and continues to do so into his 50s. Umberto and Kimberley have two sons.

- Shifted his tack to the Bay Area 2020 and now is among the top riders there.
 - Won Eclipse Award by a wide vote margin as America's top apprentice jockey for 2017.
 - That year he won 166 races for earnings of $5.1 million, easily outdistancing all other apprentice riders in the U.S. for both victories and earnings.
 - Was an immediate sensation after hitting the Southern California circuit, winning five riding titles during his Eclipse year. He then captured Santa Anita's 2018 winter meet title with 46 firsts despite losing his five-pound apprentice allowance that March.
 - Lost two months during 2018 Santa Anita spring/summer meet to a broken toe.

- Graduate of Puerto Rico's famous jockey school, Escuela Vocacional Hipica, and won his first race on January 5, 2017 at Hipodromo Camarero in his native land.
- His plan after that was to head to the United States to ride in Pennsylvania. Longtime successful jockey agent Tony Matos (also a Puerto Rican) persuaded him to alter his course and come to California.
- Became the first apprentice since Gordon Glisson in 1949 to win a Santa Anita riding title as he tied Flavien Prat for top rider at the 2017 spring-summer meet. Followed that up with the riding title at all three Los Alamitos meetings and the fall Santa Anita session.
- At Del Mar's 2017 summer and fall meets, he finished second to Prat.
- Trainers showed a willingness to use Roman in stakes races, something that isn't always true of "bug" boys. In 2017 he won the Longacres Mile for Vann Belvoir aboard Gold Rush Dancer at Emerald Downs; Santa Anita's Southern Truce Stakes for Hall of Famer Jerry Hollendorfer aboard Street Surrender, and the CTBA Stakes at Del Mar on Show It N Moe It for Gary Sherlock.
- Has won a trio of stakes at Del Mar: the aforementioned CTBA, the Oceanside Stakes on Restrainedvengeance in 2018 and the Kathryn Crosby in 2019 aboard Wicked Old Fashion.

Mike Smith

Born: August 10, 1965
Roswell, New Mexico

Resides: Pasadena, California
Carlsbad, California

Height: 5'4" • Weight: 116 pounds

DMR Stats	Mounts	Wins	Purses
2023 (F)	26	3	$222,620
Del Mar Career	2,237	333	$31,250,033

- Entered racing's Hall of Fame in 2003.
- Climbed a mountain he thought he'd never reach in 2018 aboard the mercurial Justify as he teamed up with the undefeated colt to sweep the Triple Crown. Smith gave the handsome chestnut speedster three perfect rides then, in his pro's pro fashion, deferred to his mount: "He was sent down from heaven," the emotionally spent rider said after their Belmont Stakes tally.
- Has taken on the moniker "Big Money Mike" because of his extraordinary run of top horses and big wins on the biggest stages. A sampling of the equine talent he's sat atop would include Horses of the Year Skip Away, Azeri and Zenyatta, and, more recently, champions Arrogate, Songbird and Justify.

