SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 4, 2021

BEST BET: RACE 10, CORNICHE

RACE ONE

First post moves to 1:30 Pacific. Two Bob Baffert trainees top this maiden special-weight for older: first-time starter SUMO and debut runner-up VETOED. They have worked in company, with little separating them. But when they worked together Aug. 8, SUMO was forced to veer outside traffic on the clubhouse turn, gathered himself to reengage with his workmate, and finished heads-up. Sharp move, followed by a series of August works that suggest SUMO is ready to fire. VETOED pressed the pace and finished third in his odds-on debut. He earned a respectable 82 Beyer, but the one-two finishers returned to finish off the board; the four-five finishers returned to finish second and third in easier spots. Maybe race VETOED exits is not as good as the fig? Second preference nonetheless. ENCROACHMENT, a 4yo first-time starter, posted a series of fast works for his overdue debut.

RACE TWO

Eight-win veteran FLY TO MARS returns from a three-month layoff with a habit of firing fresh and DMR back class (Cal-bred stakes winner, G2 runner-up in 2018). His tactical speed allows him to adapt to any pace scenario. Flavien Prat has ridden 'MARS 10 times: six wins and two seconds. IAN GLASS goes sprint to route first start off the claim. He has won routing, and the anti-speed bias this summer has tempered. Only one of the first 29 turf miles was won by the pacesetter, but from mid-August through last weekend, 4 of 14 turf miles were won by the pacesetter. 'GLASS is likely to make the lead. SOUTHERN HORSE drops from allowance to claiming and will be rolling late.

RACE THREE

KA'NAH must overcome the inside post, but with TOOK CHARGE and AUGUSTA MELODY potentially duking it out on the front end, the race could set up perfectly. KA'NAH moves up in class to starter allowance after a creditable runner-up finish in a $25k claiming N2L sprint, and also benefits by the extra half-furlong of this 6.5f race. TOOK CHARGE dueled outside and finished second while more than six clear of third in a fine comeback at this class level. But he may face pressure from the outside by front-running shipper AUGUST MELODY. Both speedsters are contenders, but unproven beyond 6f and with a possibly challenging pace scenario.

Del Mar Bottom Line

RACE FOUR

ALLABOUTTHEMONEY drops from maiden-40 to maiden-20 for the first time. Now that he has a recent race over the track, facing easier at the lowest level of his career, with the top figures, the seven-start maiden should be favored. Whether or not he can be trusted is another matter entirely. CANT STOP THIS MAN returns to dirt, which clearly is his preferred footing. His thirds in April-June sprints at 7f make him a win candidate in this maiden-claiming mile. DA KINE returns from a layoff of more than a year as a first-time gelding running long on dirt for the first time. His turf-route form puts him in the hunt.

RACE FIVE

Michael McCarthy trainees MORAZ and QUEEN GODDESS enter this N1X turf route with winning credentials. Graded-placed MORAZ gets the nod over maiden turf winner QUEEN GODDESS. This is the first start for MORAZ since she finished 11th in the Kentucky Oaks; it also is her first on turf. But her pedigree okays the surface switch, and while this could very well be nothing more than a prep, the three-time graded-placed filly is the most accomplished in the field. Meanwhile, QUEEN GODDESS is on her way up. Debut runner-up, solid maiden winner last out, she has a condition edge over her stablemate. But this is the third start of the meet for GODDESS, who did not have much behind her winning the maiden race. Yet she is proven on turf, in sharp form and a logical threat. FI FI PHAROAH is a Cal-bred stakes winner by American Pharoah, trying grass for the first time. Her closing style should be more effective this surface.

RACE SIX

ROCK N RYE only had three runners behind him when he won the four-runner Graduation Stakes for Cal-breds last out, but he ran faster than any of his rivals winning his last two starts (maiden, stakes). He has speed, he won the stake from slightly off, and worked well since. Potential stand-out. THIRSTY ALWAYS was in tough in a Grade 2 last out; he pressed and faded to fourth. But his decisive Cal-bred stakes win two back at Pleasanton compares favorably to the top choice. The top pair both are trained by Walther Solis, bred and owned in partnership by Terry Lovinger, both sired by hot Cal-bred stallion Stay Thirsty. ZUBOSHI, a filly who entered the Generous Portion Stakes on Friday, would be a pace factor. MOOSE MITCHELL gets a monumental rider switch to Prat after a runner-up finish last out in a maiden race.

