WHERE THE TURF MEETS THE SURF

Del Mar racetrack opened its doors on July 3, 1937. Since then it's become West Coast racing's summer destination where avid fans and newcomers to the sport enjoy the beauty and excitement of Thoroughbred racing in a gorgeous seaside setting. Since 2014 the shore oval also has offered a fall session dubbed the "Bing Crosby Season" in honor of the track's founder.

BEST BET: RACE 7, DANDY MAN SHINES

RACE ONE

Opening day Del Mar autumn meet, first post 12:30. Kentucky shipper LEOPARDESS drops from allowance to $25k claiming N2L. This is the first time she has run for a claim tag; every other entrant in this field has already lost for a tag. LEOPARDESS will be ridden by Flavien Prat, leading rider at the 2022 DMR fall meet. Prat returns for fall 2023 with a slew of live mounts opening day (top selections races 1, 3, 4, 5). KATERINI enters with a potential pace advantage. This field is light on speed; she could have an easy time of it on the front end. Her last three turf routes produced three runner-up finishes. One mile seems like a reach. Her stablemate VIOLET STORM stretches back out from a sprint and could apply pace pressure.

RACE TWO

Gradually improving 2yo HALO UNCLE missed by a nose last out in a similar Cal-bred maiden-50; the winner finished second next out in a $175k stakes. 'UNCLE ran well over the DMR track in summer, and can reel them in from off the pace. First-time starter EDDIE'S WAVE debuts against a relatively shallow bunch. His dam produced eight runners, three won first time out. THIRSTY THURSDAY, runner-up here two months ago, returns as a first-time gelding for a new trainer. FACT OR FICTION is speed on the rail. He could vie for favoritism, and he certainly will vie for the early lead.

RACE THREE

The traditional pick six ($1 minimum) returns to Del Mar: 70-30 payoff split and no single-ticket jackpot. This allowance turf sprint for 2yo fillies is the opening leg of the sequence. JULIAS DREAM (Prat) returns to the DMR course on which she dazzled in summer. She won by more than five lengths with a huge figure, then cracked in a G1 on dirt. Freshened since, working well, returns to preferred footing, obvious choice. THERMAL put it all together in the third start of her career, switching to turf and scoring a decisive front-running victory. The light bulb went on, the highly regarded filly shortens from six furlongs to five as a top contender. APRIL VINTAGE, third against boys in a turf sprint stakes last out, was pre-entered in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint but did not make the cut. She is back with fillies, dropping to N1X, and drew outside her main rivals. Stakes winner BECKY'S DREAM adds speed.

Del Mar Bottom Line

RACE FOUR

COACH PRIME (Prat) and BARTHOLDY top this predictable race that is run once every autumn. Favorites crossed the wire first six of the last eight dirt routes for 2yo maidens at this meet. COACH PRIME has something his main rival does not. That is, experience around two turns. 'PRIME pressed a fast pace in his debut at a mile on turf, briefly made the lead into the lane, then got collared and finished third. Promising debut, sharp works on dirt since, the $1.7 million colt is the one to beat. BARTHOLDY showed promise in his third-place debut in a sprint. He raced greenly, dropped back on the turn, then re-rallied and finished evenly. Solid debut, he should move up a ton second out. AMERICAN FLYER did improve in his second start; he finished third while improving his figure 25 points. He is headed the right direction, while COLORADO CRUISER stretches out with a pair of sprints under his belt. Upset candidate?

RACE FIVE

PINEHURST (Prat) drops from maiden special-weight to maiden-50 after a better-than -looked U.S. debut. The pace was slow, PINEHURST ran his final three-eighths in a strong :35.08 while making his first start in more than a year. With a class drop second start back, he can mow them down. ST IGNACIO is a 10-start maiden with five runner-up finishes including a pair on the DMR turf in summer. He finished three-quarters of a length in front of the top choice last out. He will roll late, also. SMOOTH SALUTE, gelded before his most recent start, drops for the first time into a maiden-claiming race after five futile tries vs. MSW rivals. He adds blinkers, and figures to be positioned in front of the top pair. AUTOLINE misfired with a tough trip last out, but fits off his fourth-place finish two starts back over the DMR turf. That race was won by Dandy Man Shines, the choice to win the $75k Let It Ride Stakes (race 7).

RACE SIX

WISHTHEYALLCOULDBE, three-time winner at this Cal-bred N1X level, looks tough again. She likes the DMR surface (two wins, two seconds), her last-out win was flattered when the third-place finisher returned to win a state-bred turf sprint. The sharp 'ALLCOULDBE goes first off the claim, in a field with pace to run at. Obvious choice, at corresponding low odds. BELLA RENELLA ran like she needed the start two weeks ago; she merely ran around the track and finished fifth. That was her first start in four months; her runaway wins in June at Santa Anita make her a fitting alternative to the top-choice favorite. SCARY FAST RIDE looked good crushing maidens by nearly five lengths; she will be on top of the speed. LADY MARYANN will rally late. The last time she faced the top choice over this racetrack, she missed by only a neck.

Del Mar Bottom Line

RACE SEVEN

Late-developing DANDY MAN SHINES can win this stake for 3yo turf milers if he reproduces his smashing maiden victory over the DMR turf two months ago. He ran his final quarter in a quick 23 seconds, his fast time for the mile was 1:34.57, he earned an 87 Beyer and won clear making his first start in seven months. The win was validated when the third- and fifth-place finishers won next out. Although the maiden win by 'SHINES was his eighth start, it was not a fluke. He has been well-regarded since he was imported from Europe in 2022, running in a pair of 2yo stakes and facing good maidens that winter. He was gelded in January, took seven months off, and returned as a new horse with the impressive maiden win. He's had two months between starts, and can fire right back. AH JEEZ stretches out and drops after taking a shot in a G2 sprint vs. older. Although his two-turn ability is uncertain, both U.S. wins were on the DMR turf (sprints); his third in the one-mile Oceanside Stakes at DMR in summer puts him in the hunt. Lightly raced CAMILO is a shipper from Kentucky, up in class off a sharp comeback sprint win on synthetic. He ran well finishing second in a maiden turf route in spring; this is only his fourth start. Produced by a Group 2-winning mare, CAMILO has upside. SMART MO has been compromised by several troubled trips. He might be better than his recent starts indicate.

RACE EIGHT

There is no guarantee LONESOME STEW will carry his speed two turns, but based on his 91-Beyer maiden sprint, he must be considered the one to beat in this starter allowance dirt mile. In his Cal-bred maiden-claiming comeback, he shot to the lead and ran away by more than six with a huge figure while "ridden out." The speed of the speed, they will have to catch him to beat him. Sired by Grazen, 'STEW was produced by a sprint dam whose seven winning foals all are sprinters. Tepid choice, nonetheless. If the stretch-out falters, anything goes. NOKIE looms a potential upsetter, second start following a layoff of more than five months. He was rated early, finished willingly for sixth, and galloped out with run after the wire. The fifth- and seventh-place finishers returned to win next time out. ZE'BUL fits on numbers, but dirt is a question. His best races are turf. BENDETTIOJOE stretched out crushed maiden-20s by open lengths. He has found his niche around two turns. MIDNIGHT FURY goes long for the first time and will influence the pace.

For just the third time in history, the Breeders' Cup will return to scenic Del Mar, "where the turf meets the surf," for the 2024 World Championships. On Nov 1 and 2, fans from around the world will gather to witness the best horses, trainers, owners, breeders, and jockeys compete in 14 races for the title of world champion.