- Enjoyed phenomenal success aboard Arrogate in 2016-'17, guiding him to victory in the three richest races in the world, the Breeders' Cup Classic, the Pegasus World Cup and the Dubai World Cup en route to becoming the richest horse in North America history with earnings of $17,422,600. He was accorded an Eclipse Award as the champion three-year-old of 2016 and retired to stud at Juddmonte Farm in Kentucky in 2017.
- Songbird, the champion 3-year-old filly of 2016, rattled off 11 straight victories beginning as a juvenile, her streak ending when she was nosed out by another champion, the older Beholder, in an epic match in the Breeders' Cup Distaff. She won two more races as a 4-year-old and then was retired after finishing second in the Personal Ensign.
- Became all-time Breeders' Cup championship winning jockey with two victories in 2012 at Santa Anita, running his total to 17 and breaking a 15-all tie with retired Jerry Bailey. He's added 10 more since then and his total of 27 is well out front in that department.
- His last Breeders' Cup win came at Del Mar in 2021 when he guided Speedway Stables' 2-year-old Eclipse Award winner Corniche to victory in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile.
- Between 2012 and 2019 Smith won no less than $10 million in purses each year as his sparkling career continued to roll on.
- Thru 2023 -- his 43rd year in the saddle — Smith can claim a staggering 657 Graded stakes wins. Perhaps even more amazingly, 239 of them — more than one third — have been in Grade Is. Two more came in 2024. The first came, on the ill-fated Geaux Rocket Ride in the Haskell Invitational at Monmouth Park. The second on Tamara, a promising young filly out of Beholder, in the Del Mar Debutante.
- It would be impossible to come up with another scenario in any sport in the world where an athlete of his age — he'll turn 59 this August 10 — is in high demand from coast-to-coast to perform in his sport's most prestigious and pressure-packed events.
- Though he has had success on literally hundreds of very good horses, he may always be known best as the rider of the great mare Zenyatta, owned by Mr.-Mrs. Jerry Moss and trained by John Shirreffs.
- With the exception of her first three starts, Smith was Zenyatta's jockey, guiding the remarkable champion through a marvelous four-year, undefeated run that finally ended at 19 straight with her last-gasp loss to the colt Blame in the 2010 Breeders' Cup Classic at Churchill Downs. In 2009 at Santa Anita, she became the only female to win the Breeders' Cup Classic in one of the most exciting contests in racing history.

- Smith's partnership with the massive daughter of Street Cry helped earn her four Eclipse Awards, including the sweetest prize of all — Horse of the Year 2010. Along the way, they won Del Mar's Clement L. Hirsch Stakes in 2008, 2009 and 2010. She also rang up more than $7.3 million in purses.
- A notable 2013 stakes score was with Palace Malice in the Belmont, his fourth Triple Crown triumph. That number is now seven after the Triple Crown success of Justify. Won the 2005 Kentucky Derby aboard the Shirreffs-trained and Moss-owned and -bred Giacomo at odds of 50-1. Also finished second eight times and third on seven occasions in Triple Crown races.
- Appeared he might have another Triple Crown notch on his belt in 2019 with his call on Omaha Beach, favored to win the Kentucky Derby. But, alas, the colt came up with an entrapped epiglottis three days before the race and had to be withdrawn.
- Rode 5,000th winner of his career April 7, 2012 at Santa Anita in Portrero Grande Stakes aboard sprint champion Amazombie
- He was the regular rider for another award-winning female — triple Eclipse winner Azeri, twice champion mare and Horse of the Year in 2002. He rode the chestnut in her first 18 starts, winning 15 times with two seconds and a third.
- Only rider 2017 female sprint champion and millionaire Unique Bella ever knew.
- Though he didn't begin riding at Del Mar until 2001, he has rung up 80 stakes wins locally, 11th best all time. Has won track's $1-million TVG Pacific Classic four times in 10 attempts.
- Rider built his early career mostly on the east coast, but has done well in Southern California since moving his tack west in 2001. Switched his base to Kentucky in 2005 and then rode in the east in 2006 before returning to Southern California full time in 2007.
- Recovered from near-career-ending broken back suffered in a spill at Saratoga in 1998, returning to ride during 1999 Gulfstream Park season.
- In 1993 and 1994, led nation's jockeys in earnings, setting what was then in the latter year a record $15.9 million. Also established record of 67 stakes victories, breaking his mark of 62 set in 1993. Captured Eclipse Award each of those years as nation's top jockey.

- Currently third-leading jockey all time for money won with more than $349 million.
- A sampler of other top horses ridden: Fourstars Allstar, winner of the 2,000 Guineas at The Curragh; Holy Bull, 1994 Horse of the Year; two-time Breeders' Cup Mile champion Lure; Sky Beauty, Heavenly Prize, Devil His Due, Glitter Woman, Adoration, Royal Delta, Shared Belief, Drosselmeyer, Prairie Bayou, Bodemeister and Paynter.
- Rode first winner — Future Man — at Santa Fe Downs on June 12, 1982. Rode primarily in the midwest — Oaklawn Park, Churchill Downs and Canterbury Downs — until heading to New York in late 1989.
- Son of jockey George Smith.
- Began riding races at age 11 in New Mexico. Took out jockey's license when he was 16 in 1982.
- Was inducted into New Mexico's Hall of Fame in 2014.
- Awards: Eclipse Award, 1993-94; Mike Venezia Award, 1994; George Woolf Memorial Jockey Award, 1999; ESPY Award for outstanding jockey, 1993; "Big Sport of Turfdom" award in 2010, after winning the same award in 2009 as part of "Team Zenyatta;" Bill Shoemaker Award three times, 2012-13-16, and Laffit Pincay, Jr. Award, 2017.
- On the board of directors of Jockeys' Guild.
- May have added a new career consideration to his sparkling resume when he served as one of the primary announcers in the FOX network's broadcast of the 2023 Belmont Stakes
- Family: Wife Cynthia.

