

Race #6

#8 Warrenscrytalized - Fair odds 3/1

#10 My Monet - Fair odds 7/2

#7 Little Bit Lucky - Fair odds 7/2

Exacta: Box 7,8,10

Warrenscrytalized was pretty impressive coming from off the pace to win in her debut in June down the hillside turf course at Santa Anita, earning an 84 Equibase Figure that bears a lot of improvement in her 2nd career start, the filly flattered when the 3rd finisher improved to win her next start and with Talamo riding back.

My Monet won the first two starts of her career in March and April, both sprints, then ran poorly in 2 routes, so cutting back to one turn could be the key to big form reversal.

Little Bit Lucky finished 2nd at the level when last seen on 6/19, the winner of that race having come back to win again and with HOT Desormeaux riding back she's got every right to follow in that winner's footsteps to get the job done here.