RACE SEVEN

BUZZ OF NEW YORK and SOMMER DAISY both ran well in their respective U.S. debuts, finishing second and third. NEW YORK ran her final quarter-mile in :23.12 to miss by a length; DAISY ran her final five-sixteenths in :29.71 and missed by two. Both fillies should win soon, one this time and the other next time at Santa Anita. FLORAL ESSENCE, in the money all four starts, finished second last out behind race-5 allowance contender Queen Goddess.

Del Mar Bottom Line

RACE EIGHT

CHARGE CASH drops from $50k claiming to $20k claiming, shortens from seven furlongs to six, and figures for a pressing trip in a race without serious heat. The one to beat with a up-front/pressing trip. DIVA'S FINALE steamrolled similar 3yo claiming rivals last out, carrying his speed one mile around two turns. He also is a capable sprinter. GATOR SHINING has been facing better, albeit on turf. He adds blinkers, drops in class and changes footing. If he reproduces his turf form on dirt, he can be right there.

RACE NINE

Based on her N2X crusher opening weekend in a productive race at this nine-furlong distance, GOING TO VEGAS can handle the class hike to Grade 2. She won the allowance by more than three lengths; the second-, third- and sixth-place finishers returned to win. 'VEGAS is a graded winner, she has tactical speed, a finishing kick, and could get a great trip positioned right behind the speed. She can win if she holds off the rally of MAXIM RATE, a modest third last out in a G2. Arguably the "class" of the field based on a G1 win two back at this distance, 'RATE will be rolling late in a race likely to unfold at a legitimate pace. 'RATE did not have a particularly great trip last time. She was bogged in traffic on the far turn, had to wait for room, but finished willingly. BODHICITTA finished okay for fourth last out, rallying from last. Second start back from a layoff, graded winner over the DMR course last year, stretch-runner BODHICITTA benefits by the pace scenario. DOGTAG figures as one of the favorites based on her runner-up finish last out in a G2.

RACE TEN

Sharp works by good-looking $1.5 million juvenile CORNICHE stamps the Quality Road colt a likely winner first time out at five and one-half furlongs. He is bred for longer (dam a six-time graded route winner), but CORNICHE is quick. He worked one furlong in 10 seconds at the sale; impressive works continued this summer at DMR. This is only his career debut against maidens, but expectations are extremely high for the Baffert trainee. BREAKFAST RIDE, sired by Distorted Humor and a sibling to G1 winners Overanalyze and Meadow Breeze, appears to have worked well. First-time starter DANCING RINCA is by the outstanding first-crop sire Practical Joke, whose progeny are 10-for-28 first time out.

RACE ELEVEN

At a mile and one-eighth on turf, the G2 Del Mar Derby is perfect for stakes winner HUDSON RIDGE, back-to-back winner at this distance before finishing third across the wire last out at a mile and a sixteenth. His tactical speed gives him a better chance at a clean trip in this 14-horse field. NO FOOLERY HERE enters with a longshot chance, also due to his affinity for a mile and one-eighth. He won a maiden race at the distance two back, then missed by a head as a 39-1 outsider in the one-mile Oceanside Stakes on opening day. He skipped the La Jolla Stakes to aim specifically to this race, and will be rolling late. SWORD ZORRO, first across the wire in the La Jolla but disqualified for interference and placed third, finished close to the top choice two back and will rally late. Tough post (13 of 14) for 'ZORRO and stablemate CREW CRAGON (post 12). Entry-level allowance winner last out, 'DRAGON might be better than his form indicates. He tends to pull himself up when he makes the front. ZOFFARELLI won the La Jolla via disqualification in U.S. debut. The challenge is to avoid the Euro-bounce second start back.