- Returns to Del Mar after riding in the Midwest for the past four years.
- Made the decision to move his tack back east to Oaklawn Park in 2020 due to a decline in business in Southern California in addition to going back to his roots in the Midwest.

- He scored in five graded stakes his first year away from the California, winning a couple of grade 3's at Oaklawn Park as well as the G2 Azeri on board Serengeti Express. He then ventured up to Keeneland and took the G1 Shadwell Turf Mile on Ivar.
- Had four more graded stakes win in 2021 including the G2 Rachel Alexandra at Fair Grounds on Clairiere and the G2 Kentucky Turf Cup at Kentucky Downs on Imperador.
- Banked over $8 million in earnings in 2020 and $6.4 million in both 2021 and 2022. But business and rides started declining by 2023 and he began thinking of returning to Southern California.
- He made the decision to ride at Turfway Park this past winter to be closer to his family in Louisville but admits that it was a bad decision because he couldn't get as many rides as he had hoped.
- He returned to Santa Anita this past spring.
- First came to Southern California in 2007 as a 17-year old apprentice rider after becoming the first "bug boy" to win the riding title at New Orleans' Fair Grounds with 119 victories, 25 more than runner-up and often local champion Robby Albarado.
- Didn't disappoint as he battled throughout Hollywood Park spring-summer season with the late Michael Baze before finishing second. Finished second to Baze again at Del Mar, but in the process all but assured himself an Eclipse Award as the nation's top apprentice.
- 2012 was his best year for purses – more than $11.8 million – ranking him ninth-best in the country that year.
- Became the first apprentice to win two Grade 1 races on same program with victories on Nashoba's Key in the $300,000 Vanity and Bilo in the $300,000 Triple Bend at Hollywood Park July 7, 2007. Says 7/7/07 is his lucky day.
- Reprised Grade I double June 14, 2014 at Santa Anita when he won the Vanity stakes on Iotapa and the Shoemaker Mile with Obviously.
- On his first day as a journeyman – July 22, 2007 – rode three winners at Del Mar, including Spenditallbaby in the Fleet Treat Stakes.
- In 2012, tied previous record for stakes wins at Del Mar meet with 12, only to be edged out by Rafael Bejarano's 13. Can boast of 56 stakes wins at Del Mar.
- Went past the $100 million mark in purses in 2018.
- Had to deal with a heartbreaker at 2009 Kentucky Derby. Came to the track Derby morning expecting to ride the favorite in the Run for the Roses – the colt I Want Revenge, aboard who he won the Gotham stakes and Wood Memorial. Instead, he found that the horse had been injured and would be scratched.
- 2009 finished up on a high note when he zoomed home first in the Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint with California Flag for his first tally in racing's championship events.
- In 2009, rode 2-year-old colt Sidney's Candy to a track record win then came back in 2010 to win a trio of stakes on him – including the Santa Anita Derby. The horse got the rider his first Kentucky Derby mount, but faded to 17th behind Super Saver.
- Only got to win 12 races in 2010 Del Mar meet, but that was because he only got to ride 12 days. Went down in a turf course spill August 5 and broke his left wrist. Bounced back in 2011 with 42 firsts, second best at the seaside session.
- First victory: Well Heavens Sake, July 9, 2006, Louisiana Downs.
- First graded stakes win: Ashley's Kitty in Railbird at Hollywood Park for trainer Ted H. West on May 13, 2007.
- First Southern California meet riding title: 2014 spring/summer session at Santa Anita with 43 winners.
- Clicked in a couple of Grade Is in 2016 when he helped Melatonin take the Santa Anita Handicap and the Gold Cup at Santa Anita.
- Was regular pilot for grass speedster Obviously, who set mile record on the green (1:32.10) in the 2012 Del Mar Mile, then came back to win it again in 2013.
- Returned to Del Mar in 2021 for a couple of rides in the Breeders' Cup. He rode Giant Game to a third place finish in the Juvenile and Ivar to a third place finish in the Mile.
- Grew up in Marrero, across the Mississippi River from New Orleans with horses in his backyard. Did his first riding at age 11, learning his trade like many Cajun riders before him on the bush tracks of Louisiana. Rode his first recognized meet at age 16 at Louisiana Downs in Bossier City.
- Was one of the featured riders in the two seasons of the Animal Planet cable series "Jockeys."
- Family: Wife Elizabeth; two sons.

Drayden Van Dyke

Born: September 10, 1994

Louisville, Kentucky

Resides: Monrovia, California

DMR Stats	Mounts	Wins	Purses

- Returned to Southern California to ride fulltime in time for the 2021 Del Mar summer meet after spending four months in Kentucky in an attempt to "change his luck." Got Hall of Famer Gary Stevens to sign on as his agent.
- Fine young rider had a "coming out" of sorts at Del Mar in 2018 when he won both the summer and fall riding titles. Took down 11 stakes during the summer stand and three more in the fall, pushing his seaside total to 25. He now has 35 Del Mar stakes wins.
- Had his best year by far in 2018 when he finished first in 150 races, captured 19 Graded stakes and banked $11,086,905 in purses.
- Has won 67 Graded stakes all told with 18 of them Grade I through 2022.
- Lost the first half of 2017 to a compound fracture of his right arm suffered in a spill at Santa Anita in January. Still came back to win more than $5 million in purses.
- In 2014, became third Southern California-based rider to win Eclipse Award as top apprentice since 2000, joining Tyler Baze and Joe Talamo. Van Dyke rode 192 winners during the year for earnings of more than $6 million. (That trio was joined subsequently by Evin Roman in 2017 and Jessica Pyfer in 2021).
- Losing his apprentice weight allowance in January, 2015 didn't slow him down much. He finished eighth at the big Santa Anita meet with 24 wins and more than $1.6 million in earnings. Also registered his first Grade I victory there aboard Ring Weekend in the Kilroe Mile for trainer Graham Motion.
- Captured his first Breeders' Cup victory in 2018 when he got Stormy Liberal home on top in the B.C. Turf Sprint at Churchill Downs. He rode Ginobili to a runner-up finish in the Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile at Del Mar behind Life Is Good in 2021. He also finished second onboard Catapult in the 2018 Breeders' Cup Mile.
- Won two Grade Is in one afternoon at Los Alamitos (12/8/18) aboard Improbable (Cash Call Futurity) and

- Chasing Yesterday (Starlet), both for trainer Bob Baffert.
- Began riding professionally at Hollywood Park fall meet in 2013; won first race on second mount.
- Had ridden regularly for Tom Proctor stable; had galloped for Proctor at start of his career and then went to Glen Hill Farm in Ocala, FL, for polishing under Proctor's brother, Hap, the farm's manager.
- Scored a trio of stakes wins in 2018 aboard star City of Light. Won stakes doubles on Catapult and Catalina Cruiser.
- Father, Seth, was a rider for a short period who rode in the Midwest. Growing up in that atmosphere, young Drayden always wanted to be jockey.
- Lived his early years and went to school in Hot Springs, AR, where mother, Jennifer, lived. Father lived in Louisville, KY. Has older brother, Keeghan, an exercise rider in the Midwest, and younger sister, Alexandria.
- Tried out for his high school basketball team at age 13, but didn't make it. Decided then that the way to go was to be a rider.
- Tacks a feathery 106 pounds.
- Family: Single.

STAKES-WINNING JOCKEYS & TRAINERS –1937-2023

Trainer O.J. Jauregui and rider Hector Berrios share a sweet moment in the winner's circle following the victory of their good filly Dreamfyre in the Sorrento Stakes.
